The EXHIBITION OF Hand-Worked LINENS

We have rarely made an exhibition that has aroused so much enthusiastic comment as this. Women stand along the Broadway windows, and don't seem to be able to get their eyes away from the exquisite pieces that are there displayed.

The exhibition presents about fifteen thousand dollars' worth of Art Linens, all made entirely by hand.

The display continues. Do not fail to see it, this week.

Linens Store, Third floor.

Smart Fancy Shirts at $1

The same man who makes the famous Wanamaker Dollar Dress Shirts made these. You may be sure, therefore, of their good fit and clean-cut finish.

They are made of a splendid quality of percale, in blue or tan mottled effect, or white grounds, with neat stripes and figures of black, blue or tan. Still bosoms open back and front, with detachable cuffs or coat style, with cuffs attached. Sizes 14 to 17.

Truly, the smartest shirts for Fall and Winter wear that can be seen anywhere at $1.

Ninth street aisle.

Very Stylish Fall Overcoats For Men

Women's Wraps De Luxe

If you searched through Paris itself you would find no wraps more beautiful. We searched through Paris for these.

If you search through New York you will find no wraps like these. They have no duplicates. Made for us alone.

If you had these French wraps exactly copied in New York, the copies would cost you more than these imported, exclusive models do.

Fluffy, lacy Opera Wraps, or wraps of heavy silks or of the finest broadcloth made. Everything handsome that the best French skill can produce, or the best French taste dictate.

At $36 to $250.

Second floor, Broadway.

Women's Negligees

At $10, were $15 to $20

This is quite a large collection of Tea Gowns and Negligees of China Silk, trimmed with lace, some of albatross with embroidered collars and cuffs, mostly in light blue and pink. Only a few of a kind, as these particular garments have been picked out of our stocks because of being mused or slightly soiled, and not worth their former prices when placed beside the fine, new garments that have just come in.

Women who enjoy the possession of these fine house garments will appreciate securing them at today's price — $10 each, reduced from $15 to $20.

Little French Store, Second floor.

WOMEN STUDY VIVISECTION.

Eight of Them Enter Men's Class at the Chicago University.

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—Eight women students have entered a large male class in vivisection which will be taught this quarter at the University of Chicago.

They will experiment on dogs, for which they pay 50 cents each; cats, for which they pay 25 cents, and, as one of the instructors said, on "anything else they can get hold of."

The class is an unusually large one and is obliged to go to the laboratory in two sections.

WIRE FRAME WORKERS STRIKE.

Millinery Trade Will Be Affected If Strike Is Not Soon Settled.

The Wire Frame Makers' Union has ordered a general strike for an advance in wages from $12 to $15 a week. The strike went into effect yesterday and involves 1,000 men and women who make the wire skeletons of bonnets and hats for women.

The strikers, about equally divided between men and women, met yesterday at the Astoria Assembly Rooms, 62 East Fourth street. The executive committee of the union reported that trade was brisk now and that there is a demand for workers in the business.
