

Interesting Things At WANAMAKER'S THE days of the French Revolution are numbered. The exposition space is needed for other uses. Daily appreciation from highly intelligent visitors indicates the value of the collection.

Musical Recitals in the Piano Store Hall at 11 A. M. and 2:30 P. M. Today's programs include selections by Mr. FERDINAND HIMMELREICH, Pianist; Mr. ARTHUR DEPEUX, at the great organ; and Mr. P. K. VAN YORX, at the ANGELUS; and The Parisian String Trio, DANIEL MANSSO, Violinist; THEO. MARC, Cellist; JOSEPH ALLARD, Pianist. All are welcome.

Art lovers, collectors and critics will find many objects of great interest in the collection of Antique Paintings, Embroideries, Wood Carvings and Earthenware. They are for sale. Small catalogues on application.

Concerning Merchandise CHINA and GLASSWARE An equal accumulation of brilliant ceramics and decorative and domestic art in glass to that displayed on the Third Floor of the Wanamaker Building cannot be found. You have missed an experience if you have not seen it.

Just Imported-- Bargains in DINNER SETS Our great aggregate sales of Dinnerware in the New York and Philadelphia markets, give us worldwide facilities for cheap buying in the world's greatest potteries.
