Poland and Slovaks were too frightened to tell much to the police, but the police learned enough to look for a man of the name of Peshkov. Peshkov got wind of the activity of the police and it out.

His game then was to work the gangs of Slovaks, Ruthenians, Poles and Hungarians working on the railroads. He would build up a railroad camp with a pal and a gallon of whiskey. He had no trouble in putting himself on good terms with the men and after the day's work was over out came the gallon of whiskey...

One of Peshkov's recent exploits in the railroad gang was at a Polio camp on the Grand-Danville Road. It would not start until Tuesday. The contests were to have begun to-morrow and continued on the following three days.

ARMOND RACES TO-MORROW. Committee Decides to Postpone First Events, as Beach Is Bumpy. ONONDAGA, Feb. 28.—It was announced to-night that the Armond races on the Onondaga-Danville Beach would not start until Tuesday.

Riker, Fred J. Wagner, R. G. Kelsey, Russell A. Field, Milo M. King, W. J. Morgan, Fred J. Wagner and Joseph M. Gilbert.

BOY KILLS HIS FATHER. Tells Police Father Was Drunk and Beating His Mother—Not Sorry He Did It. Constantino Pellogrino, 17 years old, of 106 Twenty-third street, Brooklyn, was locked up in the Fifth avenue police station last night after firing five shots at his father, Antonio.

According to Constantino the father came home and after upbraiding the boy's mother started to beat her and then threatened to kill her. Constantino ran to an adjoining room and got his father's revolver, which was on the bureau. The first shot he fired struck his father in the right eye and the others lodged in the middle of his back.

HEAD OF GANG OF PETER MEN

Who Is Locked Up on One Charge of Robbery by Means of Knockout Drops — Railroad Laborers and Women Said to Be His Victims—Others Arrested. Lukas Peshkov, a Pole, was locked up at headquarters yesterday charged with robbing a watchman named Casimir Kaumozovitch of a Ludlow street by the use of knockout drops.

The general terror of these peter workers grew from the fact that no man could tell where he might fall a victim. Many a man had taken a drink with a jovial stranger in a saloon back room to wake up and find all his money gone.

His game then was to work the gangs of Slovaks, Ruthenians, Poles and Hungarians working on the railroads. He would build up a railroad camp with a pal and a gallon of whiskey.

20,000 SEEM WURDERED PRIEST

Impressive and Affecting Scenes in the Church Where the Assassinated Victim Had Preached—Monks, Priests and Laymen There—Anarchists Denounced. PATENSON, N. J., March 1.—At least 20,000 persons were present at the service at the Bonaventure Church and Monastery in West Paterson to-day to view the body of the late Rev. Leo Heinrichs, the Franciscan priest who was assassinated last Sunday in the Church of St. Elizabeth, Denver.

There were many affecting scenes when the priest had knelt and counselled in the twenty-one years of his pastorate here passed the bier and saw his face. The most affecting, however, was when the coffin was recited in a passageway between the rectory and the church since Saturday afternoon, was taken into the church after the benediction that followed the 10:30 o'clock mass.

THE BLACK DOG LOOKED MILD

But the Chunky Fox Who Taunted Him Got a Surprise. A chunky fox terrier got into trouble on Fifth avenue yesterday afternoon. On account of the bad weather more than the usual Sunday quiet pervaded that thoroughfare when the misguided aggressiveness of the fox terrier stirred things for a few moments.

The fox terrier was one of a party of five—the other four being children—which was descending up Forty-second street from the east. Across Fifth avenue, in front of the new library building, a modestly attired man and woman were strolling south, accompanied by a woolly black dog.

As soon as Mr. F. Terrier spied Mr. W. B. Dog he started for him. He skidded across the grass on the top of the dog, and with a bit too portly for great activity. The black dog paid no attention whatever to the approach of the fat fox. Not till the shock of physical contact did the woolly dog indicate that he was other than oblivious to the presence of the fox.

Advertisers' grave-stones are not very profitable. The ill-advised campaign which runs two or three insertions and then dies brings only a few dollars to any publisher.

More and more we discourage the starting of impractical ventures and those that have not ample financial backing. In so doing we, of course, sacrifice some present advantage, but we gain confidence by it, and, perhaps, in the long run, it pays us.

By any rate, it should bring satisfaction to the new advertiser to know that our chief interest is in developing "winners," and making into strong, successful advertisers the accounts that come to us.

HIGHER TAXES OR MORE DEBT IF THE CITY IS TO KEEP ON BUYING AND BUILDING. Comptroller Metz Objects to Having the Debt Stated as $1,000,000, Says He Needs an Investigator to Visit City Hall and Talk Jersey Will Annex E. S. Woodland County.

Comptroller Metz has sent a letter to Assemblyman William M. Bennett of this city in response to some inquiries which the latter addressed to him about the city's debt limit and its ability to undertake certain improvements. Assemblyman Bennett, who has suggested that a commission be appointed to investigate the condition of the city's finances, had computed the city's debt as $1,007,000.00, but Mr. Metz says this is erroneous because it includes $145,000.00 of corporate stock which is not in the debt form as yet, and also includes all of the $158,000.00 of the funds for the Catskill aqueduct which should not be charged against the debt limit.
