HAD FUN WITH KNOX.
Fellowship Club in Philadelphia Gives the Senator a Dinner.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 10.—Senator Knox made his bow to the practical politicians of Pennsylvania to-night at the annual dinner of the Fellowship Club, an organization made up of the leaders of the party in the State and newspaper folk. On his right hand sat Gov. Pennypacker, who has created almost as much amusement as he did with his famous Press Muzzler bill by going back to the oldest form he could find and granting Knox his commission with the proviso "if he shall so long behave himself well."

On his left was Senator Penrose, whose ambitions toward State leadership are menaced by Knox. Durham, the boss of Philadelphia, was there and three special trains from Washington, Pittsburg and New York brought a bunch of prominent political figures from those three cities.

Always at the Fellowship dinners the inwards of practical politics are turned out, decorated for the benefit of the elect. The talk to-night had been composed with special reference to Knox and ran under the name of "Trusts and the Trust Busters." Mr. Knox enjoyed it and so apparently did every one else.

Many of the hits were local, but some of them weren't. Two songs, one by "Boosevelt" and the other by "Fairbanks," were sung, the latter for the late lamented Democratic candidate.

Henry Starr Richardson, president of the Pen and Pencil Club of this city, was responsible for the olio.

Civilization has long needed a mild, comfortable cathartic like Bohn's Homeopathic Laxative. They touch up the lazy liver and cure headache, dizziness and stomach disorders. If you want to eat and digest and feel sporty take Bohn's Laxative. 25c. at Eiker's, Hegerman & Co.'s, Kalsch's, Jungmann's, Bolton's, Kinsman's, Petty's, Hartnett's and other druggists.
