

The newspapers about the killing of Stanford White...

"I haven't," said Mr. Bolton. "I never form an opinion from reading newspaper articles."

All the long conference between the Thaw lawyers, in which the defendant took part, Mr. Gleason said: "We'll take him."

"If we are going to expose every man who has ever sold goods to a good many valuable tradesmen."

Justice Fitzgerald took the District Attorney's preliminary challenge...

When the examination reached Henry W. Hubbard, treasurer of the American Missionary Society...

The champion all around juror of the trial appeared in the person of George Deuterium, a dealer in leather belting...

Mr. Deuterium was one of the few who had not made up his mind about the guilt or innocence of the defendant...

Berlin smothered in snow. Business tied up and the people take to snowballing.

The snowfall in Friedrichstrasse later passed the bounds of fun, and a special force of police was called out to stop it.

The snowing in Vienna. There have been immense falls of snow throughout Austria.

Lady Dorothy Cuthbert shot accidentally killed by her husband while hunting with him.

Vienna, Jan. 31.—There have been immense falls of snow throughout Austria.

Lady Dorothy Cuthbert was shot accidentally killed by her husband while hunting with him.

Shocks in Australia and England—Jamaica still quivering.

MEZBOURN, Jan. 31.—Severe earthquakes occurred yesterday in northern Tasmania.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—Gov. Swettenham cables the Colonial Office from Kingston that slight shocks of earthquake continue to be felt there.

British steamer Corinth towed to Kingston. Kingston, Jamaica, Jan. 31.—The salvage tug Rescue arrived this morning...

You Use An Airship Every Day.

An airship is a machine which flies through space with nothing under it...

STANDARD ELEVATOR COMPANY.

1 Broadway.

NEW HEAD OF THE DUMA.

Political Deal Regarding an Insuring Ship-off Election as Speaker.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 31.—An arrangement has been concluded under which the Peaceful Regenerationists and the Constitutional Democrats will support the same candidates for the Duma in St. Petersburg and Moscow.

Premier Stolypin, in a circular addressed to provincial Governors, says that the remodeling of the Empire will be completed on a basis that will insure true liberty...

MUSIC HALL STRIKE SPREADS.

Employees in Five More Places Go Out, but Substitutes Are Provided.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—The striking music hall employees to-day fulfilled their threat to call out the performers, musicians and stage hands of five additional halls...

The principal speakers were Messrs. Mitchell and Ben Tillett, who reaffirmed that the trades unions would support the strike movement...

Both sides are actively rounding up their witnesses in preparation for the beginning of the real battle.

FRENCH CABINET GOING SLOW.

Not to Reject the Proposals of the Bishops Without Due Consideration.

PARIS, Jan. 31.—The Cabinet discussed to-day how Mayors could lease churches for eighteen years without infringing on the State's superior rights to disaffect churches at any time.

The matter was left to the Ministers of Religion and Finance, MM. Briand and Caillaux, as also the question of gifts and legacies to churches.

Several bishops have commenced to act in accordance with the decision reached by the recent assembly of Bishops here.

The Bishop of Montpellier has instructed the clergy to approach the Mayors in regard to leasing churches.

Baron Fredericks Made Money for Himself Out of Famine Relief.

Special Cable Dispatch to THE SUN.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 31.—The Senate has sustained the charges that Gen. Baron Fredericks, Governor of Nijni Novgorod, granted illegal favors to Eric Lidva, the contractor, in connection with the famine relief...

Russian Grifter Convicted. Baron Fredericks Made Money for Himself Out of Famine Relief.

TELEGRAPHERS DANCE TO-NIGHT. Annual Ball of the New York Local—Music and Vaudeville.

Countess von Weeden in Jail. Arrested for Intoxication in Brooklyn as Anna Smith.

WANT AN OPEN CUT TUNNEL.

PENNSYLVANIA APPEALS TO THE RAPID TRANSIT BOARD.

For Permission to Open Parts of Thirty-second and Thirty-third Streets—Boring Dangerous to Buildings, They Say—A New How over the Bridge Loop.

Application was made yesterday to the Rapid Transit Commission to permit the construction of the Pennsylvania Railroad tunnel under Thirty-second and Thirty-third streets...

Eugene A. Philbin, representing the Pennsylvania Railroad interests and the United Engineering and Contracting Company, made the application.

He went on to explain that the excavations would be about 200 feet deep, but promised that the streets would not be closed to traffic except from 11 P. M. to 7 A. M.

Mr. Philbin said that the only practicable way of insuring the safety of the buildings in the quicksand territory was to construct the tunnel from the surface.

Mr. Philbin said that the only practicable way of insuring the safety of the buildings in the quicksand territory was to construct the tunnel from the surface.

Mr. Philbin said that the only practicable way of insuring the safety of the buildings in the quicksand territory was to construct the tunnel from the surface.

Mr. Philbin said that the only practicable way of insuring the safety of the buildings in the quicksand territory was to construct the tunnel from the surface.

Mr. Philbin said that the only practicable way of insuring the safety of the buildings in the quicksand territory was to construct the tunnel from the surface.

Mr. Philbin said that the only practicable way of insuring the safety of the buildings in the quicksand territory was to construct the tunnel from the surface.

Mr. Philbin said that the only practicable way of insuring the safety of the buildings in the quicksand territory was to construct the tunnel from the surface.

Mr. Philbin said that the only practicable way of insuring the safety of the buildings in the quicksand territory was to construct the tunnel from the surface.

Mr. Philbin said that the only practicable way of insuring the safety of the buildings in the quicksand territory was to construct the tunnel from the surface.

Mr. Philbin said that the only practicable way of insuring the safety of the buildings in the quicksand territory was to construct the tunnel from the surface.

Mr. Philbin said that the only practicable way of insuring the safety of the buildings in the quicksand territory was to construct the tunnel from the surface.

Mr. Philbin said that the only practicable way of insuring the safety of the buildings in the quicksand territory was to construct the tunnel from the surface.

Mr. Philbin said that the only practicable way of insuring the safety of the buildings in the quicksand territory was to construct the tunnel from the surface.

Mr. Philbin said that the only practicable way of insuring the safety of the buildings in the quicksand territory was to construct the tunnel from the surface.

Mr. Philbin said that the only practicable way of insuring the safety of the buildings in the quicksand territory was to construct the tunnel from the surface.

DON'T Tire Your Hand

Try The

VENUS Pencil

Smoothwriting, Longlasting, Nonsmooching, Easy Erasing.

17 Degrees. Softest to Hold.

AMERICAN LEAD PENCIL CO.

NEW YORK.

If the Venus Pencil is wanted with inside lead ask for Venus "Oppaque" No. 105.

S. C. T. DODD DEAD.

Was for 25 Years General Solicitor for the Standard Oil.

S. C. T. Dodd, for nearly twenty-five years general solicitor of the Standard Oil Company, died at Pinehurst, N. C., on Wednesday.

Mr. Dodd was born at Franklin, Venango county, Pa., on February 20, 1836.

Mr. Dodd made many contributions to so-called literature. Among the latter are "Uses and Abuses of Corporations," pamphlet, 1887; "The Standard Oil Trust," pamphlet, 1888; "Trusts," New York Tribune, 1889; "Aggregated Capital," 1890; "Ten Years of Standard Oil Trust," The Forum, May, 1890; "Present Legal Status of Trusts," Harvard Law Review, October, 1892.

Mr. Dodd in 1860 married Miss Mary E. Geer, who died in 1873, leaving one son, Frederick G. Dodd, who died a year ago, leaving two children, Lee W. Dodd and Miss Marjorie Dodd. His three children survive him.

Mr. Dodd's health gave way about two years ago, and although he never fully resumed his activity he occasionally appeared at Standard Oil's annual convention offices. He usually spent the summer months at his cottage at Twilight Park in the Catskills and the winters in the South. His son, Lee W. Dodd, was his bridegroom when the news of his father's death reached him.

Mr. Dodd in 1860 married Miss Mary E. Geer, who died in 1873, leaving one son, Frederick G. Dodd, who died a year ago, leaving two children, Lee W. Dodd and Miss Marjorie Dodd. His three children survive him.

Mr. Dodd's health gave way about two years ago, and although he never fully resumed his activity he occasionally appeared at Standard Oil's annual convention offices. He usually spent the summer months at his cottage at Twilight Park in the Catskills and the winters in the South. His son, Lee W. Dodd, was his bridegroom when the news of his father's death reached him.

Mr. Dodd in 1860 married Miss Mary E. Geer, who died in 1873, leaving one son, Frederick G. Dodd, who died a year ago, leaving two children, Lee W. Dodd and Miss Marjorie Dodd. His three children survive him.

Mr. Dodd's health gave way about two years ago, and although he never fully resumed his activity he occasionally appeared at Standard Oil's annual convention offices. He usually spent the summer months at his cottage at Twilight Park in the Catskills and the winters in the South. His son, Lee W. Dodd, was his bridegroom when the news of his father's death reached him.

Mr. Dodd in 1860 married Miss Mary E. Geer, who died in 1873, leaving one son, Frederick G. Dodd, who died a year ago, leaving two children, Lee W. Dodd and Miss Marjorie Dodd. His three children survive him.

Mr. Dodd's health gave way about two years ago, and although he never fully resumed his activity he occasionally appeared at Standard Oil's annual convention offices. He usually spent the summer months at his cottage at Twilight Park in the Catskills and the winters in the South. His son, Lee W. Dodd, was his bridegroom when the news of his father's death reached him.

Mr. Dodd in 1860 married Miss Mary E. Geer, who died in 1873, leaving one son, Frederick G. Dodd, who died a year ago, leaving two children, Lee W. Dodd and Miss Marjorie Dodd. His three children survive him.

Mr. Dodd's health gave way about two years ago, and although he never fully resumed his activity he occasionally appeared at Standard Oil's annual convention offices. He usually spent the summer months at his cottage at Twilight Park in the Catskills and the winters in the South. His son, Lee W. Dodd, was his bridegroom when the news of his father's death reached him.

Mr. Dodd in 1860 married Miss Mary E. Geer, who died in 1873, leaving one son, Frederick G. Dodd, who died a year ago, leaving two children, Lee W. Dodd and Miss Marjorie Dodd. His three children survive him.

HENRY TRIED TO FIGHT BACK.

RESULT OF GOV. HUGHES'S ACTION IN WENDEL CASE.

The Adjutant-General Insisted That the Governor Had No Right to Rescind the Order Accepting Wendel's Resignation—Shakeup of National Guard Likely.

ALBANY, Jan. 31.—It develops that there was a clash between Gov. Hughes and Adjutant-General Nelson H. Henry as to the power of the Governor to revoke the order accepting the resignation of Capt. Louis Wendel of the First New York Battery.

Gen. Henry felt sure that the Governor could not override his orders, and when Gov. Hughes summoned him to the Executive Chamber it was more in a spirit of pique and resentment than a feeling of having made a mistake that the General responded.

When the Governor demanded the rescinding of the order Gen. Henry is said to have told him that he could not do it, that the order accepting the resignation had been posted and that all there was to it.

While Gov. Hughes knew little or nothing of military affairs or of the law governing the National Guard he made up his mind to learn all about it.

Gen. Henry brought documents and military codes to show that the Governor had no power in the matter. It was then that Gov. Hughes sent for Judge Advocate George H. Wadsworth, Third Brigade, with headquarters in this city.

Col. Wadsworth decided that the Governor could revoke the order issued by the Adjutant-General. Still Gen. Henry would not yield, and when the conference adjourned at noon it was to give the Adjutant-General a further opportunity to present rulings that would justify him in the position he had taken.

As a result he summoned Judge Advocate General Ladd of Brooklyn to Albany. Gen. Ladd is known to be close to Major-General Charles F. Roe, and he decided that Gen. Henry's orders were final. The Governor, however, would not have it that way, and he was supported by Col. Lawyer.

For some hours yesterday afternoon Gen. Henry and Gen. Ladd argued with the Governor that the matter had been finally disposed of. But Col. Lawyer and the Governor made Gen. Ladd waver on some points, and finally compelled him to admit that the Governor did have the right to rescind the order so long as he had not been notified in writing.

After this had been settled Gov. Hughes, with his own hand, wrote the rescinding order. It was written in pencil and signed by the Governor.

There are many stories going the rounds that possibly the entire National Guard may get an overhauling. It is intimated that Gen. Henry in taking the position he took was acting not so much for himself as he was for Major-General Charles F. Roe. It is asserted that Gen. Roe was anxious for some time to be relieved of his position. After this had been settled Gov. Hughes, with his own hand, wrote the rescinding order.

WENDEL'S BAIL DOUBLED. Capt. Wendel appeared with Abe Levy, his counsel, at the Criminal Courts Building yesterday prepared to go ahead with his prosecution on the charge of extortion of money from an armory employee. But Magistrate Whitman put the case over to 2 P. M. next week, Friday.

WESTCHESTER CLEANUP. Dismissed Democrats Confer at the Manhattan Club Here.

A conference was held at the Manhattan Club yesterday by a number of Westchester Democrats for the purpose of "reviving" the party in that county. No secret was made of the fact that the purpose of the meeting was to convert or replace State Committeeman M. J. Walsh of Yonkers.

The delegates had no sooner arrived at the clubhouse than copies of the New York Evening Post containing an account of their proceedings and the names of those present were handed to them. Some of the delegates carried the Democratic Standard, G. Sutherland of White Plains who did it, and he replied that he didn't know.

The sixteen delegates present at the meeting expressed opposition to the Democratic organization in Westchester, which is led by State Committeeman Walsh and ex-Mayor Fiske of Mount Vernon. It was also agreed that the Democratic Standard, G. Sutherland of White Plains who did it, and he replied that he didn't know.

The delegates had no sooner arrived at the clubhouse than copies of the New York Evening Post containing an account of their proceedings and the names of those present were handed to them. Some of the delegates carried the Democratic Standard, G. Sutherland of White Plains who did it, and he replied that he didn't know.

The sixteen delegates present at the meeting expressed opposition to the Democratic organization in Westchester, which is led by State Committeeman Walsh and ex-Mayor Fiske of Mount Vernon. It was also agreed that the Democratic Standard, G. Sutherland of White Plains who did it, and he replied that he didn't know.

The delegates had no sooner arrived at the clubhouse than copies of the New York Evening Post containing an account of their proceedings and the names of those present were handed to them. Some of the delegates carried the Democratic Standard, G. Sutherland of White Plains who did it, and he replied that he didn't know.

Present Day suits possess many style changes which make last season's models conspicuous because of their absence. You will find these changes incorporated in the new models, which are removed many degrees from the commonplace by the ingenuity of our clever tailors.

We Don't Care If we give goods away at this season of the year. We want new customers and consider it good business to have them talk and compare values. Our Special Sale—Suits to measure $18, Winter Overcoats $22, Trousers $5. The style and tailoring are the finest.

ARNHEIM, Broadway & Ninth Street.

ART SALES AND EXHIBITIONS. AMERICAN ART GALLERIES. NOW ON FREE VIEW American Paintings An Important Collection OF Finished Pictures SKETCHES, STUDIES and ORIGINAL DRAWINGS BY THE LATE Gustave H. Mosler including a number of IMPORTANT WORKS Painted for and Exhibited at the Paris Salon. TO BE SOLD At Unrestricted Public Sale On Thursday Evening Next, February 7th BEGINNING AT 8 O'CLOCK.

Catalogue will be forwarded on application to the managers Mr. THOMAS E. KIRBY, of the AMERICAN ART ASSOCIATION, Managers, 6 East 23d St., Madison Square South.

JOHN LAVIN DIES. Shot Because He Objected to Editor's Attention to His Niece.

John Lavin, a salesman, of 605 Koenigsland street, Brooklyn, who was twice shot Wednesday afternoon by seventeen-year-old William Rustio of 380 Hart street because, as alleged, he objected to the attention Rustio bestowed on his (Lavin's) eighteen-year-old niece, Florence Wilkinson, died yesterday at the St. Vincent's Hospital. Rustio is held without bail.

BUSINESS NOTICES. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic, diarrhoea, &c. a bottle.

MARRIED. JESUP-BUCKNAM.—Thursday afternoon, January 31, 1907, at the First Presbyterian Church, by the pastor, the Rev. Howard Duffield, D. D., Frances R. Bucknam to Richard Mortimer Jesup.

DIED. DODD.—At Pinehurst, N. C., at 100 P. M. on Wednesday, Jan. 30, Samuel C. T. Dodd of New York city, for twenty-five years General Solicitor to the Standard Oil Company, in the 71st year of his age. Funeral will take place at Franklin, Pa., on Sunday, Feb. 3.

ERDAL.—At Juneau, Alaska, Jan. 30, 1907, in his 29th year, Oscar W. Erdal, son of the late Albert A. Erdal of Johannesburg.

GUNTHEER.—Elsner Christian, son of the late Christian G. and Mary Elizabeth Gunther, on Thursday, Jan. 31, 1907, in his 21st year. Notice of funeral hereafter.

McLAUGHLIN.—At Spring Lake, N. J., on Wednesday, Jan. 30, the Rev. Thomas J. McLaughlin, pastor of St. Catherine's Church. Funeral services at Spring Lake on Saturday, Feb. 2. Solemn requiem mass at 10:30 A. M. Friends and the reverend clergy invited. Interment private.

MORRIS.—On Thursday, Jan. 31, 1907, at the residence of her nephew, Edward Morris Van Buren, 810 Central av., Plainfield, N. J., Elizabeth Crary Morris, daughter of the late James L. and Lucretia A. Morris, in her 82d year. Notice of funeral hereafter.

PASCAL.—At Paris, France, Jan. 30, 1907, An Eliza Pascal, wife of Emile Pascal, and daughter of Catherine Brown Townsend and the late John J. Townsend, in her 82d year. Notice of funeral hereafter.

RANSOM.—At Coconut Grove, Fla., on Wednesday, Jan. 30, 1907, Paul Carlton Ransom, formerly of Buffalo, N. Y., in the 44th year of his age.

SERFANT.—At Westfield, N. J., on Wednesday, Jan. 30, 1907, Henry Clark Serfant, aged 72 years. Services at St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church on Friday, Feb. 1, at 4 P. M. Carriages will meet train leaving foot of Liberty st., New York city, at 3 P. M. Central R. of N. J., Columbus (Ohio) and Eastern (Pa.) papers please copy.

TURCK.—Suddenly, on Wednesday, Jan. 30, Solomon Turck, in his 79th year. Funeral service will be held at his late residence, 22 East 1st st., on Friday evening, 8 o'clock, Interment private.

WHITNEY.—At her residence, 11 Madison Square North, on Tuesday, Jan. 29, Mary Stuart, widow of William Whitney and daughter of the late James McVicar. Funeral services at Grace Church on Saturday morning, Feb. 2, at 10 o'clock. Kindly omit flowers.

John Jameson Three Star Whiskey Possesses that Indefinable something that is characteristic of Jameson Whiskey and cannot be found in any other.

VICHY CELESTINS Avoid substitutes so-called "VICHY" offered by unscrupulous dealers.