

DILLONITES ON THE WAR PATH.

WILL KNOCK HARD AT AGAR'S CONVENTION HALL TO-DAY.

Can the Peep-Pull Stand for This Champagne Democrat When the Good Old Beer Variety is Left, the Hon. Mike Asks—Focus Your Eyes on Mamaroneck.

New Rochelle, March 30.—This afternoon the Hon. Michael J. Dillon, the William S. Devery of New Rochelle, will go to Mamaroneck on a train of specially decorated and provisioned trolleys, care being taken to knock at the door of the Second Assembly district Democratic convention.

No tribune of the peep-pull, with a properly furnished and appointed host, can sit idly by when any such crew of silk stocking aristocrats as that which now assumes to run New Rochelle Democracy remains in power.

So at the head of the Hon. Mike's procession to Mamaroneck to-morrow will fly a banner with this strange device:

Down With Agar, the Champagne Democrat—Three Cheers for Dillon and Beer!

The news that Mr. Dillon contemplates a descent upon the Mamaroneck convention will not be welcome to Mr. Agar and those who are associated with him in upholding the Democratic party in New Rochelle.

Everybody around New Rochelle knows Mike Dillon. He was for years Mayor of New Rochelle. The majority agreed with him. He grew fat in body and in estate.

He hated the rich, especially the corporations, and he made them love him. It is told among the forces of Agar that a few days ago the Hon. Mr. Walsh, ex-Mayor of Yonkers, and a Democratic State committee member, met Mr. Dillon in the third parlor of the Vanderbilt Hotel in Forty-second street.

Mr. Dillon neither drinks nor smokes. His only form of relaxation is that induced by hot air. He was sitting near a steam radiator, indulging in this mild form of dissipation, when Mr. Walsh entered. The sympathies of Mr. Walsh in the recent Democratic dissensions in New Rochelle have been with Mr. Agar.

To Mr. Dillon this seemed not only unkind, but a violation of the first principles of friendship. When Mr. Walsh uttered the words "I am glad to see you," Mr. Dillon greeted him with strong words and incoherence.

For two hours the language flowed like champagne at the Dillon Sullivan picnic. In the course of it Mr. Dillon actually grew indignant. He told a lot of things about Mr. Walsh, but he never turned a hair.

Mr. Dillon has always been frank in explaining his political shenanigans. "He was talking to an editor who had aggravated him not long ago."

"Now, here," he said, "you're in the newspaper business. You know what that means. I'm in politics for. Incidentally, I try to do good to all the people. Now, see, how this works. To make money out of your newspaper, you have to have a press and a lot of type and power and all that. And you try to make product out of a sort of a sort that will pay a profit, but of a sort that will do the most good."

"All right! Now my machine is my voters. I have to get just so many men who will vote for me. I have to have my orders anywhere and everywhere. That's my machine. Now will you tell me where you are better than I am? What do you have to do to turn your nose up at me? Ain't we both working the same way with different tools?"

Among Mr. Agar's followers this story is told either with horror and scandalized accents or with humorous academic toleration. It is very painful to these men that Mr. Dillon should be so frank in explaining his political shenanigans.

It was during this retirement of Mr. Dillon from the political arena that Mr. Agar, who is a member of the Reform Club of the City of New York, was elected to take the place of Mr. Dillon in the Democratic party in New Rochelle.

Mr. Agar and his friends sent out notices of primaries. Mr. Dillon went around among his dependents and told them to laugh at the notices.

"I don't care," he said. "We were enrolled long before this fellow was on earth. Let 'em hold their primaries and we'll show 'em."

When the primaries came along Mr. Agar and the other silk stocking upstarts refused to let any one who had not enrolled when the primaries were first called to vote. About twenty-nine Democrats voted in Mr. Dillon's first primary. Mr. Dillon held one in his barn and announced the day that there had been 500 voters in his barn and read Agar out of the party.

with the pressed breeches and all his kind. I'm willing to do my part.

"There's nothing in it for me, but I want the peep-pull to assert their rights. If a hundred of you who are elected duty across the street here to-night (I'll read the names later) will go over there with me, I'll provide a brass band and we'll make a grand old holder, whether they let us in or not."

After the meeting there was a feast of ten kinds of beef, fifty pounds of head-cheese, 100 pounds of Bologna, three buckets of pickled tripe and 500 ham sandwiches.

WARD NOT EXECUTIVE CHAIRMAN

Says So After Seeing Odell—Jerome and Odell Talked Shipyard Trust.

When Gov. Odell reached town yesterday afternoon he found waiting for him at the Fifth Avenue Hotel Charles H. Murray, the chairman of the Republican county committee, and several district leaders who were his supporters in this city.

He had a long conference with those men and afterward had talks with Congressman Lucius N. Littauer and William L. Ward. After his talk with the Governor Mr. Ward said that he was not a candidate for chairman of the State executive committee to succeed William Barrow, Jr.

Regarding his conference with the district leader the Governor would say nothing except that he had been talking over general conditions. Asked if there was anything in the report that it was his intention to put back John McCullagh's Superintendents of Elections in place of Mr. Morgan, he replied that that was a subject upon which he had absolutely nothing to say.

He said that in the event of Mr. Morgan's nomination he would support him. "I have said that I merely discussed the matter and that is all that there is to be said."

At the funeral of Mrs. Woodruff, Gov. Odell will have a conference with the officials of the Republican county committee, and the twenty-two delegates to the State convention from this city will be selected by him to save the local conventions any trouble.

WALSH, FISKE AND FLEMING

Will Represent the First District Westchester in State Convention.

YONKERS, March 30.—The Democrats of the First Assembly district of Westchester county held their convention in this city to-night and selected Michael J. Walsh of Yonkers, Edwin W. Fiske of Mount Vernon and James J. Fleming of Yonkers delegates to the State convention.

The convention was unanimous in its choice. Ringing resolutions were passed endorsing State Committee member Walsh for reelection. To-morrow at 3 o'clock the Second Assembly district convention will be held at the hotel Mr. Dillon greeted him with strong words and incoherence.

For two hours the language flowed like champagne at the Dillon Sullivan picnic. In the course of it Mr. Dillon actually grew indignant. He told a lot of things about Mr. Walsh, but he never turned a hair.

Mr. Dillon has always been frank in explaining his political shenanigans. "He was talking to an editor who had aggravated him not long ago."

"Now, here," he said, "you're in the newspaper business. You know what that means. I'm in politics for. Incidentally, I try to do good to all the people. Now, see, how this works. To make money out of your newspaper, you have to have a press and a lot of type and power and all that. And you try to make product out of a sort of a sort that will pay a profit, but of a sort that will do the most good."

"All right! Now my machine is my voters. I have to get just so many men who will vote for me. I have to have my orders anywhere and everywhere. That's my machine. Now will you tell me where you are better than I am? What do you have to do to turn your nose up at me? Ain't we both working the same way with different tools?"

Among Mr. Agar's followers this story is told either with horror and scandalized accents or with humorous academic toleration. It is very painful to these men that Mr. Dillon should be so frank in explaining his political shenanigans.

It was during this retirement of Mr. Dillon from the political arena that Mr. Agar, who is a member of the Reform Club of the City of New York, was elected to take the place of Mr. Dillon in the Democratic party in New Rochelle.

Mr. Agar and his friends sent out notices of primaries. Mr. Dillon went around among his dependents and told them to laugh at the notices.

"I don't care," he said. "We were enrolled long before this fellow was on earth. Let 'em hold their primaries and we'll show 'em."

When the primaries came along Mr. Agar and the other silk stocking upstarts refused to let any one who had not enrolled when the primaries were first called to vote. About twenty-nine Democrats voted in Mr. Dillon's first primary. Mr. Dillon held one in his barn and announced the day that there had been 500 voters in his barn and read Agar out of the party.

Mr. Agar didn't go. When the municipal convention came, Dillon was thrown out. Mr. Agar got up and tried to shake hands with Dillon as he was retiring. Dillon haughtily drew back.

His hands with no ingrates or pirates," he said with magnificent scorn. Mr. Dillon nominated himself. Mr. Agar nominated Mr. Banks and the Republicans nominated Mr. Clarke, who had come into power at the time Mr. Dillon was thrown out by the Grand Jury. Mr. Clarke was elected again. Mr. Dillon polled 300 votes, which would have enabled him to elect Mr. Banks if Mr. Dillon had kept out of the race.

PRIMARY BLOW TO VAN COTT

FOR ROOSEVELT IF NOMINATED. Words That Caused a Row in an Erie County Republican Convention.

BUFFALO, March 30.—There was a lively row this morning at the Thirty-sixth Congress district Republican convention when resolutions were introduced endorsing President Roosevelt and commending his administration incidental to pledging the delegates to support the President in his efforts to be nominated at the Chicago convention next June. The resolution was concluded with the following clause:

"His nomination at Chicago will be deeply gratifying, and in that event we pledge him our hearty support, believing that his election will be for the highest interests of the nation and the welfare of the people."

"Some of the delegates wanted the words 'in that event' stricken from this clause on the ground that these words, if allowed to stand, would indicate doubt on the part of the delegates as to whether President Roosevelt would be nominated. But the party whip was brought into play after the resolution had been adopted and some of the delegates were ejected by the unanimous adoption of the resolution, including the objectionable phrase."

The delegates elected in the Thirty-sixth district to the national convention were: State Commissioner William C. Warren and Deputy State Comptroller Clark H. Timmerman. In the Thirty-fifth district State Committeemen John Grimm, Jr., and Charles Meier were elected.

MURPHY IS NOT TALKING.

Intimates Say He Will Keep Up His Fight for an Uninstructed Delegation.

Charles F. Murphy evaded yesterday all efforts to learn from him whether or not the result of the primaries up the State would induce him to recede from the attitude he has taken so far in favor of an uninstructed delegation to St. Louis. Mr. Murphy remained in his house all day and refused to see callers.

At the Democratic Club last night men who are so close to him as to be able to speak with authority said that while Mr. Murphy could not be induced to recede, he would insist upon consideration being given to the large percentage of Democratic voters in the State below the Harlem he would doubtless obey the majority vote of the State convention.

SLUTHS PLANS WENT WRONG.

Girl Decey Chloroformed and Operated on While They Waited Her Signal.

Dr. George H. Dolbeck of 111 East Twenty-eighth street was arrested yesterday at 212 West Forty-third street, after he had performed a criminal operation on Gussie Hubbs.

County Detectives Reardon and O'Shea were concealed in a closet where they could see the preparations for the operation. But through an error in the signals they failed to discover themselves until Dolbeck had completed his work.

The woman who was employed by the New York State Medical Association to secure the evidence against Dolbeck acted under instructions from James T. Lewis, counsel for the association. She finally got into the room through a window which was open in her room.

Dr. Dolbeck was arrested later in the room and taken to the police station. He was held in a cell until he had been furnished with a $5,000 bond.

Dr. Dolbeck was arrested later in the room and taken to the police station. He was held in a cell until he had been furnished with a $5,000 bond.

"G. LEWIS," FINANCIER.

His Check Transaction Is of Interest to a Brooklyn Trust Company.

Some Brooklyn people would be glad to see a man who, when he appeared in that borough about a week ago, said that he was George Lewis of Denver and that he was bent upon opening an Eastern office of the "Lewis Manufacturing Company" in Denver.

He paid for his office rent and for stationery with a check on the trust company, and on Saturday got the clerk of the Hotel George to cash a check for $25. Meanwhile the Denver bank from which the certified check purported to come had branded it worthless.

When the office boy and a bank messenger approached the corner where Mr. "Lewis" was waiting for the money they were seen and recognized, and the Denverite disappeared in the crowd.

EX-GOV. SCHENCK A CANDIDATE FOR VICE-PRESIDENT.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Ex-Gov. Schenck of Wisconsin, who has been in Washington several days consulting with the President and the Republicans on the Wisconsin delegation, has returned home and will soon announce his candidacy for the office of Vice-President. He feels assured of the support of the Wisconsin delegates, and thinks he may get the endorsement of Pennsylvania and other States as well.

M'CARREN ON DOYLE'S VICTORY.

"I Never Go Into Post Mortems," He Said, When Asked About It.

ALBANY, March 30.—Senator P. H. McCarren returned to Albany to-day. Asked about his defeat by Deputy Fire Commissioner Doyle in the Brooklyn primary yesterday, he said: "I never go into post mortems."

Likely to Instruct for Parker.

Primaries for the election of 202 delegates to the Democratic State convention, at which delegates to the national convention will be elected, will be held in Hudson county on April 8. The polls will be open from 7 until 9 P. M.

INDIANA FOR PARKER.

So the State Committeemen Report in a Party Conference.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 30.—The leading Democratic politicians of the State were here to-day to attend a meeting of the State Central Committee, called to fix a date for the State Convention and to receive a report regarding county reorganization.

Chairman O'Brien reported that every county in the State had selected a campaign chairman and had put its committee in working order, and that the Democrats are more confident than they have been since 1892.

It was determined to call a convention for May 12, to select delegates to St. Louis. It was conceded that the only real solid delegation to St. Louis for Judge Parker. Seven of the thirteen committeemen said there is no sentiment whatever for Hearst in their districts, and others said while there was some it was not formidable enough to make a contest for delegates.

Indiana will be for Parker and will present the name of former Congressman B. F. Shively for Vice-President. It is there should be any sentiment for him outside of this State.

MORE PARKER DELEGATES.

Fulton-Hamilton and Columbia Counties Fall Into Line.

HUDSON, March 30.—At the Columbia county Democratic convention held here to-day resolutions were unanimously adopted endorsing the candidacy of Judge Parker for President.

The delegates to the Albany assembly were: Frank Holsapple of Hudson, J. Van Ness Philip of Chaverack and James Elliott of Chatham.

JOHNSTOWN, March 30.—Eugene D. Scribner of Gloversville was in complete control of the Fulton-Hamilton assembly district, and the Fulton county Democratic convention held in Johnstown this afternoon.

Mr. Scribner, long the leader of the Murphy faction of the Democracy in Fulton county, was completely ignored. He made no fight for control of the convention, but desired recognition, which was refused by Scribner, long the leader of the Murphy faction of the Democracy in Fulton county, was completely ignored.

He made no fight for control of the convention, but desired recognition, which was refused by Scribner, long the leader of the Murphy faction of the Democracy in Fulton county, was completely ignored.

He made no fight for control of the convention, but desired recognition, which was refused by Scribner, long the leader of the Murphy faction of the Democracy in Fulton county, was completely ignored.

He made no fight for control of the convention, but desired recognition, which was refused by Scribner, long the leader of the Murphy faction of the Democracy in Fulton county, was completely ignored.

He made no fight for control of the convention, but desired recognition, which was refused by Scribner, long the leader of the Murphy faction of the Democracy in Fulton county, was completely ignored.

He made no fight for control of the convention, but desired recognition, which was refused by Scribner, long the leader of the Murphy faction of the Democracy in Fulton county, was completely ignored.

He made no fight for control of the convention, but desired recognition, which was refused by Scribner, long the leader of the Murphy faction of the Democracy in Fulton county, was completely ignored.

He made no fight for control of the convention, but desired recognition, which was refused by Scribner, long the leader of the Murphy faction of the Democracy in Fulton county, was completely ignored.

He made no fight for control of the convention, but desired recognition, which was refused by Scribner, long the leader of the Murphy faction of the Democracy in Fulton county, was completely ignored.

He made no fight for control of the convention, but desired recognition, which was refused by Scribner, long the leader of the Murphy faction of the Democracy in Fulton county, was completely ignored.

He made no fight for control of the convention, but desired recognition, which was refused by Scribner, long the leader of the Murphy faction of the Democracy in Fulton county, was completely ignored.

He made no fight for control of the convention, but desired recognition, which was refused by Scribner, long the leader of the Murphy faction of the Democracy in Fulton county, was completely ignored.

He made no fight for control of the convention, but desired recognition, which was refused by Scribner, long the leader of the Murphy faction of the Democracy in Fulton county, was completely ignored.

"First Over The Bars" advertisement featuring an illustration of a man on a horse jumping over a fence. Text includes: "Over the bars leaps the steed, Over the bars will he fly, 'Over the Bars' too will speed The favorite—HUNTER RYE."

A. B. HART & FRANK MORA, Representatives, 18 William St., New York City.

STOP LOSS

Telephone Service advertisement. Text includes: "Stop Loss of time and other things by subscribing for Telephone Service. The cost is small—the service is great. New York Telephone Company, 15 Dey Street."

CHINESE BRIDE IN COURT.

LITTLE MOY HUENG ARRESTED, GERRY AGENTS SAY. Her Husband and a Half Breed Chinese Woman Arrested. They Say the Little Woman is 19 and Has Been Engaged to a Man Who is 30 and is a Week Old.

Investigating a report that young girls had been imported into Chinatown, Agents Pizzara and King of the Gerry society got news on Tuesday of a wedding celebration that aroused their suspicions.

Through a stool pigeon they got a report that the bride, a Chinese girl, was but 12 years old and had been kidnapped from her home in Boston and sold for $500 to Lee Hoy, who has a tailor shop at 13 Mott street.

Hoy and Josephine Toy, a half breed Chinese woman living at 43 Mott street, were arrested on a charge of abduction, and were arraigned yesterday in the Tombs court.

They insisted that the bride was 19 years old, but despite their protestations they were held in $2,000 bail each for examination to-morrow.

The Toy woman said in court that she went to Boston on March 20, and brought the child to this city. Preparations were immediately made for her marriage to Hoy, and on Monday night the little Chinese girl, attached to the Marines' Church in Oliver street, performed the ceremony.

Both Hoy and Mrs. Toy denied the abduction story, and said the girl had been engaged to Hoy since she was three weeks old and that her marriage was only the carrying out of the contract made in China between the parents.

Little Moy Hueng was taken before Justice Olmsted in the Children's Court, where her arraignment made a sensation. She is a beauty of the Chinese type, with feet small enough to indicate a high social rank.

When she was brought before him, the Justice blinked. "Chinese honey-moon smash," replied Officer Pizzara.

"Oh, isn't she beautiful?" exclaimed one of the women missionaries. "I tried it ever saw. Gayest rage I ever understood, and dropping her head to one side, smiled coyly at her admirers. One of the ladies knelt down by the bench and, taking one of Moy's tiny hands, asked if she spoke English. The only answer was a ripple of Chinese, while Moy studied the emerald tipped toe of her shoe."

"Any fool can make an assertion or a claim to cure. It takes a man of science and of wide practice to first PROVE his claims and then FULFILL them. I CAN DO IT—I AM doing it daily, and I PROVE IT. If you want such proofs before entrusting that most delicate and complicated of all organs to the first man who advertises in a newspaper, write to me or call and see me. I have 500 living, breathing, honest proofs in this City alone, where I have practised for twenty years, and thousands of others in every State. Satisfy yourself FIRST, and I will cure you afterwards, whether it be Lost Manhood, Blood Poison, Drains and Losses, Sexual Neurasthenia, Varicocele, Hydrocele, or Stricture. I am hitting straight out from the shoulder. I mean every word I say, and I stand ready to prove it by OTHERS first, and UPON YOU afterwards. Send for Absolute Proofs, to-day. They are sent sealed and without marks. Hours, 10-12, 2-4, 7-9 P. M. Sunday, 2-5 P. M. DR. H. H. KANE, 138 West 34th Street, New York."

Suits and Top Coats FOR YOUNG MEN advertisement. Text includes: "An appreciation of relative values develops with a young fellow's years—he learns to realize the value, from a business and social view-point, of the character and individuality which a Saks suit or top coat defines—the value of the dignity and impressiveness which they reflect upon his personality. Young Men's Top Coats, short box and long models of covert, Venetian, Oxford, vicuna or cheviot. At $10, $12, $15, $18, $20. Young Men's Rain Coats, of thibet, Scotch cheviot, covert or Venetian cloth, silk lined shoulders, plain or belted back. At $12, $15, $18, $20. Young Men's Single and Double Breasted Suits, of cheviot, homespun, tweed, worsted or serge. At $8.50, $10, $12 to $22.50. Saks & Company, Broadway, 33d to 34th Street."

HORNER'S FURNITURE

SPRING and Summer requirements in Furniture, whether wanted for the town or country house, can nowhere be obtained to such good advantage in the matter of choice and values as at our establishment. Bedroom Suites in bird's-eye maple, birch, oak and mahogany. White Enamelled Bedroom Suites. Brass Bedsteads in newest patterns and styles. Dining-Room Suites in mahogany and all finishes in the Golden, Flemish, Weathered, Fumed, etc.—with Tables, Dining Chairs, China-Closets and Side Tables to match. Exclusive designs in Drawing-Room and Parlor Furniture. Separate department devoted to Mission and Flemish Furniture.

R. J. HORNER & CO., Furniture Makers and Importers, 61, 63, 65 West 23d St.

Blind Lead the Blind advertisement. Text includes: "Quackery and Deceit in the Treatment of Diseases of Men. An Honest Specialist a Rarity. A Competent One Still Rarer. DR. H. H. KANE'S RESULTS. In no branch of medicine is there so much quackery, humbug and dishonesty as in the treatment of DISEASES OF MEN. Patients come to me from every part of the country and complain of having been either poorly or dishonestly treated. I tell them invariably that 'they have themselves to blame,' and I mean just what I say."

John Jameson Irish Whiskey advertisement. Text includes: "Stimulates and rehabilitates the system with lasting energy and strength. A gentle brain stimulant. 'Levine' was the name on the Hotel Minot Register. A middle aged man, registered as Harry Levine, killed himself with carbolic acid yesterday at the Fortns, 129th street and Eighth avenue. In his pockets were several business cards of Laub Bros., neckwear manufacturers at 126 Greene street. There were also several prescriptions made out by a Dr. Laub, who is absolutely bald and of florid complexion, turned white and nearly fainted at the verdict. (Conlon was accused of retaining the proceeds of a $2,500 note entrusted to him to be discounted. He summed up for himself, talking for more than an hour.)"

John Jameson Irish Whiskey advertisement. Text includes: "The purest and most readily assimilated whiskey in the world—acts upon the normal physique as a food and tonic."

John Jameson Irish Whiskey advertisement. Text includes: "The purest and most readily assimilated whiskey in the world—acts upon the normal physique as a food and tonic."

John Jameson Irish Whiskey advertisement. Text includes: "The purest and most readily assimilated whiskey in the world—acts upon the normal physique as a food and tonic."

John Jameson Irish Whiskey advertisement. Text includes: "The purest and most readily assimilated whiskey in the world—acts upon the normal physique as a food and tonic."

John Jameson Irish Whiskey advertisement. Text includes: "The purest and most readily assimilated whiskey in the world—acts upon the normal physique as a food and tonic."

John Jameson Irish Whiskey advertisement. Text includes: "The purest and most readily assimilated whiskey in the world—acts upon the normal physique as a food and tonic."

John Jameson Irish Whiskey advertisement. Text includes: "The purest and most readily assimilated whiskey in the world—acts upon the normal physique as a food and tonic."

John Jameson Irish Whiskey advertisement. Text includes: "The purest and most readily assimilated whiskey in the world—acts upon the normal physique as a food and tonic."

John Jameson Irish Whiskey advertisement. Text includes: "The purest and most readily assimilated whiskey in the world—acts upon the normal physique as a food and tonic."