

HARVARD BEATS PRINCETON, 3-0

Continued from Second Page.

Brickley, diving through an opening in Princeton's left wing, emerged behind the rush line travelling at top speed. He slipped and fell, but jumped up and continued. He dodged Baker and slipped again. Up he leaped and sprinted some more. Then Glick made a grab for him but missed and Brickley, now under full headway, had covered twenty yards when he was rushing up behind him, made a cooking tackle on Princeton's line. Bradlee, however, was an easy victim when he butted into E. Trenkman, so Harvard tried a forward pass. Glick caught the ball, but it was brought back and Princeton got 15 yards for holding.

PRINCETON'S DYING CHANCE.

Harvard's punts short and tigers get ball in Poes' Ground. More sparring was necessary so the players could see what they were about before the final period was begun. With the ball on Harvard's 8 yard line Harvard resumed play with a three yard gain and made a punt towards Princeton's line, therefore, stood behind the goal line to receive the ball, which must have weighed a ton. He kicked it with all his might, but the leather failed to respond to the impetus, for it sailed into the air almost perpendicularly and then dropped out of bounds at Harvard's 24 yard mark, having traveled a distance of less than twenty yards.

Up leaped old Nassau alive to the situation and urging Baker to get in a drop kick which if successful would tie the score. Baker, however, wasn't ready to attempt this play, for he evidently thought that the rushing game might be productive of a touchdown. He was right. But the Princeton captain soon discovered that rushing the Harvard line was valueless for Glick and Street were stopped in their tracks by heavy tackles, so that the third down it was necessary to gain ten yards.

When Baker concluded to try a drop kick he cleared his shoes carefully and gave the signal on the 35 yard line. The ball was passed perfectly to him, but the Harvard forwards simply tore the Princeton defence to tatters and just as Baker called out the ball Princeton got away the way. The ball struck Pennock on the shoulder and a fierce struggle for its possession followed. A Harvard man fell on the 25 yard line and Princeton groaned.

Once more Harvard attempted to kick the ball out of danger, but he had no power left in his leg and when the ball sailed into the air it fell on the 35 yard line there was wild laughter as Street, who chanced it, collided with Coach Haughton and buried him in a mountain of straw. Haughton, unharmed, joined in the laughter as he picked up his coat. He discovered that the carnation still remained in his buttonhole.

Here was another opportunity for Princeton and Old Nassau was abuzz with excitement. Baker decided to elect another attack, but Street, in spite of bulldog grit, failed to gain more than two yards.

Hobey Can't Raise the Ball.

"Kick a goal, Hobey, kick a goal!" roared all Princeton, and Baker, as a last resort, took up his position on the 39 yard mark. Again the ball was passed perfectly to the Princeton captain and this time his protective hands were on the Princeton tuckers at bay. But Baker's kick was a soft failure. The ball left his toe and dribbled along the ground without rising more than a foot. Princeton's Hobey, with his great bulk, almost knocked the wind out of the Harvard's poor kicking guard in his retirement in favor of Mahan and the latter kicked back for a take punt, enabled Brickley to make the longest run of the game.

Around Princeton's left end came Brickley with ruse Harvard men dashed along in front of him bowling over tuckers. Brickley dodged here and there, using a straight arm now and then to upset an opponent, and finally after covering sixty yards with a clear head ahead of him he was deprived of a probable touchdown by an attack in the rear on the part of Hallin, who literally dragged him down on Princeton's left end. Harvard's poor kicking guard, who had retired in favor of Mahan and the latter kicked back for a take punt, enabled Brickley to make the longest run of the game.

Brickley's left end came Brickley with ruse Harvard men dashed along in front of him bowling over tuckers. Brickley dodged here and there, using a straight arm now and then to upset an opponent, and finally after covering sixty yards with a clear head ahead of him he was deprived of a probable touchdown by an attack in the rear on the part of Hallin, who literally dragged him down on Princeton's left end. Harvard's poor kicking guard, who had retired in favor of Mahan and the latter kicked back for a take punt, enabled Brickley to make the longest run of the game.

Brickley's left end came Brickley with ruse Harvard men dashed along in front of him bowling over tuckers. Brickley dodged here and there, using a straight arm now and then to upset an opponent, and finally after covering sixty yards with a clear head ahead of him he was deprived of a probable touchdown by an attack in the rear on the part of Hallin, who literally dragged him down on Princeton's left end. Harvard's poor kicking guard, who had retired in favor of Mahan and the latter kicked back for a take punt, enabled Brickley to make the longest run of the game.

Brickley's left end came Brickley with ruse Harvard men dashed along in front of him bowling over tuckers. Brickley dodged here and there, using a straight arm now and then to upset an opponent, and finally after covering sixty yards with a clear head ahead of him he was deprived of a probable touchdown by an attack in the rear on the part of Hallin, who literally dragged him down on Princeton's left end. Harvard's poor kicking guard, who had retired in favor of Mahan and the latter kicked back for a take punt, enabled Brickley to make the longest run of the game.

Brickley's left end came Brickley with ruse Harvard men dashed along in front of him bowling over tuckers. Brickley dodged here and there, using a straight arm now and then to upset an opponent, and finally after covering sixty yards with a clear head ahead of him he was deprived of a probable touchdown by an attack in the rear on the part of Hallin, who literally dragged him down on Princeton's left end. Harvard's poor kicking guard, who had retired in favor of Mahan and the latter kicked back for a take punt, enabled Brickley to make the longest run of the game.

THREE YOUNG GIANTS OF ST PAUL'S

The bulwarks of the powerful line of St. Paul's school, Garden City. From left to right—Hall, left tackle, weight 185, height 6 feet 2 inches; Woodburn, centre, weight 170, height 5 feet 10 inches; Brown, left tackle, weight 160, height 5 feet 10 inches. These three have proved thorns in the side of every team they have faced this year.

N. Y. U. SMOTHERED BY SYRACUSE OPEN PLAY

Up-State Men Have Things Their Own Way and Score 48 to 0.

LONG RUNS ARE MANY

AMHERST SUBS DOWN W. P. I.

Second String Men Aid in Beating Engineers, 38 to 0.

AMHERST, Mass., Nov. 8.—Amherst gave almost all its substitutes a chance today and defeated Worcester Tech by the score of 38 to 0. Amherst at no time had difficulty in making gains through the Worcester line and used several forward passes for long gains. The Engineers were dangerous only one time, when a long pass in the fourth period brought the ball to Amherst's 10 yard line, but there they were held for downs.

Warren made several sensational runs and Hubbard made heavy gains through the line. Swasey too was a good runner, gaining on forward passes for Amherst, while Cain and Kelley were the only regular features of the W. P. I. eleven.

QUEAL'S TEAM TAKES HONORS.

Harvard Furnishes First and Second Men, but Yale Wins Out.

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 8.—The Yale cross-country team won from Harvard here today, 25 points to 35, over the hardest cross-country course a Yale team has ever traversed. The Yale runners completely upset Harvard calculations by a victory, for since the race became an annual event six years ago Yale has failed to win.

Capt. Boyd of Harvard finished first today, with Blackman of Harvard second. The next five places went to Yale, how the Harvard team as a whole found the pace too hard, though Capt. Boyd's performance of covering the six mile course in 46 minutes 7 1/2 seconds is considered exceptional.

Today's victory in cross-country comes as a result, partly at least, of the methods adopted by Billy Queal, who came to Yale 4 years ago as coach for distance runners. The summary:

Table with columns: Name, Team, Time. Lists results for various runners from Harvard and Yale.

Club Cocktails advertisement. Text: 'No one can mix two cocktails equally well by guesswork. The whole charm of a cocktail is in the smoothness that comes from accurate blending and aging. That is why Club Cocktails are always fine and smooth—mixed to measure, of the best liquors—then aged in wood. Get your favorite kind at your dealer's. G. F. HEUBLEIN & BROTHER, New York, Hartford, London.'

NAVY SURPRISES BY OBSERVING BUCKNELL

Midshipmen Flash Every Kind of Play and Run Up a Big Score.

BACKS PLAY THEIR PART

Bucknell Brace Results in One Score to 70 Points for Victors.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 8.—The Naval Academy astonished its most sanguine friends this afternoon by winning from Bucknell, a team which had showed high class play by beating Cornell and Pittsburgh by 70 to 7. The powerful Navy line and hard hitting backs were the main factor in this surprising victory, but the local team showed a good variety of plays and met with some success with the forward pass. Nibolik, who played quarter during about half the game, electrified the spectators by his wonderful display of passing. This line, consisting of the forward pass, Nibolik, who played quarter during about half the game, electrified the spectators by his wonderful display of passing. This line, consisting of the forward pass, Nibolik, who played quarter during about half the game, electrified the spectators by his wonderful display of passing.

Bucknell took a creditable brace at the beginning of the second half and made the only score of the third quarter, though the ball was left inside their 5 yard line at the end of the period, and the midshipmen had no difficulty in taking it over on the first play of the final period.

Derry's run of sixty yards, carrying the ball to Navy's 30 yard line, made a better turn for the visitors. Ten yards were gained on a forward pass and fifteen on a run by the Navy's leading runner, but the ball was carried over another five yards, but the ball was carried over another five yards, but the ball was carried over another five yards.

Both of these hefty backs played wonderfully during the passing game, the Navy's leading runner, but the ball was carried over another five yards, but the ball was carried over another five yards, but the ball was carried over another five yards.

The Navy used the forward pass with fair success only. Long gains were made on passes to Gilbert and Ingram, but they probably would have been completed or yielded the ball to the other side.

Sturgis got off passes of wonderful length for Bucknell, but they were not accurately aimed as a rule and the ball was caught by a Navy player much more often than by a Bucknell man. He worked a new stunt of passing the ball as far as he could and beyond the side line, using the end of the field for his target, and thus guarding against a run back.

As in the other games this season, the Navy lost heavily through the infiltration of penalties. Brown, Howe and Emerson were caught for roughing. The Navy contingent is delighted beyond measure by the showing of its team today and feels that it is as strong as any in the country.

Naval Academy Positions: Bucknell. Center: Gilbert, Ingram, Sturgis. Right guard: Gilbert, Ingram, Sturgis. Left guard: Gilbert, Ingram, Sturgis. Quarterback: Gilbert, Ingram, Sturgis. Fullback: Gilbert, Ingram, Sturgis. Running back: Gilbert, Ingram, Sturgis. Tackle: Gilbert, Ingram, Sturgis. End: Gilbert, Ingram, Sturgis.

Naval Academy Positions: Bucknell. Center: Gilbert, Ingram, Sturgis. Right guard: Gilbert, Ingram, Sturgis. Left guard: Gilbert, Ingram, Sturgis. Quarterback: Gilbert, Ingram, Sturgis. Fullback: Gilbert, Ingram, Sturgis. Running back: Gilbert, Ingram, Sturgis. Tackle: Gilbert, Ingram, Sturgis. End: Gilbert, Ingram, Sturgis.

MORRIS RACES FOR TIE.

Receives From Poor Start and Scores Touchdown in Last Quarter.

PERKSVILLE, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Morris High School's football team recovered from a bad start in its game with the Perksville team, scoring a touchdown in the last quarter. Morris led the score, 6 to 6. The catch scored in the first quarter on a straight football, being scored from the 1 yard line on a punting play.

Wagner's Men Take Johns Hopkins Into Camp by 61 to 0.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 8.—Outmatched in every department of the game the Johns Hopkins football team was defeated this afternoon at Homewood by the Johns Hopkins team by the score of 61 to 0.

COMMERCE ESCAPES DEFEAT.

Forward Pass in Last Minute Gains Tie With Stuyvesant.

A forward pass across the Stuyvesant goal line from Gunther to Hoyer in the last minute of play saved Commerce High School from defeat by Stuyvesant High School at Manhattan Field yesterday. The final score was 7 to 7.

CHAMPIONS IN THEIR FIRST YEAR

Gilbert E. Tomlinson of Philadelphia, 15 years old, national half mile swimming champion. Joseph C. Whentley, seventeen-year-old swimmer of the New York Y. C., holder of the national quarter mile title.

EXETER BEATS ANDOVER, MAKING RECORD SCORE

Enright Star in Long Delayed Victory Won With Team

EXETER, N. H., Nov. 8.—Phillips-Exeter Academy swamped Phillips-Andover in the annual football game between the two big prep schools this afternoon. The score was 55 to 6. Exeter's speedy and powerful line played true to form and overpowered their opponents. It was the first victory the home team has won over Andover since 1904 and the score was the largest ever rolled up since 1878, when eleven representing the two academies first met on the gridiron.

While the Exeter team played together in splendid style the work of several individuals stood out prominently. Enright, the ankle footballer, alone scored 35 points for his school. He made four touchdowns, kicked eight goals and booted the ball over the bar from placement. He is going to enter Harvard next year. Exeter's backs tore off long runs and the forward pass was worked successfully, they tossing to Enright over the goal line for Exeter's seventh touchdown.

How hopelessly Andover was outclassed is shown by the fact that its eleven did not have the ball in Exeter's territory at any time during the game and only once made a first down on rushing. In the first period Kempton and Enright each made a touchdown. During the second period Kempton scored another touchdown and Enright kicked a goal from placement, standing on the 35 yard line.

During the third period Enright scored two touchdowns and kicked a goal. He added in the final period when Andover was about all in. Not a change was made in the Exeter lineup during the game, while Andover shifted players frequently. The lineup:

Exeter Positions: Andover. Center: Kempton, Enright, Sturges. Right guard: Kempton, Enright, Sturges. Left guard: Kempton, Enright, Sturges. Quarterback: Kempton, Enright, Sturges. Fullback: Kempton, Enright, Sturges. Running back: Kempton, Enright, Sturges. Tackle: Kempton, Enright, Sturges. End: Kempton, Enright, Sturges.

Exeter Positions: Andover. Center: Kempton, Enright, Sturges. Right guard: Kempton, Enright, Sturges. Left guard: Kempton, Enright, Sturges. Quarterback: Kempton, Enright, Sturges. Fullback: Kempton, Enright, Sturges. Running back: Kempton, Enright, Sturges. Tackle: Kempton, Enright, Sturges. End: Kempton, Enright, Sturges.

FARMERS ARE GOOD RUNNERS.

Win Cross-Country Run From Amherst, 22 to 30.

AMHERST, Mass., Nov. 8.—Amherst and the Massachusetts Aggies had a good set to in cross-country running today. The Aggies winning 22 to 30. Amherst improved its score by good running at the end of the race, advancing some of its runners several places. Herd did exceptional work in this respect. Coming into the field for the last two laps a poor runner, he showed a remarkable amount of speed, that he had gained him fourth place.

Richard and Coley of M. A. C. ran a fine race and although they were hard pressed by Heaver, finished in good places. The runners were placed as follows:

PENN GETS SOME CONSOLATION.

Freshman Runners Win From Dartmouth, 24 to 33.

HANOVER, N. H., Nov. 8.—Pennsylvania got some consolation for its football team's defeat by Dartmouth, when the Philadelphia freshman cross-country team defeated the Dartmouth team yesterday. The race was run under poor conditions in a cold rain in the good time of 25 minutes 4 seconds.

Devo, the Pennsylvania star, ran a brilliant race, receiving a number of good finishes, when he pulled past Capt. Moor of Dartmouth. The summary:

Devo, Pennsylvania, 23:04. Moor, Dartmouth, 23:10. Devo, Pennsylvania, 23:10. Moor, Dartmouth, 23:10. Devo, Pennsylvania, 23:10. Moor, Dartmouth, 23:10. Devo, Pennsylvania, 23:10. Moor, Dartmouth, 23:10.

Colgate Runners Triumph.

HAMILTON, N. Y., Nov. 8.—The Lafayette cross-country team met defeat here today at the hands of the fast Colgate team, 20 to 35. The course was an exceedingly difficult one, of six miles, and was covered in the fast time of 32 minutes 2 seconds. Bernstrom of Colgate was first.

Sewanee Defeats Alabama.

BIRMINGHAM, Nov. 8.—Sewanee and Alabama were about evenly matched, and a day's game belonged to either side until the final whistle blew. Sewanee won 10 to 7. Open work, forward passes, and double passes featured the game.

FORDHAM TAKES TIME TO TIE BOSTON

Recovers From Slump and Squares Score Near End of Game.

BOTH TEAMS TALLY 27

O'Connell's Long Forward Passes for Maroon Game Sensational Game.

Although heavily outweighed, Fordham dominated solely upon its own half, open a riot of attack, awoken from a slump after the first half and outplayed their opponents at all stages, tying the Boston College eleven at 27 points. The game was decidedly sensational. A pair of goals were scored from the kickoff in 6 seconds each. McDonough did the trick for Fordham after a ninety yard run, and later for Boston. These touchdowns were the fastest ever seen on Mason Field.

RITCHIE TO BOX MURPHY.

Match Made Without Regard to Outcome of Cross Bout.

Wills Ritchie vs. Harlem Tommy Murphy at San Francisco, December 5. This match was clinched here yesterday when Harry Fisher, manager of the lightweight champion, telegraphed to James W. Coffey at San Francisco formally accepting an offer for the bout. The match was made without regard to the outcome of Ritchie's battle with Leon Cross here tomorrow night.

Ritchie declared himself in first class shape last night. "I weighed just 133 1/2 today after light work," he said. "I feel as strong as I could wish to be, and if Cross can't last I will have no excuse."

"Did you notice I said 133 1/2?" Ritchie continued. "Well, that's correct. A lot of the fellows seem to think I'm a white horse in weight, but I want to tell you that about 133 pounds is natural for me. It's my best weight."

Box Cross and Ritchie have practically finished training and will weigh in Monday evening an hour before the bout. Each is almost certain to make the weight of 135 easily.

ARMY TRAMPLES OVER MARYLAND FARMERS

Bettors Score Made by Middies Against Aggies by Running Up 77 Points.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Outdoing their Navy rivals, who recently buried the Maryland "Agiess" under a 76 to 0 score, the Army sent the middies one today and harvested 77 points in a rout against Albright. The Pennsylvania Aggies failed to tally and were never dangerous.

Albright presented a heavy aggressive eleven, but the Army's terrific line smothered the work with the forward pass speared disaster for the visitors.

The cadets ran up eleven touchdowns, eight touchdowns and one goal from placement. The score at the end of the first half was 41 to 0. Hobbs was the star of the Army backfield. Hodgson, Milburn and Enright also showed brilliant play. Hobbs scored four touchdowns, one of them after a 75 yard run. Enright duplicated the run a moment later when he rushed Albright's kickoff 75 yards for a touchdown.

The field was heavy and the ball wet, but there were few fumbles. Dowdell and Higgins did the best work for Albright. The lineup:

Army Positions: Albright. Center: Higgins, Dowdell, Higgins. Right guard: Higgins, Dowdell, Higgins. Left guard: Higgins, Dowdell, Higgins. Quarterback: Higgins, Dowdell, Higgins. Fullback: Higgins, Dowdell, Higgins. Running back: Higgins, Dowdell, Higgins. Tackle: Higgins, Dowdell, Higgins. End: Higgins, Dowdell, Higgins.

PRO GUNNERS DO BEST WORK.

Shoot Only for Targets, However, and Get No Prizes.

Professional gunners did the best work in the weekly shoot of the Marine and Field Club yesterday. The professionals shot for targets only, however, and therefore they were not eligible for any of the prizes. The shooting was won by E. S. Hyatt, although E. G. White, a professional, had the best score.

The same gunner led in the shoot for the club's trophy. The 25 targets were won by E. S. Hyatt, although E. G. White, a professional, had the best score.

PIMLICO RACING RESULTS.

First Race: Two-year-olds, six furlongs. Time, 1:12. 1st, 113; 2nd, 114; 3rd, 115; 4th, 116; 5th, 117; 6th, 118; 7th, 119; 8th, 120; 9th, 121; 10th, 122.

Second Race: Six furlongs. Alabama, 1:09. 1st, 113; 2nd, 114; 3rd, 115; 4th, 116; 5th, 117; 6th, 118; 7th, 119; 8th, 120; 9th, 121; 10th, 122.

Third Race: Seven furlongs. Strenuous, 1:16. 1st, 113; 2nd, 114; 3rd, 115; 4th, 116; 5th, 117; 6th, 118; 7th, 119; 8th, 120; 9th, 121; 10th, 122.

Fourth Race: Steeplechase, two and a half miles. The Wellin, 1:57. 1st, 113; 2nd, 114; 3rd, 115; 4th, 116; 5th, 117; 6th, 118; 7th, 119; 8th, 120; 9th, 121; 10th, 122.