PLASMON COCOA

55 Per Cent. Plasmon

Ordinary Cocos are too heavy and indigestible. Plasmon Cocoa is pleasant to the palate, soothing to the digestive system and exceptionally nourishing.

Ask your grocer or druggist for it. In cans, 15 cts. and 25 cts.

Plasmon is a cream-colored powdered album, essentially extracted from pure, sweet milk. The staying power that it gives me is great.

A Reflection of Early Colonial Days

is beautifully emphasized in our reproductions of some fine old pieces. Mahogany in the glory of its beautiful shading suggests the touch of the old craftsman to a faithful degree in the Post Beds, the Chests of Drawers, the Highboys, Sideboards and Closets—all individual for a sense of fine proportion and perfect handicraft.

with its graceful curved supports, its banister back, with quaintly contrived steps rising from a rear projection, its odd saddle seat—the very spirit of simple picturesque mahogany. $8.00; extra high back, $12.00.

It is only former drawback was inferiority of material and finish—that, we have overcome. In Weathered Oak, $8.75; extra high back, $12.50—they harmonize with the most luxurious of modern furnishings. Light wood Rockers with reed seats, $1.50—especially suitable for the piazza.

It is time to think of such novel comforts for the summer season is not far off so prompt!

NOSIDEWALK ORDINANCES NOW ALDERMEN SUSPEND THEM. AT THE MAYOR'S INSTANCE.

Hearings to be held on modernized ordinances touching sidewalk obstructions—Proposed Also to License Newsdealers' Portable Stands, One to a Block

Mayor Low sent a letter to the Aldermen yesterday asking that the ordinances relating to sidewalk encumbrances be suspended until new ordinances in keeping with present-day conditions can be framed.

The Mayor's action was taken upon the recommendation of Police Commissioner Greene, who suggested that there should be a thirty or sixty-day suspension of the sidewalk ordinance, and that in the meantime the Aldermen should hold public hearings for the purpose of getting ideas which would enable them to draw a new and comprehensive ordinance which would conserve the rights of pedestrians without unduly harassing the merchants and storekeepers of the city. The Aldermen decided to suspend the ordinance for sixty days.

Another resolution which came up at the meeting, bearing on the same subject, was one intended for the relief of the street newsdealers. Alderman Sullivan offered an ordinance permitting portable stands for the sale of newspapers on the curbs with the consent of the opposite property owners and of the Alderman of the district. The measure provided that only one stand should be allowed on a block; that permits should be issued to individuals and not to corporations; and that an annual license fee of $5 be charged. Alderman Sullivan tried to rush the matter through, but as Alderman Maloney objected it had to lie over a week.

Capt. Piper, Deputy Commissioner of Police, was present while these matters were being discussed. He told Borough President Connor and others with whom he talked that Commissioner Greene had resolved to insist upon the enforcement of all ordinances so long as they remained on the books. Capt. Piper said that the Commissioner's object was to put an end to the system, so long followed, of leaving to the police any discretion as to what municipal laws should be obeyed and what should not. It was for that reason, Capt. Piper explained, that the Commissioner was anxious that ordinances should be passed enabling the department to deal intelligently, and without hardship to any one, with sidewalk obstructions.

Harvard Concession for A. M. Degree.
CAMBRIDGE, Mass., April 28.—The faculty of arts and sciences of Harvard University has made certain changes in the requirements for the degree of master of arts, according to which graduates of colleges and scientific schools of good standing will be hereafter admitted to the degree on substantially the same conditions as Harvard bachelors of arts. The practice that has hitherto prevailed of raising candidates from other colleges in terms of the Harvard degree of bachelor of arts will be abandoned.

CAREFUL CARPET CLEANING CO.

TO SIGN ABATTOIR BILL.

Mayor First Gets a Promise From the Butcher's Association.

Mayor Low will sign the bill empowering the Health Commissioner to permit the building of a slaughter house at Eleventh avenue and Thirty-ninth street. He vetoed a mandatory bill to the same end. The present bill provides that the Health Commissioner (who has once refused to issue such a permit) may now, if he chooses, issue a license revocable at any time.

There was considerable opposition to the measure, especially from representatives of the Women's Health Protective Association. In consenting to sign the bill the Mayor extracted an assurance from the Butcher's Association that the slaughter house will be removed outside the city limits if at any time before the expiration of the ten-year period, which is prescribed for the maximum life of the license, other slaughter houses in the city are abolished.
