

FINDS COLD STORAGE OF VALUE TO NATION

Department of Agriculture Finishes Inquiry Into the Economic System.

ADVERSE EFFECT DENIED

Influence of the Conservation Upon Price Ranges Is Almost Negligible.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The Department of Agriculture has just completed its investigation of the business and financial conditions of cold storage. This report is one of the most elaborate and complete ever issued by the United States Government.

The investigation, which was of great importance in the matter of determining the proper policy to be followed in the future, has shown that the power companies, by conserving the food supply, have not had any effect upon the price of foodstuffs. The investigation has also shown that the power companies have not had any effect upon the price of foodstuffs.
