PULLMAN HOT ON THE TRAIL OF THE MINOR LEAGUES.

Major National Commission's Power Must Be Recognized in the Case of Reinstated Hall Players—Bill Feeling on Both Sides—Powers to Ride for H. B. Duryea.

H. C. Pullman, president of the National League and member of the National Baseball Commission, is hot on the trail of the minor league men. At the meeting of the National Association of Minor Leaguers held here last October a resolution was adopted to the effect that all National Association players adjudged guilty of the offence known as contract jumping and placed on the ineligible list by the National Association should be forever debarred from playing in the National Association, excepting the Tri-State League, and that the national commission should be respectfully requested to enforce the rule with strict impartiality.

Then Pullman put the matter up to P. J. Powers, president of the National Association, who backed up Farrell's statement strongly and incidentally accused Pullman of undignified behavior.

Then Pullman hot under the collar and issued a statement yesterday in which he reports to documentary evidence to prove that a blacklist was actually adopted and incidentally treats Powers to a scolding of a personal nature.

HOCKEY.

New York A. C. Wins From the Wanderers, Who Have Their Roughness Checked.

The New York Athletic Club team gave a fine exhibition of hockey in the St. Nicholas Skating Rink, and defeated the Wanderers Club by a goal to 1.

The winners put up a game that was replete with fine plays. Castleman, Coolican, Dalton and Dillabaugh gave good exhibitions of hockey.

Dillon was the star in the second half, scoring two goals in a minute. Dalton scored a goal in the first half.

The game had been very fast from the start, but the players were in the condition of a mad race.

GOLFERS' ANNUAL MEETING

ACTION ON SELECTING CHAMPIONSHIP LINKS.

All Three Competitions to Be in the East This Year—Westerners Ask for September Dates for Amateur-Petition for New Mode of Playing Title Event.

Daniel Chausse had the chair at the annual meeting of the United States Golf Association last night in Delmonico's, to which the members of the game had gathered from all parts.

They voted to hold the amateur championship at Garden City, the women's at Chevy Chase and the open at Myopia, the dates to be fixed later on.

There was a stampede for a new method of playing the amateur championship when the time came for new business.

The present system had stood for two years, but there had been many changes before that in the desire of finding the fairest and easiest system.

Monday—Eighteen hole medal play rounds; sixty-four to qualify.

Tuesday—Forty hole medal play rounds; the thirty-two players with the lowest scores for the thirty-six holes to qualify for the championship.

Wednesday—Thirty six hole match play rounds; eight to survive.

Thursday—Thirty six hole match play rounds; four to survive.

Friday—Thirty six hole match play rounds; two to survive.

Saturday—Thirty six hole match play rounds; one to survive.

been enough experimenting in this matter to reply that there can be no real necessity of setting down to any one system forever, especially a radically new one.

In the report of the executive committee of the United States Golf Association, a list of 287 clubs, against 280 last year. The total receipts for this year were $2,322, a total of $1,525, a net gain of $796.

President, Daniel Chausse, Garden City Golf Club, vice-presidents, Silas H. Strawn, Midlothian Country Club, and Edwin C. Johnson, Chevy Chase Cricket Club.

Treasurer, Webster's report showed a surplus of $1,428. On motion of H. H. Thomas it was voted to invest $10,000 in United States bonds.

Regarding the amateur championship for 1907, H. H. Thomas, secretary of the Chicago Golf Club, advocated a late date on behalf of all Chicago golfers.

The voting for the women's championship was held at the Philadelphia Country Club, Chevy Chase, and the Philadelphia Cricket Club.

Myopia expressed a desire for the open championship to be held at Myopia by a vote of 24 to 1.

The choice of dates for all tournaments was voted to the executive committee.
