

TIGERS SLUG WARHP. TY SLUGS A SPECTATOR

Detroit Star Jumps Into Stand and Punches the Face of an Occupant.

JOHNSON SEES ROUGH HOUSE

American League Boss Also Sees the Highlanders Come Out Second Best.

Last year the Detroiters were easy for the Highlanders, but this year nobody is, and the locals lost again yesterday, making three games out of four for the Tigers.

Yesterday's Results.

Detroit 4, Philadelphia 4. Boston 2, St. Louis 1.

Standing of the Clubs.

Philadelphia 21, Detroit 13, Boston 10, St. Louis 9, Chicago 8, Cleveland 7.

Today's Schedule.

Cleveland in New York, Detroit in Philadelphia, St. Louis in Washington, Chicago in Boston.

The Detroiters beat the Highlanders yesterday and Ty Cobb beat a spectator.

The score of the result was 4 to 4, but though there was no official decision in the Cobb vs. Spectator fight, the unanimous verdict was that Cobb won.

Cobb did not have any other decision against him, but he was defending himself, but while not seriously damaged, emerged from the fracas with a face somewhat mottled with abrasions.

It was while the fourth inning was being played that the fight broke out between the headbashed Cobb punching a spectator for all he was worth took place.

In the left field pavilion, in the end adjoining the main grand stand, there were different accounts from those close to the scene.

It was said that Cobb was about to attack the man, who looked like a pugilist, and that he was trying to take care of himself.

Spectators in the vicinity said the man had been giving Cobb a verbal grilling for some time, that he had been warned to keep still and that his language was decidedly personal and offensive.

The man said, according to one report, that he had zipped Cobb for fumbling a grounder and the latter had made a coarse and personal remark.

Anyway, Cobb jumped up in the stand, vent for his man and forthwith slugged him hard and often. There was a commotion instantly, and half a dozen Detroit players and park policemen rushed up and dragged the infuriated player away.

The umpire also hurried over and when Cobb had returned to the bench he was out of the game. When he crossed the field to the clubhouse there was both applause and hooting for him.

Ban Johnson, president of the American League, accompanied by his old umpire, Jack Sheridan, who once mixed it up with a player on the same field, were in the stand and saw the scene.

Johnson, who was seen to be smiling, asked if Cobb would draw a suspension and replied, "I don't know until I hear the facts, but I can't see any justification for a player climbing up in the stand and hitting a spectator."

If a spectator is abusive a player is not to be suspended, said Johnson, and the man can be removed. Cobb's antagonist was led away from the scene and saw the rest of the game from a different seat.

The New Yorks were beaten because they were unable to get together with their bats long enough to equal the Tigers in run-getting. They had a lead at one time, and Willie's hitting looked rather easy, but the New Yorks were unable to hold the lead and lost all in the fifth inning.

Developed a sudden wild streak. Holt, who relieved him, was not so good, but he developed a big and effective curve, doing admirably in pinches, but receiving poor support.

He did not make two errors, but was weak at covering ground.

Earl Gardner, in the fourth of the game, there was a geysering which brought Roy Hartzell to second base. Another move which drew the attention of the crowd was a re-arrangement of the batting order.

Bush played a rattling game at short for the Tigers, and his fielding was so good that he prevented the New York braves from bringing in more than a run.

GIANTS FIGHT UPHILL BATTLE AND TRIUMPH

WOOD BEATS POOR BROWNS. Fourth Straight Boston Victory Won by Great Twirling.

Boston, May 15.—The Red Sox made four straight from the Browns this afternoon, a pitchers' battle between Wood and Petty resulting in a score of 2 to 1.

Hooper's single and steal and Speaker's double caused Boston to tally in the first inning. St. Louis tied it up during the sixth. In the ninth Bradley denied the score for a double and Wagner brought him home with a single.

The pitchers all hit well. Willett, Warhop and Hoff each gathered a single.

After Cobb had battled his way to the clubhouse his place was taken by Perry. There was no opportunity to compare Perry's flimsy prowess with T. B.'s, but as a slugger along more conventional and decorous lines he recalled the departed George because he was so different.

CARDINALS GOOD IN RAIN. Showers of Huns Between Showers Against Brooklyn.

ST. LOUIS, May 15.—The Cardinals this afternoon dodged the rain long enough to gain their second victory of the series with Brooklyn by the score of 10 to 1.

All the excitement was in the first and second innings, when the home team scored nine of their ten runs. Rain forced Mal Escosa to call a halt in the midst of the rally, but the Cardinals had a base on balls, a hit and a run.

Brooklyn's run continued trooping over the plate.

COLUMBIA PLAYS POOR GAME AGAINST STEVENS

Weakness in All Departments and Visitors Eke Out Win by 10 to 6.

RALLY NOT STRONG ENOUGH. Four Runs Cross in Eighth, but Ninth Round Efforts Fall Short.

POOR pitching and wretched all around play on Columbia's game at the hands of Stevens yesterday on South Field by a score of 10 to 6.

The Morning-side Heights pitchers were hammered all over the lot and poor support added to their woes. Fisher did the twirling for the Hoboken nine and held Columbia down to seven hits, which were well scattered except in the eighth, when the Blue and White tried to pull out of a hole and succeeded in scoring four runs.

Columbia got off the lead in the first inning, but the advantage was short lived. The Stevens team got busy in the second and scored two runs home. From that time they never headed. They scored one run in the third, and added another brace in the fourth. Rothwell was going rapidly from left to right in the eighth, after Stevens had scored another run in the seventh. Coach Fisher sent O'Neal to take Rothwell's place.

Rothwell was bad, but O'Neal was a decidedly negative improvement and the Hobokenites had no trouble in scoring twice in the eighth and twice again in the ninth.

Rousing hits by Ross and Casuso gave Columbia a good start in the eighth, but Rothwell's error on the bases, Lomell then came through with a home run, scoring Fisher's first hit. The Blue and White tried to rally in the ninth, but had two men on the bags, but was unable to bring them around.
