

MAJOR PELHAM, 1 TO 5, LOSES

STOPS IN THE STRETCH AND PALETTE BEATS HIM A NOSE.

Two-Horse Event the Incident of the Day at Jamaica—Columbus Stakes for Collector Jessup—Toscan's High-weight Handicap—Four Favorites Win.

In spite of the storm, which turned the track into a sea of sloppy mud and made the stands and betting ring the most uncomfortable places in the world, nearly 5,000 regulars, including several hundred women, went to Jamaica yesterday afternoon.

What turned out to be the most sensational race of the day was the third event, for three-year-olds at six furlongs, which was scratched down to two starters, W. M. Scheffel's Major Pelham, Fuller up, and the Boston Stable's Palette, with H. Callahan in the saddle.

Major Pelham conceded eight pounds to Palette, the former being a prohibitive favorite, 1 to 5. Palette was played by the small bettors at four.

They got away together and raced head and head to the three-furlong pole, where Major Pelham began to draw away. Round in the turn it looked as if the favorite would gallop home an easy winner, but suddenly Fuller went to work, and it was seen that the Major was being rapidly.

The shorter race was the first race, for three-year-olds at six furlongs, which was scratched down to two starters, W. M. Scheffel's Major Pelham, Fuller up, and the Boston Stable's Palette, with H. Callahan in the saddle.

Major Pelham conceded eight pounds to Palette, the former being a prohibitive favorite, 1 to 5. Palette was played by the small bettors at four.

They got away together and raced head and head to the three-furlong pole, where Major Pelham began to draw away.

Round in the turn it looked as if the favorite would gallop home an easy winner, but suddenly Fuller went to work, and it was seen that the Major was being rapidly.

The shorter race was the first race, for three-year-olds at six furlongs, which was scratched down to two starters, W. M. Scheffel's Major Pelham, Fuller up, and the Boston Stable's Palette, with H. Callahan in the saddle.

Major Pelham conceded eight pounds to Palette, the former being a prohibitive favorite, 1 to 5. Palette was played by the small bettors at four.

They got away together and raced head and head to the three-furlong pole, where Major Pelham began to draw away.

Round in the turn it looked as if the favorite would gallop home an easy winner, but suddenly Fuller went to work, and it was seen that the Major was being rapidly.

The shorter race was the first race, for three-year-olds at six furlongs, which was scratched down to two starters, W. M. Scheffel's Major Pelham, Fuller up, and the Boston Stable's Palette, with H. Callahan in the saddle.

Major Pelham conceded eight pounds to Palette, the former being a prohibitive favorite, 1 to 5. Palette was played by the small bettors at four.

They got away together and raced head and head to the three-furlong pole, where Major Pelham began to draw away.

Round in the turn it looked as if the favorite would gallop home an easy winner, but suddenly Fuller went to work, and it was seen that the Major was being rapidly.

The shorter race was the first race, for three-year-olds at six furlongs, which was scratched down to two starters, W. M. Scheffel's Major Pelham, Fuller up, and the Boston Stable's Palette, with H. Callahan in the saddle.

Major Pelham conceded eight pounds to Palette, the former being a prohibitive favorite, 1 to 5. Palette was played by the small bettors at four.

They got away together and raced head and head to the three-furlong pole, where Major Pelham began to draw away.

Round in the turn it looked as if the favorite would gallop home an easy winner, but suddenly Fuller went to work, and it was seen that the Major was being rapidly.

The shorter race was the first race, for three-year-olds at six furlongs, which was scratched down to two starters, W. M. Scheffel's Major Pelham, Fuller up, and the Boston Stable's Palette, with H. Callahan in the saddle.

Major Pelham conceded eight pounds to Palette, the former being a prohibitive favorite, 1 to 5. Palette was played by the small bettors at four.

They got away together and raced head and head to the three-furlong pole, where Major Pelham began to draw away.

NEW THINGS IN FOOTBALL.

Six Men in the Line, and the Value of a Field Goal Reduced.

No changes were finally agreed on at the recent meeting of the Football Rules Committee, but several practical ones were adopted to be confirmed at a meeting in May.

The most important change is that four men in addition to the quarter back may play behind the line. When this is done one of the five backs must play outside, either end of the line.

Another change is that the value of a field goal now is not worth as much as a touchdown. It is now worth only one point, instead of two.

There is also a change in the rules regarding the quarter back. He is now allowed to touch the ball with his hands, but not to throw it.

Another change is that the value of a field goal now is not worth as much as a touchdown. It is now worth only one point, instead of two.

There is also a change in the rules regarding the quarter back. He is now allowed to touch the ball with his hands, but not to throw it.

Another change is that the value of a field goal now is not worth as much as a touchdown. It is now worth only one point, instead of two.

There is also a change in the rules regarding the quarter back. He is now allowed to touch the ball with his hands, but not to throw it.

Another change is that the value of a field goal now is not worth as much as a touchdown. It is now worth only one point, instead of two.

There is also a change in the rules regarding the quarter back. He is now allowed to touch the ball with his hands, but not to throw it.

Another change is that the value of a field goal now is not worth as much as a touchdown. It is now worth only one point, instead of two.

There is also a change in the rules regarding the quarter back. He is now allowed to touch the ball with his hands, but not to throw it.

Another change is that the value of a field goal now is not worth as much as a touchdown. It is now worth only one point, instead of two.

There is also a change in the rules regarding the quarter back. He is now allowed to touch the ball with his hands, but not to throw it.

Another change is that the value of a field goal now is not worth as much as a touchdown. It is now worth only one point, instead of two.

There is also a change in the rules regarding the quarter back. He is now allowed to touch the ball with his hands, but not to throw it.

Another change is that the value of a field goal now is not worth as much as a touchdown. It is now worth only one point, instead of two.

There is also a change in the rules regarding the quarter back. He is now allowed to touch the ball with his hands, but not to throw it.

Another change is that the value of a field goal now is not worth as much as a touchdown. It is now worth only one point, instead of two.

There is also a change in the rules regarding the quarter back. He is now allowed to touch the ball with his hands, but not to throw it.

Another change is that the value of a field goal now is not worth as much as a touchdown. It is now worth only one point, instead of two.

There is also a change in the rules regarding the quarter back. He is now allowed to touch the ball with his hands, but not to throw it.

Another change is that the value of a field goal now is not worth as much as a touchdown. It is now worth only one point, instead of two.

There is also a change in the rules regarding the quarter back. He is now allowed to touch the ball with his hands, but not to throw it.

GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK.

COLLECTOR JESSUP BID UP AND BOUGHT BY J. L. M'GINNIS.

Former Clubhouse Commissioner, Who Won $40,000 With Tribes Hill, Gets a Good Colt—Cormack's Narrow Escape—Hard Day for Jockeys and Horses.

When L. V. Bell's Collector Jessup won $40,000 with Tribes Hill, he was entered to be sold for $1,000, on Monday, at the Metropolitan Opera House.

McGinnis, who ran second with Sweet Alice, bid the Bel Demonic colt up to $32,000 and got him, as Mr. Bell's trainer, J. H. McCormick, declined to protect the colt at that figure.

There was no abatement of interest during the second day of the Horse Fair in Madison Square Garden. The success of the opening day had carried the enterprise beyond experimental stage and made it work during the balance of the week yesterday.

Tribes Hill proved to be more than an ordinary breadwinner, for McGinnis proceeded to back him and he won two races, until it is said that he cleaned up $50,000 on the performances of the Clifford colt alone.

Nowadays, McGinnis has a pretty useful stable, to which Collector Jessup is a valuable addition. He is a shrewd operator and is reported to be worth more than the average turfman.

Jockey Cormack had a narrow escape in the first race yesterday. He had the mount on a horse named Gaviota, which was ridden by Harry Wilson, who had been backed down to five, and running in the middle of the big field.

Four or five horses jumped over the boy, but he scrambled to his feet, and covered with mud from head to foot. He was taken to the paddock in the patrol judge's wagon.

Beyond a few scratches he was unharmed and lost no time in taking the mount on Bath Beach in the second race.

Starter J. G. Smith, who had the reins in good shape yesterday, but in the fifth it was a straggling start, Gaviota being left stock still. The send-off in the last event was even worse, there being a delay of nearly ten minutes before the barrier, which was broken open, was released.

The advocates of the flat-footed start are now pointing to the fact that under the "walk up" system the experienced jockeys have an immense advantage, while the young riders are up against the toughest kind of a proposition.

It was trying for both the crowd and the jockeys yesterday when there were delays at the post. Excess in the highweight handicap race, and although the start was a good one, it was a straggling start, Gaviota being left stock still.

When each race ended the jockeys and horses, except those that had been in front the way, were scrubbed and plastered with mud. The jockeys, moreover, were chattering teeth and then hurried away to the dressing rooms, where they were rubbed down with liniment and rough towels.

Unusual precautions were taken to prevent the jockeys from developing serious illness. One or two of the jockeys wore goggles, but they were not of much service in the mud storm.

The starter, his assistants, the time flagman, and the patrol judge were all geared out in rubber boots and coats, so that they would not get wet when they were really as dry as chips.

Wally Fessenden, who pulled off a killing the other day with Pass Book, invited his Wall Street friends to play the Order zedding game in the fifth race. It is said that the combination of the Order zedding race, forcing the price from a 4 to 1 down to 13 to 5.

Pass Book did not wear blinkers this time and getting the worst of a poor start, he burned up the money in quick order. As he was the substitute for the Order zedding race, forcing the price from a 4 to 1 down to 13 to 5.

Pass Book did not wear blinkers this time and getting the worst of a poor start, he burned up the money in quick order. As he was the substitute for the Order zedding race, forcing the price from a 4 to 1 down to 13 to 5.

Pass Book did not wear blinkers this time and getting the worst of a poor start, he burned up the money in quick order. As he was the substitute for the Order zedding race, forcing the price from a 4 to 1 down to 13 to 5.

Pass Book did not wear blinkers this time and getting the worst of a poor start, he burned up the money in quick order. As he was the substitute for the Order zedding race, forcing the price from a 4 to 1 down to 13 to 5.

Pass Book did not wear blinkers this time and getting the worst of a poor start, he burned up the money in quick order. As he was the substitute for the Order zedding race, forcing the price from a 4 to 1 down to 13 to 5.

Columbia Automobiles TOURING CAR MARK XLII. 30-35 Horsepower. Combines best features of foreign cars...

END OF THE HORSE FAIR.

Racing, Basketball and Polo at the Garden.

There was no abatement of interest during the second day of the Horse Fair in Madison Square Garden. The success of the opening day had carried the enterprise beyond experimental stage and made it work during the balance of the week yesterday.

Tribes Hill proved to be more than an ordinary breadwinner, for McGinnis proceeded to back him and he won two races, until it is said that he cleaned up $50,000 on the performances of the Clifford colt alone.

Nowadays, McGinnis has a pretty useful stable, to which Collector Jessup is a valuable addition. He is a shrewd operator and is reported to be worth more than the average turfman.

Jockey Cormack had a narrow escape in the first race yesterday. He had the mount on a horse named Gaviota, which was ridden by Harry Wilson, who had been backed down to five, and running in the middle of the big field.

Four or five horses jumped over the boy, but he scrambled to his feet, and covered with mud from head to foot. He was taken to the paddock in the patrol judge's wagon.

Beyond a few scratches he was unharmed and lost no time in taking the mount on Bath Beach in the second race.

Starter J. G. Smith, who had the reins in good shape yesterday, but in the fifth it was a straggling start, Gaviota being left stock still. The send-off in the last event was even worse, there being a delay of nearly ten minutes before the barrier, which was broken open, was released.

The advocates of the flat-footed start are now pointing to the fact that under the "walk up" system the experienced jockeys have an immense advantage, while the young riders are up against the toughest kind of a proposition.

It was trying for both the crowd and the jockeys yesterday when there were delays at the post. Excess in the highweight handicap race, and although the start was a good one, it was a straggling start, Gaviota being left stock still.

When each race ended the jockeys and horses, except those that had been in front the way, were scrubbed and plastered with mud. The jockeys, moreover, were chattering teeth and then hurried away to the dressing rooms, where they were rubbed down with liniment and rough towels.

Unusual precautions were taken to prevent the jockeys from developing serious illness. One or two of the jockeys wore goggles, but they were not of much service in the mud storm.

The starter, his assistants, the time flagman, and the patrol judge were all geared out in rubber boots and coats, so that they would not get wet when they were really as dry as chips.

Wally Fessenden, who pulled off a killing the other day with Pass Book, invited his Wall Street friends to play the Order zedding game in the fifth race. It is said that the combination of the Order zedding race, forcing the price from a 4 to 1 down to 13 to 5.

Pass Book did not wear blinkers this time and getting the worst of a poor start, he burned up the money in quick order. As he was the substitute for the Order zedding race, forcing the price from a 4 to 1 down to 13 to 5.

Pass Book did not wear blinkers this time and getting the worst of a poor start, he burned up the money in quick order. As he was the substitute for the Order zedding race, forcing the price from a 4 to 1 down to 13 to 5.

Pass Book did not wear blinkers this time and getting the worst of a poor start, he burned up the money in quick order. As he was the substitute for the Order zedding race, forcing the price from a 4 to 1 down to 13 to 5.

Pass Book did not wear blinkers this time and getting the worst of a poor start, he burned up the money in quick order. As he was the substitute for the Order zedding race, forcing the price from a 4 to 1 down to 13 to 5.

Pass Book did not wear blinkers this time and getting the worst of a poor start, he burned up the money in quick order. As he was the substitute for the Order zedding race, forcing the price from a 4 to 1 down to 13 to 5.

Pass Book did not wear blinkers this time and getting the worst of a poor start, he burned up the money in quick order. As he was the substitute for the Order zedding race, forcing the price from a 4 to 1 down to 13 to 5.

IN THE BASEBALL WORLD.

NEW YORK AMERICANS MOVE UP INTO SECOND PLACE.

Unable to Play; but Defeat of the Chicago Sends the Latter Below Griffith's Team and the Philadelphia—Detroit Wins Only Game Played.

The New Yorks and Philadelphia moved up to second place in the American League yesterday. Rain prevented their game; but the Chicago and Detroit played, and the Chicago lost. Two other American League games were prevented by rain.

Detroit, 5; Chicago, 3.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS. W. L. P. C. Boston, 8 2 800 St. Louis, 4 4 500 New York, 4 4 506 Detroit, 5 5 444 Philadelphia, 6 5 444 Chicago, 6 5 446 Washington, 10 8 300

DETROIT, 5; CHICAGO, 3. (A. L. 3.) DETROIT, April 27.—Chicago defeated by the opening of the series today by a score of 5 to 3. Both Donovan and Flaherty were effective until the eighth inning when Robinson found Flaherty for a three-bagger, driving in three runs. The score was:

CHICAGO. R. H. P. A. E. Holmes, cf., 2 2 0 0 0; Barrett, c, 2 0 1 0 0; Jones, cf., 1 2 0 0 0; Carr, lb., 1 0 8 3 0; Callahan, 2b., 1 0 1 0 1; Robinson, 3b., 1 0 0 0 0; Davis, ss., 0 0 0 0 0; Greiner, 3b., 0 0 1 0 1; Davis, ss., 0 0 0 0 0; Low, 2b., 0 1 4 0 0; Tamm, 1b., 0 1 3 1 0; Woods, c., 0 1 3 0 Sullivan, c., 0 0 2 1 0; Donovan, p., 1 1 1 0 1; Bell, 1b., 0 0 0 0 0. Totals, 5 9 27 24 8.

CHICAGO. R. H. P. A. E. Holmes, cf., 2 2 0 0 0; Barrett, c, 2 0 1 0 0; Jones, cf., 1 2 0 0 0; Carr, lb., 1 0 8 3 0; Callahan, 2b., 1 0 1 0 1; Robinson, 3b., 1 0 0 0 0; Davis, ss., 0 0 0 0 0; Greiner, 3b., 0 0 1 0 1; Davis, ss., 0 0 0 0 0; Low, 2b., 0 1 4 0 0; Tamm, 1b., 0 1 3 1 0; Woods, c., 0 1 3 0 Sullivan, c., 0 0 2 1 0; Donovan, p., 1 1 1 0 1; Bell, 1b., 0 0 0 0 0. Totals, 5 9 27 24 8.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS. W. L. P. C. New York, 7 2 778 Boston, 8 2 520 St. Louis, 4 4 500 Philadelphia, 6 5 444 Chicago, 6 5 446 Washington, 10 8 300

CHICAGO, April 27.—Lundgren pitched a fine game today, and the Reds could not touch him till the ninth inning, when two errors, Cincinnatis threw the game away in the second inning by a ground ball to the pitcher, who had a double play. King sent a grounder to Elliott, who threw far out of Woodruff's reach. Doolin received the ball and threw the score to 3-0. Three runs coming in.

CHICAGO. R. H. P. A. E. Seymour, 2b., 0 1 2 3 0; St. Louis, 4 4 500 Philadelphia, 6 5 444 Chicago, 6 5 446 Washington, 10 8 300

CHICAGO, April 27.—Lundgren pitched a fine game today, and the Reds could not touch him till the ninth inning, when two errors, Cincinnatis threw the game away in the second inning by a ground ball to the pitcher, who had a double play. King sent a grounder to Elliott, who threw far out of Woodruff's reach. Doolin received the ball and threw the score to 3-0. Three runs coming in.

CHICAGO. R. H. P. A. E. Seymour, 2b., 0 1 2 3 0; St. Louis, 4 4 500 Philadelphia, 6 5 444 Chicago, 6 5 446 Washington, 10 8 300

CHICAGO, April 27.—Lundgren pitched a fine game today, and the Reds could not touch him till the ninth inning, when two errors, Cincinnatis threw the game away in the second inning by a ground ball to the pitcher, who had a double play. King sent a grounder to Elliott, who threw far out of Woodruff's reach. Doolin received the ball and threw the score to 3-0. Three runs coming in.

CHICAGO. R. H. P. A. E. Seymour, 2b., 0 1 2 3 0; St. Louis, 4 4 500 Philadelphia, 6 5 444 Chicago, 6 5 446 Washington, 10 8 300

CHICAGO, April 27.—Lundgren pitched a fine game today, and the Reds could not touch him till the ninth inning, when two errors, Cincinnatis threw the game away in the second inning by a ground ball to the pitcher, who had a double play. King sent a grounder to Elliott, who threw far out of Woodruff's reach. Doolin received the ball and threw the score to 3-0. Three runs coming in.

CHICAGO. R. H. P. A. E. Seymour, 2b., 0 1 2 3 0; St. Louis, 4 4 500 Philadelphia, 6 5 444 Chicago, 6 5 446 Washington, 10 8 300

CHICAGO, April 27.—Lundgren pitched a fine game today, and the Reds could not touch him till the ninth inning, when two errors, Cincinnatis threw the game away in the second inning by a ground ball to the pitcher, who had a double play. King sent a grounder to Elliott, who threw far out of Woodruff's reach. Doolin received the ball and threw the score to 3-0. Three runs coming in.

CHICAGO. R. H. P. A. E. Seymour, 2b., 0 1 2 3 0; St. Louis, 4 4 500 Philadelphia, 6 5 444 Chicago, 6 5 446 Washington, 10 8 300

CHICAGO, April 27.—Lundgren pitched a fine game today, and the Reds could not touch him till the ninth inning, when two errors, Cincinnatis threw the game away in the second inning by a ground ball to the pitcher, who had a double play. King sent a grounder to Elliott, who threw far out of Woodruff's reach. Doolin received the ball and threw the score to 3-0. Three runs coming in.

CHICAGO. R. H. P. A. E. Seymour, 2b., 0 1 2 3 0; St. Louis, 4 4 500 Philadelphia, 6 5 444 Chicago, 6 5 446 Washington, 10 8 300

CHICAGO, April 27.—Lundgren pitched a fine game today, and the Reds could not touch him till the ninth inning, when two errors, Cincinnatis threw the game away in the second inning by a ground ball to the pitcher, who had a double play. King sent a grounder to Elliott, who threw far out of Woodruff's reach. Doolin received the ball and threw the score to 3-0. Three runs coming in.

CHICAGO. R. H. P. A. E. Seymour, 2b., 0 1 2 3 0; St. Louis, 4 4 500 Philadelphia, 6 5 444 Chicago, 6 5 446 Washington, 10 8 300

PUBLICATIONS.

The funniest of biographies—

The Memoirs of a Baby

By JOSEPHINE DASKAM With sixty funny pictures by F. Y. Cory. "The memoirs are comical all the way through, but there are parts that are positively irresistible."—Baltimore Herald.

"One reads the tale to laugh at its pervasive humor, delight in its choice sketches of human nature, and fall in love with the baby."—Washington Times.

HARPER & BROTHERS, NEW YORK

PUBLICATIONS.

HORSES AND CARRIAGES.

Case Goes Over Until Next Tuesday—What President Ebbets Says.

When the case of the three baseball players and three programme vendors who were arrested at Washington Park on Sunday for alleged violation of the Sunday laws came up yesterday morning before Magistrate Steers in the Myrtle avenue court, Brooklyn, former Police Commissioner Bernard J. York, counsel for the defendants, asked for an adjournment of the ground that he and his associate, John Montgomery Ward, were engaged in a case in the Supreme Court.

Mr. York said that he and Mr. Ward did not believe that Sunday baseball playing was a violation of the law, and they expected to be able to show that before the case was settled. He also declared that the majority of persons of the community were in favor of baseball playing on Sunday.

District Attorney Clark said that the Court of Appeals had decided that Sunday baseball playing was unlawful. If it were not for a question of discretion on the part of the authorities or representatives of the law, the matter had been determined by the higher court.

Mr. Clark cited two cases in corroboration of his statement. Mr. Ward told Magistrate Steers that the Brooklyn Standard Union had no more Sunday playing at Washington Park until the present cases had been judged.

President Ebbets of the Brooklyn Baseball Club has issued the following statement: "The Brooklyn Baseball Club will not play any more Sunday games in Brooklyn until the court has decided whether or not such games are a violation of the law."

President Ebbets of the Brooklyn Baseball Club has issued the following statement: "The Brooklyn Baseball Club will not play any more Sunday games in Brooklyn until the court has decided whether or not such games are a violation of the law."

President Ebbets of the Brooklyn Baseball Club has issued the following statement: "The Brooklyn Baseball Club will not play any more Sunday games in Brooklyn until the court has decided whether or not such games are a violation of the law."

President Ebbets of the Brooklyn Baseball Club has issued the following statement: "The Brooklyn Baseball Club will not play any more Sunday games in Brooklyn until the court has decided whether or not such games are a violation of the law."

President Ebbets of the Brooklyn Baseball Club has issued the following statement: "The Brooklyn Baseball Club will not play any more Sunday games in Brooklyn until the court has decided whether or not such games are a violation of the law."

President Ebbets of the Brooklyn Baseball Club has issued the following statement: "The Brooklyn Baseball Club will not play any more Sunday games in Brooklyn until the court has decided whether or not such games are a violation of the law."

President Ebbets of the Brooklyn Baseball Club has issued the following statement: "The Brooklyn Baseball Club will not play any more Sunday games in Brooklyn until the court has decided whether or not such games are a violation of the law."

President Ebbets of the Brooklyn Baseball Club has issued the following statement: "The Brooklyn Baseball Club will not play any more Sunday games in Brooklyn until the court has decided whether or not such games are a violation of the law."

President Ebbets of the Brooklyn Baseball Club has issued the following statement: "The Brooklyn Baseball Club will not play any more Sunday games in Brooklyn until the court has decided whether or not such games are a violation of the law."

President Ebbets of the Brooklyn Baseball Club has issued the following statement: "The Brooklyn Baseball Club will not play any more Sunday games in Brooklyn until the court has decided whether or not such games are a violation of the law."

President Ebbets of the Brooklyn Baseball Club has issued the following statement: "The Brooklyn Baseball Club will not play any more Sunday games in Brooklyn until the court has decided whether or not such games are a violation of the law."

President Ebbets of the Brooklyn Baseball Club has issued the following statement: "The Brooklyn Baseball Club will not play any more Sunday games in Brooklyn until the court has decided whether or not such games are a violation of the law."

President Ebbets of the Brooklyn Baseball Club has issued the following statement: "The Brooklyn Baseball Club will not play any more Sunday games in Brooklyn until the court has decided whether or not such games are a violation of the law."

President Ebbets of the Brooklyn Baseball Club has issued the following statement: "The Brooklyn Baseball Club will not play any more Sunday games in Brooklyn until the court has decided whether or not such games are a violation of the law."

President Ebbets of the Brooklyn Baseball Club has issued the following statement: "The Brooklyn Baseball Club will not play any more Sunday games in Brooklyn until the court has decided whether or not such games are a violation of the law."

President Ebbets of the Brooklyn Baseball Club has issued the following statement: "The Brooklyn Baseball Club will not play any more Sunday games in Brooklyn until the court has decided whether or not such games are a violation of the law."

President Ebbets of the Brooklyn Baseball Club has issued the following statement: "The Brooklyn Baseball Club will not play any more Sunday games in Brooklyn until the court has decided whether or not such games are a violation of the law."

Advertisement for GELES'S GOUT AND DYSPEPSIA DRINK, featuring a bottle illustration and text describing its benefits for various ailments.