

vester Company and reorganized it under the name of the International Harvester Company of America.

The Government will charge that the first step of the International Harvester Company of America to secure control of the harvester machine field was to tie up all the agents of the country with contracts to handle their machines exclusively.

While the company pushed its control over the agents it sought by various means to drive competing harvester machine manufacturers out of business.

It is understood further that when public opinion became aroused against the trust it turned this very agitation to its profit.

The Federal Government is prepared to sue the case of D. M. Osborne & Co., for years the most formidable rival of the International Harvester Company.

It will be contended that the trust brought out the Osborne company, D. M. Osborne as a salient competitor.

Agents in the small towns, it will be charged, were also kept in competition with each other, while all of them really were selling the Osborne machines.

The Government is prepared to show that the so-called trust has also gone into the sale of other implements, such as tractors, gasoline engines, wagons, etc.

It is contended that the benefits of preferential freight rates have also been secured to the trust.

A good deal of comment was caused yesterday in financial circles by the knowledge that the negotiations with the Harvester Company have fallen through.

It is contended that the recent strength shown by Roosevelt in his candidacy for the Presidential nomination may have had something to do with the final determination.

ON TRAIL OF ROOSEVELT

Taft's Managers Much Encouraged by the Political Outlook.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—President Taft left Washington by the Boston express at 5:35 this evening.

He will leave the train at Providence to-morrow morning and begin a day's campaigning in the industrial section of Massachusetts.

The President was induced to return to Massachusetts by the special appeal which Col. Roosevelt is making to organized labor in the mill sections of Massachusetts.

He spent the day in conferences at the White House. The President went over the Mexican situation with Secretary Knox, who is preparing to leave Washington on a long visit to the West.

The President's managers are very much encouraged over the political outlook. They now claim 420 delegates either instructed or pledged for the President.

The results of the week that closed Saturday night were especially gratifying to the President and his friends.

TAFT MEN ONCE GLAD OF MY GOV. SAYS PERKINS

Recalls Also a $15,000 Note Signed Sheldon and Not Yet Paid.

HARVESTER FACTS HIDDEN

Accuses the Administration of Giving Out Only One Side of the Controversy.

George W. Perkins addressed yesterday a letter to Congressman William B. McKinley, director of the Taft campaign.

For instance, says Mr. Perkins, the $15,000 note that was signed by George R. Sheldon, "has not yet been paid."

According to Mr. Perkins, Wall Street is laughing in its sleeve at the "far-fetched" result of the trust busting programme of the Taft Administration.

Mr. DEAR SIR: You and your associates have repeatedly tried to place me, as a citizen, before my fellow citizens in the light of being a man actuated only by avarice, improper motives in what I say and do.

In every possible way attempts have been made to convince the people that I am against your candidate and for Mr. Roosevelt because of my connection with the Steel Corporation and the Harvester company.

It is impossible for me to be opposing Mr. Taft because of the financial progress of that campaign, being particularly solicitous as to what could be done for the State of Massachusetts.

When the Taft campaign was over the treasurer found that he had some bills he could not pay, amounting to about $15,000.

Mr. Morgan and others are secretly behind me in the present fight and, in some round way, are furnishing the money that is being raised to elect Mr. Roosevelt.

The recent publication of the Harvester Company's financial statements makes a scurrilous attack upon Mr. Roosevelt, second, to connect me, through the Harvester Company, with the Roosevelt campaign.

As a director of the Harvester company I clearly owe a duty to its thousands of employees, its thousands of consumers, as well as its stockholders.

Second.—When Mr. Stimson, now a member of Mr. Taft's Cabinet, recently ran for Governor of this State, I supported him with all my might and main.

BAY STATE POLITICIANS HALT NOT FOR SABBATH

Taft and Roosevelt Orators Plead With the Willy French Mill Workers.

COLONEL MUCH PLEASED

Impartial Observers Admit Outcome of Tuesday's Primary Is Uncertain.

BOSTON, April 28.—Boston settled back into its sober intellectuality to-day, after the indecorous way it howled for Roosevelt last night at the ringside in the Arena.

Col. Roosevelt rested and walked, but did not talk to-day, so Boston contented itself with the orators and sociologists and religionists who have held forth on Sunday afternoons on the Common ever since the cows gave it up as a pasture.

Col. Roosevelt is the guest of Dr. William S. Bigelow. He went for a walk this morning and this afternoon visited the Roosevelt headquarters to meet and take tea with the staff.

Mr. Roosevelt would not be quoted to-day on the Massachusetts situation. He is pleased with the effect of his speech last night and was especially tickled that he was able to put over to the Bostonians quotations from Emerson and Lowell that to his mind just touched off the points he has been hammering on in the campaign.

The Colonel was never in better spirits than to-day.

Mr. Roosevelt will leave Boston to-morrow at 8 o'clock in the morning on a special train. He will make car-ends between the cities of North Shore towns, a fairly long speech to the mill workers at Lawrence at noon, and will speak at Pittsfield in the evening. He is due in New York at 6 o'clock Tuesday morning.

President Taft will be in the region that the Colonel touched on Saturday and will speak at Lowell, where the Colonel also speaks to-morrow. At times the President will be within a few miles of the Colonel.

The efforts that are making to win the Massachusetts primaries on Tuesday are said by old timers in the political game to equal those of any Presidential election fight of recent years.

The Roosevelt people say that they have the lat bounce on the run and they are thoroughly frightened. They say that never before in a struggle of this kind has a faction been so alarmed as to summon its entire strength to Congress home to help the campaign.

The Queens Democrats will go in special cars on the committee arranging for the trip are: Leader Shea, County Chairman Alex. Duja, William F. Mathews, Gustav Mathews, John Hegan, James Kelly, William Berger, Phillip Frank, Carl Vogel, Leonard Troop, Daniel Eht-holt, Bernard Suydam, George Sopar, John Moore, Clifford B. Moore and Park Commissioner Elliot.

Republicans and Democrats Split Into Fighting Factions.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 28.—Kentucky will hold a unique position in the Republican national convention at Chicago with her twenty-six delegates, twenty-three of whom are instructed for Taft and three for Roosevelt.

Instead of sending a delegation to Chicago to demand seats in the convention, the Roosevelt faction will ask the national committee to declare the State convention in Kentucky void on the ground that the will of the people was defeated through political chicanery, and will cite a case in this State where a convention was voided by the Court of Appeals on the same plea.

That the Republicans are badly split there is no doubt, but the Democrats are becoming involved in factional fights. The Clark and anti-Clark men are arrayed against each other, with Ollie James leading the Clark men and Gov. McCreary, Percy Haly and former Governor C. W. Beckman fighting for an uninstrued delegation.

ROOSEVELT CLAIMS 305.

His Managers Give Taft 103 Delegates With 180 Contested.

The Roosevelt managers announced last night that Col. Roosevelt has practically pledged to him four delegates from Brooklyn, four from Westchester, two from Nassau and Suffolk counties and eight from other parts of this State, making a total of eighteen, barring the delegates from New York county, whose right to sit in the Chicago convention will be contested.

The standing of the delegates to-day is as follows, the Roosevelt managers say:

Table with columns: State, Roosevelt, Taft, Contested, Total. Rows include Alabama, Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Connecticut, District of Columbia, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin.

Cummins has 10 votes from Iowa and La Follette 38 from Wisconsin and North Dakota.

HARMON STRONG IN KENTUCKY.

Gen. Haley Says He Has 80 of the 119 Counties in That State.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—"Gov. Harmon has about eighty counties in Kentucky out of 119 and we are hoping for an uninstrued delegation," declared Gen. Percy Haley of Frankfort, Ky., who was a visitor at the Harmon headquarters here to-day.

The main fight is in Louisville," said Mr. Mayo, "where the city administration may be more or less for Mr. Clark. While I think that Gov. Harmon, because of his splendid administrative record in Ohio, is stronger throughout the counties, there undoubtedly will be a fight in the State convention. The majority of the State officers are for Gov. Harmon, and of course their strength will count in the result."

LOOKING TOWARD BALTIMORE.

Queens Democrats, Headed by Connolly, Will Go in a Special Car.

Queens county Democrats who have won control of the organization in that borough under the leadership of Capt. Daniel F. Shea have made preparations to attend the Baltimore convention and see to it that Borough President Maurice E. Connolly, national delegate, is not lost sight of. With President Connolly will go Charles Pope Caldwell as delegate and Marlon J. Verdery of Flushing and William A. Muller of Jamaica as alternates.

The Queens Democrats will go in special cars on the committee arranging for the trip are: Leader Shea, County Chairman Alex. Duja, William F. Mathews, Gustav Mathews, John Hegan, James Kelly, William Berger, Phillip Frank, Carl Vogel, Leonard Troop, Daniel Eht-holt, Bernard Suydam, George Sopar, John Moore, Clifford B. An Unpaid For Asset

ECONOMISTS, politicians, and many keen business men believe that "publicity for great corporations will tend to cure existing evils."

When a manufacturer, corporation, or individual advertises, he voluntarily goes into a glass house.

The product—The method of its manufacture—The price—The trademark—The light of the calcium throws their every detail into high relief.

The public, like children, fear the dark. To our people a firm that advertises is constantly in sight and cannot be an object of suspicion or distrust. The reflex action of advertising always tends to make a product or a firm more worthy of the attention it seeks.

"Good will" should be the chief asset of any corporation—big or small. "Good will" can be acquired entirely as an unpaid-for increment in a business making honest goods when that fact is made public.

The Curtis Group—3,300,000 families—read either The Ladies' Home Journal or The Saturday Evening Post. By a consistent use of these publications you can create a wonderful good will asset in every fourth worth-while home in the United States.

A book on the subject of advertising may be obtained gratis by those interested.

to-morrow would give the Colonel thirty-four of the State's thirty-six delegates to the Republican national convention. The only district in which they could see any chance for President Taft is the First, which contains the Berkshire Hills and Senator Murray Crane. Mr. Crane's neighbors, the Roosevelt men, would elect two Taft delegates from that district, but elsewhere Taft has no hope, so it was said.

A Roosevelt boomer who talked with several Massachusetts field generals on the telephone yesterday said he got nothing but the most cheerful information.
