

MRS. PANKHURST, IN RIOT, ELUDES ARREST

Militant Escapes From Side Door of Hall, Where She Addresses Meeting.

ONE DETECTIVE STABBED

Miss Kenney Captured After Battle With Umbrellas and Hatpins.

Special Cable Despatch to The Sun. LONDON, July 14.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the suffragette leader who was released from jail last week under the provisions of the "cat and mouse" act, made a sensational escape from the police today.

Mrs. Pankhurst and Miss Annie Kenney, the secretary of the Women's Social and Political Union, defied the authorities by appearing at the weekly meeting of the militant organization in the Pavilion Music Hall and making speeches.

As soon as it became known that Mrs. Pankhurst and Miss Kenney were in the Pavilion and had been speaking, detectives hurriedly surrounded the music hall. The orders issued some time ago that Mrs. Pankhurst was not to be arrested were suddenly countermanded.

The detectives advanced to arrest Miss Kenney, but were repelled by sticks and umbrellas in the hands of the militants and some male sympathizers. Miss Kenney fell and had her clothing torn and her hair pulled down.

Several of the detectives also fell and one was stabbed through the hand and arm with a hatpin. One woman secured an inspector's badge and cap. In the melee Mrs. Pankhurst, who probably came out through a side door of the Pavilion, vanished. She is said to have walked across Piccadilly Circus and escaped in a taxicab.

DECIES CHARGES BIG SWINDLE.

Suit of Vivian Gould's Husband Against Builders on Tomorrow. LONDON, July 14.—The court today faced Wednesday as the day for the hearing of the action for damages brought by Lord Decies, who married Miss Vivian Gould of New York, against a building firm which restored the house at Sefton Park prior to the marriage of Lord Decies and Miss Gould in 1911.

The details of the charges cover twenty-two pages. Lord Decies alleges that the builders conspired with the architect and surveyors in overcharging him and inducing him to purchase the house. There were certain charges, it is alleged, for work which was never done.

Lord Decies has engaged two King's Counselors who, with expert witnesses, went to Sefton Park today and inspected the house. It is understood that Mrs. George Gould, Lady Decies's mother, wants Lord Decies to fight the case to the end.

PEKIN, July 14.—Telegrams from the province of Kiang-si, where the northern troops forced their way in despite the orders of Vice-President Li Yuan-hung and where fighting with the southern troops has been going on, have created excitement here. Despatches from Chinese sources say that the northern troops were repulsed near Hu-Kow with a loss of 350 men.

Strong detachments of Hupeh troops have joined the Kiang-si army. Huang Hsing, the Hu-nan leader, who is in command of the southern troops, has established headquarters at Hu-Kow at the entrance of Poyang Lake. The northern provinces have been denuded of field troops and President Yuan Shih-kai is withdrawing men from the forces in Mongolia.

LONDON, July 15.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times in commenting on the defeat of the northern troops in the province of Kiang-si says a striking success of the southern soldiers in this section would be liable to arouse the whole south.

The Austrian Consul on his return to the city met the Secretary of the Prefecture and complained severely. The secretary murmured some incoherent words. The Italian Consul was also threatened by the Bulgarians with murder in case he refused to open the consulate to them. RAIN MARS FRENCH NATIONAL HOLIDAY

Dancing in Streets, Chief Feature of Fete, Has to Be Abandoned.

NATIVE TROOPS IN PARADE

M. Poincare Reviews Black Troops With Others at Longchamps.

Special Cable Despatch to The Sun. PARIS, July 14.—Rain spoiled the celebration of the national fete, the anniversary of the fall of the Bastille, today. From 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon all through the night the rain was accompanied by thunder and lightning so the dancing in the streets, squares and everywhere about the city, which is the special feature of the fete, had to be abandoned.

Interest in the annual review of the Paris garrison at Longchamps was increased by the presence of detachments of native regiments from Tonquin, Annam and Madagascar. Another feature of the review, which appealed to the thousands of spectators was a detachment of military ambulance dogs that marched past in perfect order.

The prettiest feature of the review, however, was a flight of carrier pigeons. They ascended in a body, divided into equal sections and flew off as if on the word of command.

President Poincare was greeted enthusiastically by an enormous crowd on his arrival at Longchamps. After the presentation to the President of the colors of the forty regiments on parade and the inspection of their escorts all the troops marched past, with the native detachments having the right of line.

All the time army aeroplanes darted here and there over the heads of the troops while a military drizzle manoeuvred about the track. The review of the infantry showed that if, as has been contended, two years of service is sufficient to develop a fighting soldier it is inadequate in turning out a good parade exhibit, as the line was very ragged.

The Senegalese, Annamite and other African and Asiatic troops own the town. As soon as they appear anywhere citizens are thrust upon them. The statues, tram cars, electric lampposts and high houses excite the wonder of the native soldiers and they always halt in front of them. The high quays along the river surprise them. They are very much afraid of automobiles and men who wear medals for heroism in many fights hesitate to cross the streets.

Female beauty does not seem to captivate them and the addition of paint and powder to the faces of the women passes their understanding. $60,000 IN TREASURES GONE. Systematic Theft From Italian Cathedral Discovered. Special Cable Despatch to The Sun.

MEXICAN RAILWAYS HEAD OUT.

President Brown Says Lines Cannot Succeed as Now Run. MEXICO CITY, July 14.—The resignation of President Brown of the National Railways of Mexico not having been accepted, he has asked a special meeting of the board of directors to designate to whom he shall deliver the office.

He gives as his reason for resigning that "under present conditions success for any and all enterprises seems impossible" and he does not feel in justice to his reputation that he should go down with the properties by remaining in his position. In a statement given out to the press President Brown says: "I do not find fault with any individual. The Government owns a majority of the stock of the railways and as it apparently sees fit to dictate as to the management of the central line, a policy which the management feels should not be allowed because the properties could not be so successfully operated, I thought it best to ask the board of directors to relieve me."

GIRLS ACCUSE MAN OF ARSON.

Say They Saw Tailor Set Fire to Five Story Tenement.

After fire had cleaned out the tailor shop of George Morris on the ground floor of a five story tenement at 56 Old Broadway, in Harlem, yesterday afternoon Fire Marshal Wade found two little girls who said they had seen Morris start the blaze himself. The girls, Lizzie and Emily Padone, 8 and 9 years old, are the children of one of the fourteen families that live in the building. They said they looked through a rear door of the tailor shop and saw Morris throw a coat to the floor and touch a match to it. Instantly the coat blazed up as if soaked with oil.

Marshall Wade and a detective couldn't find Morris at his home, 55 East 117th street, but there they learned that two months ago he insured his stock for $800 and his fixtures for $200. At 4 o'clock Morris appeared at his burning shop and was arrested. The testimony of the children will confront him in Harlem court this morning.
