

SULZER OVATION; MURPHY ABSENT

"I'm a Free Man," Says Governor as 540 Old Friends Cheer.

GETS A SILVER SERVICE

Whitman Notes Fact That No Toast Is Drunk to 'Our Absent Friends.'

WARNED BY MORGENTHAU

"If You Talk Us, Some Other Will Lead," He Says—Dr. Friedmann There.

Gov. William Sulzer celebrated his fiftieth birthday last night as guest of honor at a dinner tendered to him by the citizens of New York at the Cafe Boulevard.

Although Mr. Murphy was not present, John H. McCooey, the Brooklyn Democratic leader, represented Fitzgerald, Goldfogel and Daniel J. Rieder.

Altogether there were 440 guests, including a number of women. The dinner was arranged for by a committee of one hundred, headed by Dr. William L. Sirovich, chairman.

Gets a Silver Service.

Gov. Sulzer spoke last, and this was not until early this morning. A few minutes before he arose to speak six men carried on their shoulders into the room a huge mahogany case containing a silver service.

When the noise died down Gov. Sulzer said: "My friends, you know me as I am, and as I am I ever hope to be as I would not be different if I could, and I could not if I could not be as I am."

Churchill Speaks on School.

President Thomas H. Churchill of the Board of Education said that the children of New York looked to Gov. Sulzer for help in the reform of the public school system.

Will Trust the People.

Whenever in doubt it is my purpose to confide in the people, and I indulge the hope that when my official term comes to an end I shall have accomplished something to merit their approval and to justify the confidence they have reposed in the rectitude of my intentions.

en this country, State or city, and no officeholders would be responsible to or afraid of them.

There is but one master who will last forever and to whom all ought to bow, and that is enlightened public opinion.

Chairman William F. McCombs in a brief speech said that the controlling principle of Democracy is that each State shall run its own affairs and not turn to the Federal Government for help in their conduct.

Mr. Whitman caused a laugh at the beginning of his speech by saying, "I notice that a time honored custom has been ignored, and we haven't even been asked to drink to the absent friends."

At first there were a few smiles and then a good part of the men in the room laughed outright.

Mr. Whitman expressed the wish that Gov. Sulzer would have many more years before him.

President Thomas H. Churchill of the Board of Education said that the children of New York looked to Gov. Sulzer for help in the reform of the public school system.

The criticism has been made that in New York we suffer from an inflexible and overloaded course of study.

TWO MORE TAKEN AS TAXI ROBBERS

Dougherty Thinks New Prisoner Belonged to a Second Holdup Gang.

ATTACKED A PAYMASTER Got $2,776 From Neil Henderson on January 10 and Escaped in Motor Car.

Another young man was arrested last night as a member of the band that was tearing around the city in a stolen auto in the past few weeks and holding up cashiers in stores and pedestrians walking home with satchels.

He says he is Phillip Forsyth, 29 years old, a chauffeur, of 147 West Ninety-seventh street.

He was arrested on information contained in the confessions of Joseph Taylor, leader of the auto robbers, and Charles F. Loeber.

It is alleged that Forsyth sat in the car beside the chauffeur, while Taylor snatched Neil Henderson's trunk and the satchel.

While detectives were hunting yesterday for other possible members of this gang they came upon a man who they believe to be a moving spirit in still another gang that has been using a motor car for quick transit and from holdups.

He is suspected of having taken part in the robbery of Neil Henderson, paymaster for the Klee-Thompson Contracting Company, at Seventy-ninth street and Park avenue, on January 10.

At least two men attacked him. They shoved the box from under his arm, stunned him with the butt of a sawed-off billiard cue and made off with the cash.

BRYAN FAILS IN ILLINOIS

Legislature Listens to Plea for Lewis, Then Cuts His Lead.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 18.—William Jennings Bryan told the Illinois Legislature in joint session to-day in effect that they should vote for their primary choice for Senator, James Hamilton Lewis, or resign and go back to the people.

Then the efforts of the Secretary of State to break the double Senatorial deadlock went into the air, the Democrats in answer reducing the leader's vote from the ninety-one he received last Thursday to eighty-three.

On the roll call for the short term there was more scattering of votes than usual, for it seems to have become the settled purpose of the Assembly to make no serious effort to elect for the short term until both places can be disposed of at once.
