

When the news of Mr. Lind's departure from Vera Cruz, Mexico capital reached Washington last night hope was expressed by many that it presaged a settlement of the part of Huerta to the American representations for his self-appointment.

This hope, however, was short lived, for official despatches from Mexico City today strengthened the impression that Huerta is determined to stand firmly against the demands of the United States.

The conclusion, therefore, was forced on Washington observers that the Administration is placing its last card in ordering John Lind back to the Mexican capital.

That Mr. Lind went to Mexico City not on his own initiative was learned here today. As to the immediate purpose of his visit and the outlook for developments from it Washington officials were silent.

It was announced that President Wilson and Secretary Bryan are hopeful that Mr. Lind, appearing as the direct spokesman of the President of the United States, will be more an impression upon Huerta than has Nelson O'Shaughnessy, the American Charge d'Affaires in Mexico City.

The belief here is that Mr. Lind will react, probably with greater forcefulness, the representations made by Mr. O'Shaughnessy that this Government will expect Huerta to fulfill his pre-election pledges and eliminate himself from the situation. It is believed also that Mr. Lind will again make it clear that the United States Government will not be satisfied with the naming of Gen. Blanquet as President of Mexico.

Mr. Lind has come back to Mexico City to try again what moral suasion can do. He will attempt to persuade Huerta that it will be for the good of all concerned, including himself and Mexico and the United States Government, for him to keep his word and yield to the representations of this Government.

That these efforts of Mr. Lind are likely to fail, but as his previous efforts of the same character yielded notable results, he is believed to have been imbued with positiveness by unofficial news from Mexico today.

President Huerta was represented as having determined upon a formal reply to the demand of the United States. Furthermore, it was said that Huerta and his Cabinet had decided to inform the United States that this Government had no right, legal or otherwise, to demand Huerta's elimination.

Mexican people cannot or do not establish peace and order among themselves. They would then, when they are stripped of all revenue and fired their last round of ammunition, march the American army into the capital, take possession of the republic, issue a military order cancelling the Japanese and foreign land concessions.

I would issue another military order breaking up the big estates in Mexico and order them sold in small tracts to any purchaser of the white race, open up the remaining public land to honestest Mexican citizens only, giving relief to the people of that country; establish universal public schools for the education of

What ought to be done now is that this Government should issue a decree ordering the border of Mexico and take possession of every revenue custom house, throw the navy into every custom port and take possession of the coast and cut off Huerta and the insurgent forces off from every cent of revenue.

ASSAILANT SAYS DIAZ WAS THE OFFENDER

Both Admit That the General Can Use the Umbrella With Telling Effect.

TWO TALES OF STABBING

Diaz Says That He Tried to Avoid Trouble After Insulting Remarks.

HAVANA, Nov. 7.—Two different versions are told of the encounter between Gen. Felix Diaz and Carranza adherents last night, as a result of which Pedro Guerrero Mendez is in the hospital with a bullet in his abdomen. He is expected to die.

Gen. Diaz is nursing a broken finger and knife wounds in his head and neck. Guerrero Mendez was a Colonel of regulars in the Madero administration.

Gen. Diaz said to-day that he left the Hotel Inlaterra at 10 o'clock in the evening with Cecilio Ocon and Dr. Angel Malda, both of whom accompanied him in his escape from Vera Cruz, and Henry Berliner, an American. They strode down the Prado and took seats near the pavilion in the Malecon to listen to the military band.

Gen. Diaz said he then was forced to defend himself. He struck the man with his umbrella, while his friends jumped to his aid. A shot rang out and Guerrero Mendez fell. Gen. Diaz said that he believed the attack was premeditated.

On the other hand, Guerrero Mendez, who has written several articles about Gen. Diaz in the Havana newspapers, said Diaz was lying when he said he did not know him. His friends, all Carranzistas, bear him out in this respect.

Both Gen. Diaz and Guerrero Mendez are under arrest in the hospital and the latter in the former, to await further investigation by the police. There will be another hearing in court on Sunday.

Equitable space, with all its advantages, is reasonable to rent

IN the ordinary course of events, the location of the Equitable Building, its accessibility and its fame, its last-minute conveniences and equipment, would be employed to justify high rents. But the Equitable Building is as far removed from the ordinary course of events in its rentals as its architecture is removed from the two-story building traditions of the past.

Leaves now being made from May 1, 1915. The building, however, is due to be completed 2 or 3 months ahead of this date.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—The scout cruiser Chester left the navy yard here at noon today for Vera Cruz, Mexico. The Chester should reach Vera Cruz by Monday noon, according to Commander Moffet.

The crew of 250 on the Chester and the officers seemed to be glad to be off. The very uncertainty as to what awaits them at Mexico aroused their interest.

Commander Moffet said he really did not know what the cruiser was to do. As soon as he arrives in Mexican waters he will report to Admiral Fletcher in command of the second division of the Atlantic fleet.

The Chester is one of the fastest boats of her type in the navy. Her draught is so light that she can venture close in shore.

RUSSIAN POST OFFERED TO PINDELL FOR A YEAR. Senator Lewis Wrote Potential Ambassador That It Would Be a Fine Honor.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—President Wilson is said to have the appointment of Henry W. Pindell, newspaper owner of Havana, Ill., for the Ambassadorship to Russia, if the original Wilson man, Senator Lewis in August wrote Mr. Pindell that as "the original Wilson man," he should be taken care of.

In his letter Mr. Lewis stated that a condition would be made that would give Mr. Pindell the opportunity of remaining at the end of the year. The Ambassadorship, the letter continued, would be almost in the nature of a junket, with few political matters to bother with and plenty of side trips.

Now the letter of Secretary Bryan says the offer, "is that if you would accept the place of Ambassador to St. Petersburg, and all the honor that goes with the position, you could resign in a year—say October 1, 1914—and return to your paper before losing track of your business affairs and yet have the great honor attached to the place."
