

She knew not to break their relation, as he intended to marry her. Again, when Mrs. Brown told him that Mrs. Bradley was everything to him and he meant to divorce her and marry her to-day...

WE ARE PRINTING an interesting series of booklets called EXPERIENCES (No. 1 "The Advertising Manager" is now ready.) Send your name for our list.

J. J. HILL PLACES THE BLAME CRISIS BROUGHT ABOUT, HE SAYS, BY ATTACKS ON BUSINESS.

Wholesale Denunciation and Wholesale Prescription Must Give Way to Fair Minded Enforcement of the Law if Confidence is to Be Restored.

POLITICIANS IN $25,000 SUIT. Ex-Postmaster of Stapleton Sues Ex-Congressman Lester for Defamation.

Suit has been brought by Charles Schmeiser, formerly postmaster at Stapleton, Richmond, against Montague Lester, who in 1903 was elected Congressman, beating Parry Belmont, and who in turn was defeated by Timothy D. Sullivan.

HOLLAND FOREST IN BALLOON. New Yorker Travels With Leo Stevens From Pittsfield to Orange Center.

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 19.—A. Leo Stevens, the aeronaut of Pittsfield, with A. Holland Forbes of New York, who left Pittsfield this afternoon in Mr. Stevens' balloon "Stevens No. 21," landed at 4:15 this afternoon three miles from Orange Center, eight miles southwest of this city.

A BAY ON "FRATS." No More Initiations in Greek Letter Chapters in Girls' High School in Brooklyn.

Dr. W. L. Felzer, principal of the Girls' High School in Brooklyn, has taken action which will result in the winding up of the "frats" in the school. At present there are eight Greek letter chapters in the school with a total membership of about 100.

ALABAMA TO BE DRY IN A YEAR. Senate Passes Prohibition Bill to Become Effective January 1, 1909.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 19.—After January 1, 1909, the State of Alabama will be "dry."

TRACKING WALSH'S TRANSACTIONS. Bank Examiner Maces Tox Talks of Chicago National's Loans.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Entries in the books of the Chicago National Bank concerning loans of over $757,000 on securities of the Southern Indiana and the Illinois Southern railroads were described to-day in the trial of John R. Walsh by National Bank Examiner E. P. Moxey.

ROBINSON'S A COP AGAIN. Inspector Flood Caught Him Napping and Bingham Fines and Reduces Him.

Commissioner Bingham yesterday fined a month's pay and reduced to patrolman's rank Sergeant George Robinson of the Long Island City station.

HUGHES TALKS ON IMMIGRATION. MUNICIPAL AID NOT THE BEST SOLUTION OF THE PROBLEM.

The Governor Frashes the Work of the Charity Organization Society at Its 25th Anniversary—Mayor McCellan and Dr. Munsterberg Also Speak.

The convention of social and charity workers to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the New York Charity Organization Society held its first meeting last evening in Carnegie Hall.

The chief speaker of the evening was Gov. Hughes, who was introduced by President de Forest.

"We desire that men should work under conditions which will permit a man to do a normal man's work. We desire the abolition of nuisances and the maintenance of women and children that they may live in decency and with proper sanitary safeguards against the spread of communicable disease.

"I have been ordered by the directors not to say anything. You mean not to say anything about the plan for resumption, Mr. Higgins?"

"No, I mean I have been ordered not to say anything about the plan for resumption, Mr. Higgins?"

"I have been ordered by the directors not to say anything. You mean not to say anything about the plan for resumption, Mr. Higgins?"

"I have been ordered by the directors not to say anything. You mean not to say anything about the plan for resumption, Mr. Higgins?"

"I have been ordered by the directors not to say anything. You mean not to say anything about the plan for resumption, Mr. Higgins?"

"I have been ordered by the directors not to say anything. You mean not to say anything about the plan for resumption, Mr. Higgins?"

"I have been ordered by the directors not to say anything. You mean not to say anything about the plan for resumption, Mr. Higgins?"

"I have been ordered by the directors not to say anything. You mean not to say anything about the plan for resumption, Mr. Higgins?"

"I have been ordered by the directors not to say anything. You mean not to say anything about the plan for resumption, Mr. Higgins?"

"I have been ordered by the directors not to say anything. You mean not to say anything about the plan for resumption, Mr. Higgins?"

"I have been ordered by the directors not to say anything. You mean not to say anything about the plan for resumption, Mr. Higgins?"

"I have been ordered by the directors not to say anything. You mean not to say anything about the plan for resumption, Mr. Higgins?"

"I have been ordered by the directors not to say anything. You mean not to say anything about the plan for resumption, Mr. Higgins?"

"I have been ordered by the directors not to say anything. You mean not to say anything about the plan for resumption, Mr. Higgins?"

"I have been ordered by the directors not to say anything. You mean not to say anything about the plan for resumption, Mr. Higgins?"

"I have been ordered by the directors not to say anything. You mean not to say anything about the plan for resumption, Mr. Higgins?"

"I have been ordered by the directors not to say anything. You mean not to say anything about the plan for resumption, Mr. Higgins?"

mindful of one of Jacob A. Hill's stories in his "Hill of the Hills." Mr. Hill tells how after arriving in this country he felt contempt for the way an American workman swung his axe.

Great battles are generally won by a narrow margin. A few minutes, a single company of men, a little better strategy, have once and again turned the tide of history.

How about business battles? The difference between THE SATURDAY EVENING POST and the next greatest weekly magazine as advertising mediums may be considerably less than 360 degrees, but—

If this difference is sufficient to turn the wavering battle in your favor, it amounts to all the difference in the world.

There are four million readers in THE SATURDAY EVENING POST'S army.

THE CURTIS PUBLISHING COMPANY PHILADELPHIA NEW YORK BOSTON CHICAGO BUFFALO

HINDUS PITCH INTO ENGLAND. TRAVELERS SAY THE SPEAKERS AT A MISSIONARY MEETING.

Almost a Row at the General Theological Seminary When the Speakers Drift Into Politics—An Unnamed Brahmin Adds to the Heat of the Controversy.

The 150 persons who drifted into the chapel of Union Theological Seminary last night in response to an invitation from Dr. Outthart Hall received several surprises of a startling nature.

They had been led to believe that they were to listen to descriptions of the conditions and needs of India by a gentleman Hindu and a lady Parsee—descriptions that might be pathetic, possibly even tragic, but which would certainly be characterized by mildness and conservatism.

What they did hear was a terse résumé of the points at issue between the Anglo-Indian and the Indian-Indian by Mrs. S. C. K. Allen, President of Central College at Colombo; a denunciation of the English Government by Mrs. Rustom Cama; a much fiercer one, which included impartially all western civilizations, by a dusky individual who described himself as a real Brahmin, and an arraignment of the arraigners by the Right Rev. Frederick Courtney, rector of St. Andrew's Church in this city.

Some of the 150 rose to the occasion several times with shouts of "Hear, Hear!" cries of "That's so!" "Good! Good!" and exhibitions of all the different kinds of applause.

Dr. Hall busied himself with pouring oil on the troubled waters, and generally succeeded in getting the combatants out of the building unharmed.

The Colombo merchant, who wore a white frock coat, white trousers, a white and gold turban and a white and gold sash, said that while the Hindus in India were not a people, they were not food fames at all in reality, but money fames.

Some persons estimate the average income of an Indian native at $5 per annum. He said, "others put it at $3. I should say that $6 is a fair average. One-fourth of his income goes to taxation. He is taxed twice as much as an Englishman, proportionately to his income, and three times as much as a Scotchman."

The English people always say that we were fighting and that they gave us peace after the Indian war. He said, however, that the English and the French made us fight for their own interest.

"We have a national party with which we are going to work out our own salvation. This is its flag."

She unfurled a silken banner with a good idea of those who were interested in the subject to write to the India bureau and find out the truth about the allegations of the various speakers, he made a visible impression on the audience.

Then he told how the English had given of their labor, their blood and their life to India; how they had dug canals, and destroyed the wild beasts, and how they had sought the good of the country rather than their own aggrandizement.

"Can any one say that this is not so?" he concluded. "I can, and I can prove it," shouted a man who was subsequently introduced as Myron W. Phelps. He added, however, that his emotions overcame him to such an extent that he couldn't talk.

Then the Parsee lady rushed down the aisle to the front pew where the Bishop sat, and announced that she had a few things to say. Dr. Hall told her she couldn't, and expressed himself as highly gratified at the unexpected turn the meeting had taken. He added that he thought it would be better for it to stop right where it was.

"I can, and I can prove it," shouted a man who was subsequently introduced as Myron W. Phelps. He added, however, that his emotions overcame him to such an extent that he couldn't talk.

Then the Parsee lady rushed down the aisle to the front pew where the Bishop sat, and announced that she had a few things to say. Dr. Hall told her she couldn't, and expressed himself as highly gratified at the unexpected turn the meeting had taken. He added that he thought it would be better for it to stop right where it was.

Director's Consider the Underlying Plan of Resumption. The directors of the Knickerbocker Trust Company met yesterday at the offices of Davies, Stone & Auerbach and it was stated afterward that no definite action was taken.

The directors of the Knickerbocker Trust Company met yesterday at the offices of Davies, Stone & Auerbach and it was stated afterward that no definite action was taken.

The directors of the Knickerbocker Trust Company met yesterday at the offices of Davies, Stone & Auerbach and it was stated afterward that no definite action was taken.

The directors of the Knickerbocker Trust Company met yesterday at the offices of Davies, Stone & Auerbach and it was stated afterward that no definite action was taken.

The directors of the Knickerbocker Trust Company met yesterday at the offices of Davies, Stone & Auerbach and it was stated afterward that no definite action was taken.

The directors of the Knickerbocker Trust Company met yesterday at the offices of Davies, Stone & Auerbach and it was stated afterward that no definite action was taken.

The directors of the Knickerbocker Trust Company met yesterday at the offices of Davies, Stone & Auerbach and it was stated afterward that no definite action was taken.

The directors of the Knickerbocker Trust Company met yesterday at the offices of Davies, Stone & Auerbach and it was stated afterward that no definite action was taken.

The directors of the Knickerbocker Trust Company met yesterday at the offices of Davies, Stone & Auerbach and it was stated afterward that no definite action was taken.

The directors of the Knickerbocker Trust Company met yesterday at the offices of Davies, Stone & Auerbach and it was stated afterward that no definite action was taken.

The directors of the Knickerbocker Trust Company met yesterday at the offices of Davies, Stone & Auerbach and it was stated afterward that no definite action was taken.

The directors of the Knickerbocker Trust Company met yesterday at the offices of Davies, Stone & Auerbach and it was stated afterward that no definite action was taken.

The directors of the Knickerbocker Trust Company met yesterday at the offices of Davies, Stone & Auerbach and it was stated afterward that no definite action was taken.

The directors of the Knickerbocker Trust Company met yesterday at the offices of Davies, Stone & Auerbach and it was stated afterward that no definite action was taken.

The directors of the Knickerbocker Trust Company met yesterday at the offices of Davies, Stone & Auerbach and it was stated afterward that no definite action was taken.

The directors of the Knickerbocker Trust Company met yesterday at the offices of Davies, Stone & Auerbach and it was stated afterward that no definite action was taken.

The directors of the Knickerbocker Trust Company met yesterday at the offices of Davies, Stone & Auerbach and it was stated afterward that no definite action was taken.

The directors of the Knickerbocker Trust Company met yesterday at the offices of Davies, Stone & Auerbach and it was stated afterward that no definite action was taken.

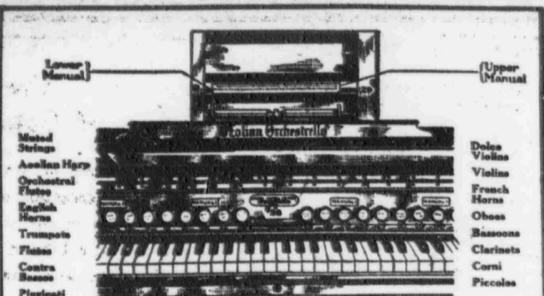

The directors of the Knickerbocker Trust Company met yesterday at the offices of Davies, Stone & Auerbach and it was stated afterward that no definite action was taken.

The directors of the Knickerbocker Trust Company met yesterday at the offices of Davies, Stone & Auerbach and it was stated afterward that no definite action was taken.

The directors of the Knickerbocker Trust Company met yesterday at the offices of Davies, Stone & Auerbach and it was stated afterward that no definite action was taken.

The directors of the Knickerbocker Trust Company met yesterday at the offices of Davies, Stone & Auerbach and it was stated afterward that no definite action was taken.

The directors of the Knickerbocker Trust Company met yesterday at the offices of Davies, Stone & Auerbach and it was stated afterward that no definite action was taken.

The Double Tracker-board of the SOLO ORCHESTRELLE

By means of this new device, the player of an Orchestrelle is given independent control of the wonderful orchestral tones of this instrument.

By drawing a certain stop you can cause the solo of the selection you may be playing to be sounded with any of the above orchestral tones. At the same time you may use any one or more of the instruments in the opposite group for the accompaniment.

This singling out of the melody and voicing it through a "solo" instrument against a background of totally different sound, or playing contrasting groups of instruments against one another, is possible on no other single instrument, save only the large two or more manual pipe-organ.

It is this ability, coupled with its marvelous power of reproducing the tones of the different orchestral instruments themselves, that makes the Solo Orchestrelle the most distinctive and fascinating of home musical instruments.

While the further fact that anyone, irrespective of previous musical training can make full use of the great capabilities of the instrument, explains its already remarkable popularity with all classes of music lovers.

Daily Demonstrations on the Solo Orchestrelle THE AEOLIAN COMPANY Aeolian Hall, 362 Fifth Avenue, near Thirty-fourth Street, New York

LEUT. LEFORT'S TRIAL. He Is Accused Before Army Court of Getting Money by Forgery.

First Lieut. Allan Lefort of the Coast Artillery, U. S. A., was put on trial at Governor's Island yesterday for forging the names of brother officers on applications for loans from Norton & Co. of Wheeling, W. Va.

Lieut. Lefort, who was in the recruiting service, was arrested at the King Edward Hotel in West Forty-seventh street on the night of October 11 and was locked up at Police Headquarters on charges preferred by Norton & Co. After arraignment in police court he was turned over to the military authorities at Governor's Island.

Lieut. Lefort pleaded not guilty to numerous indictments, involving the appropriation of several thousands of dollars. He seemed placid and confident. The first witness against him was G. S. Norton of the Wheeling firm, who declared that he had received a letter purporting to be from Lieut. Col. H. F. Hodges for a loan of $3,000.

Lieut. Lefort was trapped by a decoy letter addressed to Lieut. Col. Hodges at the King Edward Hotel and supposed to contain a second instalment of $300, which had been due several days. Lefort, it is alleged, had opened the letter and had sprang upon him. He tore the letter into bits before they could take it.

The trial will go on this morning. Die at the Age of 101. BLOOMFIELD, N. J., Nov. 19.—Mrs. Sophia Ackerman, who on October 23 last celebrated her 101st birthday, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Campbell, in East Passaic avenue, Bloomfield, last night. Death was due to old age.

MARRIED. MORSE-HARMON.—On Tuesday, November 19, 1907, at Babylon, L. I., by the Rev. George Dowling, Rev. John Burr, deacon of the late Frank Denham Harmon of New York city, to William Otto Morse of New York city.

DIED. BUCKLEY.—James H., at his residence, Guilford, N. Y., formerly of Tenafly, N. J., Monday, November 18, 1907. Funeral services at church at Ridgeland, N. J., Thursday, November 21, at 2 o'clock. Train northward at 10:30 A. M. Leave Chambers at ferry at 1:20 P. M.

CONWAY.—Mourner D. B. D. of Divinity College, Harvard, L. H. D. of Dickinson College. Born at Fredericksburg, Va.; died at Paris, France on November 15, in the 26th year of his age. Notice of funeral in New York hereafter.

FRAZIER.—On Tuesday morning, November 19, Alice, widow of Benjamin West Frazier and daughter of the late Isabelle Stages and William Mather Clarke. Funeral at Grace Church, L. I., on Monday, November 18, 1907, Mary J. Gordon Mathews, wife of William Mathews, in her 80th year. Funeral services on Thursday, November 21, 1907, at 2:30 o'clock. Carriages will be in waiting at Manhattan depot on arrival of train leaving Long Island City depot at 1:55 P. M.

MULCAHY.—On Tuesday, November 19, 1907, Mortimer J. Mulcahy, beloved husband of Hannah C. and father of John J. P. Mulcahy. Funeral services at St. Mary's Church, New York, on Wednesday, November 20, at 11:30 A. M. Burial in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, New York.

O'SULLIVAN.—At Long Branch, N. J., on November 18, 1907, Julia Theresa O'Sullivan of 381 Pacific street, at 867 Madison street, Brooklyn. Funeral services will be held in the Church of Our Lady of Loretto, 1423 st., near Amsterdam at special funeral train will leave Harlem 12:30 P. M. at 11:22 A. M. Interment in Kingsbury, N. Y.

PITTS.—On Monday, November 18, in his 80th year, William H. Pitt of Manhattan, beloved uncle of Miss Marie Pitt and Mrs. William F. King. Funeral services at 387 Madison street, Brooklyn on Wednesday evening, November 20, at 8 o'clock.

FURBY.—On Monday, November 18, 1907, Andrew B. Furby, in his 84th year. SOUTHACK.—On Monday morning, November 18, Frederick Southack, son of the late John W. Southack. Funeral services at his late residence, 45 West 90th st., Thursday morning at 11 o'clock.

STRUPP.—John W. Strupp, son of the late George Strupp and Mary Jane Strupp, suddenly on Tuesday, November 19, at his late residence, 474 1st street. Funeral services Thursday at 8:30 P. M.

Advertisement for Postum coffee, featuring the text "There's a Reason for Postum" and "Many A Lover of coffee has had to give it up on account of the nervous headaches, insomnia, dyspepsia, etc., it caused."