

AMBULANCE RACES NOW ON.

HUDSON ST. AND ST. GREGORY'S BRIGGONS GALLOP FOR CASES.

Hospital's Wagons Beat Those of the Old to the Scenes of Recent Accidents—Seems Likely to Have a Monopoly of Productive (Brooklyn) Bridge Entrance.

If you want to make a surgeon of the mean street hospital jump, mention St. Gregory's to him. St. Gregory's is the new emergency hospital which was opened a few days ago at the foot of the Hudson street hospital.

On Saturday night a policeman sent an ambulance to the Hudson street hospital on account of an accident in Whitehall street, and it took only to find that the ambulance had been taken to St. Gregory's.

When Police Commissioner McAdoe returns to town he may be asked to split the district so that each hospital shall have its share of the business.

St. Gregory's, which is in all the lot of St. Gregory's, which is in all the lot of St. Gregory's, which is in all the lot of St. Gregory's.

YES, THEY'LL PARADE.

Montclair's Paid Firemen Will, Even Though Booker T. Washington Speaks.

Montclair, N. J., July 2.—The reported refusal of the Montclair Fire Department to parade on the Fourth of July because of Booker T. Washington is to deliver the address at the public exercises has stirred discussion among the citizens to day.

When Mrs. Housewife said to-day that there had been no official declaration on the part of the firemen to parade, there had been a good deal of talk among the men, but for himself he would be ready for duty at 9 o'clock on the morning of the Fourth.

BAR SALUTES BENCH.

Prevalts on a Shoestring Case Before Magistrate Finn.

When Magistrate Battery Dan Finn took on the bench yesterday in the New Market police court Rosey the lawyer was on the front bench reserved for flyers.

BIPODDROME MAN WINS.

In Sell Tickets Outside Whether Speculator Approves or Not.

Laborer, a ticket speculator, tried yesterday to have Magistrate Mayo to the Yorkville police court decide that George A. Kingsbury, the general manager of the Hippodrome, had been guilty of a violation of law in selling a theater ticket on the sidewalk at the closing operation on Saturday night.

LIVE TOPICS ABOUT TOWN.

"PRINTERS' INK" FOR JULY 5.

contains an authorized and approved interview with the Third Assistant Postmaster General, the Hon. Edwin C. Madden.

It is the only interview ever given for publication on the subject of second class postal rates by a Department official.

A ten-page story dealing with a gigantic question, unsolved yet, but which affects one of the greatest industries in the United States—the publishing business.

With its solution Administrations, Congress and Postmaster Generals have vainly struggled for years.

PRINTERS' INK is an absolutely independent journal for advertisers, connected in no way whatever with any advertising agency, selling its advertising space only for cash, and standing entirely upon its merits as a news medium for advertisers and an educative force in the advertising field.

It is published every Wednesday and should be read by every business man who is interested in publicity as a modern business force. Subscription price $2 per year, $1 for six months, single copies five cents.

Address: CHAS. J. ZINGG, Mgr., 10 Spruce St. (up stairs), N. Y. City.

It is a dull week when some Italian society or other doesn't hold a celebration before the Garibaldi monument in Washington Square.

It is the custom of the societies to march to the square in procession, hang a wreath on the monument and hold short exercises.

There are all sorts of private pilgrimages, too. The other day a whole Italian family, new immigrants from their clothes, marched up to the monument and around it.

"Does this car stop at Thirteenth street," the nervous old lady on the Grand Central platform asked of the express guard.

"No ma'am. Stops at Fourteenth; step lively," growled the guard.

"Oh, never mind," she answered sweetly. "I'll wait for a train that stops at Thirteenth."

The bridge whist players in a Brooklyn club indulge in a game of chance between rubbers to insure against their thirst becoming unbearable.
