

The Pictured Story of the Destruction of Messina

Graphic Views of the Shattered City Secured by the Camera of The Sun's Correspondent After the Occurrence of the Disaster in Which 200,000 Persons Perished.

Ruins of the Splendid Cathedral Which Cost $10,000,000 and the Foundations of Which Were Laid More Than 800 Years Ago —Scene of a Wonderful Rescue.

A Bit of the Ruins.

In Front of the Cathedral.

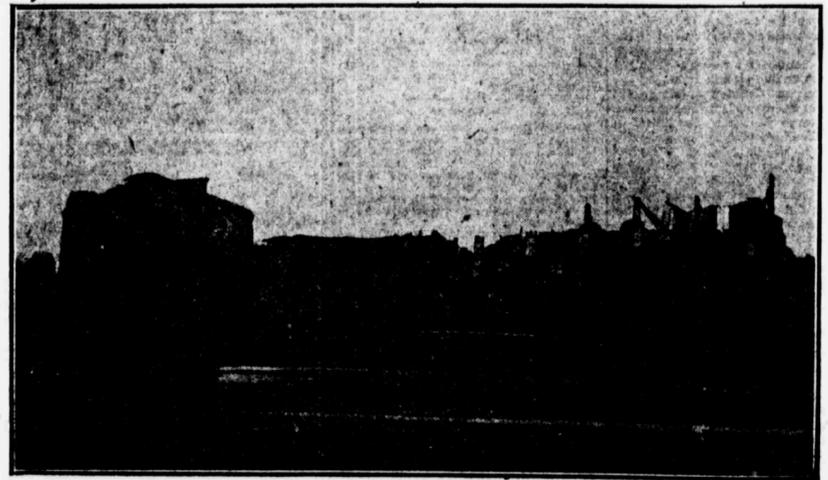

Cathedral Square and Fountain.

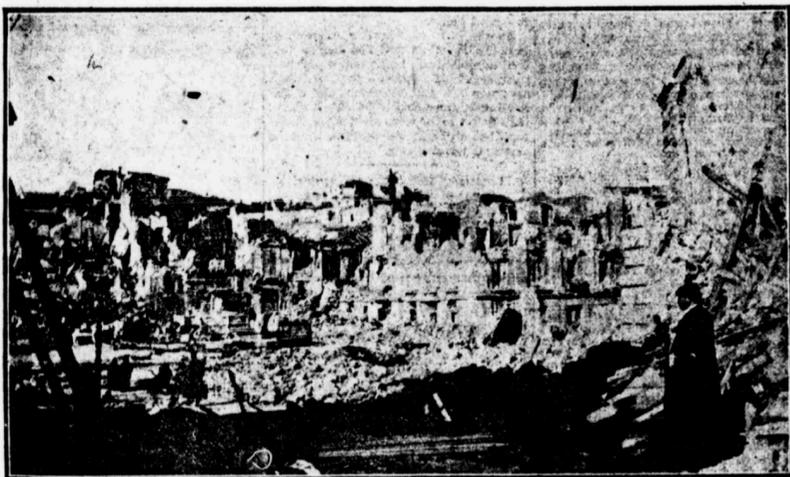

Five Were Rescued Uninjured From This Upper Room.

Smoking Ruins.

Military Barracks Where 250 Soldiers Perished.

Near the Cathedral.

A Freak of the Destruction.

General View of Ruins in the Southern Part of the Town.