

GOSSIP OF THE THEATRES.

"THERE AND BACK" A BIG SUCCESS AT THE PRINCESS.

And Charles G. Evans' Friends Have Helped to Make It—Why This Piece of George Arliss Is Not a Problem Play—Manager Brady Wants to Ret 1100.

Popularity has its drawbacks. Charles G. Evans, who is known to the major portion of American theatregoers as "Charlie," has found his popularity embarrassing.

Incidental music to Ibsen's "Vikings" has been written by Martin Shaw, a pupil of Villiers-Standford. There is a prelude to each of the four acts and incidental music, the latter consisting of processional music for the banquet, storm music and a song for Orm.

The Brooklyn Society for the Prevention of Girls is very much opposed to the new style of chorus girls, and declares that "squares" are not in season, and therefore the gaming ordinance is being violated.

Announcement of a Club to Continue Them Made at the Last of the Series.

The final concert of the series known as the People's Symphony Concerts took place last night in the large hall of Cooper Institute.

Speaking of runs Manager W. C. Brady wishes to wager $100 that the box office receipts of "There and Back" during Holy week exceeded two out of the four successful shows mentioned in THE SUN of April 18. Here's a chance for disputation.

There is a Masterlink "boom" in London. The reviews, weeklies, dailies, contain articles, gossip and criticism about the dramatist and his wife, Gerorgette Leblanc.

Clever Max Beerholm (how he must despise the words "clever" and "brilliant," when he dies they will spill these two vocables over his remains) has been visiting "Everyman."

Michael Morton will come over here on behalf of Beerholm Tree to confer with David Belasco on the production of "The Darling of the Gods" at His Majesty's.

PIANOLA RECITAL

Aeolian Hall

TO-DAY, WEDNESDAY, April 22, at 3 P. M. (No Cards of Admission Necessary.) SOLOIST, Miss BESSIE BONSALE, Contralto.

Mr. FRANK TAFT, at the Organ. Mr. CH. C. PARKYN, at the Pianola.

Miss Bessie Bonsale, Contralto, will sing two songs rarely heard in public, the first of which, "Improvisation" by Massenet, is a troubadour's serenade—spirited and fancy-free.

The Pianola will interpret the Finale from Chopin's Sonata in B minor, Op. 58, which in content is comparable to a steed of Pegasus riding on the wind, throbbing and pulsing in brilliant rhythm and glowing with that fire and spirit truly Chopinesque.

PROGRAM: Sonata in C minor..... Mendelssohn AEOLIAN PIPE ORGAN. Finale from Sonata in B Minor..... Chopin PIANOLA.

sound placed between them and the audience by the vigorous orchestra. Standing back in the chancel of the church, with arches on either side and vaulted ceiling overhead, the chorus could project into the body of the church only a portion of its tone, while the orchestra, seated in front of the chancel, made their voices vibrate. Mr. Warren will have to subdue his musicians next time.
