A PARK FOR LENOX.

John E. Parsons's Offer—Summer Residents Arrive in Berkshire.

LENOX, Mass., June 15.—Miss Gertrude Parsons of New York was the bearer of a letter from her father, John E. Parsons, to the Lenox Village Improvement Association this week which has aroused the interest of the cottagers and the villagers alike.

Mr. Parsons offers to lay out the Servin lot as a park provided the town of Lenox makes a grant of the property for park purposes and the Lenox Improvement Association becomes responsible for its future care. Mr. Parsons proposes to have a memorial in the park for the Lenox victims of the Easter Sunday fire in 1909. The Servin lot was bought for a school site thirty years ago but was never used and as Mr. Parsons said in his letter has become an eyesore instead of an ornament to the town.

At a meeting of the Lenox Improvement Association Newbold Morris offered a resolution to approve of Mr. Parsons's suggestion and to promise cooperation. The resolution was adopted. There is about two acres of land in the proposed park. It is in the very center of Lenox at the corner of Main and Sunset streets and contains large elms and maples. As soon as the town votes to grant the land for a perpetual park Mr. Parsons will have a landscape engineer lay out the
