

GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK

EMPIRE CITY WILL RACE AT BRIGHTON BEACH

Saratoga to Have a Fifteen Day Meeting From July 30 to August 15, Empire Opening on the Latter Date—Yonkers Fall Meeting May Go to the Bay.

Representatives of the Saratoga and Empire City racing associations had a long conference with the State Racing Commission at Brighton Beach track yesterday afternoon with the result that there will be a fifteen day meeting at Saratoga, commencing July 30 and ending August 15. On the latter date the Empire City Racing Association will begin its summer meeting at Brighton track, winding up on August 15. According to the arrangement there will be only one conflicting date between Saratoga and Empire City. Saratoga will close seven days originally scheduled, while Empire City will be the shorter by one day. There was mutual and the deal caused much satisfaction all around.

When the Brighton management offered the use of the beach track to the Empire City people free of charge Matt J. Winn, chief manager of the Yonkers track, readily accepted. Those present at the conference were F. R. Hitchcock and Andrew Miller of the Saratoga track; Matt J. Winn and Robert McDonnell of Empire City; and H. K. Knapp of the State Racing Commission. The shifting of the Yonkers meeting to the beach was made chiefly to save the horsemen from the extra expense of transporting their horses to the Long Island City track. Incidentally it may be noted that barring Saratoga, the racing in this State will be confined this year to Kings, Queens and Nassau counties.

That the Jockey Club tracks are exceedingly friendly toward the Empire City people just now is shown by the fact that for its fall meeting of one week in October, Empire City can have the use of the Brighton, Sheepshead Bay or Belmont Park track. Many horsemen said yesterday when they heard this news that they hoped Manager Winn would select Sheepshead Bay for the meeting because of the new track there which is being built by many of the horsemen who were opposed to the liberal stakes offered by James Butler and his friends.

The plan to rearrange the schedule, which was outlined in yesterday's edition, was approved by the State Racing Commission. The plan was approved on behalf of the Westchester Racing Association did not favor a postponement of the opening of the fall meeting at Belmont Park and that as the matter was not adjusted in a hurry it was decided to await developments.

With fifteen days at Saratoga there will be plenty of racing for the patrons of the sport up the State. Gen. Sanford for the first time will race at Saratoga and it is believed that the meeting at the Spa will be a source of some profit. Empire City will put on some stakes at Brighton track, and the Empire Handicap. This means that there will be high class racing at the beach, preceding the fall session at Sheepshead Bay which will open as usual with the Futurity.

It was said on excellent authority yesterday that the State Racing Commission went to the Brighton track by Gov. Hughes to look over the betting situation and make a report. Those who had several of the up-State slumps pointed out to them that they expected the Commission would be very lenient in its report. Speculators with the idea of discovering if possible just how these men transacted business.

"It doesn't look as if Gov. Hughes had much confidence in the Sheriff when he made his recent trip to the track," said a police official. "The police and the Sheriff's deputies have been doing their best to discover violations of the law. They have made arrests when the evidence warranted them, but it is almost impossible to detect persons who have recorded wagers. If those detectives from up the State succeed in getting conclusive proof that the law is being violated they will be able to do so. The Sheriff's decision permits oral betting and the authorities cannot interfere. If a man is caught making a record of a wager, however, he will be arrested promptly, but that is to be expected in such a case."

The presence of the governor's detectives caused a lot of talk all the afternoon. There was a rumor that they had warrants to serve and as a result speculators were unusually quiet. Unless the warrants were served, they could not get a wager down to save his life. It was a tight lid all around. There were no arrests, but it was said that Sam Lewis, a former bookmaker, was served with a subpoena to appear at the track, and that he was grand jury to-day. It was rumored after the races that the Grand Jury had indicted four men identified with the racing game, but no names were mentioned in this connection.

James B. Brady has turned over his famous Accountant, by Filigrane-Reckon, to the Jockey Club breeding bureau, and Accountant has been assigned to E. L. Munson at Hempstead. The horse was bought by Accountant from W. H. Brown in 1905 for $30,000. The horse, then a three-year-old, was that season the Tidal, Withers, Realization, Brighton Derby, Saratoga Derby and the Annual Champion introduced was the largest stake winner of the year. Since then, however, Accountant has not been able to stand training and recently Trainer Matt Allen concluded that it would be a needless waste of money to keep the horse. Accountant is a valuable addition to the list of stallions that have been assigned to different counties in the State by the breeding bureau.

The Trident Handicap, at a mile and a quarter, which will be run at the Beach tomorrow, has attracted so far the entries of Priscillian, Hessian, Frank Gill, Old Honesty, Question Mark, Gold Leaf, Running Water, Big Chief, Brother Jonathan and other good handicap horses.

State Senator Hartman of California was a visitor at the track yesterday. He said that the racing situation in California was at Albany had caused the reformers to begin a hot fight against racing on the Coast. "I believe in square racing," said the Senator, "and I shall do all in my power to preserve the sport in California. I introduced an anti-prizefight bill in the California Legislature some time ago because the fights there as a rule are crooked fakes. But racing is a clean sport and should not be killed."

A little jockey named Fugate came within an ace of being killed outright in the third race. He had the mount on a horse named Disaster and just after the start as he was racing behind the field near the lower turn his mount stumbled and fell. Fugate got to his feet and was dragged for some distance. As he got his arm free he was swung over under the rails and the crowd turned away in horror. The boy was picked up by several Pinkertons and was taken to his home in the track ambulance suffering from many bruises. He was not severely injured, however.

By an odd coincidence the two-year-old colt, Odoulet, winner of the first race, was the same as the one who was killed in the third race. The colt was named after the same man who was killed in the third race. The colt was named after the same man who was killed in the third race.

Live Wire was in such high spirits when he reached the post for the fourth event that he kicked Falcaida and Question Mark. But he lost his gallop as soon as the race was started.

J. W. Colt, who claimed Waterpocket out of a selling steeplechase the other day, returned the mare to H. K. Vinnet yesterday.

Worcester, England, July 9.—The Gentlemen of Philadelphia, fresh from their fine victory over South Wales yesterday, opened the second cricket match of their tour against Worcestershire to-day. Full innings were completed by both elevens and at the termination of play the Americans found themselves 54 runs on the wrong side of the ledger. They opened badly, however, and in the fourth over were 25 for one. The batsmen were not so good as they were expected to be, and the bowlers were again successful in the toss of the coin and went first to bat. The first over was bowled by J. W. C. Morris, who until F. S. White was partnered by C. C. Morris. White was made out for 15, but he was out in the second over. NATIONAL LEAGUE

NEW YORK MAKES A FIGHT

The New York Nationals impressed Mathewson into service yesterday to stop the losing streak in Cincinnati and Mathewson made good. The victory put the New York very close to the Pittsburgh, who lost their third straight to the Phillies. The Brooklyn, who were Chicago's most and the Bostonians played rings around the Cardinals. The results: New York, 2; Cincinnati, 1. Chicago, 4; Brooklyn, 3. Philadelphia, 5; Pittsburgh, 2. Boston, 11; St. Louis, 2.
