

SEVENTH MARCHES IN SHOWER

FIFTH AVENUE WEDGED WITH TALK WHO APPLAUD.

Site of Music and Memory Never Absent Two Women Who Saw the Regiment Set Forth Fifty Years Ago Saw It Yesterday From the Same Window.

It is a matter of record in the Seventh Regiment that fifty years ago yesterday was "one of the fairest days of spring."

Everything looked balmy and dry up to a few minutes before the head of the parade left Washington Square.

Seventy's celebration of the day started for Washington to be of service to the threatened Federal capital began at the army at Park avenue and Sixty-sixth street yesterday when a bugler tooted the assembly at 3 o'clock.

Soon the lines came thumping down from the company rooms and with Lieut. Col. Willard C. Fisk at its head the regiment rounded the corner of Sixty-seventh street and disappeared to the east.

Meanwhile the old timers were having a study of their own in the old Brevoort House, in lower Fifth avenue.

A fifteen minute wait brought no results. The starting hour was considerably past and diplomatic relations were getting pretty strained.

There were so many of the gray haired fighters that presently every carriage was taken. You see, they were all going to ride because some of them have seen the last of their marching days.

In one of the old fashioned houses on Lafayette street the maiden ladies, the Misses Fanny and Louise Underhill, looked out from the window at which they watched the regiment leave its old army in Tompkins Market when it went away to Washington.

The house at No. 432 is one of the very few that hasn't been wedged out by the big buildings of the neighborhood.

It was a little past 4 o'clock when the carriages were finally scattered around the asphalt of Washington Square.

At the head of the regiment were drawn the two howitzers that were taken down Broadway by the Seventh when it started for the front in the Civil War.

At the head of the regiment were drawn the two howitzers that were taken down Broadway by the Seventh when it started for the front in the Civil War.

At the head of the regiment were drawn the two howitzers that were taken down Broadway by the Seventh when it started for the front in the Civil War.

At the head of the regiment were drawn the two howitzers that were taken down Broadway by the Seventh when it started for the front in the Civil War.

At the head of the regiment were drawn the two howitzers that were taken down Broadway by the Seventh when it started for the front in the Civil War.

At the head of the regiment were drawn the two howitzers that were taken down Broadway by the Seventh when it started for the front in the Civil War.

At the head of the regiment were drawn the two howitzers that were taken down Broadway by the Seventh when it started for the front in the Civil War.

HEARD IN HOTEL CORRIDORS

GRUMPINESS IN STREET CARS RILES A SOUTHERNER.

Wouldn't Tolerate Down His Way Such Treatment as Women Got on Madison Avenue—Devotee of London Clothes Changes His Mind—Beveridge Here.

Thomas F. Burke, who is street commissioner of Winsted, Conn., arrived at the Wolcott on Tuesday night.

After a Chicago woman had left a hotel upon a bellboy who had been sent up to the room she had occupied found a necklace on the floor.

Secretary of War stood Major-General Daniel E. Sickles, who is in his eighty-sixth year and who leaned on his crutches as he saluted the stand.

The review and with it the present Seventh went by with the marching order that brought applause from the guests as it had done all the way up the avenue.

Several lines of silk hatted and cane carrying men of less than middle age followed. They were the regular veterans of the Spanish war.

Behind came fifty carriages, each with its load of regular veterans of the Spanish war.

Behind came fifty carriages, each with its load of regular veterans of the Spanish war.

Behind came fifty carriages, each with its load of regular veterans of the Spanish war.

Behind came fifty carriages, each with its load of regular veterans of the Spanish war.

Behind came fifty carriages, each with its load of regular veterans of the Spanish war.

Behind came fifty carriages, each with its load of regular veterans of the Spanish war.

Behind came fifty carriages, each with its load of regular veterans of the Spanish war.

Behind came fifty carriages, each with its load of regular veterans of the Spanish war.

Behind came fifty carriages, each with its load of regular veterans of the Spanish war.

Behind came fifty carriages, each with its load of regular veterans of the Spanish war.

Behind came fifty carriages, each with its load of regular veterans of the Spanish war.

Behind came fifty carriages, each with its load of regular veterans of the Spanish war.

Behind came fifty carriages, each with its load of regular veterans of the Spanish war.

HEARD IN HOTEL CORRIDORS

GRUMPINESS IN STREET CARS RILES A SOUTHERNER.

Wouldn't Tolerate Down His Way Such Treatment as Women Got on Madison Avenue—Devotee of London Clothes Changes His Mind—Beveridge Here.

Thomas F. Burke, who is street commissioner of Winsted, Conn., arrived at the Wolcott on Tuesday night.

After a Chicago woman had left a hotel upon a bellboy who had been sent up to the room she had occupied found a necklace on the floor.

Secretary of War stood Major-General Daniel E. Sickles, who is in his eighty-sixth year and who leaned on his crutches as he saluted the stand.

The review and with it the present Seventh went by with the marching order that brought applause from the guests as it had done all the way up the avenue.

Several lines of silk hatted and cane carrying men of less than middle age followed. They were the regular veterans of the Spanish war.

Behind came fifty carriages, each with its load of regular veterans of the Spanish war.

Behind came fifty carriages, each with its load of regular veterans of the Spanish war.

Behind came fifty carriages, each with its load of regular veterans of the Spanish war.

Behind came fifty carriages, each with its load of regular veterans of the Spanish war.

Behind came fifty carriages, each with its load of regular veterans of the Spanish war.

Behind came fifty carriages, each with its load of regular veterans of the Spanish war.

Behind came fifty carriages, each with its load of regular veterans of the Spanish war.

Behind came fifty carriages, each with its load of regular veterans of the Spanish war.

Behind came fifty carriages, each with its load of regular veterans of the Spanish war.

Behind came fifty carriages, each with its load of regular veterans of the Spanish war.

Behind came fifty carriages, each with its load of regular veterans of the Spanish war.

Behind came fifty carriages, each with its load of regular veterans of the Spanish war.

Behind came fifty carriages, each with its load of regular veterans of the Spanish war.

Dr. Lyon's PERFECT TOOTH POWDER

for clean white beautiful teeth and a pure and fragrant breath

BORDEN'S COUNTRY-BOTTLED MILK PURE CLEAN RICH SAFE

A "MASQUE OF DAYS"

Curious Dances at the Waldorf to Aid Day Nurseries.

Young people to the number of 130 took part in a "Masque of Days" at the Waldorf yesterday afternoon and evening.

President Scott's Adherents Voted to Give Them to the Library of Congress—Election of Officers Will Take Place To-day—Both Sides Are Confident.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The Daughters of the American Revolution voted overwhelmingly to-day to keep the Chalkley manuscript, containing the record of old Augusta county.

When the vote finally came to a single daughter voted in favor of the administration proposition submitted by Mrs. Jones.

Another clash between the Scott and Story factions came over the report of the chairman of the magazine committee.

The Daughters talked of figures and debits and credits and cash business until nearly everybody's head was swimming.

Mrs. Mussey finally tried to prove to Mrs. George T. Smallwood that she was mixed on her figures.

The Daughters were received at the White House by President and Mrs. Taft in the afternoon.

To-morrow the election of the national officers will take place, and the electioneering by both the Story and Scott factions is strenuous to-night.

Mrs. Selma Kronold is to have charge of a concert to be given this evening in the Cathedral School Hall.

Miss Dorothea Spinney, a young English woman who has been interesting Gilbert Murray's translations of the old Greek dramas in English university towns.

To-night's performance of "Go-Rich-Quick Wallingford" at George M. Cohan's Theatre will be its 250th.

Early Spring Weather is Treacherous—Protect yourself by Wearing American Hosiery UNDERWEAR

Keeping Up With Lizzie By Irving Bacheller. Brimful of chuckles. —Boston Globe. The biggest hit of the day. —Chicago Advance. A delightful volume. —Cincinnati Times-Star. Irving Bacheller's farce satire should place him with the immortals. —Seattle Post-Intelligencer. Pretty good fun is Keeping Up With Lizzie. —Louisville Courier-Journal. Mr. Bacheller tells with shrewd humor * * the whole story of the mad rush for wealth, display, pretence * * that characterizes our age. —N. Y. Tribune. It is almost too true to be funny; it is both. —Monthly Book Review. A smile, a grin, a laugh and a grand, good story. —Kingston Observer. Sane, felicitous, clever, lucid, palatable—a just blend of sense and fun.—Chicago Inter Ocean. A keen satire—witty, humorous, poetic and pathetic—with a deep insight into human nature and strong characterization.—Brooklyn Eagle. Harper & Brothers

TO-NIGHT AT 8:15 At Mendelssohn Hall. The Valuable Paintings of THE J. ABNER HARPER COLLECTION AND THIS AFTERNOON AT 2:30 At the American Art Galleries. The Collection of Miniatures ON FREE VIEW, 9 A. M. TO 3 P. M. The sale will be conducted by MR. THOMAS E. KIRBY, of the AMERICAN ART ASSOCIATION, Managers.

"I ask no more of Providence than a foot inside the door," says Captain Brazenhead, in BRAZENHEAD THE GREAT BY MAURICE HEWLETT

17 Jewels High Grade $15 Guaranteed SOLID 14K. GOLD. This is strictly a Fifth Avenue Watch. It is a positive fact that watches no better than these are being sold in the fine shops of that thoroughgoing day at prices ranging from $10 to $50. We will offer this lot at $15 each on the strength of this Statement, and upon investigation. If it is not found to be correct, we will willingly refund the money on demand.

This Powder Better Than Electric Needle. A new powder known as delatone is said to be better than the electric needle for removing objectionable hairs, and as it is painless and easy to apply, it will soon take the place of the old, tortuous method of ridding the skin's surface of hairy growths.

NEWS OF PLAYS AND PLAYERS.

"Pomander Walk" Will Be Acted by Children.

"Pomander Walk" will be acted by children at Wallack's Theatre this afternoon.

With a view to the drafting of a bill for the better protection of factory employees from fire, a committee of labor and other organizations adopted resolutions.

Several suggestions sent by Fire Commissioner Waldo, to whom the recommendations were first submitted, were adopted.

JACOB WENDELL, JR., III. Actor Has Pneumonia—"What the Doctor Ordered" is Postponed.

Jacob Wendell, Jr., leading man in A. E. Thomas' new comedy "What the Doctor Ordered," which was to have been produced here at the Astor Theatre on Friday night, was taken ill before the matinee performance in Trenton yesterday.

Major Gen. Leonard B. Wood telegraphed the regiment on Tuesday that the situation in Mexico made it imperative that the regiment be sent to the front.