

The Sun

THURSDAY, MAY 25, 1905. Entered at the Post Office at New York as Second-Class Matter. Subscriptions by Mail, Postpaid.

Published by The Sun Printing and Publishing Association at 110 News street, in the Borough of Manhattan, New York.

If you friends wish to receive the Sun, please send them the name and address of the person to whom you wish it sent.

The Situation in Philadelphia.

There is good reason for believing that Mayor Weaver means business; means to fight the case all the way to the Supreme Court of the United States if necessary.

We congratulate the honest people of Philadelphia upon the strong indications of backbone in the person of the Mayor charged with the guardianship of their interests.

But why should the truly virile and veritable qualities in the Hon. JOHN WEAVER have been so long in manifesting their existence?

The answers to these questions must be afforded by event to come. Perhaps he has always been at heart a reformer of municipal conditions and has awaited the opportunity of proceeding to deeds with the advantage of the support of an overwhelming public sentiment.

Perhaps he sees for the first time the chance for a repetition of the memorable revolution of 1857. Perhaps it would be pleasant to think so—the continued prayers of the devout have not been without effect in awakening his perceptions of right and wrong.

These are the points which the public is most deeply concerned. Investigations and arguments which do not show how one or both of these ends may be served might almost as well be left unmade.

Secretary Taft on the Deficit. With his usual clearness in presentation, Secretary Taft defined to the Ohio State Convention at Columbus yesterday the general policies of the Administration.

Wanted, Practical Results. If the statements made by Mr. CHARLES EDWARD RUSSELL in Everybody's Magazine will stand analysis, as many of them evidently will, it would seem that he, and not Mr. GARFIELD, should have charge of the beef investigation.

Mr. RUSSELL divides the beef business, as represented by the packers, into two departments—the Daylight and the Dark Lantern.

There could be no squarer statement of a situation that is bound to give trouble to the Administration, to Congress and to the country.

The Term "Gentleman" in America. A correspondent at Washington has this to say with regard to an assertion recently made by us:

It seems to us that neither of these gentlemen has yet touched the heart of this matter. Mr. GARFIELD has missed it altogether, and Mr. RUSSELL is hovering around the edge of it.

It seems to us that neither of these gentlemen has yet touched the heart of this matter. Mr. GARFIELD has missed it altogether, and Mr. RUSSELL is hovering around the edge of it.

It seems to us that neither of these gentlemen has yet touched the heart of this matter. Mr. GARFIELD has missed it altogether, and Mr. RUSSELL is hovering around the edge of it.

It seems to us that neither of these gentlemen has yet touched the heart of this matter. Mr. GARFIELD has missed it altogether, and Mr. RUSSELL is hovering around the edge of it.

It seems to us that neither of these gentlemen has yet touched the heart of this matter. Mr. GARFIELD has missed it altogether, and Mr. RUSSELL is hovering around the edge of it.

It seems to us that neither of these gentlemen has yet touched the heart of this matter. Mr. GARFIELD has missed it altogether, and Mr. RUSSELL is hovering around the edge of it.

It seems to us that neither of these gentlemen has yet touched the heart of this matter. Mr. GARFIELD has missed it altogether, and Mr. RUSSELL is hovering around the edge of it.

It seems to us that neither of these gentlemen has yet touched the heart of this matter. Mr. GARFIELD has missed it altogether, and Mr. RUSSELL is hovering around the edge of it.

it seems to us that Mr. RUSSELL presents the stronger case. The fact remains that the price of beef on the butcher's block has advanced materially.

The Money of the Rich. The religious discussion still proceeding over the taking of the money of Mr. ROCKEFELLER for any religious purpose is somewhat significant.

Lovers of city dogs are endeavoring to compel some of the authorities, at least a plain which one is charged with this responsibility, to supply drinking fountains for dogs during the summer months.

Japan Not a Heathen Nation. To the EDITOR OF THE SUN: Do you not think that to Japan really belongs the right of reform, as they are, particularly recently to the people of Russia, particularly the Polish subjects of the Czar?

The Pay Roll of Municipal Ownership. To the EDITOR OF THE SUN: The Mayor has a resolution authorizing the appointment of a superintendent and two assistants to take charge of the Staten Island ferry.

Vendor Nuisance at the Ball Game. To the EDITOR OF THE SUN: The vendor nuisance at the National League ball games at the Polo Grounds should be stopped.

Japanese Word. From the English. A few of the most amusing and laughable labels that are worthy of notice as specimens of "English as it is Japanese."

Sea Breeze, the Coney Island home for poor babies, has been opened for the season by the Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor.

Miss Yoder's Grass Green Cattle. The Observer is indebted to a fair young miss of Catskills county for the following letter and the accompanying news item.

Out West. First Wolf—Understand you carry life insurance? Second Wolf—Yes, the State will pay $2 after I'm dead.

Timely illustrated articles in the Century Magazine for June describe the Victoria Falls of the Zambezi recently bridged, and the piercing of the Simpson tunnel.

Sumner Anderson will find in Harper's Magazine for June an abundance of fiction, eight short stories and a leading article.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

definite as used there. The determination of what it means is left to the moral sense of the court-martial.

Lovers of city dogs are endeavoring to compel some of the authorities, at least a plain which one is charged with this responsibility, to supply drinking fountains for dogs during the summer months.

Japan Not a Heathen Nation. To the EDITOR OF THE SUN: Do you not think that to Japan really belongs the right of reform, as they are, particularly recently to the people of Russia, particularly the Polish subjects of the Czar?

The Pay Roll of Municipal Ownership. To the EDITOR OF THE SUN: The Mayor has a resolution authorizing the appointment of a superintendent and two assistants to take charge of the Staten Island ferry.

Vendor Nuisance at the Ball Game. To the EDITOR OF THE SUN: The vendor nuisance at the National League ball games at the Polo Grounds should be stopped.

Japanese Word. From the English. A few of the most amusing and laughable labels that are worthy of notice as specimens of "English as it is Japanese."

Sea Breeze, the Coney Island home for poor babies, has been opened for the season by the Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor.

Miss Yoder's Grass Green Cattle. The Observer is indebted to a fair young miss of Catskills county for the following letter and the accompanying news item.

Out West. First Wolf—Understand you carry life insurance? Second Wolf—Yes, the State will pay $2 after I'm dead.

Timely illustrated articles in the Century Magazine for June describe the Victoria Falls of the Zambezi recently bridged, and the piercing of the Simpson tunnel.

Sumner Anderson will find in Harper's Magazine for June an abundance of fiction, eight short stories and a leading article.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

belief which are at once insidious in their approach, and dangerous in their results.

Lovers of city dogs are endeavoring to compel some of the authorities, at least a plain which one is charged with this responsibility, to supply drinking fountains for dogs during the summer months.

Japan Not a Heathen Nation. To the EDITOR OF THE SUN: Do you not think that to Japan really belongs the right of reform, as they are, particularly recently to the people of Russia, particularly the Polish subjects of the Czar?

The Pay Roll of Municipal Ownership. To the EDITOR OF THE SUN: The Mayor has a resolution authorizing the appointment of a superintendent and two assistants to take charge of the Staten Island ferry.

Vendor Nuisance at the Ball Game. To the EDITOR OF THE SUN: The vendor nuisance at the National League ball games at the Polo Grounds should be stopped.

Japanese Word. From the English. A few of the most amusing and laughable labels that are worthy of notice as specimens of "English as it is Japanese."

Sea Breeze, the Coney Island home for poor babies, has been opened for the season by the Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor.

Miss Yoder's Grass Green Cattle. The Observer is indebted to a fair young miss of Catskills county for the following letter and the accompanying news item.

Out West. First Wolf—Understand you carry life insurance? Second Wolf—Yes, the State will pay $2 after I'm dead.

Timely illustrated articles in the Century Magazine for June describe the Victoria Falls of the Zambezi recently bridged, and the piercing of the Simpson tunnel.

Sumner Anderson will find in Harper's Magazine for June an abundance of fiction, eight short stories and a leading article.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

Police Commissioner McAdoo sent out a general order yesterday directing that all policemen under the rank of Captain should have two days extra pay.

THE JEWS OF RUSSIA.

Important Developments Likely to Bimble Their Emigration to this Country. To the EDITOR OF THE SUN: The last number of the London Jewish Chronicle contains many interesting articles.

The omission of all reference to the Jews in the Czar's recent use, which was the same as that which followed the Imperial rescript of Dec. 25, on the religious liberty to be conceded to the non-Orthodox Christian sects.

It will surprise many readers to learn that the Jewish population is largely represented in the Russian Revolution, occupying very important positions among the Liberal party in the Russian capital itself.

A very remarkable incident was the demand of equal rights for the Jews by the Jewish conference which took place at Wilna several weeks ago.

The liberal minded Russian Ministers, like De Witte and Veremoloff, are decidedly in favor of the extension of Jewish liberties, but would prefer, for present reasons, to make this extension in instalments only.

This new condition of things will, of course, greatly modify the emigration movement, and will result in a great number of the extreme competition brought about by the herding of the Jews in the Pale, and of the other racial disabilities to which they are subjected.

Is the Russian Squadron's Objective Permorska Rather Than Vladivostok? To the EDITOR OF THE SUN: Should the Russian squadron under Admiral Rozhdestvensky have succeeded in gaining the open Pacific, as there is now reason to believe it has, we are about to witness an interesting display of naval strategical maneuvering.

It is true that we need score cards, but save us from the temptation to do so. The agreement entered into at the rear of the seats, where patrons may supply their wants without having their enjoyment of both the game and sport of the field of golf marred.

It is true that we need score cards, but save us from the temptation to do so. The agreement entered into at the rear of the seats, where patrons may supply their wants without having their enjoyment of both the game and sport of the field of golf marred.

It is true that we need score cards, but save us from the temptation to do so. The agreement entered into at the rear of the seats, where patrons may supply their wants without having their enjoyment of both the game and sport of the field of golf marred.

It is true that we need score cards, but save us from the temptation to do so. The agreement entered into at the rear of the seats, where patrons may supply their wants without having their enjoyment of both the game and sport of the field of golf marred.

It is true that we need score cards, but save us from the temptation to do so. The agreement entered into at the rear of the seats, where patrons may supply their wants without having their enjoyment of both the game and sport of the field of golf marred.

It is true that we need score cards, but save us from the temptation to do so. The agreement entered into at the rear of the seats, where patrons may supply their wants without having their enjoyment of both the game and sport of the field of golf marred.

It is true that we need score cards, but save us from the temptation to do so. The agreement entered into at the rear of the seats, where patrons may supply their wants without having their enjoyment of both the game and sport of the field of golf marred.

It is true that we need score cards, but save us from the temptation to do so. The agreement entered into at the rear of the seats, where patrons may supply their wants without having their enjoyment of both the game and sport of the field of golf marred.

It is true that we need score cards, but save us from the temptation to do so. The agreement entered into at the rear of the seats, where patrons may supply their wants without having their enjoyment of both the game and sport of the field of golf marred.

SAVING HUNT IS UNLAWFUL.

Argument on Case of Tobacco Witness Who Refused to Answer. The argument on the writ of habeas corpus issued by Edwin F. Hale, the resident of tobacco trust witness, was heard yesterday by Judge Wallace in the United States Circuit Court.

Henry W. Taft, special United States District Attorney in New York, said that there was no legal warrant for his examination and that such testimony as he was asked to give might tend to incriminate him.

It is not possible to say that the Grand Jury's investigation was without warrant of law, and that the witness was not protected in answering by the immunity provision of the Federal statutes.

It is not possible to say that the Grand Jury's investigation was without warrant of law, and that the witness was not protected in answering by the immunity provision of the Federal statutes.

It is not possible to say that the Grand Jury's investigation was without warrant of law, and that the witness was not protected in answering by the immunity provision of the Federal statutes.

It is not possible to say that the Grand Jury's investigation was without warrant of law, and that the witness was not protected in answering by the immunity provision of the Federal statutes.

It is not possible to say that the Grand Jury's investigation was without warrant of law, and that the witness was not protected in answering by the immunity provision of the Federal statutes.

It is not possible to say that the Grand Jury's investigation was without warrant of law, and that the witness was not protected in answering by the immunity provision of the Federal statutes.

It is not possible to say that the Grand Jury's investigation was without warrant of law, and that the witness was not protected in answering by the immunity provision of the Federal statutes.

It is not possible to say that the Grand Jury's investigation was without warrant of law, and that the witness was not protected in answering by the immunity provision of the Federal statutes.

It is not possible to say that the Grand Jury's investigation was without warrant of law, and that the witness was not protected in answering by the immunity provision of the Federal statutes.

It is not possible to say that the Grand Jury's investigation was without warrant of law, and that the witness was not protected in answering by the immunity provision of the Federal statutes.

It is not possible to say that the Grand Jury's investigation was without warrant of law, and that the witness was not protected in answering by the immunity provision of the Federal statutes.

It is not possible to say that the Grand Jury's investigation was without warrant of law, and that the witness was not protected in answering by the immunity provision of the Federal statutes.

It is not possible to say that the Grand Jury's investigation was without warrant of law, and that the witness was not protected in answering by the immunity provision of the Federal statutes.

It is not possible to say that the Grand Jury's investigation was without warrant of law, and that the witness was not protected in answering by the immunity provision of the Federal statutes.

MAYOR WARY WITH P. R. R.

Doesn't See Why Connecting Railroad Bills should be Passed. At a public hearing yesterday on two bills extending to six years the time in which the New York Connecting Railroad Company may build its proposed railroad through Brooklyn and Queens and a bridge across the East River to carry the road to Matt Haven, Mayor McClellan, by the questions he put to Edward M. Shepard, who appeared in favor of the bills, made it clear that he regarded the measures as an attempt to commit him to approving the bills.

As a public hearing yesterday on two bills extending to six years the time in which the New York Connecting Railroad Company may build its proposed railroad through Brooklyn and Queens and a bridge across the East River to carry the road to Matt Haven, Mayor McClellan, by the questions he put to Edward M. Shepard, who appeared in favor of the bills, made it clear that he regarded the measures as an attempt to commit him to approving the bills.

As a public hearing yesterday on two bills extending to six years the time in which the New York Connecting Railroad Company may build its proposed railroad through Brooklyn and Queens and a bridge across the East River to carry the road to Matt Haven, Mayor McClellan, by the questions he put to Edward M. Shepard, who appeared in favor of the bills, made it clear that he regarded the measures as an attempt to commit him to approving the bills.

As a public hearing yesterday on two bills extending to six years the time in which the New York Connecting Railroad Company may build its proposed railroad through Brooklyn and Queens and a bridge across the East River to carry the road to Matt Haven, Mayor McClellan, by the questions he put to Edward M. Shepard, who appeared in favor of the bills, made it clear that he regarded the measures as an attempt to commit him to approving the bills.

As a public hearing yesterday on two bills extending to six years the time in which the New York Connecting Railroad Company may build its proposed railroad through Brooklyn and Queens and a bridge across the East River to carry the road to Matt Haven, Mayor McClellan, by the questions he put to Edward M. Shepard, who appeared in favor of the bills, made it clear that he regarded the measures as an attempt to commit him to approving the bills.

As a public hearing yesterday on two bills extending to six years the time in which the New York Connecting Railroad Company may build its proposed railroad through Brooklyn and Queens and a bridge across the East River to carry the road to Matt Haven, Mayor McClellan, by the questions he put to Edward M. Shepard, who appeared in favor of the bills, made it clear that he regarded the measures as an attempt to commit him to approving the bills.

As a public hearing yesterday on two bills extending to six years the time in which the New York Connecting Railroad Company may build its proposed railroad through Brooklyn and Queens and a bridge across the East River to carry the road to Matt Haven, Mayor McClellan, by the questions he put to Edward M. Shepard, who appeared in favor of the bills, made it clear that he regarded the measures as an attempt to commit him to approving the bills.

As a public hearing yesterday on two bills extending to six years the time in which the New York Connecting Railroad Company may build its proposed railroad through Brooklyn and Queens and a bridge across the East River to carry the road to Matt Haven, Mayor McClellan, by the questions he put to Edward M. Shepard, who appeared in favor of the bills, made it clear that he regarded the measures as an attempt to commit him to approving the bills.

As a public hearing yesterday on two bills extending to six years the time in which the New York Connecting Railroad Company may build its proposed railroad through Brooklyn and Queens and a bridge across the East River to carry the road to Matt Haven, Mayor McClellan, by the questions he put to Edward M. Shepard, who appeared in favor of the bills, made it clear that he regarded the measures as an attempt to commit him to approving the bills.

As a public hearing yesterday on two bills extending to six years the time in which the New York Connecting Railroad Company may build its proposed railroad through Brooklyn and Queens and a bridge across the East River to carry the road to Matt Haven, Mayor McClellan, by the questions he put to Edward M. Shepard, who appeared in favor of the bills, made it clear that he regarded the measures as an attempt to commit him to approving the bills.

As a public hearing yesterday on two bills extending to six years the time in which the New York Connecting Railroad Company may build its proposed railroad through Brooklyn and Queens and a bridge across the East River to carry the road to Matt Haven, Mayor McClellan, by the questions he put to Edward M. Shepard, who appeared in favor of the bills, made it clear that he regarded the measures as an attempt to commit him to approving the bills.

As a public hearing yesterday on two bills extending to six years the time in which the New York Connecting Railroad Company may build its proposed railroad through Brooklyn and Queens and a bridge across the East River to carry the road to Matt Haven, Mayor McClellan, by the questions he put to Edward M. Shepard, who appeared in favor of the bills, made it clear that he regarded the measures as an attempt to commit him to approving the bills.

As a public hearing yesterday on two bills extending to six years the time in which the New York Connecting Railroad Company may build its proposed railroad through Brooklyn and Queens and a bridge across the East River to carry the road to Matt Haven, Mayor McClellan, by the questions he put to Edward M. Shepard, who appeared in favor of the bills, made it clear that he regarded the measures as an attempt to commit him to approving the bills.

As a public hearing yesterday on two bills extending to six years the time in which the New York Connecting Railroad Company may build its proposed railroad through Brooklyn and Queens and a bridge across the East River to carry the road to Matt Haven, Mayor McClellan, by the questions he put to Edward M. Shepard, who appeared in favor of the bills, made it clear that he regarded the measures as an attempt to commit him to approving the bills.

As a public hearing yesterday on two bills extending to six years the time in which the New York Connecting Railroad Company may build its proposed railroad through Brooklyn and Queens and a bridge across the East River to carry the road to Matt Haven, Mayor McClellan, by the questions he put to Edward M. Shepard, who appeared in favor of the bills, made it clear that he regarded the measures as an attempt to commit him to approving the bills.

As a public hearing yesterday on two bills extending to six years the time in which the New York Connecting Railroad Company may build its proposed railroad through Brooklyn and Queens and a bridge across the East River to carry the road to Matt Haven, Mayor McClellan, by the questions he put to Edward M. Shepard, who appeared in favor of the bills, made it clear that he regarded the measures as an attempt to commit him to approving the bills.

As a public hearing yesterday on two bills extending to six years the time in which the New York Connecting Railroad Company may build its proposed railroad through Brooklyn and Queens and a bridge across the East River to carry the road to Matt Haven, Mayor McClellan, by the questions he put to Edward M. Shepard, who appeared in favor of the bills, made it clear that he regarded the measures as an attempt to commit him to approving the bills.