

FOOD IS DEARER IN LONDON

STILL ALL SORTS OF MEATS ARE CHEAPER THAN IN NEW YORK.

London, April 16.—While American housewives complain of the high cost of meat and East Side women in New York had butchers shops English housewives have also begun to discover that meat is slowly but surely increasing in price. Beef is rising owing to scant supplies from the United States, while mutton and bacon are rising in sympathy with beef.

The correspondent of THE SUN visited several noted London shops to-day to ascertain the current prices of meats. At the vast Civil Service Stores he found that the best English sirloin cost 24 cents a pound and the best American and Canadian sirloin, 18 cents; the best English mutton, 14 cents; the best New Zealand mutton, 11; the best English mutton, 12; the best Canadian mutton, 10; the best English ham, 28 cents; the best American, 22.

Best fresh eggs were quoted at 26 cents; best English butter at 36; best French butter, 35; best Danish, 33; best Irish, 31; Guinea fowl sold at 75 cents each; best brooding chickens, from $1 to $1.30; fresh wild ducks, 60 to 75 cents each; spring chickens, 40 cents each; turkeys, 20 cents a pound.

These are the prices prevailing in the stores patronized by the masses of well-to-do Londoners. Stores in the fashionable quarters charge 20 per cent higher.

An American woman who kept house in New York recently and who now keeps house here said to the correspondent of THE SUN: "I have discovered that the prices of the chief necessities for the table here are far lower than in New York, especially meats and birds. It is curious to find American sirloin and porteriouse beef not less than where grown."

Nothing daunts London's County Council. It now intends to enforce its extraordinary powers, secured three years ago, and hunt out the great unwashed. Its doctors will examine the reasons and clothing of the inmates of the common lodging houses. When either is found in a foul condition the owner will be compelled to submit himself and his clothing to a washing within twenty-four hours.

Time was when good form interdicted an examination of the mouths of gift horses, but nowadays when a legacy is offered to Newcastle-on-Tyne by a wealthy local solicitor of 2,500 mistresses, some bearing the names of Holbein, Hubens and Corot, with $100,000 for building a gallery and $12,500 toward its maintenance, the city's first care is to call in experts to scrutinize the gifts. In their report that the foregoing names seemed to be used respectfully and that only one of the paintings was worthy of admission to the gallery a majority of the councillors decide to decline the legacy. The vote, however, stood 28 to 27.

Major Gaylor's address to clergymen in which he stated that it was easy to obtain drinks in England on Sunday during the hours when saloons are closed has aroused many denials. Excise officials say that Mr. Gaylor is mistaken or is guilty of telling a half truth. Anybody who obtains a drink on Sunday if he is a bona fide traveller. To be such it is required only that he travel three miles on official duty that Mr. Gaylor undoubtedly got drinks during prohibited hours, but only because the saloonists recognized an American agent and knew he must be a bona fide traveller. The license of a saloon keeper would be revoked if he served anybody but a bona fide traveller during prohibited hours. Licenses are available to allow saloon keepers to be licensed to evade the law.

Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Mills and C. Bennett are at the Ritz Hotel with Mrs. M. Livingston. Mrs. J. Ford, who has been one of the belles at Biarritz, will join them shortly.

Congressman Cox Wins in Primaries. INDIANAPOLIS, April 16.—Returns from all the counties in the Third Congress district where a Republican primary was held yesterday show that every one of the nine counties was carried by his Republican opponent. Cox won in 100 per cent of the vote, his majority being above 4,000.

The Weather. April 17.—The pressure continued low today throughout the central valleys and was high over the Atlantic States and the Rocky Mountains and the Rocky Mountains and the Mississippi (Ohio and Tennessee valleys) and over the Missouri Valley.

It was cloudy in the morning in the Middle Atlantic and New England States and light rain fell in southern New England. There was some rain also in Washington. Freezing weather covered the upper Missouri Valley and the Rocky Mountain States and New Mexico. It was cooler in the lower lake regions and the Mississippi Valley and from Iowa and Nebraska south to the west Gulf.

For eastern New York, rain to-day and to-morrow and continued cool, moderate to brisk easterly wind, becoming variable.

For western New York, showers and cooler to-day; rain to-morrow, moderate to brisk easterly wind, becoming variable.

For the District of Columbia and Maryland, rain to-day and to-morrow, moderate to brisk easterly wind, becoming variable.

For western Pennsylvania, showers and cooler to-day; rain to-morrow, except possibly snow bursts near Lake Erie; brisk to high south to west winds.

JAPAN PLACATING RUSSIA

PRINCE AND PRINCESS FUSHIMI WIN OVER ST. PETERSBURG.

Carina's Health Improved by the Czar's Successful Public Appearance—Previous Turkish Relations—Ferdinand's Visit to St. Petersburg.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. ST. PETERSBURG, April 16.—Prince and Princess Fushimi of Japan and their suite of thirty persons are leaving nothing undone to make a good impression on the Czar's family. It required an official intimation that only Russians were allowed to subscribe to prevent the visitors from offering handsome donations to the memorial church in honor of the sailors who fell in the Russo-Japanese War, for which a national collection was opened this week.

The Prince laid a magnificent silver wreath from the Mikado on the tomb of Alexander III. in the fortress cathedral. The party spent an hour in the new Church of the Resurrection, built on the spot where Alexander II. was assassinated. They heard a performance of Tchaikovsky's "Eugene Onegin" at the Imperial Opera House, and the public criticized them there with silent curiosity, which is the attitude of the people.

At a luncheon given by the Czar at Tsarskoe-Selo the Carina was accompanied by Prince Fushimi, while the Czar escorted Princess Fushimi.

The Carina and the little Caeravitch have attended this week the daily spring reviews of the Guards regiments. The Carina's spirits have been greatly improved by the Czar's repeated visits to St. Petersburg having passed successfully.

The political world is less interested in Prince Fushimi than in the visit of Hilmil Pasha, the personal representative of the new Sultan of Turkey, to announce his succession. Russia is approaching a very difficult situation in regard to both Turkey and Persia. Premier Stolypin's Government will probably benefit by Foreign Minister Ivolavsky's furlough in Italy. Ivolavsky is blamed for neglecting to go to Constantinople to establish an understanding with the new Turkish régime eighteen months ago instead of proceeding on what proved a disastrous round of visits to Austria, France, Belgium and Germany for his ministerial duties.

His explanation was that he had no serious belief in the stability of any arrangement with reformed Turkey. Now the officers of Hilmil Pasha's staff are describing to Russians a state of things which leaves the inference that Ivolavsky was probably right. When questioned concerning the Albanian fighting they said the introduction of non-Mohammedans into the Turkish army, which has been proceeding this month for the first time, must greatly weaken the Ottoman military power.

The Sultan's Greek subjects, who have been called to serve the Crescent, are making voluntary subscriptions for the building of a Greek fleet to cope with Turkey. The Turkish war department scarcely attempts to conscript the Sultan's Bulgarian subjects. The immunity of these among the Armenians and Jews, who are both described as bad military material. It has been found inadvisable to enlist the separate races and faiths in separate corps. Hence most of the battalions are only four-fifths full on service days because the Moslems rest on Friday, the Jews on Saturday and the Christians on Sunday.

The first danger from a weak Turkish army, Russia foresees, is in Persia's northwestern province, Azerbaijan, overrun by Kurdish brigades from the Turkish border around Lake Urmiah. There, under the new Anglo-Russian loan to Persia, a concession for exclusive navigation was granted by the Persian Government to Russia. The difficulties are increased by the arrival of a heavy motor vehicular service with timber sections for lake boats sent by a German firm, whose Government will certainly deal with Turkey and Persia direct and not with Russia and England if the German firm suffers damage.

The Russian war department has decided to send a number of naval officers and engineers to American navy yards where the great battleships of the new American programme are building.

The Kiev Kievian, a leading south Russian newspaper, publishes a widely quoted tribute to the improvement in the morale of peasants who have returned after working in America.

FREEZING WEATHER OUT WEST. Low Temperatures, Snow in Many Places, and Fruit Crop Damaged. CHICAGO, April 16.—A drop in temperature throughout the country which made itself felt in Chicago to-day is causing heavy loss throughout the West, where fruit trees were in bud and all vegetation well advanced.

In the great wheat States of Minnesota and the Dakotas the drop in temperature here was sensational. According to despatches it is 8 above zero in Minnesota, snow is falling, and it is probable that every crop that is at all advanced will be killed. The damage of the storm may amount to millions of dollars.

In the Dakotas the temperature is below the freezing point. The temperature is 18 above in the Red River Valley of Minnesota, and this State is the farthest south as the middle parts of Texas, where it is below the freezing point.

The cold did much damage to fruit in New Mexico and west Texas last night. The snow in that region covers a wide area.

From St. Joseph, Mo., comes the report that a driving snow is falling. The weather there was freezing all night. Thousands of fruit buds, according to a despatch, were blighted by the killing frost that visited St. City, Iowa. Apple and cherry buds, it is said, were only about half cut when the killing temperature struck them. There is snow in Iowa also.

The storm has spread over the entire fruit region of the West and shows no evidence of abating. In Kansas, Nebraska, Wyoming and Montana it is reported to be equally severe.

St. Louis, April 16.—Special despatches to-night tell of frosts in the lower Missouri and upper Mississippi valleys. The cold weather came in the wake of a warm wave and two days of heavy rain. The damage to fruit and vegetable crops will be enormous.

AMERICANS SAFE AT HANKOW.

All the Property of the Missions of Chang Sha Lost—U. S. Consulate to the Scene.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. AMOY, April 15.—The United States protected cruiser Cleveland, which arrived here yesterday, has called for Hankow because of the rioting at Chang Sha. Several British cruisers are also on the way to the scene of the disturbances.

LONDON, April 16.—The China Inland Mission here has received a cable despatch which states that all the missionaries who fled from Chang Sha are safe at Hankow. They lost all their personal effects.

HARRISBURG, April 17.—The following cable despatch was received this afternoon by Bishop Rudolph Dubs from his son, Rev. Newton Dubs, who is superintendent of the missions of the United Evangelical Church at Chang Sha, China: "Station has been attacked and property damaged seriously. All are safe. We have no weapons. Lack of protection by the authorities."

New Haven, April 16.—Prof. William H. Salmon, secretary and treasurer of the Yale Mission at Chang Sha, China, who spent part of last year at the mission, said to-night that he had just received a cable message from the Yale representatives there that they had already sailed for Hankow, 230 miles from Chang Sha. Prof. Salmon said that Yale would take no active part in calling President Taft's attention to the matter, but that the State Department had already taken it up.

He said that the situation of the Yale College in China was such that it would be practically impossible to protect it by the United States army or navy. To reach it by land a march of 150 miles through a thickly populated hostile country would have to be made. He said that the United States gunboats could not reach the spot because they were too heavily built to navigate the river shallows. The British gunboats being of lighter build could make it.

An account of the conditions now prevailing in China was received to-day by Prof. Salmon from Huntington Wilson, Assistant Secretary of State.

MONTECLAIR, N. J., April 16.—Archdeacon Frederick B. Carter, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal Church, to-day received a cablegram from Hankow, China, acquainting him with the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Alfred A. Gilman, resident missionaries at Chang-sha, had escaped from a Chinese mob with their lives, but that the mission buildings and all their personal belongings had been destroyed.

Mrs. Gilman is a daughter of the Rev. Mr. Carter. Mr. Gilman has been a missionary in China for the last eight years. He and Mrs. Gilman returned to their station only about two months ago after a furlough of a year, most of which was spent in Montclair. On leaving Montclair last February the Gilmans were presented with a purse of $500. St. Luke's parish also arranged to pay Mrs. Gilman a regular salary in the future as the representative of the Montclair church in the Chinese mission field.

The Commercial Cable Company sent out the following notice to-day: "The Chinese Telegraphs advise that owing to riots at Chang Sha the telegraph lines between Yochow and Chang Sha and Liangtau and Chang Sha are interrupted. Cablegrams for Chang Sha are accepted at sender's risk."

Later, but no messages were still taken at sender's risk.

Chang Sha is the capital of the province of Hunan.

MONTE CARLO TIGER FAT. Hungarian Count the Only Sensational Winner of the Waning Season. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

MONTE CARLO, April 16.—The season here is waning. Many Americans have returned to their homes in America. The bank this season by winning a considerable sum.

The only sensation was the winning by a Hungarian Count of 500,000 francs ($100,000) in one day's play at roulette. The Casino has had an unusually profitable season. The receipts to the end of March were 3,000,000 francs ($600,000) above those of the preceding season.

The Casino shareholders expect to receive a dividend of $70 a share this season. The dividend is larger than that of last year. The shares are nominally worth $200. At the present market price they are worth over $1,000.

NEW SALON SENSATION. Jean Veber Withdraws His Pictures Because They're Not Hung to Suit Him. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

PARIS, April 16.—The Government has purchased Jean Veber's picture "Interior of the Chateau de Gisors," which is now on exhibition at the new Salon.

Walter Gay is an American, who lives in Paris, whether he went in 1906. He has received medals for several paintings exhibited in Paris and elsewhere. Some of his pictures are in the Metropolitan Museum of Art, in the Luxembourg, the Boston Museum of Fine Arts and the Tate Collection in London. He is an officer of the Legion of Honor. His large picture "Benedicite" hangs in the museum and his "Las Cigarreras" is in the Luxembourg.

ASQUITH WAKES UP ENGLAND

COUNTRY FACES ISSUE OF EXTINCTION OF THE LORDS.

Rosebery Urges Shelling the Tariff Question to Defend the Constitutional Principle of Two Houses of Parliament—Bitter Attacks on the Irish.

The situation now that the Government has shown its hand, is regarded variously by the newspapers. The Liberal organs unanimously praise Asquith, while denying that he had abjectly surrendered to the Nationalists in order to secure their vote for the budget. Contrariwise the Unionist organs attribute the policy to a deal with the Irish.

The Saturday Review says: "Mr. Reidmond settled the terms of Mr. Asquith's surrender to the Irish party. Mr. Asquith is allowed to keep his budget on condition that he set the King to make over five hundred peers from the street in the event of the real peers rejecting it, which they will ignominiously. Mr. Asquith bargains away the British Constitution to a gang of professional politicians who have already insisted upon their total alienation from the empire."

The Spectator praises Reidmond's political sagacity and says: "He at any rate has shown firmness and determination and has compelled obedience to his will."

On Monday the Earl of Crews will give notice of the veto resolutions in the House of Lords. When the Lords will take up the debate on the resolutions is not known, probably not until after June. The Nationalists will meet on Monday to determine their attitude on the budget.

The Unionists cynically say it is already determined for them by Reidmond. The situation is now up to the King. Mr. Asquith proclaimed that the Government intends to stand or fall by its determination to request his Majesty to appoint present House of Lords majority, thus forcing the veto bill through. Although the Unionists believe the King would not consent to appoint new peers for such a purpose his refusal would compel the Government to appeal to the country on such a single issue.

Lord Rosebery has issued an appeal to Unionists to drop the tariff issue in the coming election and to concentrate on the defence of the Constitution. He says: "If this issue is complicated with others we shall not obtain the clear and solemn pronouncement of the nation on this fearful question. What is wanted is a clear, straightforward fight on the sole issue of a single chamber as opposed to two."

Hundreds of spellbinders left London to-day to participate in the anti-Socialist campaign among the working classes in the country. Forty of them were women, and laborers, all trained speakers, who will endeavor to rouse the people to the perils of socialism.

CITY TO SELL REAL ESTATE. Hope for a Profit From Its Dealing in Centre Street Property. The city, acting through the Public Service Commission, will sell at auction on May 24 about 100,000 worth of property which was taken over to permit the building of the Centre street subway. A peculiar feature of the sale will be that the city will be disposing of something it has not paid for. Title to the property has been taken, but the price has not yet been settled by the commissions appointed to condemn the six sites which were acquired in Centre street to furnish easements for the subway.

Corporation Counsel Watson said yesterday that there would be no legal difficulty in the auctioning off of the property, because the city had taken title to the land and the work of the condemnation commission was practically completed. It is thought that the awards of the commission will not be more than $750,000, while it is expected that the city will realize a profit of at least $250,000 on the sale.

ANOTHER PETROSINO SUSPECT. Italian Arrested in Plaquemine, La., Will Be Brought Here. PLAQUEMINE, La., April 16.—That Joseph Pizzottola, an Italian laborer, who was arrested here last night by Federal officials and who will be sent to New York, knows something about the killing of Louis Petrosino of the New York police force is the belief of members of the Italian colony here.

Officials who arrested Pizzottola say he is wanted in Italy for many crimes and that he had a bad record in New Orleans. According to the story told by his friends here, Pizzottola came to New Orleans direct from Italy immediately after Petrosino was assassinated, and these friends say that the prisoner has part in the plot. He was taken to New Orleans this morning and will be sent to New York.

CAME WITH LICENSE TO WED. Supposed Marriage of Jesse Dixon Maxwell and Grace May Blackmore. WHITE PLAINS, April 16.—Jesse Dixon Maxwell, son of J. D. Maxwell of 103 North Broadway, Tarrytown, and Miss Grace May Blackmore, daughter of George H. Blackmore of 138 South Broadway, White Plains, got a marriage license here to-day and started for Manhattan in an automobile. George Quintard, son of the late ironmaster, and his wife accompanied them in another automobile. It is supposed that Mr. Maxwell and Miss Blackmore were married in New York. They returned here to-night, but no information from them is obtainable. The engagement of Miss Blackmore and Mr. Maxwell was announced last Thursday, and it was then that no date for the marriage had been set.

Extra Penalty for Saying "Hully Gee." Five members of Yorkville gangs were in the night court early yesterday for fighting in Forty-third street between Second and Third avenues. They were all fined $10 by Magistrate Corrigan. One of them, Fred Connolly of 404 East Eighty-third street, on hearing his sentence, burst out laughing and said "Hully gee!" "What's funny about it?" asked the Magistrate. Then he held Connolly under $100 bonds for one month.

The building will be 50 feet front and 197 1/2 feet deep, and will cost $600,000.

JAPAN LOSES A SUBMARINE. One of Her Newest Craft Goes to the Bottom in Hiroshima Bay. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

TOKYO, April 16.—One of the latest submarine boats foundered to-day while maneuvering in Hiroshima Bay. There are no details yet as to the loss of life.

Japan has altogether about thirteen submarines completed besides several building. Her newest boats are two submarines of the British C type built at Barrow, England. The British C boats are 200 feet long, 22 feet beam, 112 tons and 600 horse-power. They carry a couple of officers and about fifteen men.

TALE OF SCARED WITNESSES.

Shipman's Lawyer Says Detective Ordered Them to Testify His Way.

John R. Jones counsel for Joseph T. Shipman, the real estate man who is accused of trying to assault Miss Emily Ritchie of 175 Fifth street, Brooklyn, on April 7 in a hotel at Twenty-fourth, street and Lexington avenue, while Mrs. Emma McCully her chapman, and Mrs. McCully's baby were locked in an adjoining room, told Magistrate Barlow in the Tombs court yesterday that a detective of the District Attorney's staff had threatened Shipman's witnesses while the examination was in progress last Friday night.

Mr. Jones said he thought the demeanor of the witness Francis Whitland, who almost collapsed on the witness stand, required some explanation.

"I want to protest against one incident that occurred last night after the defendant's witnesses were excluded from the court room," said Jones. "I learned after the examination that Detective Edward Leigh of the District Attorney's office followed them and put them through the third degree. I charge him with threatening to imprison them if they testified that there was more than one man in the hotel party. The witness Whitland was browbeaten until he could scarcely stand or speak."

Whitland's testimony about the visit to the hotel was that he and Mrs. McCully registered as "J. Jones wife and baby" and Shipman and Miss Ritchie as "Robert Briggs and Miss Ritchie." The witness followed under such a mental strain in telling his story on Friday that the Magistrate said he hoped the man would be locked up for perjury.

Furthermore the detectives threatened to close the hotel unless the witness Leo Kahn, the clerk, was discharged, and as a result he has lost his job.

Whitland's testimony about the visit to the hotel was that he and Mrs. McCully registered as "J. Jones wife and baby" and Shipman and Miss Ritchie as "Robert Briggs and Miss Ritchie." The witness followed under such a mental strain in telling his story on Friday that the Magistrate said he hoped the man would be locked up for perjury.

Magistrate Barlow said that he had nothing to do with the conduct of Detective Leigh outside of the court room. "The proper place for your complaint is the District Attorney's office," he said. Leigh, who is a first grade detective with an excellent record—he was formerly Magistrate Barlow's probation officer—denied that he had sought to influence the witnesses. He added that he was too overworked to do such a thing.

He and Jones had had a heated argument at the Lexington Hotel on Thursday night. "I think he is sore," said Leigh. Shipman was held for the Grand Jury, the bail being reduced from $10,000 to $5,000. In default of bonds he went to the Tombs.

MARK TWAIN'S DAUGHTER HERE Mrs. Gabrielle Itsch Arrives From Europe to Visit Her Father. Osnep Gabriellowitch, the Russian pianist, with his wife, who was Miss Clara Clemens, daughter of Mark Twain, arrived last evening by the American liner New York, from Southampton, and took an evening train for Redding, Conn., the home of the author. They received wireless messages saying that Mr. Clemens was very ill. Mrs. Gabriellowitch's object in making the trip was due entirely to reports of her father's illness that reached her several weeks ago. The pianist was married to Miss Clemens at the home of her father, Stormfield, in October, 1907.

DANBURY, Conn., April 16.—There has been a little improvement since yesterday in the condition of Samuel L. Clemens. Dr. Robert H. Halsey of New York, who has been with Mr. Clemens since he came to Redding, said this morning that there had been no severe cardiac difficulty since the patient left the steamer in New York on Thursday. Mr. Clemens is still bothered in breathing.

Her mood was against going back to her mother, she even declared on Wednesday that she would never return to her home in The Hague.
