

OUR BOYS AND GIRLS.

CHILDREN'S SECTION OF

The Sun.

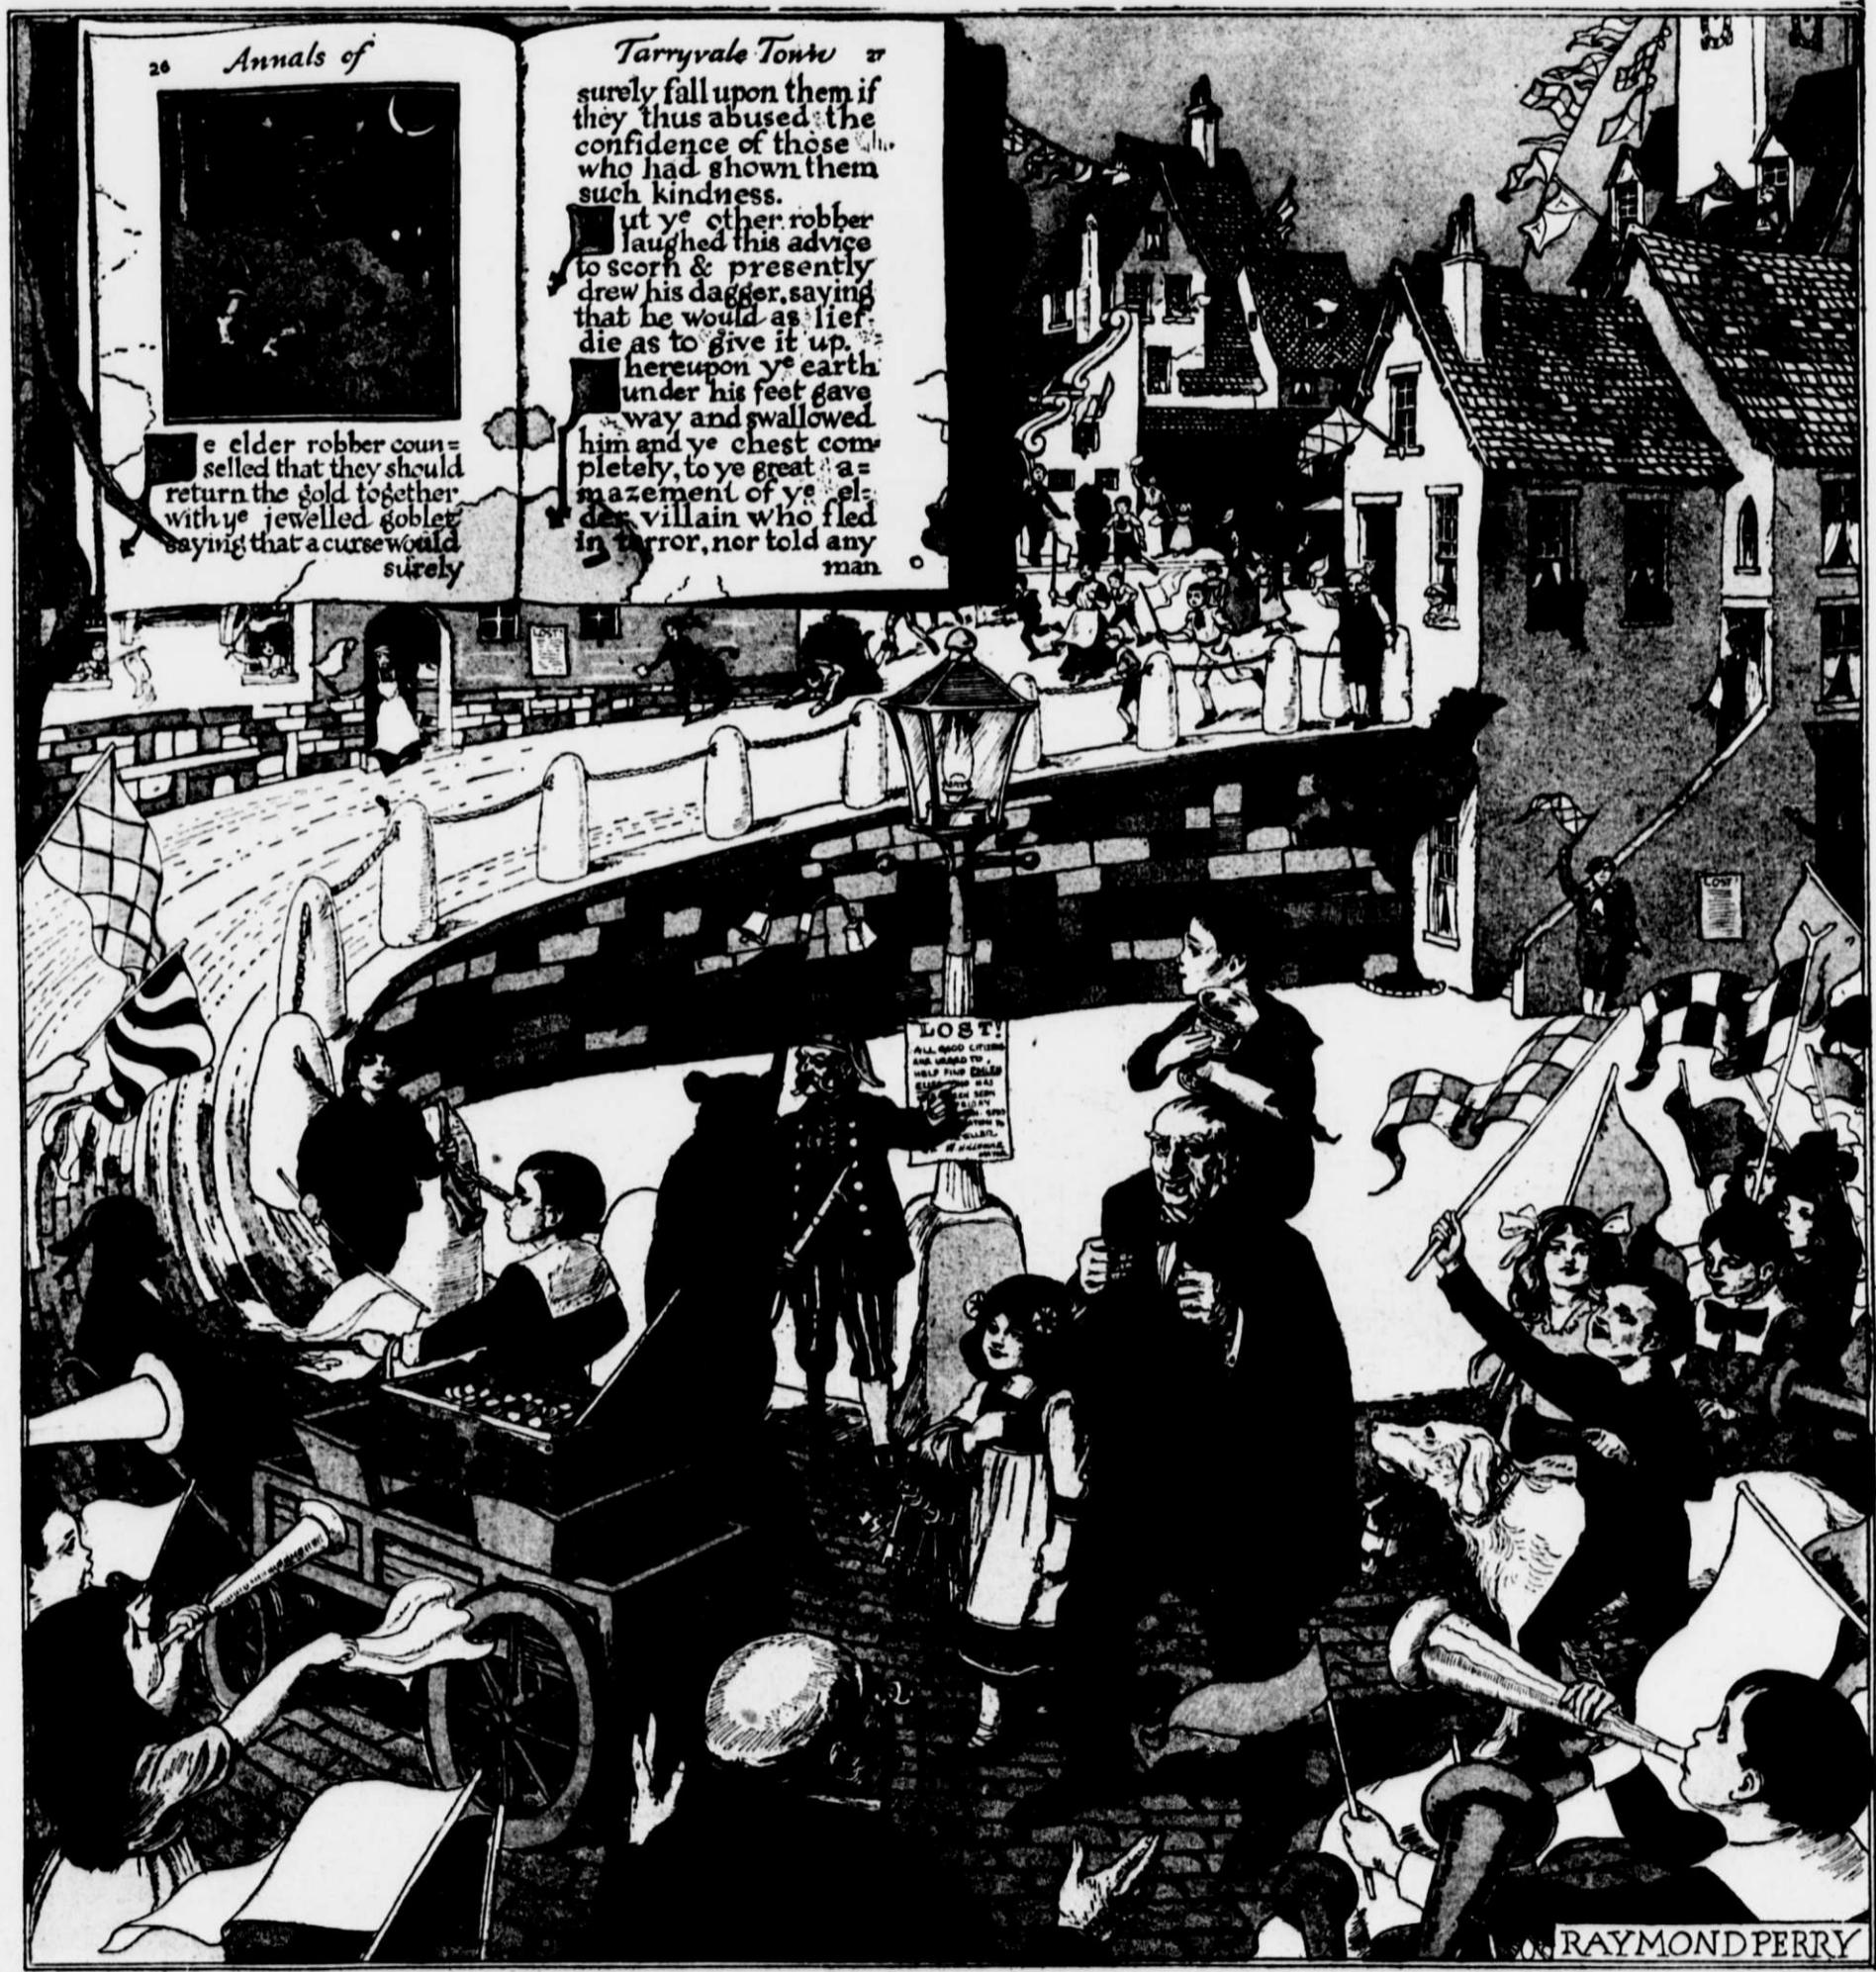

COPYRIGHTED 1913

THE CENTURY SYNDICATE, NEW YORK

Sixth Section.

New York, Sunday, March 30, 1913.

Eight Pages.

RAYMOND PERRY

TARRYVALE TOWN TALES—EMLEN'S CAVE.

(SEE PAGE 7.)

26 Annals of

The elder robber counselled that they should return the gold together with ye jewelled goblet saying that a curse would surely

Tarryvale Town surely fall upon them if they thus abused the confidence of those who had shown them such kindness.

But ye other robber laughed this advice to scorn & presently drew his dagger, saying that he would as lief die as to give it up.

Hereupon ye earth under his feet gave way and swallowed him and ye chest completely, to ye great amazement of ye elder villain who fled in terror, nor told any man