CHURCH MAN ACCUSED.

G. W. Carey, Christian Endeavorer, Charged With Forgery and Embezzlement.
BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Dec. 4.—Church circles throughout the county, particularly in Stratford, were greatly surprised to-day at the charges made against Attorney George W. Carey, against whom disbarment proceedings were instituted by the grievance committee of the Fairfield county bar, who allege forgery, perjury and embezzlement. Mr. Carey, it is alleged, has dissipated the funds of several estates of which he was trustee. There is said to be a shortage in his accounts of many thousand dollars. Mr. Carey is president of the Christian Endeavor Union of Bridgeport, is active in the Epworth League and has held the office of president of the Union of Leagues, included in the New York East Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and was a Sunday school teacher in the Stratford Methodist Episcopal Church. Through his recent activity in the prosecution of the Stratford druggist who sold whiskey after hours, Mr. Carey gained the sobriquet of the "Conservator of Stratford's morals." Among Mr. Carey's creditors are the pastor of his church, the Rev. Royal W. Raymond, and his uncle, A. W. Burritt. Mr. Carey has an office in Bridgeport, and his clients here and in Stratford and at Milford are on the anxious seat. It is said that Carey speculated in stocks.

CARRIED WOMAN THROUGH FIRE

Policeman Grabbed Mrs. Graber as She Was About to Jump to the Street.
Fire started at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon in a four story building at 878 Eighth avenue, owned by Alvis Morgenthaler, who has a restaurant on the ground floor. The second and third floors are rented out as furnished rooms. Mrs. Mary Graber lives on the top floor.
The fire started on the third floor in a room occupied by John Hall. Mrs. Graber picked up her twenty-months-old child and ran through the smoke filled hallway to the street. Leaving her child in the care of a neighbor, she ran back to get some money and jewelry.
When she started to return the flames had spread to the hallway. She went to a window, and was about to jump to the sidewalk, when Policeman Kenny of the West Forty-seventh street station ran up and grabbed her.
Wrapping a towel over Mrs. Graber's face, he carried her through the fire and smoke to the street. He was slightly burned in doing so. The damage by the fire was trifling.

To Build a Home for Aged Heiresses.

The Daughters of Jacob will hold a fair in the Grand Central Palace on Dec. 15 and 16, to raise money to build a home for the aged men and women who are under their care. For the past seven years the order has maintained quarters for unfortunate men and women over 60 years of age, where they could spend their declining years in comfort. The fair will be formally set in motion by Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall. The guest of honor the closing night will be Mayor-elect McClellan.

Marines Sent to Washington.

A detachment of 120 marines left the navy yard in Brooklyn for Washington yesterday morning. At the yard it was said that the men were sent under orders received on Thursday, but it was not known just whether they were to be sent to Washington. Some of the officers thought that the marines would eventually go to Panama.

PAST performances warrant us in promising that the form of our Suits and Overcoats will please the most fastidious taste. Ready, here, in splendid variety, and not a single "also ran" among them. Overcoats $15-$60.

Englishwoman Says Relatives Deserted Her and Her Aged Father.

Miss Sophia Austin of Shoreham, Sussex county, England, applied to Supt. Merwin of the Outdoor Poor Bureau yesterday for deportation for herself and her aged father, John Austin, back to England. She said that they came to this country on June 20 with $200, at the urging of her sister, Mrs. George Parsenson, who then lived in Mount Vernon. They all lived together at Mount Vernon, and on Aug. 1, according to Miss Austin, she gave her brother-in-law $400 to start in the publishing business at 41 West Twenty-fourth street. He afterward failed. A week ago they all moved to 39 West 120th street, and on the same day Mr. and Mrs. Parsenson suddenly left. They telegraphed later from Buffalo that they would soon return. Miss Austin says. After waiting until to-day, and being threatened with a dispossess notice, Miss Austin appealed for help. Her father is sick in bed with paralysis. They will probably be deported.

TUGS CRASH; ONE SINKS.

The Jesse Russell Reaches a Dock Just in Time to Put Her Crew Ashore.
The tug F. Arnot and Jesse Russell were making for the Jersey Central pier at Communipaw just after daybreak yesterday morning when for some reason, which the pilots have not yet explained, the Arnot crashed into the Russell, staying a big hole in her quarter. George Sheldon one of the latter's deckhands, was knocked overboard. Mason Cook of the Arnot's crew, jumped in after him and held him up till both were pulled aboard. The Jesse Russell reached the Jersey Central slip and sank a moment after the last man had stepped ashore. The F. Arnot's bow was badly splintered.
On Tuesday the tug Hercules smashed into the tug Idlewild off Liberty Island, and three of the latter's crew were drowned.

W. L. DOUGLAS $3.50 SHOE

AMERICA LEADS THE SHOE FASHIONS OF THE WORLD.
The leading styles originate in Brooklyn, the manufacturing center of men's fine shoes in this country. Styles Originated by My Expert Model Maker are Copied Everywhere.
W. L. Douglas $3.50 shoes have by their excellent style, easy-fitting and superior wearing qualities, achieved the largest sale of any $3.50 shoe in the world. They are just as good as those that cost you $5 to $7—the only difference is the price. If I could take you into my factory at Brooklyn, Mass., the largest in the world under one roof making men's fine shoes, and show you the infinite care with which every pair of Douglas shoes is made, you would realize why W. L. Douglas $3.50 shoes are the best shoes produced anywhere.
If I could show you the difference between the shoes made in my factory and those of other makers, you would understand why Douglas $3.50 shoes cost more to make, why they hold their shape, fit better, wear longer, and are of greater intrinsic value than any other $3.50 shoe in the market to-day.

There is a great difference between wholesale and retail prices in shoes. You pay only one profit on shoes made in my factory and sold direct to you through my own stores in the principal cities. The result is, you get better shoes for the price than are retailed elsewhere. My own secret process of tanning the bottom soles produces more flexible and longer wearing leather than any other tannage.
Corona Colt is the highest grade patent leather made. That Douglas uses it proves there is a value in Douglas $3.50 shoes.
First Color Light and Dark Exclusive.

W. L. Douglas High Grade Boys' Shoes $2 and $1.75.

The Wanamaker Store

Good News of Boys' and MEN'S CLOTHING

First is an offering of Men's Fancy Cheviot and Worsted Suits—also a group of Black Cheviot Suits—all of our regular stock, of the present season; but a collection of lines that were broken in sizes. These suits have been selling at $15 to $20; but today they may be had

For $12 a Suit

Which makes very handsome suits cost quite little. All have sack coats, and the suits are made right up to the high WANAMAKER standard.

Want an Overcoat?

Here is one of the best stocks in New York City—splendidly made overcoats, as smart and handsome as though custom made; and all at most reasonable prices.
Good, serviceable Overcoats of Oxford-mixed or black all-wool cheviots, at $10 and $12.
At $15, the best and handsomest Overcoats you'll find anywhere at the price. Other styles, at $20 to $55.

Two Offerings for Boys

A hundred and ten long, warm Top Coats for boys; made of all-wool melton, fancy cheviot and Oxford-mixed frieze; in sizes for 7 to 16 years. Coats that sell regularly at $7, today at $4.50 each.
And a collection of warm, serviceable Reefers for boys of 4 to 12 years; made of fine blue chinchilla, or blue cheviot, lined with red flannel. Regular $6.50 Reefers, today at $5.

Second floor, Fourth Avenue.

The Man's Necktie And Saving Money On It

Here are two excellent ways to buy handsome, stylish Scarfs for Men, at the rate of two for the usual price of one. Whether you're doing Christmas shopping, or a "mere man" buying for yourself, you'll like the refined styles, patterns and colorings:
At 50c, worth $1
French Four-in-hands, from two of the best makers in the business. The newest and handsomest colors and designs that can be found in this season's goods; including many of the popular gray and gun-metal effects. It's only by virtue of large business transactions with these makers that such prices as these come our way.
At 25c, worth 50c
Made from "short ends" of the silks put into 50c scarfs—which doesn't mean that these are skimpy; for they're cut full and ample, in the two-inch four-in-hand style. 8000 scarfs in the lot—all dark grounds with neat colored figures.

Women's Suits, $18

Worth $25 to $35.
Our selling of Women's Tailored Suits last month was phenomenal. We want to keep up the excitement—the is as complete now as a woman can desire. And to add a particular zest to today's business, we offer an interesting group of $25 to $35 Suits at $18 Each
They're a widely varied lot, every one of them fully worth the higher values; and most of them newly reduced today. They are of cheviots, Venetians cloth, tweeds and fancy materials; in three-quarter length blouse or short jacket styles. Many have pretty touches of trimming, others strappings of material; others are plain. A few shirt-waist suits of velveteen are in the lot. Skirts are unlined, and in walking length.

Black Kersey Jackets

At Eleven Dollars
This is the best offering of popular-priced Coats for women that we've made this season. It comprises a group of Black Jackets of standard kersey; either with half-fitted backs, and collarless effect, with collar outlined with rows of stitching; or in corset shape. The coats are 33 inches long, in correct winter weight, lined with guaranteed black satin, and handsomely tailored.
Splendid coats, each of them worth $15 to $18, at Eleven Dollars Each

Men's Derby Hats

$1 and $1.75
The $1.75 Hats are what you'd pay $3 for, in quality of fur, trimmings, workmanship and block, if we bought and sold them in the regular way. All black, in the newest of the season's shapes—made up specially for us on blocks of our choosing. Guaranteed as to color and wearing quality. $3 Hats for $1.75 each.
The $1 hats are our regular this-season's $3 Brown Derbies, all good blocks, now at this closing-out price—one-third of their value.
Hat-news worth taking advantage of.
