THE CLIMAX

By EDW. LOCKE, with incidental music by JOSEPH CARL BRIEL

UNANIMOUS VERDICT OF THE PRESS READ WHAT THEY SAY:

ALAN DALE, AMERICAN: "The Climax is a sure thing. It proved to be the best thing of the season."

ACTON DAVIES, EVENING SUN: "The Climax is one of the few real surprises of the season."

HERALD: "It is a novel idea the play unites in that it revolves amusingly and interestingly."

TIMES: "It is decidedly pleasant and novel; the sort of thing that clings to plays of artist life from 'Bohemia' to 'The Music Master'."

WASHINGTON WORLD: "A brilliant and novel treat."

CHARLES DARNTON, EVE WORLD: "A good deal of silly old Broadway."

MORNING SUN: "The Climax worth while in a normal play with music that is effective."

TELEGRAPH: "Such a dramatic atmosphere is rare in a play."

POST: "Touched even hardened theatre-goers."

EVE JOURNAL: "A sort of inverted Trilby and Street."

COMMERCIAL: "It made itself welcome."

JOURNAL OF COMMERCE: "A Pearl of the Drama Party."

TRIBUNE: "The performance was creditable."

As many of the quaint human touches as 'The Music Master'."

"GOING SOME"

Comedy by Paul Armstrong and Rex Beach.

"IT'S ALL THE GO TO GO TO 'GOING SOME.'"

WHAT THE TWO A. D.'S THINK OF "GOING SOME."

EVENING SUN: "Going Some" makes an ideal summer attraction. It's as fresh as the morning and as clear as a whistle. It will make you laugh even if you haven't had your first. Going Some, in a word, is funny enough to cure anything from the doldrums to locomotor ataxia."

THE AMERICAN: "If you should happen to hear of any one openly admitting that he had sat through 'Going Some' at the Belasco Theatre without laughing, will you kindly send me his picture. I should like to interview him on the Sunday paper and make him famous with 3,000 copies of his disordered spleen and a map of his demoralized digestive apparatus. I shouldn't care to know him. I howled, and I don't care who knows it."

HURRY! GOING WON'T DO! YOU WILL HAVE "TO RUN" TO GET PLACES FOR "GOING SOME."
