EIGHTEEN CASES FOUND IN PLAQUEMINE PARISH, LA.

Twelve More Deaths in New Orleans—United States Detention Camps All Filled and Many Wanting to Enter Them as to Leave the Stricken District.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 14.—Yellow fever caused twelve deaths to-day. Fifty-five new cases were discovered. This makes a total during the epidemic of 187 deaths and 1,018 cases, a mortality percentage of 17.5.

The new point of infection was disclosed to-day in Plaquemine parish, twenty-two miles below New Orleans, where eighteen cases of yellow fever of a mild type were brought to light. The disease was carried there from New Orleans by Italian refugees and concealed from the health officers until disclosed by a thorough investigation.

There are now forty-one cases of fever at Patterson and there has been so far only one death, with two seriously sick. It was the mildness of the disease which misled the doctors so long and enabled the fever to get headway. It prevails exclusively among the poorer classes.

The United States detention camps are all full and there are long waiting lists of people anxious to enter them in order to go from New Orleans to other parts of the State. The waiting list at Camp Wyman at Harahan is 300, at Avondale 250, and at Slidell 150.

A CLEANHANDED LEGISLATOR.

Neither Pen Stains Nor Knife Sears Accuse This Nutmeg Solon.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Aug. 14.—It has just come out that Edwin Hallowell of Derby a member of the recent Connecticut General Assembly, did not use one of the pen knives or gold mounted fountain pens that cost the State in extra stationery $15,000.

He was the only member of the lower house who refused to accept a pen or knife from the State, although entitled to it. He bought his own knives and pens. He would not use the railroad pass that is furnished to every member of the Legislature, except when he went from Derby to Hartford on legislative business.

All members used these passes even when the Legislature was not in session, and this is in accordance with custom. Many of them went to Hartford on personal business, but always paid his fare. He is very wealthy and a prosperous merchant.

At one of the debates in the house his name was read out several times by the clerk, who has received orders on an important measure. Hallowell at last arose and made this speech: "Some want me to vote one way and others want me to vote the other. I don't know which way to vote." Then he sat down.

He is the legislator who wanted the Legislature to pass a resolution in honor of President Roosevelt's utterance on race suicide.

BASIN, Wyo., Aug. 14.—The vigilantes of the Big Horn Basin, formed several weeks ago for the avowed purpose of ridding this part of Wyoming of outlaws and bad men in general, are fast accomplishing their purpose, two deaths being laid at the door of the organization, in addition to the departure of more than a dozen evil characters.

The first death was that of Bob McCoy, a ruster and notorious character, whose body was found by the road side on the left ear, the sign of the vigilantes. A week later William Madison was found swinging to a limb with his left ear cut off.

The vigilantes are composed of the most prominent men in the Big Horn Basin and are unofficially known to everybody. The times by which they have made no effort to interfere with them.

BOXING PART OF A TAR'S WORK

MAN KILLED IN BOUT REPORTED "DEAD IN LINE OF DUTY"

Said to Have Been Forced into a Mill Aboard the Yankee for the Edification of Caribbean Squadron Officers, Though Complaining of Illness.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—An investigation at the Navy Department to-day disclosed the fact that Raphael Cohen, a coal passer on the cruiser Yankee, was killed on board that vessel in a boxing contest at Monte Cristi, Santo Domingo, on July 7.

It has been alleged that the man was forced into the fight for the edification of the officers of the Yankee and of other vessels of the Caribbean squadron. The officers of the Yankee were giving an entertainment on board. Rear Admiral Bradford, commanding the Caribbean squadron, reported Cohen's death on July 10, merely saying that the sailor came to his death by a blow on the head sustained in a boxing contest.

A board of inquiry was ordered on the case. The court found that there was no need for further action, as death had been accidental.

DEAD HAND ON THE THROTTLE. Fast Flier Speed Past Danger Signals Engineer Was Killed.

ELIZABETH, Aug. 14.—William F. Stoot of Harrison, N. J., the freeman of the fast Flying Virginian, the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad through express to St. Louis, which left Jersey City at 5:25 o'clock last evening, saved the lives of his passengers by taking charge of the locomotive after the engineer, Dan Mahoney, had been killed in the cab.

When Stoot grasped the throttle and slackened speed the train had already passed at least two danger signals. The train made Trenton on schedule time last night, but pulled out of that city with a smoking journal. Mahoney was afraid of that journal and kept a watch on it as he sped along.

As he stopped to mop the perspiration from his brow, a lucky glance through the other side of the cab revealed a red light. "Dan!" he yelled, but there was no answer.

Another instant a second red light was passed. It was plain that something was wrong and that he and the passengers behind him, as things stood, were riding to almost certain death.

For God's sake, why don't you slow her up?" he again called to the engineer. "We have passed two red lights. Check her, Dan, for God's sake."
