

to make a speech on the wickedness of trusts and the special perversion of law trusts the audience demanded roars...

NO CHANCE FOR A BOUT HOUSE. The fact was there wasn't a chance in ten hundred for anybody to start a rough house. Prof. Smith didn't want it, and there were enough police on hand...

Police Inspector Herlihy, who had personally escorted the questioner out the front door, returned, rubbing a speck of dust from his coat sleeve, arriving just in time to catch Mr. Jerome's earnest remonstrance.

It was evident by 8 o'clock in the evening that the District Attorney would go before a full house to open his conduct in office. At that time there was a black square around Cooper Union, with a squad of police busy already keeping folks in line.

Then you saw something like a rush. The minute the big iron doors on the Fourth avenue side of the street were opened every seat in the house was taken and the police slammed the iron gates again.

Senator John C. Spooner of Wisconsin got to the front of the hall and found a seat on the first row, right under Mr. Jerome's reading table.

Mr. Jerome seated himself squarely in front of the crowd, his legs wide apart, a grin creasing his face. "Yes, I said that," he shot out.

Mr. Amory submitted charges to me in 1903. He was then associated with a lawyer named Drayton in the matter. I did not know then that they were associated with a man named Fingy Connors.

Let us have faith that right makes might and in that faith let us to the end dare to do our duty as we understand it. Presently the professor jumped up, went to the edge of the stage in a running walk and took a few minutes to tell us they had a big chance to boost democracy that night.

There was a pretty general rising, and Prof. Smith pointed to the District Attorney, saying facetiously: "There is Jerome. I deliver him into your hands."

"Every time a parrot squawks in the air above you," he said, "don't completely let me about it. Bingham is the man you want to see."

He described the organization of his office, the workings of the complaint bureau, and now it was at the service of the citizen, with a branch office at his own home in Rutgers street.

He told how Gov. Hughes had referred the charges to Richard L. Hand, whom he complimented as a great lawyer and a square man. Then he went on: "Commissioner Hand called forty witnesses all the way from the Journal and the World and the American and Amory and all the ragtag and bobtail and raffish that live about those great institutions could produce."

French Natural Sparkling Table Water. Perrier. A great aid to digestion. Perrier contains only its own pure natural gas. Bottled at the springs in the South of France. The ideal table water for the summer home. All dealers.

he complimented as a great lawyer and a square man. Then he went on: "Commissioner Hand called forty witnesses all the way from the Journal and the World and the American and Amory and all the ragtag and bobtail and raffish that live about those great institutions could produce."

The report was made to Gov. Hughes Hughes, you know, is a capable, accurate painstaking lawyer who if he has any fault has that of not allowing other people to help in his work.

William N. Amory jumped up energetically. "You haven't stated that accurately and you know it," he shouted, with clenched fist.

The first question was, "Did you make the following promise in your campaign speech on October 26, 1907: 'Let me say to you that if I am elected I shall make it my business to follow trails of corruption and wrongdoing not only when they lead into men's houses but when they follow them even if they lead into the offices of the Metropolitan Street Railway Company?'"

Mr. Amory submitted charges to me in 1903. He was then associated with a lawyer named Drayton in the matter. I did not know then that they were associated with a man named Fingy Connors.

Mr. Amory submitted charges to me in 1903. He was then associated with a lawyer named Drayton in the matter. I did not know then that they were associated with a man named Fingy Connors.

Mr. Amory submitted charges to me in 1903. He was then associated with a lawyer named Drayton in the matter. I did not know then that they were associated with a man named Fingy Connors.

Mr. Amory submitted charges to me in 1903. He was then associated with a lawyer named Drayton in the matter. I did not know then that they were associated with a man named Fingy Connors.

Mr. Amory submitted charges to me in 1903. He was then associated with a lawyer named Drayton in the matter. I did not know then that they were associated with a man named Fingy Connors.

Correct Suits for Men. ALFRED BENJAMIN & Co's Tailor-made clothes. Outing Suits of flannel, mohair, silk, worsted and linen, $11 to $35, ready to wear. Garments that duplicate the much higher-priced productions of the exclusive tailors.

Why have your outing apparel made to order? George B. Benjamin Broadway, Cor. 14th St.

his name as John D. Cronin, one of the former Independence League splinter leaders. "What I want to know is, do you not know that there is no law trust in town here and why do you not convict the leaders of that trust for robbing the people?"

"You believe that an honest effort on the part of the District Attorney would prove that he is an honest effort?" "I don't know," Cronin answered. "The questioner gave his assent."

"Do you believe that Mr. Osborne, coming down here appointed by the Attorney-General, made an honest effort?" "The questioner gave his assent."

"Do you believe that Mr. Osborne, coming down here appointed by the Attorney-General, made an honest effort?" "The questioner gave his assent."

"Do you believe that Mr. Osborne, coming down here appointed by the Attorney-General, made an honest effort?" "The questioner gave his assent."

"Do you believe that Mr. Osborne, coming down here appointed by the Attorney-General, made an honest effort?" "The questioner gave his assent."

"Do you believe that Mr. Osborne, coming down here appointed by the Attorney-General, made an honest effort?" "The questioner gave his assent."

"Do you believe that Mr. Osborne, coming down here appointed by the Attorney-General, made an honest effort?" "The questioner gave his assent."

"Do you believe that Mr. Osborne, coming down here appointed by the Attorney-General, made an honest effort?" "The questioner gave his assent."

"Do you believe that Mr. Osborne, coming down here appointed by the Attorney-General, made an honest effort?" "The questioner gave his assent."

"Do you believe that Mr. Osborne, coming down here appointed by the Attorney-General, made an honest effort?" "The questioner gave his assent."

"Do you believe that Mr. Osborne, coming down here appointed by the Attorney-General, made an honest effort?" "The questioner gave his assent."

order. The fans cheered lustily and applauded. Mr. Cronin, the irrepressible, started to rise in his rights as an Independence League to hold the floor again. He was poked down by the crowd.

"You believe that an honest effort on the part of the District Attorney would prove that he is an honest effort?" "I don't know," Cronin answered.

"Do you believe that Mr. Osborne, coming down here appointed by the Attorney-General, made an honest effort?" "The questioner gave his assent."

"Do you believe that Mr. Osborne, coming down here appointed by the Attorney-General, made an honest effort?" "The questioner gave his assent."

"Do you believe that Mr. Osborne, coming down here appointed by the Attorney-General, made an honest effort?" "The questioner gave his assent."

"Do you believe that Mr. Osborne, coming down here appointed by the Attorney-General, made an honest effort?" "The questioner gave his assent."

"Do you believe that Mr. Osborne, coming down here appointed by the Attorney-General, made an honest effort?" "The questioner gave his assent."

"Do you believe that Mr. Osborne, coming down here appointed by the Attorney-General, made an honest effort?" "The questioner gave his assent."

"Do you believe that Mr. Osborne, coming down here appointed by the Attorney-General, made an honest effort?" "The questioner gave his assent."

"Do you believe that Mr. Osborne, coming down here appointed by the Attorney-General, made an honest effort?" "The questioner gave his assent."

"Do you believe that Mr. Osborne, coming down here appointed by the Attorney-General, made an honest effort?" "The questioner gave his assent."

"Do you believe that Mr. Osborne, coming down here appointed by the Attorney-General, made an honest effort?" "The questioner gave his assent."

Apollinaris THE QUEEN OF TABLE WATERS. Its pure Natural Carbonic Acid Gas acts as a Gastric Stimulant and Tonic and promotes the Digestion and Assimilation of even the Richest Food.

NEW JERSEY CENTRAL DECORATION DAY | Sandy Hook Route. Atlantic City THURSDAY, MAY 27th. The Popular Way to North Jersey Coast Resorts.

It's Good Business to give customers a large stock to select from. That's why I do it. Ask me to prove it. Charles B. ...

PARRA-GUERRA CONSPIRACY. Swindling Rebels Plot to Disturb Governments of Cuba and Venezuela. Special Cable Dispatch to THE SUN.

F. CHAUVENET'S Red Cap THE RED SPARKLING BURQUUNDY OF FRANCE. Investigates Permanently.

RAID ON COUNTERFEITERS. Three Men Caught in Farmhouse, Three Here by U. S. Agents. Secret Service Agent Flynn and half a dozen of his men from this city went raiding for counterfeiters in Connecticut yesterday.

MARRIED. CAMMANN-CLARKSON—On Wednesday, May 26, at St. Peter's Church, Tivoli, New York, the Rev. Richard D. Pope, Rector, officiated at the wedding of Miss Helen Van Koriand, daughter of the late Thomas Streatham Clarkson, Esq., to Edward Craig Cammann.

DIED. BIRD.—On Tuesday, May 25, 1909, after a lingering illness, John H. Bird, beloved husband of Susan Bird. Funeral services will be held at his late residence, Peekskill, N. Y., on Friday, May 28, at the arrival of the 1:30 P. M. train from the Grand Central Depot, Lexington avenue terminal. Carriage will meet train. Return in train leaves Peekskill at 3:30 P. M. Interment at the convenience of the family.

Hunyadi Janos Best Natural Laxative Water. This standard and popular aperient water is the best remedy for indigestion and irregularities of the bowels and stomach. It is so well and favorably known that it needs no advertisement.

CONSTIPATION. FRANK C. CAMPBELL, 241-243 W. 23rd St. Charles A. Ambrose, Tel. 1244