

TO LONDON, FROM THERE TO MUNICH AND TO DRESDEN.

Mr. Adams tells that several times while in Europe he suffered attacks of mental aberration, awakening to find himself in strange places and circumstances. He says that he wandered around in the world he knows not where, and finally found himself in New Zealand.

MRS. ADAMS SUPPORTING HERSELF AND CHILDREN.

The wife of the Rev. Mr. Adams was seen at Chappaqua, New York county, yesterday by a New York reporter. She admitted that she had received a letter from her husband, Mr. Adams, in New Zealand, and that she had written him without income or funds. Although used to a life of comfort, she accepted the means offered by her husband's family. She hired the country and started a boarding house at Chappaqua.

Mr. Adams went away without one word of warning, said Mrs. Adams. The day he sailed he wrote a letter to her, and she received it in New York. He did not give the letter to the public because he hoped the matter would be explained in the letter. He was going away and she would never see him again. This almost killed her little girl, but she recovered.

In all these months he has never written to any of the children, nor to me directly, but through my friend, to whom Mr. Adams addressed the letter, a note saying that he was innocent of the suspicion cast upon him, and that he would return to die, facing his enemies. But he did not explain or excuse in any way this strange absence which has lasted nearly a year.

Mrs. Adams does not believe the reports of her husband's extreme illness, although she thinks he is suffering from nervous trouble. She said: "In his letter he said that he would return to this country, work for support for the four children. This is what his duty should dictate, but I am willing to work and provide for my four little ones. Mr. Adams showed a deep emotion in speaking of her children. 'Oh, when I look at them,' she said, 'I cannot understand their father's act. He often said to me, 'If I had you like any one of them, I would feel rich.'"

When asked if Mr. Adams referred in his letter to her having threatened divorce a year ago, Mrs. Adams replied: "No, I never threatened divorce. I am a Catholic and in my church I believe in divorce, but besides I would have endured almost anything for the sake of my children. I did not threaten a divorce, but I did lead for an understanding with my husband. I did implore him to give up associations which have in the past caused so much pain to all. I have understood the matter, but through I was misjudged and accused of jealousy exerted my every influence to avert the impending evil."

"Would you consider a reconciliation if Mr. Adams returned?" Mrs. Adams was asked. "If he can prove that, as he declares in his letter, he has not seen that girl since he left New York last summer, I would forgive him," she said. "On the 14th of August, the last day she was seen by her friend, she wrote a letter dated on that day, in which she begged to her sister in which she said that she was unhappy and that she was going away forever. This was the last heard of her. Quilly or innocent I am sorry for."

The last work done by Mr. Adams prior to his disappearance, was a pamphlet written in the form of an autobiography and picturing his career, his temperament and environment, entitled "The Br of My Client or the People. A Story of Trial and Exile."

In this pamphlet Mr. Adams attempted to justify unlawful loss of property, and wrongs as the result of the very nature of things, but as free as the birds and bees. This was published privately at the time. Mr. Adams' family and church officials endeavored to recall the entire issue, and there are now only a few of them in existence.

The "Br of My Client or the People," referred to her as the child, and said she was a mystic, a dreamer, a poet, a musician, an idealist. Mrs. Adams believes that her husband had planned to go away before he wrote the pamphlet.

HIS LIFE—A CONVERT TO CATHOLICISM.

Mr. Adams is about 48 years old. He was born in Cuba, and lived in New York, Hartford, and for a time had charge of several New England Protestant Episcopal churches.

In 1886 he was first assistant to the Rev. Morgan Dix of Trinity and three years later was called to St. Paul's, Buffalo, at a salary of $8,000 a year. The Rev. Mr. Adams, a wealthy one, was not satisfied with Mr. Adams because he made a special appeal to the poor to come to the church, which they did.

Suddenly he resigned. He came to New York and took charge of the Church of the Redeemer at the second street and Park avenue, which was $8,000 in debt. He salary was $7,000 a year, which he later divided with the second street church. Mr. Adams introduced a new idea, and the Rev. Mr. Adams announced that he would teach the faith which the entire Church held before Rome added to it or Protestantism substituted for it.

Then it was announced that a wealthy member of the parish had settled upon Mr. Adams an annuity of $10,000 a year, and of $100,000 a year. The name of the giver was not given, although Mrs. William Arnold, widow of William Arnold, father of Richard Arnold of Arnold, Constable & Co., was mentioned.

This was followed by Father Adams building a house at Green Bay, N. Y., and a mass was to be said once a year for the repose of a certain soul.

In 1885, in a letter to the public, the Rev. Mr. Adams announced that he had become a Roman Catholic. He was baptized with six other converts by Bishop Gordon of Kingston, Jamaica.

A year later Mrs. Arnold joined the Roman Catholic Church. The Rev. Mr. Adams at once became popular as a lecturer and writer. He travelled all over the country, giving lectures on the life and exploits of the Knights of Columbus, and his effective delivery, brilliancy of description, versatility and wit, made him much sought after.

For two years before his disappearance he lectured at the Catholic summer school at Green Bay, Wis., and before that he lectured at the Catholic summer school near Plattsburg, N. Y.

HIS BROTHER BELIEVES HIS STORY. The Charles Frederick Adams said yesterday that he knew nothing of his brother's disappearance since Henry left home last August except what he had learned through an old friend of Henry's, who had received a letter a short time ago from Henry in New Zealand.

In this letter Mr. Adams referred very strongly to the "damnable lies" which he said he had learned were being circulated about him at home, and declared his intention of coming home as soon as he was able to face his enemies.

"I judged from the tone of the letter," said Mr. Adams, "that Henry had recovered his mental poise, though he spoke of being completely broken down in health. He was no longer his wandering and aimless self, but his recollection of the months since he left home. He spoke of having waked up in New Zealand, and referred to the nightmare he had been through."

MUCH DEPENDS ON RUSSIA.

HER SECRET PLAN THE MAIN FACTOR IN GENERAL CRISIS.

No More Sneers at America's "White Slave" Diplomacy—Its Effectiveness Gains Recognition—Restoration of Bulgarian Cabinet Adds to the Danger.

SPECIAL CABLE DISPATCH TO THE SUN.

LONDON, May 16.—No definite indication has come as yet of what the effect will be of the important recent developments in the complicated situation, which is best described as a general political crisis. There is not the slightest sign of what Russia will do in the Far East, and it is impossible to estimate how serious will be the spread of the Balkan troubles. The American position, which is reflected in three telegrams from Washington, that Great Britain has made some secret deal with Russia whereby the latter will retain Manchuria, finds no echo in English public opinion. On the other hand, it would be resented more strongly than any mistake of foreign policy that the Government could submit to such conditions.

The position taken by the American Government in regard to the enforcement of Russia's pledges in Manchuria has the heartiest support in this country, officially as well as popularly. Sneers are no longer heard in England or on the Continent against the American diplomacy of which America is the chief exponent.

The wholesome discovery has been made that there is one nation which will not tolerate deception or evasion of pledges by any Power with which it has dealings. Certain countries, even the greatest, have been weak enough to submit to impositions which they dreaded the danger of enforcing their simple rights. This has so encouraged one or two Powers to profit by chicanery that they actually feel aggrieved when called to account.

It is safe to prophesy that the United States will not be compelled to draw the sword in support of the demand for the execution of Russia's plain pledges in regard to Manchuria. It may be asserted with equal confidence that America will secure the promised trade rights in that province only with infinite difficulty and by stern and repeated insistence. There will be no genuine evacuation of Manchuria by the time being the policy of bluff. It is probable that she will presently make a virtuously indignant declaration in regard to the open door at all ports, but her "open door" will be found with bars across it in the shape of sanitary regulations, customs rules, etc., which will make trading impracticable.

The resignation of the Bulgarian Cabinet raises another serious difficulty for Russia in the Balkan situation. The Danef Ministry has acted virtually under Russian orders. It has certainly shown great skill in holding the population well in check, although the population is overwhelmingly in favor of open cooperation with the Macedonian insurgents. Prince Ferdinand whose position is most difficult, is consulting the leaders of the Stambouloff party, which strongly resents Russian domination.

It would not be possible to aver for a long while that the breach between Turkey and Bulgaria, with such a Ministry in power Russia declares that she would not raise a finger in behalf of Bulgaria under such circumstances.

It is certain that she would not allow the Sultan to annex the province if it conquered it, certainly would do. The present situation in Macedonia, Bulgaria and Turkey is well intolerable, and unless the strain is quickly relieved serious bloodshed cannot be avoided.

The decisive element in the crisis is Russia's secret design, and as said at the beginning there is nothing to indicate what this may be. It is possible that Russia herself does not know. The distracting conditions of her internal affairs may give her pause. The massacre of the Jews, which was without effectual interference, seems to be regarded by the Government as a convenient escape valve for popular passions, which might otherwise explode in insurrection.

WANTS JOB IF HE SURRENDERS.

Ladron's Offer to Gov. Taft Is Emphatically Rejected.

Special Cable Dispatch to the Sun. MANILA, May 16.—Senor Gomez, the president of the Nationalist party and leader of the Workingmen's Union, who was accused some time ago of giving aid to the bandits who are still fighting against the authorities, made an offer to Gov. Taft to surrender. He offered to give up the arms and the money he had collected, and to be appointed to an office by the Government. The Governor emphatically refused to entertain the proposition. He stated that if Guillermo surrendered he must do so unconditionally.

The inhabitants, who had armed themselves for the purpose of protecting the convent, were driven off by the troops at the point of the bayonet. Numerous arrests were made.

THE NEW GERMAN TARIFF.

SPECIAL CABLE DISPATCH TO THE SUN. BERLIN, May 16.—A committee of customs officials is in session here preparing a list of commodities which are to be subject to the new German tariff. The leading principle of the new tariff will be that every importer must supply an accurate declaration of the goods. This, as well as the taxing, has hitherto been in the hands of the officials. A new class of specially-instructed customs officials is now being called into existence in order properly to handle the new tariff.

FRANCE MAY ABANDON NEWFOUNDLAND SHORE.

SPECIAL CABLE DISPATCH TO THE SUN. PARIS, May 16.—The people of Brittany are excited over rumors that the Government is about to abandon the French Shore in Newfoundland to Great Britain in exchange for certain islands in Gambia, Western Africa. The Breton fishermen say that they will be ruined if the Newfoundland fisheries are closed.

KING EDWARD PLANS NEW CRUISE.

HEAVY LOSS ON TELEGRAPH.

British System Doesn't Pay Interest on Purchase Price—Employees' Demands.

SPECIAL CABLE DISPATCH TO THE SUN. LONDON, May 16.—A statement of the income and expenditures of the telegraph system since the Post Office Department took it over in 1870, shows that for the first two years the revenue paid the interest on the purchase money. In no single year since has it been sufficient to cover the interest charge. The deficiency in the year 1872 was £110,000. This has steadily increased, until last year it was £250,740.

The major portion of the deficiency was due to the heavy charge for salaries, which is yearly growing more rapidly than the increase in the revenue. A few years ago a committee was appointed to investigate the condition of the Post Office employees. They made liberal recommendations in regard to an increase in wages. These were carried out at an immediate cost of £200,000 annually.

Fresh demands are now being put forward and will be a matter of debate in the House of Commons. Mr. Austen Chamberlain, the Postmaster-General, wants to submit the demands to a committee of business men. The employees object to this, and are anxious to have the matter go before the Committee of the House of Commons. They know that they can by their votes bring pressure to bear on members of Parliament in their favor. This is one of the very grounds on which John Burns, the socialist leader in the House of Commons, recently attacked the Government's disfranchisement of all Government employees.

WANT TO BAR OUT CHINESE.

South Africans Protest Against Importation of Asiatic Labor.

SPECIAL CABLE DISPATCH TO THE SUN. PRETORIA, May 16.—A meeting was held last night to protest against the importation of Chinese labor into the Transvaal. The hall was packed with citizens. A resolution was adopted declaring that the Government should check the present influx of Asiatics and preserve South Africa as a white man's country. The chairman, Mr. Lovell, said that the British Government should form themselves into a strong political army against the powerful capitalists who the Briton and Boer alike had joined hands in resisting.

The second of the resolution, Mr. Greenlee referring to the admission made by Sir Godfrey Lagden, the British Resident in the Transvaal, that there was no knowing the number of blacks as no census had been taken, said that there were probably 5,000,000 natives south of the Zambesi, of whom 800,000 were sturdy men. If every man took his turn there would not be these were enough laborers in South Africa for all purposes.

A speaker named Mather declared, amid howls, that 15,000 indenture forms to bring in Asiatics were now in the hands of the printers.

JEWELS STOLEN IN LONDON.

Lordlard Theft Is Now Credited to American Crooks.

SPECIAL CABLE DISPATCH TO THE SUN. LONDON, May 16.—It has been ascertained that the jewels of Mrs. Pierre Lorillard which were supposed to have been stolen while she was in London, were taken after she reached the Berkeley Hotel. In addition to the jewels, which were valued at $40,000, the thieves secured papers which were worth several thousands of pounds sterling.

A number of men who are now believed to be notorious in London, the British Resident followed Mrs. Lorillard from place to place for weeks, beginning on the Riviera. The police have good descriptions of two of them who stayed at the same hotels as Mrs. Lorillard in Mentone and Paris. It is believed that they are Americans, but so far they have not been identified.

Milliken of New York. The chief one was a large Corot entitled "Saint Sebastian," which was formerly in the Des Fossees collection. It brought £2,800 guineas.

The sale included the dispersal of the collection of Hamilton Bruce of Edinburgh, chiefly of the Dutch and Barbizon schools. The features were works by the brothers James and Matthew Maris, "Rotterdam," by James, bought 2,900 guineas, and "Loading the Boat," by Matthew, 1,500 guineas. A famous little picture, "He Is Coming," brought 1,900 guineas. This collection included some small Corots, one of which, called "A Ruined Castle," brought £1,100.

"English ladies have forgotten how to blush. Many hardly know their own children."—Father Ignatius.

"I profoundly distrust the current creed that the property of one man is the property of another."—The Duke of Devonshire.

"Make a mistake in legislation, yes, it can be corrected; make a mistake in your imperial policy, and it is irrevocable."—Colonial Secretary Chamberlain.

KAISER DISLIKES WAR CHIEF.

Gives Von Gossler Leave of Absence and Names Von Klemm to Act.

SPECIAL CABLE DISPATCH TO THE SUN. BERLIN, May 16.—The Emperor is reported to be angry with Gen. von Einem to act as Minister of War in place of Gen. von Gossler, who has a three-month leave of absence. It is believed that Gen. von Gossler has fallen a victim to the Kaiser's personal dislike because of his habit of making high military officials and a long time ago, two confidants, a zebra and a kangaroo. There was aboard a black horse for the Barnum & Bailey show.

ANTARCTIC SHIP FROZEN IN.

EIGHT MILES OF ICE BETWEEN DISCOVERY AND OPEN SEA.

Attempt Will Be Made to Blast a Way Out, but the Ship May Be Abandoned.

SPECIAL CABLE DISPATCH TO THE SUN. LONDON, May 16.—The full official report of Capt. Scott of the British Antarctic ship Discovery has not been received, but it is already clear that the vessel is in serious difficulty and her abandonment is a contingency which must be contemplated. Eight miles of ice separate her from the open sea. Nothing can be done at present, but in January or a little earlier blasting operations on a gigantic scale will be commenced. It will be a severe task.

Sir Clements Markham, President of the Royal Geographical Society, has congratulated as he was carefully tutored in his methods before he started. Nevertheless two miles of blasting that was done by Sir Clements Markham in the Arctic is the most that has hitherto been accomplished.

Dr. Kautlitz, the surgeon of the Discovery, disposes of any doubts as to the quality of the food stuffs aboard. He says he personally examined every can that was opened and ordered some thrown overboard. In some cases it was not possible to detect the taint. The doctor has no doubt that this caused the outbreak of scurvy.

The Discovery entered the Southern ice zone Dec. 22. The vessel was kept under way until March 24 of the following year, when winter quarters were established near Mount Erebus and Terror. The Discovery was frozen in on Dec. 22 to 23 degrees 17 minutes, the farthest south ever recorded. The relief ship Morning reached the Discovery in January of this year, and brought back the news of the party's work.

BRIDGE WHIST SCANDALS.

Movement Started to Stop the Gambling Among Women in London Society.

SPECIAL CABLE DISPATCH TO THE SUN. LONDON, May 16.—A movement is being started to stop the gambling which has resulted in a good many scandals at country house parties and in the London clubs. One of the most striking features of these stories which from time to time go the rounds, is the frequency with which women's names appear in them. Young and old, married and single members of society have been bitten by the craze of gambling in this fashionable game. The troubles arising from it have grown so frequent as to distress some hostesses.

Among these is the Duchess of Portland, who refuses to allow her guests to gamble, and she has agreed only to admit of betting for nominal stakes, such as a shilling a hundred. Now there is a movement on foot to establish a women's league which will direct its efforts to persuade well-known hostesses to prevent gambling in their own houses among women guests, especially girls.

The Bishop of Guildford, has approached several influential women, including Lady Frederick Bruce, with a view to holding a meeting at an early date to discuss the subject.

CHINESE FEAR FRANCE.

Governor of Kwang-Si Complains of Presence of Troops on Border.

SPECIAL CABLE DISPATCH TO THE SUN. PEKING, May 16.—The Governor of Kwang-Si has complained to the Chinese authorities here about the presence of a large number of French troops on the southern border of that province. This complaint shows that French interference is really feared by the Chinese. Recently the French Consul in Kwang-Si appealed to M. Dubail, the French Minister here, for a guard of soldiers. The Minister refused to grant the request, saying his Government did not intend to move troops across the border.

MEN WAITERS AT WOMEN'S HOTEL.

The Hotel Martha Washington at 29 West Twenty-ninth street, which started out a few months ago as a hotel exclusively for women, has changed from girl to men waiters in one of its two restaurants. The change was made on Wednesday night when discharged lead water took twenty waitresses along with him.

It has been the aim of the hotel managers to keep the hotel as a safe and comfortable place for women. In both restaurants women were employed to serve at the tables, but in the latter restaurant a man was employed as head waiter.

The head waiter, Manager (as he said yesterday), became insolent and neglectful of his duties and was discharged on Wednesday. The twenty waitresses under his charge, who had been employed by him, quit the hotel suffered no inconvenience by the sudden change. The new head waiter lost no time in gathering up twenty waitresses—all men—and they were on hand to serve breakfast on Thursday. The women guests at the hotel said yesterday that the change was a relief, and they were well pleased with the change.

FEDERAL COURT STEPS IN.

Enjoins Ticket Scalpers After the Louisiana Courts Refused to Do So.

NEW ORLEANS, May 16.—Judge Boardman of the United States Circuit Court to-day handed down a decision in the case of the railroad against the ticket scalpers, granting the railroad the injunction they asked. The railroads represented that they were about to bring to New Orleans at grossly reduced rates 150,000 people to attend the Confederate reunion, which begins on next Tuesday, and asked that the ticket scalpers be prohibited from dealing in these tickets.

Judge Boardman granted the injunction and as it is too late to secure an appeal the scalpers will be shut out of the State District courts were asked for injunctions, but refused them.

STATIONER POST OFFICE REBID.

A robbery was committed in the post office at Stapleton, Staten Island, on Friday night. About $100 in cash was taken from a drawer, but the safe was not disturbed. The thief seems to have entered the post office by the front door, and a policeman is supposed to be not further than a block away from the building at all hours of the night.

MILD CLOSURE IN THE SENATE.

Senators Say a Rule Applying to Appropriations Will Be Adopted.

PORT WATNE, Ind., May 16.—Senator Foraker, at a dinner given by the bar association here last night, spoke briefly on the subject of closure in the Senate, saying that a rule would be adopted at the approaching session, but it would apply only to appropriation bills. To permit the passage of laws through legislation under the closure rule, would, he said, subvert the purpose of the Senate, which was to provide a check against any action which does not represent the sober second thought of the people. He said that no measure that the people really wanted to pass had ever failed by reason of the lack of closure in the Senate.

BEACH TROUBLE IN OYSTER BAY.

Statement by Mr. Leonard Jacob Regarding the Town's Attack on East Beach.

OYSTER BAY, May 16.—Anxiety in the town of Oyster Bay, caused by the Sheriff's desecration of the property held by Mr. Jacob of Glen Cove has by no means been allayed since the last overt act of seizure. Without considering the nature of the case, which is a property case, the Sheriff has invaded, everybody sees that no man's property is safe under the rule illustrated by the case of Oyster Bay. The Town Board has been able to secure the services of a sheriff, county officers, whose business it is to keep the peace and has directed these county officers to keep the peace on the beach and tear down Mr. Jacob's fence. Come to Nordrach A PLACE OF REST

Wouldn't you like to get rid of your dyspepsia, become unconscious of your overworked organs a rest and put on flesh? In short, wouldn't you like to become entirely well in a place which is as homelike and cheerful and as invigorating as pure air,
