

THE DRUMMERS DISSENTIOUS

PROSPERITY BOOMERS MAKE MERRY UNDER DIFFICULTIES.

Races Held at Manhattan Beach Cause Trouble, in Which Women Figure—But It's Trouble That Does No Harm to the Cause the Travelers Espouse.

The very finest differences of opinions out on the sunbaked turf to the east of the Commercial Travellers Interstate Congress...

These, however, were not the only occasions pregnant with dissensions. There were thirteen other track and field events run off during the day, and at the conclusion of each one of them a reporter would think that he was interviewing the returning Olympic athletes at the pier.

The official judges of events. Mayor Dave Rose of Milwaukee and Secretary of State John S. Whalen, sneaked through the legs of the crowd and hastened toward the bar end of the hotel where they saw that their decision had caused unpleasantness.

PHILADELPHIA OPERA. Hammerstein to Decide This Week What He Is Going to Do.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Gardner Lottimer will make their home in New York after their bridal trip. Mrs. Lottimer was Amelia Watkin Haddock, widow of Stanley Brickett Haddock of Philadelphia.

Miss Margaret Shonts, who is on her way to Ireland, will be the guest there of the Duke and Duchess of Manchester at Elymore Castle for a fortnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney are now at Holwick Hall, Mr. Whitney's shooting box in Yorkshire, where they pass three weeks during each August.

At the performance of the Ben Jonson masque by the members of the Junior League, representing the debutantes, Miss Hasell was the toast.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Vanderbilt have had D. O. Mills visiting with them during the week at their camp in the Adirondacks.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wilson Peendergat will live with Mrs. James F. Peendergat when they return from their honeymoon journey.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Sheldon will sail from Europe for this port next Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Whiteley Reid are for a week at Skibo Castle in Scotland with Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie.

description for a weekly magazine for the women and many other objects of great value were run and jumped and snatched and thrown for all afternoon.

NEW GERMAN THEATRE SEASON. Manager Baumfeld, Back From Europe. Outlines What He Will Do.

"I have seen over eighty theatrical performances in the three months I have been in Europe. Undoubtedly, France is still ahead as far as the conventional drama is concerned.

The personnel of the German Theatre, owing to the great number of plays to be performed early in the season, will consist of the company which will play at the new Academy of Music in Brooklyn.

Two little married girls in blue. Eugene Freund and Mrs. Robert Bell of Mount Vernon, each claimed the victory. The judges said that it was a tie.

PHILADELPHIA OPERA. Hammerstein to Decide This Week What He Is Going to Do.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Gardner Lottimer will make their home in New York after their bridal trip. Mrs. Lottimer was Amelia Watkin Haddock, widow of Stanley Brickett Haddock of Philadelphia.

Miss Margaret Shonts, who is on her way to Ireland, will be the guest there of the Duke and Duchess of Manchester at Elymore Castle for a fortnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney are now at Holwick Hall, Mr. Whitney's shooting box in Yorkshire, where they pass three weeks during each August.

At the performance of the Ben Jonson masque by the members of the Junior League, representing the debutantes, Miss Hasell was the toast.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Vanderbilt have had D. O. Mills visiting with them during the week at their camp in the Adirondacks.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wilson Peendergat will live with Mrs. James F. Peendergat when they return from their honeymoon journey.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Sheldon will sail from Europe for this port next Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Whiteley Reid are for a week at Skibo Castle in Scotland with Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie.

Mr. and Mrs. Whiteley Reid are for a week at Skibo Castle in Scotland with Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie.

Hackett, Carhart & Co. ANNOUNCE A GREAT FUR SALE. A centre of fur activity has been established at this women's store because of these periodical occasions. They are not organized by the calendar, but at such times as we can give our public greatest values.

IN SOCIETY. Mr. and Mrs. W. Gardner Lottimer will make their home in New York after their bridal trip. Mrs. Lottimer was Amelia Watkin Haddock, widow of Stanley Brickett Haddock of Philadelphia.

Stern Brothers Women's Cloak Dep'ts Special Offering To-morrow. Silk Rubber Rain Coats, at $12.75, 16.50. Much Less Than Regular Value.

HORNER'S FURNITURE. The Standard in Quality and Style. IMPORTANT TO FURNITURE BUYERS. While we do not advertise "Special August Sales" we assure intending buyers of Furniture, who wish to secure RELIABLE goods of standard quality, and embracing the latest productions of the best exponents of high-class woodcraft, that their interests will be best served by purchasing at OUR establishment.