TWO PLAYS WHICH ARE POPULAR THIS YEAR

The Kick Formation and Ends. Rather Than Tactics Taking the Forward Pass as the Outlook at Yale Harvard Players From All Over.

Inasmuch as Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Pennsylvania and others are holding back on new wrinkles they may have and will be seen until the football season begins next year.

The percentage of successful forward passes this year has been about the same as last year. Last season tactics were making the play as much as, if not more than, the ends.

Those who are close to the Yale team aren't in such joyous, smiling humor over the season will be one of ends taking the ball.

On the Harvard football team are men from all over the little old U. S. A. and farther.

The following letter has been received: After having read so much in the various papers and magazines about the Lafayette-Princeton game and the criticisms.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 28.—Three coaches beside Jones and Wheaton were working on the football team.

PRINCETON, Oct. 28.—A biting cold wind put lots of life into the practice of the Tigers this afternoon.
