

DEADLOCK IN FIGHT ON SAM PAUL CAFE

Unable to Agree on Character of Ex-Gang Leader's East Side Resort.

CASE WILL BE TRIED AGAIN

Detectives Testify That Twenty Habitual Criminals Frequent Coffee House.

There is a Hungarian restaurant, the Cafe Continental, at 108 Second avenue, a big room bisected by green lattice work topped by growing plants. As you go in from the street you see a rather...

To the casual visitor this group of pinocchio players, passing no money, drinking "soft stuff" if anything, surrounded by equally silent "kebitzers," or spectators, is just an average gathering of East Side youths...

Man of Scar Is Sam Paul. And the young man with the scarred face is Sam Paul, standard bearer of the Sam Paul Association, arrested for alleged complicity in the Rosenthal murder...

Well on the morning of June 14 Freddie Webber, gambler, one of the four "informers" against Becker and the gambler was stabbed in the back on Third avenue just after leaving the Cafe Continental...

From the restaurant came pinocchio players to lounge in spectators' benches and hear the testimony with labored indifference. Sam Paul sat back of them alone.

Everybody realized that the trial, on its face a simple dispute proceeding against a dark and amiable Hungarian, was really a case of personal vengeance...

Everybody realized that the trial, on its face a simple dispute proceeding against a dark and amiable Hungarian, was really a case of personal vengeance...

Everybody realized that the trial, on its face a simple dispute proceeding against a dark and amiable Hungarian, was really a case of personal vengeance...

Everybody realized that the trial, on its face a simple dispute proceeding against a dark and amiable Hungarian, was really a case of personal vengeance...

Everybody realized that the trial, on its face a simple dispute proceeding against a dark and amiable Hungarian, was really a case of personal vengeance...

Everybody realized that the trial, on its face a simple dispute proceeding against a dark and amiable Hungarian, was really a case of personal vengeance...

Everybody realized that the trial, on its face a simple dispute proceeding against a dark and amiable Hungarian, was really a case of personal vengeance...

Everybody realized that the trial, on its face a simple dispute proceeding against a dark and amiable Hungarian, was really a case of personal vengeance...

Everybody realized that the trial, on its face a simple dispute proceeding against a dark and amiable Hungarian, was really a case of personal vengeance...

Everybody realized that the trial, on its face a simple dispute proceeding against a dark and amiable Hungarian, was really a case of personal vengeance...

LIQUOR RAID AT CONEY. State Excise Men Get Two Wagon Loads in Fifteen Places.

About twenty agents of the State Excise Department raided fifteen Italian and Greek restaurants at Coney Island yesterday when liquor was seized to the value of $1,000.

Deputy Commissioners McEvoy and Nolan led the raid. At about noon one agent entered each of the suspected places and waited for the Commissioners and Police Commissioner Burns of the Coney Island station to reach the particular place in their rounds.

No arrests were made. The evidence gathered will be laid before the District Attorney of Kings county and the seized liquors will be auctioned publicly in cases where convictions are secured.

NEW BURGLAR GANG TURNS FIRST TRICK Blows Two Safes on Grand Street and Gets Large Haul of Precious Stones.

A new gang of expert cracksmen turned their first trick on a grand street safe and got between $20,000 and $30,000 worth of safes in the shop of Rosenberg & Daniel on the ninth floor of 213 and 217 Grand street, within two blocks of Police Headquarters.

The safe crackers who worked in the shop of Rosenberg & Daniel were very skillful and were equipped with the latest tools of their trade.

The burglars, the police think, must have visited the shop for a preliminary inspection and have learned that there was no watchman that the safes were not connected with the Holmes device.

They had skeleton keys by which they entered the two doors on the ground floor and then climbed eight flights of stairs and their equipment and cut a hole in an iron sheet door, thus gaining access to the goal of their endeavors.

There are four safes in the shop. One contains nothing but cash. The burglars did not touch that. The big steel vault was tested. The bolts were removed, but the cracksmen found it too difficult and they went to another room where there is a large safe five feet high.

They selected an easy spot and struck through the sheet iron and thus reach the tumblers of the lock. Here the cracksmen showed they knew the style of the newest safes, but they did not know the exact position of the lock in a safe made years ago.

They selected an easy spot and struck through the sheet iron and thus reach the tumblers of the lock. Here the cracksmen showed they knew the style of the newest safes, but they did not know the exact position of the lock in a safe made years ago.

They selected an easy spot and struck through the sheet iron and thus reach the tumblers of the lock. Here the cracksmen showed they knew the style of the newest safes, but they did not know the exact position of the lock in a safe made years ago.

They selected an easy spot and struck through the sheet iron and thus reach the tumblers of the lock. Here the cracksmen showed they knew the style of the newest safes, but they did not know the exact position of the lock in a safe made years ago.

They selected an easy spot and struck through the sheet iron and thus reach the tumblers of the lock. Here the cracksmen showed they knew the style of the newest safes, but they did not know the exact position of the lock in a safe made years ago.

They selected an easy spot and struck through the sheet iron and thus reach the tumblers of the lock. Here the cracksmen showed they knew the style of the newest safes, but they did not know the exact position of the lock in a safe made years ago.

They selected an easy spot and struck through the sheet iron and thus reach the tumblers of the lock. Here the cracksmen showed they knew the style of the newest safes, but they did not know the exact position of the lock in a safe made years ago.

They selected an easy spot and struck through the sheet iron and thus reach the tumblers of the lock. Here the cracksmen showed they knew the style of the newest safes, but they did not know the exact position of the lock in a safe made years ago.

They selected an easy spot and struck through the sheet iron and thus reach the tumblers of the lock. Here the cracksmen showed they knew the style of the newest safes, but they did not know the exact position of the lock in a safe made years ago.

M'MILLAN ARCTIC SHIP FAST AGROUND

Steamer Carrying Explorers Comes to Grief Off Newfoundland Coast.

St. JOHN'S, N. F., July 17.—The sailing steamer Diana, conveying the McMillan Arctic expedition northward, went ashore last night in a dense fog at Hagar Point, forty miles west of Battle Harbor, Belle Isle Straits.

The expedition, headed by Donald B. McMillan, to explore Crocker Land, was sent out by the American Geographical Society and the American Museum of Natural History.

The schooner stopped at Boston to take on supplies and left that port July 5. She sailed from Sydney, N. S., July 12. With Donald B. McMillan sailed Maurice C. Tanquary, zoologist; W. Elmer Ekblaw, geologist and botanist; Elmer Fitzgibbon, Green, physicist and engineer; Dr. Harrison J. Hunt, surgeon; Lee Allen, electrician and wireless operator; Judge Carroll H. Spriggs and Frank Patterson of Dayton, Ohio, who expected to return on the Diana after the expedition.

Enough provisions and utensils were taken along for four or five years in the Arctic. At Boston the Diana took on 10,000 gallons of oil and 14,000 pounds of pemmican.

It was in 1906 that Peary, on the north-east extremity of Axel Heiberg Land, saw Crocker Land and believed the beginning of a new Arctic continent.

Wilson Not Aimed At. Business Men Say Walker Merely Chose Compromise Man.

TRANTON, N. J., July 17.—With Chancellor Edwin Walker absent in Europe and former Senator James Smith, Jr., of Newark uncommunicative at his summer home in Elberon, the trouble which has been started by the appointment of Mr. Smith as an appraiser in the Prudential Life Insurance Company's mutualization scheme does not seem likely to cut a serious figure in Jersey politics for some time at least.

Reports from Washington that President Wilson regarded the appointment of Senator Smith by Chancellor Walker as a step in the detourment of the President from his position of influence in New Jersey politics are not taken seriously here.

Friends of the Chancellor say that he would be the last man in the world to harm President Wilson's power in New Jersey. He was appointed by Mr. Wilson when the latter was Governor, and has been regarded as a "Wilson man."

His selection of Smith to serve on the mutualization committee is regarded by business men as a wise move. The former Senator is prominent in business circles and as head of the Federal Trust Company in Newark is regarded highly as a banker, qualifications which should fit him eminently for the appraiser's place, according to his friends and the Chancellor's.

Wilson supporters here said that they think the President has been misled by Senator Smith, who is at odds with Mr. Wilson personally and politically, they can be no question of the business ability of the former State boss.

Jersey G. O. P. Bans Moose. County Chairman Decide Two Parties Can't Amalgamate.

TRANTON, N. J., July 17.—Representatives of twelve counties who attended a meeting of the Republican Association of County Chairmen here to-day agreed that any further attempt to amalgamate the Republican and Progressive parties in New Jersey would be futile.

This determination does not go so far as to exclude from consideration many Republicans who joined in the Bull Moose movement last year, but are willing to enroll as Republicans for the gubernatorial campaign next fall.

The decision does, however, place the ban of the association upon any plan looking toward the endorsement of former Senator Everett Colby as the candidate of the Republican party. He is seeking the Progressive nomination.

Troops to Stop Race Betting. Gov. Ralston's Secret Agent Reports 400 Gamblers at Track.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 17.—Troops of the State of Indiana will be awaiting the coming of the first horses that start in races scheduled to be begun August 21 at the Mineral Springs racetrack if Gov. Ralston retains the conviction he announced to-day that a secret system of gambling has been going on at the track. Because the present meet will close on Saturday the Governor will not order out the troops before August 21.

CAUGHT AFTER SIX MONTHS. John H. Hornung Arrested on a Grand Larceny Charge.

John H. Hornung, alias J. H. Harrison, was arrested yesterday at Greenwich and Liberty streets by Detectives Gallagher and Seully, who have been looking for him since February with a bench warrant charging grand larceny.

Hornung had worked for a year as an accountant for the advertising agency. He made friends in the office and interested them in stock schemes which Gordon lost $1,000. Others who lost were A. L. Stiffen of 5 Cortlandt street, $100; A. P. Timoney of 455 Fourth avenue, $2,600, and H. J. Prudden of 456 Fourth avenue, $250.

According to the police Hornung left a trail of bad checks in New Jersey and this city. They say that four weeks ago he cashed a bad check on the Harriman National Bank in the Catherin cafe, at Seventh avenue and Twenty-seventh street, and two for $20 apiece at the Kaiserhof and that he bought an outfit of clothing store and paid for it with a worthless check for $50.

While working at the Lesan agency, according to the police, Hornung raised a check from $25 to $225 and another for $100. The police say he was sentenced in 1907 to five years in Sing Sing for forgery.

MRS. TATUM HELD ON HER SISTER'S CHARGE

Cotton Broker's Wife Gives $2,000 Bail for Appearance Before Grand Jury.

ANSON, N. Y., July 17.—Mrs. John C. Tatum, wife of the New York cotton broker, was held for the Grand Jury by Justice of the Peace C. E. Johnson here to-day after the further hearing of the assault charges made by Miss Kathryn MacArthur, Mrs. Tatum's sister. The charge is assault in the second degree.

The Grand Jury will not meet until October. Mrs. Tatum's bail was fixed at $2,000, and this was furnished by her husband through the National Surety Company of New York.

One of the witnesses of the day was Mrs. Robert T. Parrish of Shavertown, at whose home the assault is alleged to have been committed on July 1. Miss MacArthur was there recovering from an operation for appendicitis. She said on the witness stand that her sister, who had come up from her home at Great Neck, L. I., had beaten her into insensibility when she refused to go to her home with her and also refused to marry Julius Peters, a New York manufacturer, as Mrs. Tatum wished.

Terrence McManus, counsel for Mrs. Tatum, continued his cross-examination of Miss MacArthur, first asking her if it was not true that she did not think of bringing this action until she saw her father after she had returned to his home on Long Island, and then his attorney, Mr. Stewart. This she admitted. She testified that she said to her father: "I suppose Mama (Mrs. Tatum) has not told you about how she beat me up when she came up to Parrish's?"

A letter from the witness was shown her and she admitted writing it. In this she told of her affection for Julius Peters.

Miss MacArthur asserted on the witness stand, however, that Mrs. Tatum dictated this letter and that it did not express her feelings.

Miss MacArthur was asked again about Dr. Mason, and she said she met him in 1912. She was not allowed to tell how she knew Dr. Mason was not married.

Dr. F. W. McFarland of Jamaica, L. I., testified that Dr. Mason was divorced and had never had children. He said he had examined Miss MacArthur on July 5 and found abrasions and marks on her neck and shoulders which were the result of violence.

ECZEMA BROKE OUT AS RASH IN PATCHES

Like Ringworm, Itched So Would Scratch Until Faint, Ashamed to Go Out. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured in Three Months.

150 Central Ave., Red Bank, N. J.—"About ten years ago a little itching started in my nose and kept creeping out until it spread over one side of my face. The rash kept spreading on, on my forehead and in my hair. The eczema broke out as a rash in patches like ringworm. It itched so badly I would scratch and rub it until I became faint. My hair had been coming out gradually previous to the breaking out and then it just fell out where those patches were. I was a sight and ashamed to go out for a month. I was compelled to wear a veil. At night was when the itching was worst.

"I tried different things, but nothing seemed to allay that itching. I was told of the Cuticura Soap and Ointment and I got some Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment and began using them. Right away I began getting relief and in a few days the rash was healed and the Cuticura Soap and Ointment took every pimple or blemish off of my face. In three months' time I was entirely cured and have never been troubled since." (Signed) Mrs. Carrie Goode, Apr. 21, 1913.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment do so much for pimples, blackheads, red, rough skins, itching, scaly scalp, dandruff, itching and falling hair, chapped hands and shapeless nails with painful finger-ends, that it is almost criminal not to use them. Sold throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

N. Y. ATHLETIC CLUB OLD BOYS MEET AGAIN

Celebrate 25th Anniversary of Travers Island's Opening.

TAKES THREE WHOLE DAYS Men Who Once Were Great, but Wouldn't Be Taken for Athletes Now.

With the possible exception of the reunion of the Blue and the Gray at Gettysburg recently, there hasn't been anything of its kind so touching in recent years as the assemblage of the old black and blue boys at Travers Island yesterday when the New York Athletic Club began its three days celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the opening of the island. Almost all of the oldest record holding athletes of other days were on hand to make a pretense of going through the things they used to do when they were 200 or more pounds lighter.

Past World's Champion. The oldest living athlete, known affectionately as Pop Carter, was on hand. Pop appeared in a rolling chair with a trained nurse and a keeper protesting violently against his participation in the games. Old Pop Carter at one time held all the running records from two miles up to ten, and for twenty-three years he held the American amateur record for the five mile jaunt. Eddie, as his friends call him, finally was arrayed in his athletic B. V. D's and was sent once around the 352 foot track; and as the old man, panting from his exertion, said when he was led back by his keeper and the attractive little nurse to his rolling chair: "Don't forget those two extra feet when telling about the 352 feet length of the track."

Old Jim Mitchell, who used to hold not only American and Irish, but world's records for weight lift, now came onto the athletic field—now bordered by beautiful girls—and attempted to throw the shot. But the old man's long white beard got in his way. He was just about to leave the shot when he stepped on his beard, whereupon the event was called off. Old man Mitchell while being led off the field cried bitterly in the silly way old men cry because he had failed to perform as well as old Eddie Carter had done. An ambulance was called and the relatives were notified.

Bill H. Pake, president of the New York Athletic Club, made a speech out on the field to an audience that included not only the old timers but the record holders of to-day. Bill's speech was the beginning of the celebration.

More Old Timers. Among those standing about and applauding were Harry E. Buermeyer, who is the only survivor of the three founders of the club and has done many for amateur athletics in this country than any one else, also, it should be recorded, the first American shot putter; Donald MacDougal, American cycling champion; Bernie Wefers, Homer Baker, national half mile champion; old man Bill Inglis, who many years ago was a star oarsman; Jerry Mahoney, ex-champ high jumper; Alfred H. Curtis, champ walker; back in '75; Fred Portmeyer, the club swimming champion in 1888; Dr. Graeme M. Hammond, renowned as a rower, fencer and runner in the dim past; George D. Phillips, who held the skating record in 1867; Oscar L. Richards, who was some high jumper in 1876; James E. Sullivan, Pooah Bah of athletics, and back in 1877 a regular walker.

W. O'Connor, the folk champion in 1889; J. M. Breen, bowling champ two years earlier, and Old Bill Bavler, the tug of war celebrity of 1888, also were among the group listening to President Pake's speech.

When dusk and dinner had vanished there was dancing. To-day there will be sports and another dance. The "silver jubilee" will wind up to-morrow with a baseball game, other games and vaudeville performance at 8:30 P. M.

One Killed, Three Hurt in Crash. CINCINNATI, July 17.—William Gerlach, 29, was killed and his brother Carl, 32, suffered a fracture of the skull in a collision between two automobiles here to-day. Two more persons were hurt.

Summer Resorts. NEW YORK. Long Island. The Most Attractive Country Hotel Adjacent to New York City—Garden City Hotel.

MANHATTAN BEACH. "New York's most popular and fashionable resort by the sea." Average temperature 70° to 75° during the season. Surf bathing, deep sea fishing, tennis, croquet, outdoor sports, electric train service, 20 minutes to New York City.

SARATOGA SPRINGS. New York State guarantees the waters and offers them to you free. Bathing facilities, motor buses, and touring cars meet all trains. Beautiful country for motoring, with pleasant excursions to nearby resorts.

Hotel Kaaterskill. CATSKILL MOUNTAINS. Altitude 3,000 feet. Located on the Empire Turnpike. New open, motor buses, and touring cars meet all trains. Automobiles to hire. Direct parlor car service to Hotel Station.

THE THOMPSON HOTEL. LAKE MAHOPEA, N. Y. Select family hotel. Superior accommodations. Motor buses and touring cars meet all trains. Illustrated booklet. Emerson Clark Prop.

BRETTON WOODS. WHITE MOUNTAINS, N. H. THE MOUNT PLEASANT HOTEL. NOW OPEN. THE MOUNT WASHINGTON HOTEL. NOW OPEN.

EDGWOOD INN. GREENWICH, CONN. New York's Ideal Suburban Hotel. 28 Miles from Town.

DR. GIVENS SANITARIUM. FOR NERVOUS DISEASES. Is located at Stamford, Conn., 50 minutes from New York City and 30 minutes from Hartford. A separate cottage is provided for persons desiring the use of drugs and stimulants.

Prizes for Resort Pictures. THOUSANDS of remarkable photographs of people and scenes are taken each season at all of the resorts.

THE SUN intends to print a lot of them and will give two prizes every week of $10 and $5 each for photographs of this nature for publication in THE SUNDAY SUN.

There Are No Conditions. The contributor's name and address should be plainly written on the back of each photograph submitted, as well as the title of the picture.

All photographs submitted to become the property of The Sun.

THE Ideal Tour. A Thousand Miles Through New England's Scenic Wonderland, in the Mecca of the Motorist.

THE Ideal Tour. A Thousand Miles Through New England's Scenic Wonderland, in the Mecca of the Motorist.

THE Ideal Tour. A Thousand Miles Through New England's Scenic Wonderland, in the Mecca of the Motorist.

THE Ideal Tour. A Thousand Miles Through New England's Scenic Wonderland, in the Mecca of the Motorist.

THE Ideal Tour. A Thousand Miles Through New England's Scenic Wonderland, in the Mecca of the Motorist.

THE Ideal Tour. A Thousand Miles Through New England's Scenic Wonderland, in the Mecca of the Motorist.

THE Ideal Tour. A Thousand Miles Through New England's Scenic Wonderland, in the Mecca of the Motorist.

THE Ideal Tour. A Thousand Miles Through New England's Scenic Wonderland, in the Mecca of the Motorist.

THE Ideal Tour. A Thousand Miles Through New England's Scenic Wonderland, in the Mecca of the Motorist.

THE Ideal Tour. A Thousand Miles Through New England's Scenic Wonderland, in the Mecca of the Motorist.

THE Ideal Tour. A Thousand Miles Through New England's Scenic Wonderland, in the Mecca of the Motorist.

THE Ideal Tour. A Thousand Miles Through New England's Scenic Wonderland, in the Mecca of the Motorist.

THE Ideal Tour. A Thousand Miles Through New England's Scenic Wonderland, in the Mecca of the Motorist.

THE Ideal Tour. A Thousand Miles Through New England's Scenic Wonderland, in the Mecca of the Motorist.

THE Ideal Tour. A Thousand Miles Through New England's Scenic Wonderland, in the Mecca of the Motorist.

THE Ideal Tour. A Thousand Miles Through New England's Scenic Wonderland, in the Mecca of the Motorist.

THE Ideal Tour. A Thousand Miles Through New England's Scenic Wonderland, in the Mecca of the Motorist.

THE Ideal Tour. A Thousand Miles Through New England's Scenic Wonderland, in the Mecca of the Motorist.