Underwear for Men

Ringheim's Ramie-Fibre

Health Underwear—Made in Sweden

Ringheim's Ramie-Fibre, so far as we know, sustains all the manufacturers claim for it. It is solid; it is very absorbent; it has great lustre; it does not shrink, and it washes perfectly clean. It receives warmth from and returns it to the skin; it does not feel chilly or damp after perspiration; its touch is soothing and it is a splendid protection for the body against the contraction of colds.

No wonder Ringheim's Ramie-Fibre Health Underwear enjoys enormous popularity among that increasing number of men who realize the importance of selecting Underwear scientifically. They will be interested to learn that we have secured a big quantity of this Health Underwear in Fall and Winter Weights—all sizes up to 50, and will sell it at a phenomenally low price.
