

SAY THEY CLIMBED MCKINLEY

ALASKANS OFFER TO BEK PROF. PARKER HALF A MILLION.

Tom Lloyd will take him up and show him the proof Scott of Fairbanks.

Prof. Parker's return recently from Alaska.

LIVE TOPICS ABOUT TOWN.

A West Side woman advertised for a cook.

The dog doctor was making out a bill for the month's expenses.

"Electric light" exclaimed his secretary.

"He doesn't need it at all," said the doctor.

Every tradesman has his own way of gauging the social standing of his customers.

The indignities I have suffered at the hands of my customers.

Forgetting a woman is a crime that occasionally lands women in the police station.

Forgetful of the woman in the morning.

SAMOA IS GETTING ALONG

RACING HORSES AND TRYING TO RAISE RUBBER.

The island of Savaii Blasted by Volcano.

The volcano in Savaii, the largest of the Samoan islands.

Dr. Solf has been Governor of German Samoa.

ELLEN TERRY HERE TO TALK

White Haired and Stouter Suffragette, But Not a Parader.

Ellen Terry arrived in New York yesterday on the records.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

She is at the Hotel Astor and spent yesterday afternoon in driving through the park.

ROBERT HICHENS The opening chapters of Robert Hichens' new story, "The Dweller on the Threshold," in the November Century, give promise of a story, in some respects, the most remarkable he ever wrote. This story is written around that strange influence which one human being sometimes exercises over another—an influence belonging to that other world which borders so closely our own and whose phenomena are so little understood. Robert Hichens' books are for more than the passing moment; they are literature. His new story is worthy of the long series of noteworthy Century serials. The November number is brought up to an unusually high fiction standard by the addition of short stories by well-known and popular writers, including Alice Hegon Rice and Ellis Parker Butler. CENTURY MAGAZINE 50 cents a copy, $6.00 a year. At all book stores, or The Century Co., Union Square, New York.

LET THE ROOF FALL IN The scene of this novel, written by the author of "Pigs in Clover" and "The Heart of a Child," is laid in England and in part in Siam. It is a story of a most delicate and noble act of self-sacrifice on the part of a seemingly irresponsible, happy-go-lucky Irishman to save the honor and reputation of his dead cousin. Lord Rammore, looked up to and adored by a doting mother and sister, was a thorough-going ne'er-do-well, and just previous to his death had succeeded in making an apparently hopeless mix-up of all his affairs, capping the climax by betraying an innocent young girl, a dependent of the family and his mother's companion. His cousin, Derry, who succeeds to the title, finds himself looked upon as an interloper by the dead man's fond relatives. As, by degrees, he learns of Ference's shortcomings, he resolutely sets about taking up the dead man's burdens, keeping his name untarnished, fostering the illusions of his mother and sister. In order to spare their feelings he goes to Siam to take up a position that had previously been offered to him. He has made romantic—almost Quixotic—reparation to the girl that his cousin had betrayed, by marrying her, and it is the working out of their salvation that gives the author an opportunity to write one of the most absorbing and noblest novels of the year. BY FRANK DANBY

DR. BUTLER SORRY FOR PECK. Wishes He Could Do Something to Make It Old Comrade Happier.

President Butler of Columbia University, who returned from Europe on Tuesday night and was greeted by a throng of admirers.

As for Dr. Peck's assertion that the trustee illegally turned him out of his office, Butler said nothing further.

WIFE AND BABY LANDED. Father Didn't Meet Them Because He Was Laid Up in Hospital.

Mrs. Emma Festerling, the girl mother whose first baby was born on the day before she landed at Ellis Island.

Accidents in the Auto Rush. Miss Elizabeth Hoyt of Oyster Bay, daughter of Colonel Hoyt, ran down Herman Bloch, 25 years old, of 111 Forest avenue.

HER WILL TAKEN AS A JOKE. Friends in New York Don't Know Where Johnson Legacies Are Coming From.

The will of Miss Cora Johnson, who died in Boston two weeks ago and left bequests of $200,000 with only $100 in cash to pay them.

SCULPTOR WHO DID NOT LOVE. Ellwell Says His Wife Deserted Him, Not He Her.

Trial of a suit for separation brought by Mrs. Molina M. Ellwell against Frank Edwin Ellwell, sculptor and formerly curator of the Metropolitan Museum.

MISS MORGAN'S CRUCIFIX. She Brings It In as an Antique, Free of Duty—Appraisers to Look at It.

Miss Anna Morgan, with Miss Belle Green, librarian for J. Pierpont Morgan, arrived yesterday by the White Star liner Oceanic.

WIFE AND BABY LANDED. Father Didn't Meet Them Because He Was Laid Up in Hospital.

Mrs. Emma Festerling, the girl mother whose first baby was born on the day before she landed at Ellis Island.

WIFE AND BABY LANDED. Father Didn't Meet Them Because He Was Laid Up in Hospital.

Mrs. Emma Festerling, the girl mother whose first baby was born on the day before she landed at Ellis Island.

WIFE AND BABY LANDED. Father Didn't Meet Them Because He Was Laid Up in Hospital.

Mrs. Emma Festerling, the girl mother whose first baby was born on the day before she landed at Ellis Island.

WEDDINGS. Home Palmer. Miss Irene Palmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Palmer, of 11 West Seventy-third street, was married to James Edwin Jones, of 11 West Seventy-third street, at the church of the Holy Trinity, at 11 West Seventy-third street, at 11 West Seventy-third street.

WEDDINGS. Home Palmer. Miss Irene Palmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Palmer, of 11 West Seventy-third street, was married to James Edwin Jones, of 11 West Seventy-third street, at the church of the Holy Trinity, at 11 West Seventy-third street.

WEDDINGS. Home Palmer. Miss Irene Palmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Palmer, of 11 West Seventy-third street, was married to James Edwin Jones, of 11 West Seventy-third street, at the church of the Holy Trinity, at 11 West Seventy-third street.

WEDDINGS. Home Palmer. Miss Irene Palmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Palmer, of 11 West Seventy-third street, was married to James Edwin Jones, of 11 West Seventy-third street, at the church of the Holy Trinity, at 11 West Seventy-third street.

WEDDINGS. Home Palmer. Miss Irene Palmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Palmer, of 11 West Seventy-third street, was married to James Edwin Jones, of 11 West Seventy-third street, at the church of the Holy Trinity, at 11 West Seventy-third street.

WEDDINGS. Home Palmer. Miss Irene Palmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Palmer, of 11 West Seventy-third street, was married to James Edwin Jones, of 11 West Seventy-third street, at the church of the Holy Trinity, at 11 West Seventy-third street.

Bush-Kuper. Miss Grace Dorothy Kuper and Albert Bush were married last evening in the West Twenty-third Street Presbyterian church.

Pach-Suzette. The marriage of Miss Suzette Madeline Pach and Alfred Pach took place yesterday morning at the home of the bride's parents.

High Miss. The wedding of Miss Katharine Elizabeth High and Thomas F. High took place yesterday morning in St. Stephen's Roman Catholic church.

Murray-Kearney. The wedding of Miss Kearney and Mr. Murray took place yesterday morning in St. Stephen's Roman Catholic church.

Wicks-Benches. Miss Antonette Benches and Earl Wicks were married at a wedding last evening at the Plaza.

Plan Best Cure Home for Women. SUTHERLAND SPRINGS, TEX., Oct. 26. Plans have been adopted for the erection of the buildings and other improvements of the sanitarium and rest home that are to be established here at a cost of $250,000.

Clayhanger. A story of extraordinary interest by a rising novelist. Dutton's 31 West 23d Street, New York.

THE BOY AVIATORS' SERIES. By Capt. Willbur Lawton. Six stirring up-to-the-minute aviation stories for wide-awake boys.

Berkeley School. "Primary to College." 72nd Street & West End Ave.

Irving School. L. D. RAY, 35 W. 84th St. Elementary, Primary, Intermediate and Commercial Departments.

The Boys' Book OF Model Aeroplanes. By Francis Arnold Collins. All about how to make aeroplane models and how to fly them.

Clayhanger. A story of extraordinary interest by a rising novelist. Dutton's 31 West 23d Street, New York.

THE BOY AVIATORS' SERIES. By Capt. Willbur Lawton. Six stirring up-to-the-minute aviation stories for wide-awake boys.

Berkeley School. "Primary to College." 72nd Street & West End Ave.

Irving School. L. D. RAY, 35 W. 84th St. Elementary, Primary, Intermediate and Commercial Departments.