WHAT CHICAGO INVASION.

About Getting Grounds for a Club.

Chicago, Dec. 29.—The American Association of Baseball Clubs at its annual meeting at the Auditorium Annex this afternoon named President J. D. O'Brien of Milwaukee as chairman of a committee on the national commission at its meeting in Cincinnati on January 9 with an idea of arranging to get grounds for a club in Chicago.

The national commission does not have the authority to change in the charter of any of the leagues, said President Ben Johnson, head of the American League.

There was some talk, too, of the placing of the Louisville team in Cleveland, but outside of that, the meeting was uneventful.
