

ELIAS HOUSE IS BESIEGED.

WOMAN OFFERS TO TELL JEROME ANYTHING SHE KNOWS.

Went Left in Process Servers in the 600's. 000 suit - Aged John R. Platt Remains at Home and is Described as in a Condition That Worries His Family.

Hannah Elias, the negro woman whom John R. Platt is suing to recover the $685,000 suit - Aged John R. Platt Remains at Home and is Described as in a Condition That Worries His Family.

There will be no arrangements made with any lawyers, said Mr. Warren, very emphatically. "This woman has got to appear at the Sheriff's office and give bail, if she wants to be unmolested and remain at liberty. That is the only thing to do. We shall make no arrangements allowing her to do anything."

Every attempt was made yesterday by the process servers to get in. At half hour intervals they rang the bell. Kato, the Japanese servant, opened the door "on the chain," put out his head, and then withdrew it and shut the door.

One of the things Mr. Brauns did yesterday was to call at the District Attorney's office. He wanted to know if any criminal complaint had been lodged against the negro woman, Mr. Jerome and Mr. Rand are away from the District Attorney's office. He couldn't tell him. Then Mr. Brauns wanted to know if the Grand Jury was in session and was told it wouldn't be convened until Monday.

The relatives of Mr. Platt say that they are worried over his condition and about his ability, when the suit comes to trial, to go on the stand. Mr. Lyman Warren, the lawyer for the other side, yesterday, as the earliest date for a trial of the suit, even in the event of a preference granted on account of his age, or for other reasons. Mr. Platt, it was learned yesterday from a member of his family, insisted on going out of the house on Wednesday, although warned not to do so.

Mr. Platt, said a member of the family, "is in a state somewhat bordering on collapse, mentally as well as physically. The kind of such a thing as this, with all the publicity that is brought to bear upon it, is severe upon a young person. Upon a man of his age, and Mr. Platt is beginning to show that strain. His condition, of course, is such as to cause some worry. He is in a bad deal of the time. We think it better that he should remain in the house, and he does himself. He is not under restraint, however, and that cannot be said too plainly."

The person who was sent as an emissary to Isaac Platt, Mr. Platt's brother, by the Elias woman, to remonstrate against his brother's slow payments, is known to the lawyers. She is a woman who is said to have been a confidential companion of the negroess. An attempt will be made to find her.

HELP FOR SHOOTING THREE.

Gustavson's Victims in Critical State in Roosevelt Hospital.

Frank Gustavson, the Swede who on Wednesday night shot his wife, Augusta, her brother, Ike Johnson, and Ellen Benson, all of whom are in Roosevelt Hospital in a critical condition, was arraigned before Magistrate Pool yesterday.

Gustavson and his wife separated a year ago. She refused to live with him because he did little for her support. Wednesday night, after 11 o'clock, he went to the apartment of his wife, Fifty-first street, where she was in bed, and begged her to let him return and live with her. She refused and the shooting followed.

Nurses for the Insane Graduated. PHOENIX, N. J., June 2.—Nineteen nurses, of whom thirteen were women, were graduated from the State Hospital for the Insane today. During the ceremony, the graduates were made by several prominent alienists. The plan of graduating nurses especially trained for treatment of the insane is new in this State, today's class being the first of the kind graduated from the State institution. All the members of the class will be retained at the hospital.

Calet Klothe Dismissed. WASHINGTON, June 2.—Cadet Lewis E. Calet of the second class at the Military Academy has been convicted by court martial of making a false statement and sentenced to dismissal. He was discharged and was appointed to the academy by Representative Boutwell of the Ninth Congressional district of Illinois.

ESCAPED PATIENT GOT RENTS.

Smith Left Sanitarium "to See the Sights" and Made Collection Tour.

Samuel Smith escaped from the Rivercrest Sanitarium at Astoria, L. I., on Wednesday morning, and the police have been asked to find him. He has been an inmate of the asylum for the last two years.

Mr. Smith was formerly a builder in the Bronx and accumulated quite a fortune. He owned several houses and lived with his family at 601 East 144th street. At the sanitarium William Smith, a special nurse, has looked after him. Wednesday morning the nurse was late in getting up and his charge had dressed before he awakened. The nurse told the former builder to go to the dining room for breakfast, but when he followed, Smith had left alone, managed to escape from a window and climbed out on the big piazza in front of the sanitarium.

He had been talking lately about coming to this city and "seeing the sights." When it was found that he had escaped, a party of attendants searched the country near the sanitarium but could find no trace of Smith. Yesterday Nurse Smith went to the Bronx and searched the home of his charge. There he learned that the patient's family were all away on a trip. He found out that Smith, the patient, had been home and made a round of the different houses he owned, collecting rents. The tenants were ready to pay, as it was the first of the month. They said that Smith appeared to be in good mental condition and told them he was all right again.

Nurse Smith searched all over the city in the hope of finding the patient, but was unsuccessful. Finally he reported the matter to the police of the Alexander avenue station. From there a general alarm was sent out. The police at first thought that some of the tenants in Smith's houses might have taken advantage of the opportunity to get a month's rent free. Detectives sent to investigate found all in possession of receipts signed by Smith.

The authorities at the sanitarium think that the patient is "seeing the sights" and will return when he has seen enough.

DIDN'T ASK PORTER TO RUN.

Otell's Second Denial—The Ambassador to St. Louis—April.

Special Cable Dispatch to The Sun. PARIS, June 2.—Gov. Odell refused to-day to say a word about the Governorship of New York, but he repeated his denial of the report that he had sounded Ambassador Porter as to the latter's willingness to run for the office.

It is believed that the Ambassador does not intend to leave Paris prior to April next, when it is expected he will retire. Ambassador Porter will take breakfast with Gov. Odell next Saturday. The Governor will leave for Cherbourg next Monday.

BRYAN WANTS TO KNOW WHY.

If New York Wishes to Name the Candidate Why Does Up-State Override City?

LINCOLN, Neb., June 2.—Under the heading "An Illogical Demand," Mr. Bryan says in to-morrow's Commoner. "The Republicans are saying that New York ought to dictate the platform and choose the candidate because New York is expected to furnish the vote necessary to elect a President. She has furnished the candidate for the national convention several times, 1868, 1872 and 1888, for instance, when she didn't furnish the electoral vote. This is now a slimning record, in the election of states, why do you not desert the electoral vote since she did. If the voice of a section is to be potent in proportion to its numerical votes, why do you not desert the State override that of New York City Democrats? Whenever New York State furnished a Democratic majority, it came from the city of New York, not from the upper counties. "It is a little inconsistent for the Hill-parker combine to insist that New York should nominate at the national convention because she expects to furnish the votes and then shut out the New York City Democrats who always furnish the New York majority. But New York logic is never logical in politics."

DADY OFF FOR CUBA AGAIN.

His Parting Word Is That Woodruff Will Be Nominated for Governor.

Col. Michael J. Dady left Brooklyn yesterday on another business trip to Cuba, but he will be back in time to respond to his name on the first roll call of delegates in the Republican national convention. Before his departure he gave Timothy L. Woodruff this boost:

"Woodruff's name will go before the State convention as a candidate for Governor, and he will be nominated. Everything is harmonious among Brooklyn Republicans, and will continue so."

Republican Delegates' Train.

Reuben L. Fox, secretary of the Republican State committee, announced last night that he had secured a special train over the New York Central system for the delegates from this city to the national convention. The train will leave at 11:30 A. M. and is timed to arrive at Chicago at 11:30 A. M. Sunday. Those who wish to go on the train are advised to apply at once to H. C. C. Beach, General Eastern Passenger Agent of the railroad, 1218 Broadway.

The Weather.

Cloudy and showery conditions continued yesterday over the Middle Atlantic and New England States, the Lake regions and the Northwest, Central and Southwest States. The South Atlantic and Gulf States were only slightly having fair weather. Heavy rain fell in Virginia and northern New York. The high pressure responsible for the rain in the Atlantic States was still over the New England States, bringing all northwestern winds. There was a storm area over western Texas moving northward and extending as far as the Lake regions. This was causing warmer weather in all the Southern States. It was growing gradually warmer in all sections.

In this city it was cloudy and showery in the morning, partly clearing in the afternoon, wind fresh from the north, average humidity, 98 percent; barometer corrected to read to sea level at 30.1. The temperature yesterday, as recorded by the official thermometer, is shown in the annexed table:

Table with 4 columns: Time, Temperature, Humidity, Wind. Rows include 8 A.M., 9 A.M., 10 A.M., 11 A.M., 12 M., 1 P.M., 2 P.M., 3 P.M., 4 P.M., 5 P.M., 6 P.M., 7 P.M., 8 P.M., 9 P.M., 10 P.M., 11 P.M., and Night.

WASHINGTON FORECAST FOR TO-DAY AND TO-MORROW. For eastern New York, Delaware, eastern Pennsylvania and New Jersey, partly cloudy and warmer to-day; showers to-morrow afternoon or at night; fresh east to south winds.

For western New York, Delaware, eastern Pennsylvania and New Jersey, partly cloudy and warmer to-morrow; light to fresh east to south winds.

For the District of Columbia, Maryland and Virginia, partly cloudy and warmer to-day; showers to-morrow; light to fresh east to south winds.

JAMES SHEVLIN DROPS OUT.

McCarren Men Elated—Fight Goes On, Says Doyle.

Conference of Anti-McCarren Leaders - Thomas R. Farrell and Joseph A. Hill Said to Be Hated for the Pieces of Thos. F. Byrne and Conrad Hasenflug

James Shevlin, who has for a long period been the most trusted lieutenant of Hugh McLaughlin, has dropped out of the combination which was formed to depose Senator P. H. McCarren from the Democratic leadership in Kings county. Deputy Fire Commissioner William A. Doyle, Bird S. Coler, ex-Senator Michael J. Coffey, Thomas R. Farrell, Register M. E. Dooley, ex-Sheriff Frank D. Creamer and the other members who have been heretofore known as the "McCarren men" are elated over the ex-warden's defection which will have no effect on the factional hostilities.

The renewal of the old political and personal feud between Shevlin and Coler, and the recent prominence of the latter on the anti-McCarren patronage committee, was the cause of the abandonment of the factional fight by Shevlin. That Shevlin was also rattled by the action of Mr. McLaughlin, his political Nestor, in still regarding the ex-Comptroller in the light of his protégé is suspected. Yesterday morning, soon after his arrival at the Willoughby street auction room, Shevlin had this statement prepared for distribution among the reporters:

It is not true that the cause of my retirement from politics is the action of Charles F. Murphy in opposing the candidacy of Justice Parker. The statement that I have refused to support the candidacy of Justice Parker is absolutely true. I have not asked any of my friends among the district judges to support my opposition to Senator McCarren's leadership. Furthermore, I have not refused because of any belief that Mr. Murphy is alleged to have intended to make Senator Coffey the leader of the opposition to distribute all patronage through him. My main reason for retiring is the desire to make good on a promise that I can lead the movement against Senator McCarren to a successful termination.

Deputy Fire Commissioner Doyle, who was chosen by Leader Charles F. Murphy of Tammany to manage the fight against McCarren, had this to say in reference to Shevlin's action: "The retirement of Mr. Shevlin from active participation in the fight on McCarren will have no effect whatsoever on the contest. We have no notion of quitting the fight at all. Conditions are just as they were."

Mr. Coler said: "Everything is going along very nicely with the opposition to Senator McCarren. There is absolute harmony in the committee."

Coffey, Creamer, Farrell and Dooley all professed to take a similar view of the situation.

At the regular Democratic headquarters, in the Thomas Jefferson Building, however, all the prominent McCarren men were jubilant mood and predicted that Shevlin's retirement foreshadowed an early collapse of the movement against the Senator. Messrs. Doyle, Coffey and Farrell all held an anti-McCarren confab last night at the Temple Bar headquarters, apparently untruffed and unaffected by the Shevlin incident. The committee had no announced plan to make other than that his affairs were going along smoothly and satisfactorily. It was learned from another source that the successors to Conrad Hasenflug, the Commissioner of Water, Gas and Electricity of the Eleventh Assembly district, and Thomas R. Farrell, the Commissioner of Docks, Conrad Hasenflug of the Nineteenth district had been agreed upon and that their names might be announced at the national convention. It was understood that former Highway Commissioner Thomas R. Farrell, the leader of the Eleventh district, is slated for Byrne's job, and ex-Coroner Joseph A. Hill, the leader of the Docks Commissionership. It is said also that the latter is going to compete with Hasenflug for the control of the Nineteenth district.

Remors are still rife of the proposed early removal of several more Brooklyn officials who have already resigned. They are McCarren. There are already half a dozen candidates or more for each such prospective vacancy.

FAIRBANKS STILL ON THE FENCE.

Candidates for His Senate Seat Await His Decision as to the Vice-President.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 2.—The Republican delegates to the national convention met here to-day to arrange their program in connection with their trip to Chicago, and an assessment upon each member to pay the expenses of rooms, badges and other necessities was agreed upon. The meeting was a disappointment to many of the members, however, because Senator Fairbanks did not give any intimation of his intentions regarding the Vice-Presidency.

Gov. Durbin and Congressman Hemenway, Crumpecker and Charles K. Landis are candidates for the Senate in the event that Mr. Fairbanks is nominated for the Vice-Presidency, and they are all here to-day hoping that the Senator would make known his position. He did not mention the subject at the meeting, and to those who talked with him privately he reiterated that he is not a candidate. He would not say what he would do if nominated, but the friends of the several candidates are convinced that he will accept if nominated.

It was learned from delegates from the First and Ninth districts, represented respectively by Hemenway and Crumpecker, that great pressure will be brought to bear on the Senator at Chicago, and this is given as a reason for confidence in his acceptance.

WYOMING FOR HEARST.

The Six Delegates Are Instructed to Vote for Him as Long as He Has a Chance.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., June 2.—Harmony prevailed in the Democratic State convention here to-day. The Hearst people were largely in the majority, and resolved to endorse the candidacy of Hearst in the strongest terms possible were passed by a unanimous vote.

The resolutions condemn trusts and the Republican Administration for its failure to enforce the anti-trust laws. The delegates are told to vote for Hearst as long as there is any chance of his being nominated, and to observe the unit rule. The following delegates were named: George T. Beck, of Cody; Evanston, Dr. Stickey of Laramie, Collin Hunter of Cheyenne, G. W. Cresswell of Buffalo and J. D. Rogers of Gillette.

GUFFEY AND GORMAN HERE.

Both at the Holland House - W. F. Sheehan Sees Col. Guffey.

Democratic National Committee man James M. Guffey of Pennsylvania came to this city yesterday. Last night there were two callers at the Holland House, who he is staying. Some of them represented opposing interests in the present Democratic situation. J. Sergeant Crum, Charles F. Murphy's friend, was at the hotel, but said that he had not seen Col. Guffey. Senator Arthur P. Gorman, who reached town last night, was another visitor. He also denied that he had seen the Pennsylvania committee man. William F. Sheehan, who is looking after the interests of Judge Parker down here, was a caller. Mr. Sheehan was frank enough to admit that he was there to talk with Col. Guffey, but upon what matter he explained that he was not in a position to say.

C. W. Conley Nominated for Congress.

HAMILTON, Ohio, June 2.—Democrat of the Third district this afternoon nominated Dr. C. W. Conley of Eaton for Congress.

POLICEWOMEN QUEER FINDS.

Men Ran From Murder in His Mind - Women's Struggle With Spirits.

Folk living on Forty-seventh street, between Broadway and Sixth avenue, were startled late yesterday afternoon by a man who ran by yelling that he was pursued by murderers. The man wore no hat or coat, and blood was streaming from a wound on his forehead. At Sixth avenue the man bumped into Policeman Farnam, who sent him to Bellevue Hospital in an ambulance. There the doctors learned that the patient was Gerard Lamy, a Frenchman, living somewhere on Twenty-eighth street. According to the doctors, he is suffering from "Evil spirits."

Half an hour later a woman rushed to the corner of Fifth street and Sixth avenue, and firing a shriek she ran toward her and drove the contents. Policeman Smythe grabbed her and the bottle. The bottle had a Chinese laundry ticket pinned to it, and the contents were apparently in German, said the contents were a Chinese tonic to drive away evil spirits. Smythe smelled what was left in the bottle and said: "Evil spirits are here."

The woman refused to give her name or address. She was taken to Bellevue Hospital and placed in the psychopathic ward. She was fairly well dressed and a pocket book she carried contained $16.15. There was nothing to lead to her identification.

PULITZER BUYS PRESS CLUB OUT.

He'll Pay It $100,000 for Its Building or Take It as a Free Tenant in His.

Announcement was made last night at a dinner given in the Press Club in Nassau street to Arthur Benington, secretary of the board of trustees, that an arrangement has been made by which the building on 118, 120 and 122 Frankfort street, which is under a mortgage of $148,000, will be taken over by the hands of the Press Club by Joseph Pulitzer.

The building was bought by the club about ten years ago with the idea of selling or rebuilding it. It proved a white elephant on the hands of the club. A mortgage of $148,000 had to be put on the building, on which the club has been paying interest ever since.

Mr. Pulitzer wants to put a big building on the site, which adjoins the rear of the Pulitzer building. He offers to pay the Press Club $100,000 for its property, or he will give the club a whole floor, rent free, in the new building he proposes to erect. In the latter case, if the club should wish to give up the tenancy, he will pay $100,000 to the club. This offer is to be settled before Jan. 1.

BALTIMORE OFFICIALS RESIGN.

Burnt District Commissioners Appointed by the Late Mayor Offer to Quit.

BALTIMORE, June 2.—The four members of the Burnt District Commission appointed by the late Mayor McLane tendered their resignations to-day. Mayor Thomas told the commissioners that he desired time to consider the matter.

One of the commissioners, Reuben Foster, insisted upon going out. His place will be filled, but it is more than probable that the three others will be asked to resign at the time being. With their resignations the commissioners submitted a report giving a detailed account of their work. Messrs. Doyle, Coffey and Farrell all held an anti-McCarren confab last night at the Temple Bar headquarters, apparently untruffed and unaffected by the Shevlin incident. The committee had no announced plan to make other than that his affairs were going along smoothly and satisfactorily. It was learned from another source that the successors to Conrad Hasenflug, the Commissioner of Water, Gas and Electricity of the Eleventh Assembly district, and Thomas R. Farrell, the Commissioner of Docks, Conrad Hasenflug of the Nineteenth district had been agreed upon and that their names might be announced at the national convention. It was understood that former Highway Commissioner Thomas R. Farrell, the leader of the Eleventh district, is slated for Byrne's job, and ex-Coroner Joseph A. Hill, the leader of the Docks Commissionership. It is said also that the latter is going to compete with Hasenflug for the control of the Nineteenth district.

DIDN'T HITCH WITH THE SONG.

"Last Rose of Summer" on the Piano and "Robin Adair" in Vocal Strains.

Miss Electa Gifford, the soprano soloist at the Duss concert in Madison Square Garden last night, was down on the programme to sing "Robin Adair." Her accompanist was Miss Annie Miller.

Miss Miller began an accompaniment of "The Rose Tree" by Sumner. Miss Gifford started in with "Robin Adair." She sang several measures before Miss Miller switched to the proper accompaniment. The accompanist was not in the mood, though Miss Miller remained at the piano. The band started up a lively waltz. A member of the band was leading Miss Miller off the stage when she fell into a heap. It was announced later that Dr. Walter Gilday, who had been called to attend Miss Miller, found that she was suffering from vertigo.

DIED AFTER BURGLAR SCARE.

Excitement Over That and a False Alarm of Fire Killed Leonard Egan.

EAST ORANGE, N. J., June 2.—Leonard Egan, 18 North Third street, East Orange, died at his home from a stroke of apoplexy brought on by excitement over two incidents on Tuesday. That morning Mr. Egan found a burglar in his parlor. He let the man go.

Mr. Egan seemed to be suffering from the effects of the excitement all day. At night his attention was called to the reflection of a fire in sixteenth street. Thinking it was a neighborhood fire, he hurriedly stepped two floors and ran with all his might only to find that it was nothing but a bonfire. He returned to the house exhausted. He complained of being ill and died during the night.

MANY ORDERS FOR STEEL CARS.

Company Has Contracts for 4,000 and Shops Are to Be Busy Again.

PITTSBURGH, June 2.—The Pressed Steel Car Company has ordered its entire McKee's Rocks plant started in full. This resulted from securing an order for 2,000 cars from the Harriman lines. The car company now has orders aggregating 4,000 cars on its books.

There has been duddness among the car builders, and the orders came as a blessing to the steel industry, which has been languishing. This will create a boom in the steel plate industry, as most of the cars are made of plates, pressed into shape.

RICHARD VAN COTT OUT.

John Washington Is Acting Superintendent of (City) Delivery.

Richard Van Cott, son of Postmaster Cornelius Van Cott, has resigned his office of superintendent of city delivery in the local Post Office. The resignation was sent to Washington several days ago, and was accepted to take effect yesterday.

John Washington, superintendent of the city delivery, was appointed acting superintendent of city delivery for the time being. Mr. Washington has been in the postal service since 1880, and has held several positions from a clerkship. In 1901 he was made superintendent of Station 8 at a salary of $2,000. His present place pays $3,200 a year.

Boy Found Drowned.

The body of a boy about 9 years of age was found yesterday in New Creek, a small creek between Midland Beach and South Beach, by Arthur Mahoney, oysterman. It had been in the water about a week. It was clad in a shirt waist, blue knee breeches, black socks and black lined shoes. The boy had brown eyes and black hair. The quality of his clothing indicates that he was a son of poor parents. Coroner Schaefer believed the boy may have been the boy who was reported to have fallen from a pier in New York city, while playing with several other boys about his own age.

HUSKING BEE AND NO KISSES.

RED EARS DIDN'T COUNT AT SI PETERKIN'S FROLIC.

Staten Island Youth Had a Taste of Farm Fun, but the Girls Were Disappointed - The Old Hen Might Cackle, Says Si, So Everything Was Quite Proper.

An old fashioned husking bee was held in St. Peterkin's barn in New Brighton, Staten Island, last night. Folks from the Kingsley Methodist Episcopal Church in Tompkinsville got up the bee for the benefit of the Union Sunday school in New Brighton. St. Peterkin said he thought the Sunday school would clear about $15.

The little frame building in which New Brighton youngsters are taught the golden lesson on Sunday mornings was fixed up with loose hay, Jack-o'-lanterns, strings of dried apples and bushel baskets for seats. A half dozen bushels of yellow ears of corn were piled high in the centre of the barn floor.

When Uncle Si gave the word to go, two dozen young men and women from Tompkinsville pitched into the corn heaps, and husks began to fly. There was a flash of red and Miss Dene Seguire gave a little squeal. She held up a red ear of corn. The young man who was with her, William Allen Fair, blushed and looked as if he wanted to, but he didn't. Uncle Si said it was an old-fashioned husking bee, all right enough, but...

I reckon as how some of the long-faced critters in the congregation might call it sinful," he said.

Uncle Si said a blue-eyed girl from Tompkinsville, whose pompadour hair and silk skirt waist didn't go very well with the calico sunbonnet she wore, "what's the use of that crowd of there's nothing doing when you are lucky enough to find a red ear?"

A young man from New Brighton, who was the husker, told Uncle Si that the local crowd ought to be preserved and that kissing should be allowed when a red ear was found.

Uncle Si said, "you'd get enough local color if the old hen started cackling about it."

SEARCHED HER.

From Top to Toe and Found No Smuggled Lace—Her House Ransacked.

A minute before the gangplank of the Havre bound French liner La Touraine was lowered yesterday a middle aged but sprightly woman came tripping down to the pier. Two customs inspectors met her and told her that they would like to have a private talk with her. She said she would be pleased to accommodate them, and they would be necessary for her to submit to a personal search.

Miss Walsh, inspector, undertook the actual job, which was performed, at the request of the woman at the boarding house she runs with her husband at 151 Christopher street, a short distance from the French Line pier.

The woman is Mrs. M. V. Senegas. She said later that if all women were searched as thoroughly as she was no one could smuggle a pin of stuff into America. Miss Walsh found nothing on Mrs. Senegas except her clothing, all of which, Mrs. Senegas frankly declared, was taken off.

It is said that the inspectors had suspected Mrs. Senegas of bringing lace ashore. She says that her house was ransacked two weeks ago, but that nothing was found or saved, except one of the appliances used by her husband, who is a hair dresser.

She says that officers of the French Line room and eat at her house and pay her in advance for money. When they start back for the other side they have American money, which they want exchanged for French. She gives them French money and she is the commission that a buyer would charge her. That, she declares, is the reason she boards the French ships just before they sail.

RECEIVER FOR LATONIA TRACK.

As a Result, It Is Thought, of Litigation for Possession—No Stop to Racing.

CINCINNATI, June 2.—As a result, it is believed, of the litigation for the possession of the Latonia racetrack between Judge George C. Perkins and W. E. Applegate, a receiver for the Latonia track was appointed to-night.

The receiver was directly brought about through J. L. Whitaker in a suit, and J. O. Rich was appointed receiver. There will be no interruption to the races here, except one of the appliances used by her husband, who is a hair dresser.

She says that officers of the French Line room and eat at her house and pay her in advance for money. When they start back for the other side they have American money, which they want exchanged for French. She gives them French money and she is the commission that a buyer would charge her. That, she declares, is the reason she boards the French ships just before they sail.

GIRL ARRESTS WOMAN.

The Latter Accused of Carrying Off a Gold Watch.

Miss Mabel Allen of 272 Webster avenue, Jersey City, caused the arrest in Hoboken yesterday of Nettie Wilson, 52 years old, a servant formerly in the employ of the Allen family, who disappeared last Friday, it is said, with a gold watch and chain which when Victoria Hancock Stevens announced that he was a personal friend of one of the parties in the suit, Mrs. Carter, the widow.

"Why, I know Mrs. Carter very well," he said. "I have known her since my boyhood days, and had I been aware when this matter was referred to me that she was a party to the suit I would have requested the Chancellor to give me another assignment. I will not hear this case." The case was postponed indefinitely.

POLICEMAN MAY DIE OF FALL.

Murray Stubbled His Toe Entering Hotel and Fractured His Skull.

Policeman Murray, 50 years old, of 224 East 123d street, stubbed his toe last night while going into the basement of Theodore Reiter's Hotel, at 180 Park avenue, and fell down stairs. He was removed to the Harlem Hospital, where it was found that his skull was fractured and that he would probably die.

Saks & Company BROADWAY, 33D TO 34TH STREET. Summer Suits for Men, $15, $20 and $25.

To our purpose we have ever been constant. While we fashion ready-for-service garments which cost even more than forty dollars, we have been faithful to the basic purpose of our clothing business, the tailoring of really high grade suits for men at modest prices—suits at fifteen, twenty and twenty-five dollars, which in distinctiveness, style and individuality all but exhaust the possibilities of the tailor's craft. If it be within the province of any other shop to provide suits of that high character, depend upon it, the cost will be a third greater.

Single and Double Breasted Suits, two or three garment models of Tropical Worsteds, Serge, Honespun, Cheviot or Wool Crash, which in design and weave are specifically adapted for Summer service. One-eighth, quarter or half lined or unlined. $15, $20 and $25.

Young Men's Two or Three Garment Suits, single and double breasted and Norfolk models, of light weight Honespuns, Wool Crash, Fancy Cheviot, Blue Serge or Black Thibet. Quarter, half or full lined. Sizes 14 to 19 Years. (Second Floor.) At $8.50, $10, $12 and $15.

HIGH GRADE Panama Hats for Men Worth $10 and $12. At $6.50

It is a resurrection of the fittest, this universal demand for Panama Hats, to which we have contributed not a little. The models presented here are evenly and closely woven yet extremely light in weight. Some are ready for service, others in the rough, ready to be finished as you may dictate. The shapes are new and distinctive—they have little in common with those of yesterday.

Furnishings for Men For Summer Service.
