SEND NEGROES TO AFRICA.

PLEA OF COLORED BISHOP AT EDUCATIONAL MEETING.

No chance for the black man to attain full manhood rights in this country, said Bishop Turner of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, in an address delivered yesterday afternoon before an educational mass meeting in the Bethel A. M. E. Church, in West Twenty-fifth street.

"It is not possible for the negro to attain full manhood rights in this country," said he, "because it is a white man's land; a nation of white institutions, white ideas, white thought. The duty of the negro is generally speaking, to absorb all the good things America can give him and then return to the country of his forefathers to spread education and light among the black people of the Dark Continent."

"The negro race, like every race in the infancy of civilization, is an imitative race. Colored people may attain great things, but they cannot carry their gifts to the highest consummation in this country. Let the negroes return to Africa and build up the black man's land. It will not be a labor of years. It will take decades and generations and even centuries, but it is the only reasonable solution of the much discussed race problem."

The mass meeting was held under the auspices of Wilberforce University, near Xenia, O., and Morris Brown College of Atlanta, Ga. Its purpose was to interest negroes of this city in the educational work being done by these and similar institutions.

The Rev. E. D. Stinson, commissioner of Morris Brown College; Prof. H. V. Arnett of Wilberforce, son of Bishop Arnett of Ohio; Bishop Turner of Atlanta, the Rev. H. T. Johnson, editor of the Episcopal Church, secretary of missions for the Church, and local pastors of colored churches were the speakers.

The old Bethel church did not begin to hold the crowd that turned out to hear the famous colored educators. Hundreds were turned away.

Notice to the Public In the Borough of Queens and Manhattan Who Will Be Benefited by Rapid Transit Facilities.

It has been the object of Interborough Rapid Transit Company to connect the various boroughs of the city, with the least possible delay and in the most satisfactory, convenient and practical manner.

To that end it has undertaken to expend eight million dollars ($8,000,000) of its own money in building Manhattan-Brooklyn extension of the Subway. It has recently become interested in the so-called "Steinway Franchise" for a tunnel under the East River connecting Manhattan and Queens at 41st Street.

This franchise was granted to the New York and Long Island Railroad Company by the Board of Aldermen in December, 1890, and by the Common Council of Long Island City in October, 1891. Shortly after work was commenced. During the fifteen years which have elapsed, great improvement in tunnel construction has been made and competent engineers now advise a modification of the original plans so that in the public interest a grade could be adopted which will enable a practical connection to be made with the Manhattan Subway system and the Queens County surface lines.

In order to facilitate these changes, Bills have been introduced and are now pending in the Legislature, which rival interests have indicated as "Grab Bills," seeking thus to give the impression that an effort was being made to procure franchises without the consent of the city authorities and without making compensation. As above stated, the City authorities have given their consent for this tunnel railroad which will serve a great public purpose and has made provisions in the ordinance granting its consent for the payment to the City of a percentage of the gross receipts in compensation for the franchise granted. The original charter line of the company embraced rights which the City authorities have not consented to and one of the pending Bills would enable them to abandon this unconsumed franchise; while another Bill authorizes amendments to cure technical omissions and defects.

The passage of all these Bills is believed to be in the public interest and peculiarly to the advantage of the property owners above described, whose interest it is to promote the development of transit facilities between the large and neglected Borough of Queens and the more densely populated portions of the City.

For the city at large it will create a new and heavy taxpayer in the New York and Long Island Railroad Company and many new and added ones in the Borough of Queens, whose growth will be enormously increased by this proposed rail facility.

NEW WAY TO MEET CHURCH DEBT.

Archbishop Farley's Plan for the System Adopted at St. Anthony's. Archbishop Farley blessed the completed church and school building of St. Anthony of Padua, in East 163rd street, yesterday morning. He was assisted by Mr. McLean of St. Peter's Church and the Rev. John A. Kellner, pastor of St. Gabriel's Church, New Rochelle. A solemn high mass was sung by the Rev. John Mayer of St. Nicholas's Church.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies Archbishop Farley gave the Papal benediction and said: "I have had a surprise in the method employed to raise money to carry the work to completion. Your pastor has shown me a list of fifty-three of his parishioners, each of whom has assumed the responsibility of paying the interest upon $1,000 until such time as the parish is able to take the debt."

"In all my experience as pastor, Bishop and Archbishop I have never seen or heard of such a method of raising money. I don't know to whom credit is due for this financing. But all honor to it. If it be Father Struck, he has inaugurated a new departure in paying off church debts. I hope this will become known far and wide and that the same method will be adopted in other growing parishes in the archdiocese."

An eminent statesman of this country, but not of our faith, said a short time ago: "There can be no suspicion as to the value of Catholics as citizens, because we have before our eyes the evidence of their virtue, zeal and earnestness. They are willing to share with us in our sufferings. But in these material foundations they leave us hostages and guarantees of their loyalty to the institutions and government of this country."

"Other denominations are flatterings us in following our system of having church and school side by side. Since I have become Archbishop I have insisted upon pastors building the school first and the church last. If we don't have schools to teach Christianity along with knowledge we won't have any congregations to fill our churches."

The Archbishop also laid the cornerstone to another parochial school in The Bronx yesterday afternoon. The school is attached to St. Augustine's Church, which is built on the hill in the triangle formed by Fulton and Franklin avenues and East 167th street. The church faces one of the city parks.

Paris Dress Fabrics Under-Price.

THIS morning we announce a series of liberal reductions on the prices of about one hundred and fifty varieties of the choicest weaves brought from Paris this season.

These are the exclusive fabrics, personally selected by our representative, which we buy in one or two dress patterns of a kind, and which are exclusive with WANAMAKER'S in this city. All the way through the collection they have been marked from 50c. to 75c. a yard lower than their former fair prices. The woman who secures these fabrics knows that the design of her dress is exclusively her own.

The materials are for both afternoon and evening gowns, as well as many sheer fabrics that will make elegant outing suits. It is impossible to give the entire list of such a varied collection, but the following will suggest the character of the goods, and the reductions:

SUNDAY BALL STOPPED.

Petitioners Who Object to Leifers in the Cars Win Their Point.

NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y., April 30.—Acting under instructions from the Sheriff of Westchester county, deputy sheriffs today stopped Sunday baseball playing, which has been going on at Dillon Park for nearly two years. The Sheriff acted after he had been served with a petition against the game signed by 500 church people of New Rochelle.

Many of the persons who signed the petition stated that they were not so much opposed to the ball games as they were to the crowds, made up of men and boys, from all parts of the county, who swarmed the trolleys and conducted themselves in a disorderly manner while riding to and from the ball grounds.

EAST SIDE YOUNG MEN'S CLUB

John Ahearn Congratulates the Benevolent Association on Its New Building.

The new clubhouse of the Young Men's Benevolent Association, 311 East Broadway, was gay with American flags and streamers without, and with palms and carnations within, yesterday afternoon. The occasion was the formal dedication of the building for which the association has been striving for sixteen years.

After an opening prayer by the Rev. Dr. H. Pereira Mendes, rabbi of Shearith Israel synagogue, John F. Ahearn delivered the opening address, congratulating the young men on their work. Dr. Blaustein, superintendent of the Educational Alliance, also spoke in praise of the club.

"It is the work of an organization like yours, rooted in the East Side," said he, "that is of most lasting good and influence among its people. You must realize that duty—to improve conditions here so that the newly arrived Jews are assisted and made better men from the day they arrive. If they find on the East Side purity in politics, rectitude in family life, they will bless the hour in which they came under the benediction of the Goddess of Liberty in our harbor. But if they find here the demagogues, they will curse the day on which Columbus discovered America."

Congressman Goldfogle and the Rev. Dr. Mendes also made addresses. The clubhouses look like a dwelling house near Central Park West. It has five stories, cost about $50,000 with the site, and contains a gymnasium, shower baths, bowling alleys, a free library and parlors for literary exercises and social pastimes.

FELL DOWN HOTEL STEPS.

Connor's Brothers Blame Two Clerks for His Death—Sent From Home for Nuisance.

Peter Connor of 834 West Twenty-first street died at the New York Hospital yesterday morning at 5:30 o'clock from a fracture of the base of the skull. His brothers Thomas and George told the police that he was injured in an altercation with two clerks of the Florence Hotel, at 220 Eighth avenue. Edward Miller and Robert McKenna, who are employed there, were arrested. They say that Connor fell down the steps leading from the hotel to the school. Archbishop Farley blessed them.

The police learned that Peter Connor when under the influence of liquor was noisy and his family refused to let him stay in the house. On Saturday, having lost his job as a clerk, he began to drink, and when he went home his brothers took him to the Florence Hotel and engaged a room for him. They had taken him there on other occasions. About 2 o'clock they left him and started for their home.

They had reached the street when they heard a scuffle and went back. They told the police that they saw the two hotel clerks grappling with their brother. He fell and the bottom he was unconscious. Miller and McKenna were held by Coroner Goldenkrantz in $2,500 bail each until this morning.
