

IN SOCIETY.

Any number of luncheons, teas, dinners, dances, theatre and supper parties are on the programme of the week. Mrs. Clarence H. Mackay will give a luncheon next Thursday at her home, 244 Madison avenue, with Mrs. Forbes-Robertson as the guest. On that day Mrs. Edward La Montagne will give a big luncheon at the Colony Club. On Tuesday Miss Ada Phipps of 279 Lexington avenue will give a luncheon for her niece, Miss Alice Gouverneur Kortright.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, Mrs. George Stanton Floyd-Jones, and the Misses White, 809 Fifth avenue, will give dinners at their respective homes on Thursday. Mrs. James B. M. Grosvenor of 38 East Fiftieth street will give a dinner on Tuesday for Miss Mildred Townsend, Mrs. James B. Haggis of 587 Fifth avenue will give one of the dinners of next Thursday night and on Thursday Mrs. Robert E. Livingston will give a dinner for her debutante daughter, Miss Laura Suffer, at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward N. Taylor, 11 Washington Square North. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Oakley Rhinelanders of 28 West Fifty-second street will give a dinner next Saturday night.

Cards are out for the wedding of Miss Louise Davis Van Buren and Howard Bayne, to take place on the afternoon of Tuesday, January 18, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick T. Van Buren, 21 West Fourteenth street. The bride will be attended by her sister, Mrs. Horner T. Joy, as matron of honor. Graham Young will be best man. Mr. Bayne is vice-president of the Columbia Trust Company, is a member of the Institute of Electrical Engineers, Squadron A, the Chamber of Commerce and the University of the City of New York. He is the son of Samuel Bayne. The bride is a granddaughter of the late Michael Van Buren.

Mr. and Mrs. Anson Phelps Stokes will go South this week to pass the remainder of the winter at Palm Beach.

Miss Electra Havemeyer and James Watson Webb, oldest of the three sons of Mr. and Mrs. W. Seward Webb, have selected Tuesday, February 2, as their wedding day. The ceremony will be performed in the afternoon at St. Bartholomew's Church, Madison avenue and Forty-fourth street, by the Rev. Dr. Leighton Parks, the rector, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Heber Newton and the Rev. Dr. Peabody of Groton, Mass. Afterward Mrs. Henry C. Havemeyer, the bride's mother, will give a reception at her residence, 1 East Sixty-sixth street.

Lord Robert Edward Innes-Ker is expected to arrive in New York next Saturday. He is the younger brother of the Duke of Roxburghe, whose Duchess was formerly Miss May Goebel.

Miss Ethel Arnold, who lectured in America last winter, is here again and will begin another course to-morrow at the home of Mrs. Francis F. Kinnicut, 30 East Fifty-fifth street. Other dates are January 17, at the residence of Mrs. John Winters Brannan, 11 West Twelfth street, and January 24, at the home of Mrs. William H. Schlemm, 242 East Fifteenth street. Tickets may be had from Mrs. A. C. Tower, 32 East Fifty-fourth street. Miss Arnold, who is a sister of Mrs. Humphry Ward, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Whitridge, the latter her cousin, at 16 East Eleventh street.

One of the early February weddings will be that of Miss Louise Acker and Virginius D. Moody, on Wednesday, February 2. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Augustus Banks by a former marriage and the ceremony will be performed at her home, 117 West Seventy-fifth street. Miss Adele Acker, the bride's sister, will be the maid of honor. Louise Banks Lott and Sanford Storm, Jr., ribbon bearers, and Frank R. Moody, the bridegroom's brother, best man.

Mrs. Reginald Vanderbilt gave a dinner at the Plaza on Wednesday night. Mrs. French Vanderbilt is now in her house in Upper Brook street in London, which is next to that of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Drexel. Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt are to give a dinner next Friday evening. Alfred G. Vanderbilt left on Wednesday for England. He has a ten years lease of his apartment in London.

Miss Grace Bigelow Tracy, daughter of the late Charles E. Tracy, is to be married to Thomas G. Cook in St. George's Church on Thursday, January 20. The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Anne Tracy, as maid of honor, and by the Misses Elinor Lee, Margaret Sloane, Anne Gardiner, Jane Bigelow, Muriel Murray and Charlotte Harding as bridesmaids. Dr. Henry C. Wood will be best man. A general reception will be given at the home of the bride's grandfather John Bigelow, Gramercy Park.

Viscounte Henri de Montmort of Paris, who reached here from Europe last week, is on a tour of the world. Count Albert de Sonis, who was at the St. Regis for several weeks, has left for the Riviera. Baron and Baroness de Fork of Berlin are the guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. E. W. Morse, at the Wolcott. Countess de Castelmarque, formerly Miss Edith Van Buren, is visiting relatives in Washington. Baron Thilo von Wunster of Berlin and the Baroness, who was Miss Barbara Krupp, left for home last Tuesday.

Mrs. Frank S. Witherbee of 4 Fifth avenue gave a dinner on Tuesday night with Miss Civilize Alexandre as the chief guest. Mrs. Daniel Chester French gave a dinner on Tuesday. Mrs. Martin W. Littleton of 113 East Fifty-seventh street gave a dinner on Wednesday for Mrs. J. Annan Bryce of London, sister-in-law of the British Ambassador. Other dinners that night were those of Mrs. John E. Alexandre and Mrs. Norrie Sellar of 17 East Eighty-sixth street. Henry Bayre Van Duzer of 30 East Fifty-fifth street gave a dinner on Thursday for Miss Elizabeth Gorham Bacon, the debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gorham Bacon. One of the dinners of that night was given by Mrs. Edward Hubbard Litchfield at her home, 2 Montague Terrace, Brooklyn. Mrs. Thomas Buchanan Gilford, Jr., of 53 West Fifty-fifth street gave a Friday night dinner.

The marriage of Miss Paula Slevin and Stephen Valentine Farrelly will take place next Tuesday in the Roman Catholic Church of St. Paul the Apostle, Columbus avenue and Sixtieth street. The ceremony will be followed by a breakfast at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Farrelly, 275 Madison avenue. There will be no reception, as the family is in mourning. The bride is a grandniece of Father Hecker of the Paulist order.

The marriage of Miss Pauline E. Boulton and Newbold Lawrence Herrick will take place next Wednesday afternoon in Grace Church. The bride will be attended by Miss Marion Stevenson as maid of honor. She will be given in marriage by her father, William B. Boulton. Eberhart L. Low, a brother-in-law of the bridegroom, will be the best man, and Paul Hammond, Francis Murray, James Walsh, Noel Hammond, William B. Boulton, Jr., and Edward Boulton will be ushers. Mr. and Mrs. William B. Boulton, the bride's parents, will give a reception afterward at their home, 40 Fifth avenue. Mr.

Herrick is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Herrick.

Members of the Manhattan Bridge Club will meet to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the white and gold room of the Plaza, and Mrs. A. D. Bramhall will give a card party at 2 o'clock in the red room.

The wedding of Miss Marie Louise Logan and Henri de Sincay, whose engagement was recently announced, probably will be celebrated early in February, just prior to Ash Wednesday. The bridegroom-elect left for his home on the other side on Tuesday and will return late in January. Miss Logan is a daughter of Mrs. John A. Logan and a granddaughter of the late Gen. John A. Logan. M. de Sincay is a son of Gaston de Sincay, head of zinc industries at Liege.

Miss Cornelia Lee and William Fowle Ladd, Jr., formerly of Texas, will be married next Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Lee, 24 Gramercy Park, by the Rev. Dr. Endicott Peabody of Groton, Mass. The bride will be given in marriage by her father. Her sister, Miss Elinor Lee, will be maid of honor. The Misses Ethel Cowdin and Katherine Atterbury will be bridesmaids, Marion W. Lee will be the page and Ethel Harriman the flower maiden. Carol W. Ladd will be best man.

The marriage of Mrs. Louise McMichael Marble, widow of James McNab Marble, and Charles Blaine Warner, formerly of Syracuse, will take place next Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Arvid R. McMichael, 969 Madison avenue. Robert MacMullen will act as best man.

A Philadelphia wedding for which cards have been issued is that of Miss Mary Quincy Dixon and Gardiner Cassatt, to take place next Tuesday in St. Mark's Church. The bride's father, George Dallas Dixon, will give her in marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Dixon will give a breakfast and reception at their home. Mr. Cassatt is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Gardner Cassatt.

Preston Davie and Mrs. Davie, who was Miss Emily H. Bedford, will make their home at 45 Fifth avenue. The couple were married on Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Bedford, in Clinton avenue, Brooklyn. Frederick Bedford was best man in place of Ogden L. Mills.

who was absent on account of the death of D. O. Mills.

The third in the series of Saturday night dances took place last night in the large ballroom at Delmonico's, and was well attended. Supper was served at midnight. Among the patronesses were Mrs. Charles R. Huntington, Mrs. Charles E. Sands, Mrs. Lindsey Tappin, Mrs. George E. Wyeth and Mrs. John Clarkson Jay.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace L. Ingersoll of 913 West End avenue announce the engagement of their daughter Grace to Stanley A. Sweet.
