

RUSSIANS STILL IN RETREAT

BU' KUROPATKIN MAY SEEK TO RECAPTURE LIAOYANG.

Czar Said to Have So Ordered—Defence at Tieling Being Hastily Completed—New Assault on Port Arthur Has Been Planned—Alexief May Resign.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—A despatch to the Daily Mail from Simning says that Gen. Kuropatkin has returned to Mukden after an inspection of the fortifications at Tieling, which are now backward, but are being hurried. At the same time dangerous and costly efforts are being made to delay the Japanese advance.

The correspondent says that he learns from a Russian source that these efforts are in conformity with an order from the Czar, who has even peremptorily commanded Gen. Kuropatkin to retake Liao- yang. There is no abatement in the Russian retreat northward, which is impeded by the narrowness of the road.

Under date of Friday the same correspondent says that the Russians who were sent to Tapinghan retreated with heavy losses. The Russian patrols in this district have recrossed the Liao River. Numerous stragglers have been shot or captured and tortured to death by the Manchurian bandits who are swarming everywhere. They have stopped traffic between Simning and Mukden.

The retreat to Mukden degenerated into a disorderly flight. The Russians are looting and maltreating the Chinese, thousands of whom are fleeing south and to Harbin. The confusion at the Mukden station was indescribable. There were struggles between men and women to enter trains which were all required for the wounded.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 11.—Under date of Sept. 10 Gen. Kuropatkin telegraphed: "To-day there have been only insignificant encounters between patrols. The troops, sleeping in the open during Thursday's storm, were in a lamentable condition Friday. Though thousands of wounded have been sent north, the members of the Red Cross at Mukden and in the neighborhood are working day and night."

LONDON, Sept. 12.—The hull in war news is probably still due to the lull in the fighting. The London papers print lengthy belated accounts of the battle of Liao- yang, which, while confirming, do not add to the information already received.

A Chefoo despatch giving details of the Japanese plans at Port Arthur displays too full knowledge on the part of refugees to command complete belief. Otherwise there is an absence of news from the besieged fortress.

A news agency despatch from Cronstadt states definitely that the Baltic fleet sailed for the Far East at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, by a St. Petersburg despatch received in Paris saying that the fleet has gone on a short cruise is more credible.

ALEXIEFF OFFERS TO RESIGN.

Viceroy Willing to Quit, but the Government Has Not Decided.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 11.—It is understood that Admiral Alexief has proffered his resignation as Viceroy of the Far East. No decision on the part of the Government has yet been reached in the matter.

JAPS PLAN NEW ASSAULT.

Will Attempt to Take Port Arthur's Strongest Defences.

CHEFOO, Sept. 11.—A Chinaman who left Port Arthur last night reports that 4,000 Japanese control Louisa Bay and Pigeon Bay. He adds that the Japanese are employing a balloon. The hospitals at Dany are full of wounded. Transports remove the wounded to Japan as fast as possible.

STRIED TO INJURE BATTLESHIP.

Third Attempt to Disable Ore—Work of Discontented Sailors.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—According to the St. Petersburg correspondent of the Standard, a third attempt has been made to injure the battleship Ore, one of the most powerful of the Baltic fleet.

RUSSIAN RESERVES CALLED.

Czar Summons Them From 22 Circles—New Prayer for the Army.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 11.—The Czar has summoned to arms the reserves in twenty-two circles in Kherson, Bessarabia, Ekaterinoslav and Taurida, and also one category of reserve officers throughout the empire.

CORRESPONDENTS DISGUSTED.

Complain of Their Treatment by the Japs, Who Grew Unpopular.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—Bennet Burleigh, correspondent of the Telegraph, cabling from Tientsin, where he has gone to escape the Japanese censorship, voices the annoyance of the correspondents at the restrictions placed on them by the Japanese.

The effect of the cutting off by the Japanese of the sending of news has been for some time distinctly visible in the tone of the despatches of English correspondents, whose praise and admiration of the Japanese except as fighting men have considerably cooled.

LED ASTRAY BY POOLROOMS.

YOUTH TRIES TO KILL MINGLING AFTER GOING WRONG.

The Story of a Promising Young Man's Downfall Brought Out by His At- tempted Suicide—Didn't Want to Live, but He Will—His Folks Stand by Him.

A caretaker in the Flatiron Building, passing through the hall on the tenth floor yesterday morning, heard a moan. It seemed to have come from the vacant rooms that had been used by a defunct get-rich-quick concern. The caretaker tried the door and it opened readily enough. The lock had been picked, he found later.

Lying on the uncarpeted floor, barely conscious, with a little ruflet of blood coming from his right wrist across the board was Walter Solomon, a young man who has been learning to be a landscape architect as stenographer and general aide in the office of Daniel W. Langton. There was a curious look about the young fellow's lips. They were streaked with a white powder and were blue and discolored.

The caretaker hastily called a policeman and an ambulance from the New York Hospital. Dr. Lathrop found that the boy had opened a vein in his right wrist, and that he had lost so much blood that another half hour would have finished him. Young Solomon had swallowed poison, too, the doctor discovered, but whatever it was he had not taken enough to hurt him. The first words that the boy uttered when a little of his strength came back and he was able to talk were:

"Doctor, I didn't want to live. I have robbed my mother and my employer, who was mighty good to me. What's the use to live after that?"

They sent word from the hospital to the boy's mother, who lives at 405 Bleeker street. Young Solomon had been worried because he had not been home for two days. She had asked the police to help her find him, but she had got no word from them.

She went to the hospital and had a long talk with her son. When she came out her eyes were filled with tears, but she was more joy than sorrow in them. Whatever had happened, her son was going to live.

"Walter didn't steal any money from me," she said, "and I am sure he didn't steal any from Mr. Langton, because he has been as much worried about Walter as I have been. He came to see me about it and told me how much he thought of my son and what a good boy he is."

Walter told her in the hospital that he was ashamed to come home because he had lost all his money playing the races in a poolroom on Saturday. He worried about it until he was nearly crazy, and thinking his whole life ruined by the one foolish act, he went to the Flatiron Building, crept into an unoccupied room and did his best to kill himself.

He had a quarrel on Friday because Walter had not paid me several weeks board. His father and I require him to pay his board, not because we need the money, but because it teaches him to pay his way as he goes and lets him know the value of money. He told me on Friday that he couldn't pay me because he had lost his money and he went away, taking some money that I had given him to use on his vacation, which was to begin to-day."

Mr. Langton, whose office is at 1019 Waterstreet, N. J., last night for $100 on Thursday to cash for me. He did not return on Thursday or Friday. When I went to see his parents they told me they had not heard from him. I did not care for the money. I wanted to find the boy and have a talk with him and see if he could put him on the right road. I was in a good way, steady and industrious, and I did not want to see him wrong for lack of a friendly word at the right time. I never had a suspicion of his honesty and trusted him with far larger commissions than the check for $100."

So'omon will be able to leave the hospital to-day a thoroughly repentant boy.

PHIPPS SETTLEMENT PAPERS.

Attorney in Denver Now Drawing Them Up—Runners of the Terms.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 11.—Pittsburg attorneys of Lawrence Phipps admit that so far as they are concerned they are through with the Phipps kidnaping and divorce proceedings and that the Denver attorney will now complete the details of a settlement.

An agreement drawn up by the attorneys of Mr. Phipps was given over by Mrs. Phipps's attorneys at Put-In Bay, Lake Erie, on Thursday. Senator Knox, James W. Young of Waterman and Denver, and Mrs. Phipps with her aunt, Mrs. Chandler, were present.

They left for Denver and were scheduled to arrive there this morning. Mrs. Phipps will scarcely meet her husband for a conference. Her presence is necessary to complete the transfer of some property. From this it is believed that the Denver home, occupied by Mr. Phipps which is in the name of his wife, is to be transferred to Mr. Phipps.

The agreement and the separation is anxious to have the children, to spend their time equally each year between their father and their mother. Mrs. Phipps in the meantime has assumed the care of the kidnaping. It is presumed that Mrs. Phipps will remain in Pittsburgh after the settlement and will be in charge of the Denver office. Mr. Phipps has few, if any, interests in this city outside of the mine. It is believed that some time in the future Mrs. Phipps will secure a divorce on the ground of desertion.

The Denver suit, it is believed, will be withdrawn on Tuesday. It is filled with sensational charges which caused Lawrence Phipps's uncle to demand a settlement outside of the courts. This is inferred from what Mrs. Phipps is said to have told intimate friends.

DENVER, Col., Sept. 11.—A settlement of the differences between Lawrence C. Phipps and his wife is almost certain. It was learned to-day that no answer will be filed in the divorce suit instituted by Mrs. Phipps in the divorce court here. After listening to arguments on the motion to quash the summons in the case on Aug. 23, Judge Mullins overruled the motion and granted fifteen days to the answer. The demurrer was due on Sept. 3 and the answer is due this morning. No demurrer was filed, and Tuesday will be answer day.

Mrs. Phipps and her aunt, Mrs. Chandler, were in Denver. Mrs. Phipps was seen when she left the Burlington train.

TOLD ON HIS BIG BROTHER.

Barber Shop Poked Game of Wags Earners Broken Up and Players Arrested.

A boy went to the West Forty-seventh street station last night and reported that his older brother was playing poker in a barber shop at 607 West Fifty-first street and that a good many young men were losing their week's wages there. Two detectives went to investigate and found the barber shop crowded with poker players. They arrested seven men, including the alleged proprietor, George Egan, and found a large number of marked cards. All the prisoners were released on bail.

To Check Hungarian Emigration.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. VIENNA, Sept. 11.—The Minister of the Interior has issued fresh regulations for the control of Hungarian emigration. Emigrants will receive the necessary permission to leave the country only when they travel by the Cunard line from Fiume. The authorities are instructed to prosecute agents of other passenger lines who have been found to be in violation of the regulations.

MONEY AND GINGER WANTED.

Notable Democrats to Con for Here Today About Getting in Both.

There are to be conferences to-day at the Democratic national headquarters which may considerably alter the plan of campaign which Chairman Tom Taggart and some of his colleagues have mapped out. The conferences will take place between the heads of the committee, Henry G. Davis, the Democratic nominee for Vice-President; Senator Arthur P. Gorman of Maryland, and Col. J. M. Guffey, national committeeman from Pennsylvania.

Senator Gorman is regarded as one of the best campaign managers of the country and he will arrive in this city to-day in response to a call which has been sent to him to come to advise the managers who are now in charge of the Democratic campaign.

Senator Gorman, it was learned last night, will take no active part in the work of the committee, but the effect of the conference to be held to-day will, it was said, be that he will remain in this city for two weeks or more, supervising the methods of the campaign chiefing.

Chairman Taggart and those associated with him at the national headquarters do not hesitate to admit that something must be done to put some vitality into the campaign. It is in the hope of putting the life into the campaign that some of the leaders are insisting that Judge Parker should come to this city in order that the influence of his presence here may help to stir up the campaign.

There was some talk at the Hoffman House last night to the effect that Judge Parker might take a hurried trip to New York, but not much credence was placed in this report in view of the statements from Eoopus denying that he would leave Cleveland. It has been coming in very slowly to the ears of the Democratic national committee. That drawback has considerably retarded the action of the committee and one of the purposes for which the conferences have been called is to devise more effective means of fat- tening up the campaign.

William F. Sheehan, who went to Eoopus on Saturday, will be at the conference, as will also Chairman Cory Meade, and William S. Rodie, head of the organization bureau. These three will be in a position to present the views of the committee to the conference and one of the purposes for which the conferences have been called is to devise more effective means of fat- tening up the campaign.

Chairman Taggart has made plans to go to Indiana on Tuesday. It was given out that the purpose of his trip is to do over- sight of the campaign in that State. There are many Democrats in this city who would be surprised if one of the announced to-day that Mr. Taggart has decided to open Western headquarters, probably in Chicago, and that he will name himself as the head of the management of the Eastern end of the campaign.

CONSTITUTIONALISM.

How About Cleveland, Ex-Judge Cohen Asks the Parker Legal Supporters.

Ex-Judge W. N. Cohen of the Supreme Court, who returned to this city yesterday after an absence of several weeks, said yesterday that the founders of the Parker Constitution Club, which is composed mostly of lawyers, had raised a feigned issue of constitutionalism versus imperialism because they had no real issues upon which they could advocate the election of Judge Parker.

If they made the issue a stark Democratic one, he said, they would be acting as non-partisans; but when they claim to be non-partisans, he said, they are not. It is the old issue between strict and liberal construction of the constitution and the union of States, one and inseparable, with power enough to become a tyrant on the other. There is a general change of a policy of legislative functions. By the first is meant a vigorous man who does things, and the second is the man who does nothing. The Parker Constitution Club is a search for an issue. When the specifications come, it will be easy to answer them.

POLICEMAN $300 SHORT.

Mutual Aid Association Gives Him a Few Dollars to Make Good.

Announcement was made yesterday that Roundsman Patrick Durkin of the Newark police had been called before the finance committee of the Police Mutual Aid Association and given out of about $500 in his make good account in the Fourth precinct.

The fact that Durkin was not turning in all his collections became known to the officers of the association some time ago. At a meeting early in August he admitted that he had collected $200 less than he had reported. He gave what served for a temporary excuse and was allowed to have $200 on account of the amount due from him. That has since been paid, and the balance between $500 and $300, was to have been paid on his salary.

He said yesterday before the committee at the appointed time but he was unable to pay up. He offered a short note, but it was not accepted. He was informed that at noon on Tuesday he must settle in cash. It is believed that he will settle the money and account for the balance of the action as he owns a house and two city lots.

Durkin has been a policeman more than a dozen years and is a rounder than the rest of the Police Department and the reason for his being so is a mystery. He has made no satisfactory explanation of his conduct.

The association collects money for use in paying sick and death benefits to its members and their families and has been in existence about a quarter of a century.

THE LAST DAYS OF EZHUNA.

Once Mighty Apache, Ill of Consumption, Goes Into Believable.

Joseph Ezhuna, an Apache, about 40 years old, who left the Carlisle Indian School two years ago when he was a fine figure of a man to pose for artists in this city, appealed for medical treatment at Bellevue Hospital last night. He was assisted to the hospital by Vincent Anastasio, another Apache, who is a member of the Interborough Rapid Transit's engineering corps.

The doctors do not believe he will ever leave the hospital. Natalish and Ezhuna are sons of the same chief, who were members of Geronimo's band. Natalish and Ezhuna fought side by side until the battle of the Little Bighorn, when they were taken to St. Augustine, Fla. There they were kept imprisoned until an order was received from the Carlisle Indian School.

'TWTX JEROME AND SHEPARD

THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION FOR GOVERNOR.

The District Attorney's Great Power as an Earnest Speaker of Plain Truth in a Campaign May Win the Day for Him at Saratoga—Tammany Won't Oppose.

All the talk heard in this city yesterday concerning the Democratic candidate for Governor centered around District Attorney William Travers Jerome and Edward M. Shepard. The stronger sentiment seemed to be on Mr. Jerome.

Mr. Jerome is looked upon by Democratic leaders in this city as an admirable candidate because of his ability to win votes. He has demonstrated his power as a speaker and an earnest speaker of plain truth in a campaign may win the day for him at Saratoga—Tammany won't oppose.

In the opinion of many Democrats, Mr. Jerome, with his faculty of plain speaking and the delight it gives him to call graft and grafters by their proper names, would have it in his power to make an irrefragable campaign. He started in to tell the voters of the State something about the system which has existed at Albany in the last four years.

How greatly Jerome helped to win the municipal election which sent Seth Low to the City Hall by describing the evils of Deverism has been admitted even by the enemies of the District Attorney. With so prolific a subject as the graft at Albany, it is felt by many Democrats in this city that he could put into the campaign just that vitality and life for which the friends of Judge Parker are calling aloud.

It was learned yesterday that the men of influence in Tammany Hall are not opposed to Mr. Jerome's nomination. With the exception of the District Attorney, who is a professed subject as the graft at Albany, it is felt by many Democrats in this city that he could put into the campaign just that vitality and life for which the friends of Judge Parker are calling aloud.

With the exception of the District Attorney, who is a professed subject as the graft at Albany, it is felt by many Democrats in this city that he could put into the campaign just that vitality and life for which the friends of Judge Parker are calling aloud.

Charles F. Murphy, it is known, will not bring forward any candidate of his own, and his friends say that to prove the sincerity of his promise, he will withdraw his name from the race. He will do so, they say, because he is willing to drop whatever personal feeling he might have against the selection of Mr. Jerome if it should be the opinion of the general body of delegates to the convention that Judge Parker's chances would be bettered by a Jerome nomination.

Charles W. Goodyear of Buffalo, whose friends are urging his candidacy for the nomination, and who came to this city last night, said that he thought the choice of the convention would be between Mr. Jerome and Mr. Shepard. Of the two he said he thought Mr. Jerome would be the better candidate for the reason that he was the better known and was generally liked by the voters up the State.

Some of the Parker papers of this city pointed out last night, have been clamoring for the nomination for Governor in this State of a "Folk" Mr. Jerome. Now that the nomination is being made, it is said that it was added last night by these men that Jerome could be depended on to pick the barroom deal in the State and to do the grafting of the Democratic grafters of Missouri.

ROSEMOUNT NOTES.

Judge Parker Still Swims in the Hudson—Only Two Republicans on the Farm.

ESOPUS, Sept. 11.—Overcoats are in season here now. The Judge Parker still swims in the Hudson, but not a mere dip. The Presidential candidate and A. S. Broley, chief stenographer of the Court of Appeals, were in the Hudson for three-quarters of an hour yesterday morning. A story has been printed that Mr. Broley was asked to swim with the Judge and save him if he cramped, but it was poppocopy. Not but what Mr. Broley could do a trick or two. He has a chest and can swim half a day. But the Judge is skilled enough to care for himself in case of a cramp.
