

HELPFUL HOMER BY JOHNSON

IT BREAKS A TIE AND WINS FOR HIGHLANDERS.

Naps beaten twice by the Athletics. White Sox lose to Red Sox and New Yorks move up to third place. Detroitis displaced of the Washingtons.

The New York Americans celebrated their return home yesterday by moving back to third place, a position from which they were ousted in the West. They defeated the Browns while the Chicago White Sox were being trampled by the Boston Red Sox.

The day was profitable for the Athletics, who smothered the Cleveland Naps twice. The only Western team to win was the Detroit, who opened their trip in Washington.

CURRENT SPORTING GOSSIP

BATTLING NELSON TO BOX BROWN OR ATTELL HERE.

Also Jimmy Britt, After Which He Hopes for a Bout With Wolgast—Clyde Thompson Expects to Beat Lewis—Hall Men Say Lynch Must Be Backed.

Battling Nelson, former lightweight champion, has been offered a number of numerous second raters in the Northwest, has gradually worked himself into such excellent fighting trim that he has agreed to box any opponent the Twentieth Century A. C. may select.

Nelson has accepted the club's terms of a fight in September, and the club's matchmaker, Matt Brown, has requested by K. O. Brown and Abe Attell to pit them against the Dane. Brown's manager, Dan Moran, declared yesterday that the little Dutchman would allow Nelson to weigh as much as 135 pounds if the former champion could get in shape.

Attell stated that he would relish a bout with Nelson if the latter would agree to weigh 135 at 3, even though he would have Nelson in about eight weeks. Nelson has an eye to business, as usual, and he figures that by making a good showing with Britt, Brown or Attell he will be able to remain during a greater part of the winter, meeting all the first-class lightweight.

Attell, who has been in the ring for some time, has been practically matched to box at the National Sporting Club in September whether either of them receives a bout with Nelson or not.

Clyde Johnson Thompson was very busy at Woodlawn Inn yesterday. He took a long run on the road and will repeat the journey to-day so as to put on the finishing touches for his battle with Willie Lewis at the National Sporting Club to-morrow night.

Thompson yesterday didn't look fat. He appeared as hard as nails and he went through some rough boxing and wrestling with a number of youngsters. He has a style which is expected to worry Lewis not a little. Fighting at close quarters or in half clinches is the Cyclone's long suit.

He likes to put his head on his opponent's shoulder and whale away at the body with both hands. Although Lewis is a hard hitter, Thompson doesn't believe Willie can hurt him and also predicts that he will wear the New Yorker down inside of ten rounds.

Thompson is anxious to beat Lewis decisively, for he thinks such a victory will convince New Yorkers that he has a right to a scrap with Bill Parke. That Thompson will be accommodated there seems to be little doubt, as Parke has notified the Twentieth Century managers that after his bout with Sailor Burke on August 3, he will be ready to meet Thompson on the 21st.

Nicholas Rink, Burke's trainer, has his last eight fights and is training hard for the Parke fight. He appears to have unusual confidence in himself, for before he met the match with Parke he asked to sign up Langford for him.

Langford, by the way, may hook up with Philadelphia Jack O'Brien at the rink next month, as negotiations are under way and O'Brien says he is willing to try conclusions with the fat fighter.

McFarland was being fooled by the public long before the end of his career, says Wolgast, speaking of his coming ten round bout with Parke at Milwaukee next September. "This is a hard nut to come off, as both men have posted $1,000 to guarantee weight and appearance."

Wolgast means when he says McFarland has been "fooling the public" remains to be seen. McFarland has never been engaged in four fights, and he is one of the few who have come out of the ring with their heads unscathed.

Wolgast is a shrewd young man who knows how to make a good match and he has been a success in his business. He is a dangerous fighter, and he is willing to take a risk at a 3 o'clock fight with Wolgast. The conclusion is that Wolgast is a hard hitter and he is forced to live up to the Queensberry rules in Milwaukee. McFarland will out-tough Wolgast, says Wolgast. If Wolgast could beat K. O. Brown in ten rounds it is argued that he will have his hands in a bout of similar length with McFarland.

The only chance Wolgast might have to win the McFarland bout would be in a fight of forty-five rounds or to a finish, for he might prove stronger in physique than the network yards. Wolgast has been in a strict enforcement of the rules. It is believed McFarland would stand up to Wolgast for ten rounds.

"If I lost a man in twenty or twenty-five rounds," says Wolgast, "I can't beat him at all. I would have to be in ten rounds is a long enough route for me to outpoint any man in the world, and please remember I'm in the world at 3 and he is as strong and as fast as ever."

Wolgast's confidence in his ability to whip McFarland is based on his own experience. He has been in the ring for some time, and he is a hard hitter. He is a dangerous fighter, and he is willing to take a risk at a 3 o'clock fight with Wolgast.
