

THE HOOKER CASE CLOSED.

HIS FATE IN THE HANDS OF THE ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE.

Almost a Foregone Conclusion That His Report Will Be Damaging to Hooker.

Whether It Will Be for Impeachment or Removal Has Not Been Determined.

ALBANY, April 21.—The investigation into the charges against Supreme Court Justice Warren B. Hooker, as far as taking evidence and listening to argument is concerned, has been completed. It now remains to be seen what action the Assembly Judiciary Committee will take. This committee is sitting practically as a Grand Jury to consider and determine what sort of a report shall be made to the Assembly.

It is accepted almost as a foregone conclusion that the committee will report something that will be damaging to Justice Hooker. Whether it will be for impeachment or removal is not determined.

Former Deputy Attorney General Henry B. Coman summed up for the committee. He went into the entire case from beginning to end. His remarks were free from bias and vindictiveness.

Mr. Coman declared that the only reason Ball was appointed was to liquidate the note held by the Federal Reserve Bank.

Mr. Coman then proceeded to show the utter depravity exhibited in the appointment of Justice Hooker as a laborer in the Fredonia post office.

Mr. Coman then proceeded to show the utter depravity exhibited in the appointment of Justice Hooker as a laborer in the Fredonia post office.

Mr. Coman then proceeded to show the utter depravity exhibited in the appointment of Justice Hooker as a laborer in the Fredonia post office.

Mr. Coman then proceeded to show the utter depravity exhibited in the appointment of Justice Hooker as a laborer in the Fredonia post office.

Mr. Coman then proceeded to show the utter depravity exhibited in the appointment of Justice Hooker as a laborer in the Fredonia post office.

Mr. Coman then proceeded to show the utter depravity exhibited in the appointment of Justice Hooker as a laborer in the Fredonia post office.

Mr. Coman then proceeded to show the utter depravity exhibited in the appointment of Justice Hooker as a laborer in the Fredonia post office.

Mr. Coman then proceeded to show the utter depravity exhibited in the appointment of Justice Hooker as a laborer in the Fredonia post office.

Mr. Coman then proceeded to show the utter depravity exhibited in the appointment of Justice Hooker as a laborer in the Fredonia post office.

Mr. Coman then proceeded to show the utter depravity exhibited in the appointment of Justice Hooker as a laborer in the Fredonia post office.

Mr. Coman then proceeded to show the utter depravity exhibited in the appointment of Justice Hooker as a laborer in the Fredonia post office.

BEEF PACKERS FIGHT IN VAIN.

Try to Have Secret Service Investigators Withdrawn From the Field.

CHICAGO, April 21.—An attempt by the packers to have the Secret Service Bureau investigators withdrawn from the field of the Federal Grand Jury's beef inquiry on the ground that such work is not germane to the work for which the bureau was organized was revealed to-night by John E. Wilkie, chief of the bureau.

These men, said Mr. Wilkie, "are now at the disposal of the Attorney-General and the Department of Justice so long as their services may be required, and all their expenses are being paid out of the specific appropriation of $500,000 provided for that purpose."

Mr. Wilkie said that when the beef trust investigation was ordered by act of Congress the Attorney-General was empowered to ask the Secretary of the Treasury for the assistance of the Secret Service Bureau.

These men, said Mr. Wilkie, "are now at the disposal of the Attorney-General and the Department of Justice so long as their services may be required, and all their expenses are being paid out of the specific appropriation of $500,000 provided for that purpose."

Mr. Wilkie said that when the beef trust investigation was ordered by act of Congress the Attorney-General was empowered to ask the Secretary of the Treasury for the assistance of the Secret Service Bureau.

These men, said Mr. Wilkie, "are now at the disposal of the Attorney-General and the Department of Justice so long as their services may be required, and all their expenses are being paid out of the specific appropriation of $500,000 provided for that purpose."

Mr. Wilkie said that when the beef trust investigation was ordered by act of Congress the Attorney-General was empowered to ask the Secretary of the Treasury for the assistance of the Secret Service Bureau.

These men, said Mr. Wilkie, "are now at the disposal of the Attorney-General and the Department of Justice so long as their services may be required, and all their expenses are being paid out of the specific appropriation of $500,000 provided for that purpose."

Mr. Wilkie said that when the beef trust investigation was ordered by act of Congress the Attorney-General was empowered to ask the Secretary of the Treasury for the assistance of the Secret Service Bureau.

These men, said Mr. Wilkie, "are now at the disposal of the Attorney-General and the Department of Justice so long as their services may be required, and all their expenses are being paid out of the specific appropriation of $500,000 provided for that purpose."

Mr. Wilkie said that when the beef trust investigation was ordered by act of Congress the Attorney-General was empowered to ask the Secretary of the Treasury for the assistance of the Secret Service Bureau.

These men, said Mr. Wilkie, "are now at the disposal of the Attorney-General and the Department of Justice so long as their services may be required, and all their expenses are being paid out of the specific appropriation of $500,000 provided for that purpose."

Mr. Wilkie said that when the beef trust investigation was ordered by act of Congress the Attorney-General was empowered to ask the Secretary of the Treasury for the assistance of the Secret Service Bureau.

These men, said Mr. Wilkie, "are now at the disposal of the Attorney-General and the Department of Justice so long as their services may be required, and all their expenses are being paid out of the specific appropriation of $500,000 provided for that purpose."

Mr. Wilkie said that when the beef trust investigation was ordered by act of Congress the Attorney-General was empowered to ask the Secretary of the Treasury for the assistance of the Secret Service Bureau.

These men, said Mr. Wilkie, "are now at the disposal of the Attorney-General and the Department of Justice so long as their services may be required, and all their expenses are being paid out of the specific appropriation of $500,000 provided for that purpose."

STEP TOWARD HIGHER LICENSE.

EFFECT OF A LOCAL OPTION LAW IN NEW YORK CITY.

It Would Reduce the Number of Saloons, and Consequently the Revenue to the State, Which is Proposed to Make Up by Increasing the Liquor Tax.

ALBANY, April 21.—Saloonkeepers in residential districts in the cities throughout the State and the brewers are aroused over the attempt of Gov. Higgins and the Republican Legislature to extend to all cities and villages the local option provision of the Raines law which now only applies to towns in the rural districts.

The bill provides that when "no license" is carried in a district for two years after the first of May following the special election no liquor shall be sold in that district except by a duly licensed pharmacist upon the written prescription of a regularly licensed physician or in a regularly incorporated club which was in existence before March 23, 1898, when the Raines law was enacted; or in a hotel containing at least fifty rooms. A hotel in a no license district must have at least fifty rooms in order to make it impossible to establish a Raines law hotel in such district.

The bill was introduced by Assemblyman Wainwright and Senator Ambler, and is founded on the Ohio law, where its constitutionality was contested and its legality upheld. It did not attract any attention until it came up for final passage in the Assembly. The first time it came up it lacked three votes to pass it.

The bill was received for concurrence in the Senate yesterday morning, and Senator Ambler tried to have it referred to a third reading. The bill was referred to the Taxation Committee. This committee met immediately after the session and decided to report in favor of the bill.

The bill was received for concurrence in the Senate yesterday morning, and Senator Ambler tried to have it referred to a third reading. The bill was referred to the Taxation Committee. This committee met immediately after the session and decided to report in favor of the bill.

The bill was received for concurrence in the Senate yesterday morning, and Senator Ambler tried to have it referred to a third reading. The bill was referred to the Taxation Committee. This committee met immediately after the session and decided to report in favor of the bill.

The bill was received for concurrence in the Senate yesterday morning, and Senator Ambler tried to have it referred to a third reading. The bill was referred to the Taxation Committee. This committee met immediately after the session and decided to report in favor of the bill.

The bill was received for concurrence in the Senate yesterday morning, and Senator Ambler tried to have it referred to a third reading. The bill was referred to the Taxation Committee. This committee met immediately after the session and decided to report in favor of the bill.

The bill was received for concurrence in the Senate yesterday morning, and Senator Ambler tried to have it referred to a third reading. The bill was referred to the Taxation Committee. This committee met immediately after the session and decided to report in favor of the bill.

The bill was received for concurrence in the Senate yesterday morning, and Senator Ambler tried to have it referred to a third reading. The bill was referred to the Taxation Committee. This committee met immediately after the session and decided to report in favor of the bill.

The bill was received for concurrence in the Senate yesterday morning, and Senator Ambler tried to have it referred to a third reading. The bill was referred to the Taxation Committee. This committee met immediately after the session and decided to report in favor of the bill.

The bill was received for concurrence in the Senate yesterday morning, and Senator Ambler tried to have it referred to a third reading. The bill was referred to the Taxation Committee. This committee met immediately after the session and decided to report in favor of the bill.

The bill was received for concurrence in the Senate yesterday morning, and Senator Ambler tried to have it referred to a third reading. The bill was referred to the Taxation Committee. This committee met immediately after the session and decided to report in favor of the bill.

The bill was received for concurrence in the Senate yesterday morning, and Senator Ambler tried to have it referred to a third reading. The bill was referred to the Taxation Committee. This committee met immediately after the session and decided to report in favor of the bill.

The bill was received for concurrence in the Senate yesterday morning, and Senator Ambler tried to have it referred to a third reading. The bill was referred to the Taxation Committee. This committee met immediately after the session and decided to report in favor of the bill.

CHEAP, EFFECTIVE, PALATABLE.

THE ANALYSIS SHOWS THAT THE RICHNESS OF APERITA WATER IN NATURAL SALINE APERIENTS RENDERS IT THE SAFEST AND MOST REMEDIAL LAXATIVE AND PURGATIVE. READ THE LABEL.

APERITA HUNGARIAN NATURAL APERIENT WATER.

A Wineglassful a Dose.

The Analysis shows that the richness of Aperia Water in natural saline aperients renders it the safest and most remedial laxative and purgative. READ THE LABEL.

IN THE WIDOW'S BED.

The Widow Files to the Police Station and Several Cops Respond.

A man who had dined well rang the bell at 89 Lincoln street, Jersey City, late on Thursday night and smiled at Mrs. Henry Herschley opened the door.

"Jee' a little bit late, that's all," he said as he removed his hat and stepped boldly in. Mrs. Herschley, who is a widow, had never seen the man before and was badly frightened.

"I guess you have made a mistake," she managed to say as soon as she could get her breath. She held the door open for the intruder to pass out, but he was headed up stairs and didn't seem able to turn around.

She slowly mounted the stairs and took a tack into Mrs. Herschley's bedroom. Then he removed his clothes and turned in. He promptly fell asleep.

The cop on the other side of the bed rubbed his eyes and he rolled back to his original position. Then the policeman tumbled him out onto the floor, and he attempted to get into bed again.

When taken to the town hall and questioned by Chief Beale, she broke down and made a statement in which she confessed to a quantity of clothing from Mrs. Viola Dowell of 185 Gay street, Newark.

When taken to the town hall and questioned by Chief Beale, she broke down and made a statement in which she confessed to a quantity of clothing from Mrs. Viola Dowell of 185 Gay street, Newark.

When taken to the town hall and questioned by Chief Beale, she broke down and made a statement in which she confessed to a quantity of clothing from Mrs. Viola Dowell of 185 Gay street, Newark.

When taken to the town hall and questioned by Chief Beale, she broke down and made a statement in which she confessed to a quantity of clothing from Mrs. Viola Dowell of 185 Gay street, Newark.

When taken to the town hall and questioned by Chief Beale, she broke down and made a statement in which she confessed to a quantity of clothing from Mrs. Viola Dowell of 185 Gay street, Newark.

When taken to the town hall and questioned by Chief Beale, she broke down and made a statement in which she confessed to a quantity of clothing from Mrs. Viola Dowell of 185 Gay street, Newark.

When taken to the town hall and questioned by Chief Beale, she broke down and made a statement in which she confessed to a quantity of clothing from Mrs. Viola Dowell of 185 Gay street, Newark.

When taken to the town hall and questioned by Chief Beale, she broke down and made a statement in which she confessed to a quantity of clothing from Mrs. Viola Dowell of 185 Gay street, Newark.

When taken to the town hall and questioned by Chief Beale, she broke down and made a statement in which she confessed to a quantity of clothing from Mrs. Viola Dowell of 185 Gay street, Newark.

When taken to the town hall and questioned by Chief Beale, she broke down and made a statement in which she confessed to a quantity of clothing from Mrs. Viola Dowell of 185 Gay street, Newark.

REST & CO. LILIPUTIAN BAZAAR. Boys' Clothing. No other house gives so much attention to Boys' Clothing or takes as much pains to have it exactly right as we do.

We have every reason to believe our garments will satisfy the customer and it is with that end in view, that we conduct our business.

75-62 West 23d Street.

When you buy Arnhem Clothes you pay only for what you get, but you get more than you pay for. $40 would be the asking price of every suit we now tailor to your order at $20, if we didn't figure that "value," not name is what counts most.

Samples and fashion plates for the asking.

ARNHEIM Broadway and 9th St.

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM. Promotes the growth of the hair and gives it the lustre and softness of youth. When the hair is gray or faded it BRINGS BACK THE YOUTHFUL COLOR. It prevents Dandruff and hair falling and keeps the scalp clean and healthy.

MRS. M'LEAN CONGRATULATED. The New President-General of the D. A. R. Receives Many Visitors and Telegrams.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Mrs. Donald McLean, the newly elected president-general of the National Society of Daughters of the American Revolution, was a popular figure in Washington to-day. Her apartments in the Arlington Hotel are filled with flowers and the tables with telegrams of congratulation upon her victory.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—A young woman describing herself as Edna Williams, 21 years old, said to be the daughter of a well-to-do merchant of Long Branch, N. J., was arrested here early this morning as she was trying to gain entrance to a boarding house in Ridge street by means of a ladder.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Francisco Gutierrez, representing the Philippine Sugar Estates Development Company, which has contracted for the sale to the Government of many thousands of acres of land formerly belonging to the Dominican Order of Friars in the Philippines, reached an agreement to-day with Secretary Taft concerning the disputes which have arisen concerning surveys of five haciendas and the title of three haciendas or estates. The lands are worth altogether about $2,500,000.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Alfred Nobles, chief consulting engineer of the Pennsylvania Railroad, who is now engaged with the engineering problems involved in the building of the new kind of powder. It was built for the old style of explosive. More than two feet of the muzzle was blown off, the pieces dropping into the sea.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—There was a small gain in the Government's receipts from internal revenue in March, the total collections being $19,347,802, as against $19,084,287 in the same month of 1904. The receipts last month were distributed as follows: Spirit, $11,052,094, decrease, $227,282; tobacco, $4,227,276, increase $473,764; fermented liquors, $3,900,828, increase $258,532; oleomargarine, $78,291, increase $4,545.5; renewed each year, $10,480, decrease $1,182; miscellaneous, $70,418, decrease, $70,418.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The Earl and Countess of Suffolk in Washington. The Earl and Countess of Suffolk, the latter formerly Miss Daisy Leiter, arrived in Washington to-day and are guests at the Leiter home. They have come over on business connected with the estate of the late Levi Z. Leiter. Major John Campbell and his wife, who was Miss Nancy Leiter, will arrive in Washington next week.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—These army orders were issued to-day: Major Augustus F. Blockson, First cavalry, detailed to a vacancy in the Inspector-General's department, vice Major James Lockett, Inspector General, assigned to Fort. Major Lloyd M. Birt, from Fourth cavalry to First. Second Lieut. Eugene R. West, Artillery corps, from Second Cavalry Hospital, Washington Territory, to Fort Monroe.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The executive committee of the Isthmian Canal Commission to-day contracted for twenty-four locomotives for the Panama Railway with the American Locomotive Company of Rochester. The engines will cost $1,200,000. Contracts will be let soon for 500 new cars for the Panama Railway.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—These army orders were issued to-day: Major Augustus F. Blockson, First cavalry, detailed to a vacancy in the Inspector-General's department, vice Major James Lockett, Inspector General, assigned to Fort. Major Lloyd M. Birt, from Fourth cavalry to First. Second Lieut. Eugene R. West, Artillery corps, from Second Cavalry Hospital, Washington Territory, to Fort Monroe.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—These army orders were issued to-day: Major Augustus F. Blockson, First cavalry, detailed to a vacancy in the Inspector-General's department, vice Major James Lockett, Inspector General, assigned to Fort. Major Lloyd M. Birt, from Fourth cavalry to First. Second Lieut. Eugene R. West, Artillery corps, from Second Cavalry Hospital, Washington Territory, to Fort Monroe.

The Oppenheimer Treatment For Alcoholism. NO SUFFERING. NO INJECTION. NO DETENTION FROM BUSINESS. NO BAD AFTER EFFECTS. ALCOHOLIC CRAVING OVERCOME IN FORTY-EIGHT HOURS. Endorsed by many prominent men and women throughout the world. REV. GEO. EDWARD REED, D. D., President Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa., writes: "I know that wonderful cures have been effected and believe that the treatment is better than any other offered to the public. I would certainly advise you to have your friend enter the institution for treatment."