

OROZCO ORDERS GOMEZ TO GET OUT OF MEXICO

Washington Hears Self-Constituted Provisional President Has Lost His Job.

FEDERALS POISON WELLS?

Rebels Say Water Has Killed Seventy Men and Thousands of Horses.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Advices received from Mexico to-day at the State Department led officials here to believe that Emilio Vasquez Gomez has been eliminated from the situation so far as the revolutionaries are concerned. The Department was informed that Gen. Orozco, commander of the rebels, has ordered Vasquez Gomez to leave Mexico and that other revolutionary leaders are repudiating him. His proclamation assuming for himself the provisional Presidency of Mexico never had any considerable support, according to dispatches received here. It is generally believed here that he was attempting to take advantage of the successes of Gen. Orozco.

San Luis Potosi is now comparatively quiet. The State Department is informed, but the situation has not improved there as at Vera Cruz. Conditions are becoming worse at Tepic and Chihuahua and other points where these forces are active. Gen. Guaymas, who is accompanying the Buford on its trip of investigation into the west coast, called the State Department to-day that all was quiet at Los Mochis on the arrival of the army transport there. The Buford was leaving, he said, without taking any refugees, Americans or other foreigners. The next stop will be Mazatlan, where it is understood a number of Americans are ready to accept the opportunity to leave Mexico. Department officials are gratified at the report sent from the Buford in view of the numerous alarming reports of the conditions said to exist there before the departure of the transport.

El Paso, Tex., May 8.—Gen. Orozco this evening had not recognized Vasquez Gomez as the provisional President, but Gomez expressed the belief that he would do so. Orozco's father will hold the position of Secretary of War and says he is confident that his son will recognize the provisional President.

Today Gomez gave out a statement which includes a certified copy of the proceedings of the revolutionary Junta in Juarez, March 6. According to the certified copy of their minutes the Junta invited Gomez to come to Mexico and face up the duties of provisional President when in his opinion he thought it wise and at the same time offered to Orozco the military leadership of the cause. Orozco accepted the leadership on March 6. Gen. Guaymas, but Gomez did not come to Juarez until Saturday. However, the Junta, when it invited him to come, went on record as stating that the Federalist Government in Mexican territory he shall be recognized as provisional President.

The minutes of that meeting have been forwarded to Orozco by the Federalists. There had as yet been no clash between the advancing Mexican rebels and the Federalists defending the territory. Gen. Orozco had ordered the rebels to move at once against Bermejo and Manini, both of which places are now fortified by the Federal garrisons from Torreon. The rebels claim victory over the Federals in the fighting at Cuatro Ciencas and vicinity and claim their only losses in the fighting were about 100 men. The Federalists, on the other hand, claim to have lost thousands of horses, so many that they had to send to Chihuahua for several carloads of coal oil with which to destroy the carcasses of the dead animals.

MEXICO CITY, May 8.—Suspensions of guarantees throughout the republic are asked in a bill introduced in the Chamber of Deputies by Jesus Flores Magos, Minister of the Interior. The measure is similar to that passed by the Mexican Congress last year except it provides for a court instead of leaving the disposition of an offender in the hands of the army officer whose men capture him.

BUTCHERY OF AMERICANS.

Refugees Arriving in New Orleans Tell of Many Murders.

NEW ORLEANS, May 8.—That all Mexicans in the throes of a mighty revolutionary upheaval which is rapidly coming to a crisis and is expected to result in the establishment of a new Government headed by a new faction, is the information brought to New Orleans by fleeing Americans and Englishmen who reached the city to-day on the Leyland and steamship City of Mexico direct from Vera Cruz.

The refugees have left Mexico because of the hatred of Mexicans for foreigners. Most of them are from the States of Tehuantepec and the southern part of the country, where the situation is the most desperate.

There has been far more numerous instances of murder and persecution of Americans in Mexico than the papers in the United States have told of," said Walter of England, who is en route to his home. "Most of these atrocities are committed by bandits, but some are committed by the Mexicans and some by themselves revolutionists, murderers and job Americans and Englishmen."

The standards have turned from Madero to Diaz, said Mr. Bacheller. The Federal troops no longer fight for

EYES UNDER THE HAMMER.

Thousands of the Vitreous Varyety Being About 24 Cents Apiece.

A consignment of glass eyes which Bruno J. Schulze of Hoboken smuggled into this country several months ago was sold yesterday at public auction of the third floor of the Jersey City post office building by United States Marshal Thomas J. Aboit of New Jersey. According to the official announcement there were 13,900 good glass eyes and one damaged eye in the lot. They were packed in crates like strictly fresh eggs and included eyes for human beings and 1,000 eyes for horses, dogs and other animals.

CRITICS OF CHILD BEATER.

Letters to Court Suggest Punishment for Joseph Martin.

Chief Justice Russell of the Court of Sessions yesterday received many fervent letters containing suggestions as to the proper punishment to be dealt to Joseph Martin, the candy store man who tied four-year-old Antonio Dunzig to a gas pipe in his store and then lashed him with a heavy iron bar.

One man wrote that in his opinion the case was "The most cruel and infamous crime ever committed in any civilized country in this century. Martin should be punished for murder." A father of a large family said that Martin should be "tied to a post and beaten to death or hanged for beating a child."

Many letters said that the man should be beaten by the father of the child. A woman wrote that twelve stings should lash him. Martin being tied to some lamp-post on Fifth avenue, until their arms dropped off and he wouldn't be able to say Lord, but mercy, then imprison him for a term of years at the hardest labor.

The most severe punishment was suggested by "The Terrible Three," who would give the knout of his back bring him down to the decks and put him under the Mysterious Pole, get some carpine and beat his lemon off," and finally "string him up in his own house, there to die. Next a woman sincerely trusted that the man's repentance is so genuine that he will find solace in making this child's path lead through his brighter and better while he (Martin) lives."

DAVIS ESTATE IN COURT.

Proceedings Looking to Settlement of Hudson County Leader's Affairs.

Vice-Chancellor Garrison heard testimony in Chancery Chambers, Jersey City, yesterday in six suits against the Democratic boss of Hudson county, Mrs. Annie Toppin Davis, the widow, who for every year of her imprisonment was the complainant in five suits to establish her dower rights, and Thomas Fallon, a Jersey City money lender, was the plaintiff in one suit to secure a half interest in fourteen lots in North Bergen which he and Davis bought.
