

The Sun MONDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1913. Entered at the Post Office at New York as Second Class Mail Matter.

Subscriptions by Mail. Postpaid. DAILY, Per Month, $0.80. DAILY, Per Year, $9.00. SUNDAY, Per Year, $2.00. DAILY AND SUNDAY, Per Year, $11.00. DAILY AND SUNDAY, Per Month, $0.92.

Published daily, including Sunday, by the Sun Printing and Publishing Association at 170 Nassau street, in the Borough of Manhattan, New York.

London office, Elmham House, 1 Arundel street, Strand. Paris office, 4 Rue de la Michodiere, off Rue du Quatre Septembre.

Our friends who favor us with manuscripts and illustrations for publication with have received articles returned they must in all cases send stamps for their purpose.

To-day's Million. At noon Saturday the Y. M. C. A. campaign clock registered $2,991,342. At noon to-morrow, if New York voters to hold her head up among cities of a noble civic patriotism, the clock will have stopped at $4,000,000.

The Navy After the Canal is Opened. It was reported some time ago that Secretary DANIELS would recommend in his annual report the authorization of more than one battleship by Congress at the regular session.

Theatrical Experience and the Public Taste. The taste of the public is sometimes difficult to understand by those who make its study their special task.

The Navy, says Captain KNAPP, should be strong enough to safeguard our interests and meet any probable attack in either ocean and not leave our interests unguarded in either.

A Santago Orator. From Santago the Colonel continues to pour words for home consumption against the judiciary of his country.

Names in the Kentucky Mounts. No one practice in this country needs correction more than this one of calling the Marthas Marth, and the Lizettes Liz, and the Elizas Izis, and the Mosses Mose, and the Massons Mac, and the Tobiaszes Tobe.

A Nafe Policy. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: We often hear it said that it would be a long step ahead in practical temperance if people would drink only mild wines and beer.

Her Tax. Of all the varied forms of woe there's one, just one, I do not know: In smiles, broad smiles, I can relax. When asked about my income tax.

Another Nuts Great Heir of Fame. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: Among the glorious names of nomenclature don't overlook the somewhat forgotten name known as the HAZARDVILLE, N. Y.

Walter Who is Not Naughty. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: I am informed by a person who says he has had it successfully that when a man is under the influence of liquor he can sober himself by swallowing a couple of mouthfuls of salt.

Her Tax. Of all the varied forms of woe there's one, just one, I do not know: In smiles, broad smiles, I can relax. When asked about my income tax.

Another Nuts Great Heir of Fame. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: Among the glorious names of nomenclature don't overlook the somewhat forgotten name known as the HAZARDVILLE, N. Y.

Walter Who is Not Naughty. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: I am informed by a person who says he has had it successfully that when a man is under the influence of liquor he can sober himself by swallowing a couple of mouthfuls of salt.

their having any real knowledge of or understanding sympathy with the lives and needs of the ordinary hard working toilers.

This must be absolutely unintelligible in Chile. Should a Judge not be trained in the law? Does the Colonel want his Judges, unhampered by any training? Do Judges spring from some aristocracy of the long robe?

Certain Reasons for Confidence. In the threatened conflict of Democratic and Republican investigations of alleged corruption in this State we can see only one cause for alarm.

Our own opinion is that neither Governor GLYNN nor Mr. WHITMAN desires or intends that the activities now in progress under his direction shall be perverted from an honest design.

The taste of the public is sometimes difficult to understand by those who make its study their special task. The theatre managers are never able to decide on just what their patrons may care for or how long their disposition toward any form of entertainment may continue.

The composition of the fleet will be little affected by the existence of the finished canal. All classes of fighting ships will be as much needed after the canal as before, and their numbers and proportions deemed requisite for the duty in either ocean will be necessary, canal or no canal.

The Navy, says Captain KNAPP, should be strong enough to safeguard our interests and meet any probable attack in either ocean and not leave our interests unguarded in either.

A Santago Orator. From Santago the Colonel continues to pour words for home consumption against the judiciary of his country.

Names in the Kentucky Mounts. No one practice in this country needs correction more than this one of calling the Marthas Marth, and the Lizettes Liz, and the Elizas Izis, and the Mosses Mose, and the Massons Mac, and the Tobiaszes Tobe.

A Nafe Policy. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: We often hear it said that it would be a long step ahead in practical temperance if people would drink only mild wines and beer.

Her Tax. Of all the varied forms of woe there's one, just one, I do not know: In smiles, broad smiles, I can relax. When asked about my income tax.

Another Nuts Great Heir of Fame. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: Among the glorious names of nomenclature don't overlook the somewhat forgotten name known as the HAZARDVILLE, N. Y.

be no objection. It is always delightful to contemplate. But wit and melody are much more important to the enjoyment of the audience, and if performers in a play are able to act and sing there is still greater entertainment for the public.

The Mail Vans. The exemption from traffic restrictions enjoyed by the United States mails in the highways of New York was conferred on the vans transporting them in the belief that the special privileges thus accorded to them would be decently used.

Our own opinion is that neither Governor GLYNN nor Mr. WHITMAN desires or intends that the activities now in progress under his direction shall be perverted from an honest design.

The taste of the public is sometimes difficult to understand by those who make its study their special task. The theatre managers are never able to decide on just what their patrons may care for or how long their disposition toward any form of entertainment may continue.

The composition of the fleet will be little affected by the existence of the finished canal. All classes of fighting ships will be as much needed after the canal as before, and their numbers and proportions deemed requisite for the duty in either ocean will be necessary, canal or no canal.

The Navy, says Captain KNAPP, should be strong enough to safeguard our interests and meet any probable attack in either ocean and not leave our interests unguarded in either.

A Santago Orator. From Santago the Colonel continues to pour words for home consumption against the judiciary of his country.

Names in the Kentucky Mounts. No one practice in this country needs correction more than this one of calling the Marthas Marth, and the Lizettes Liz, and the Elizas Izis, and the Mosses Mose, and the Massons Mac, and the Tobiaszes Tobe.

A Nafe Policy. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: We often hear it said that it would be a long step ahead in practical temperance if people would drink only mild wines and beer.

Her Tax. Of all the varied forms of woe there's one, just one, I do not know: In smiles, broad smiles, I can relax. When asked about my income tax.

Another Nuts Great Heir of Fame. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: Among the glorious names of nomenclature don't overlook the somewhat forgotten name known as the HAZARDVILLE, N. Y.

Walter Who is Not Naughty. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: I am informed by a person who says he has had it successfully that when a man is under the influence of liquor he can sober himself by swallowing a couple of mouthfuls of salt.

"LET THE RICH DO IT." Millionaires should pay for the Navy and Everything Else. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: Under the caption "Let the Rich Do It" you remark: "In some measure they carry the load of the nation's debt, hospitals, colleges, humane societies, libraries, etc., that it is at least desirable whether or not they help them keep up the navy."

The Disappearance of George L. Bushnell. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: My husband, George L. Bushnell, mysteriously disappeared from his home Sunday, September 7, 1913. He left his home at 28 Child street, Rochester, N. Y., at 10:15 P. M., with the intention of looking for a job, but he has not been heard from since. This worries me more and more every day, as I am sure he has either met with some terrible accident or been kidnapped.

Tenon and Turk. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: Since your editorial articles gloried over the alleged failure of German military training as demonstrated by recent Turkish defeats, which were nothing less than fore-runners of disaster to the German arms.

The Scots in the North of Ireland. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: Permit me to say through the columns of your much esteemed paper that the word Scotch-Irish has always been used in speaking of the descendants of the Scotch people who came to this country during the early part of the seventeenth century.

The Seven Only Original Birthplaces. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: There's more to the immortality of Homer's birthplace than Francis Lynde Stetson recalls, and it's also more than the one particular, as I recall it from the "Anthologia Latina," the distich runs: Septem urbes certae de stirpe Inaigis.

Care of Canaries. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: Will some of your readers who have had the same canary die these years give a concise method for their daily care, seeds and how to purchase the best quality? NEW YORK, November 23. READER.

Miners' Omen of Ill Luck. From the London Chronicle. Women, like rabbits, are of ill omen to the miner. In many places, particularly in Wales, if a pitman meets or sees a woman walking in the direction of his mine, such an encounter is held to forebode evil not only to the man himself but all his associates.

Names in the Kentucky Mounts. No one practice in this country needs correction more than this one of calling the Marthas Marth, and the Lizettes Liz, and the Elizas Izis, and the Mosses Mose, and the Massons Mac, and the Tobiaszes Tobe.

A Nafe Policy. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: We often hear it said that it would be a long step ahead in practical temperance if people would drink only mild wines and beer.

Her Tax. Of all the varied forms of woe there's one, just one, I do not know: In smiles, broad smiles, I can relax. When asked about my income tax.

Another Nuts Great Heir of Fame. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: Among the glorious names of nomenclature don't overlook the somewhat forgotten name known as the HAZARDVILLE, N. Y.

Walter Who is Not Naughty. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: I am informed by a person who says he has had it successfully that when a man is under the influence of liquor he can sober himself by swallowing a couple of mouthfuls of salt.

THE MEXICAN QUARREL. A Vigorous Declaration Against Intervention Except as a Last Resort. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: In reference to the Mexican imbroglio and the talk of armed intervention in that country, which has been going on for some time, under the pretext of a revolution, I would like to say that the United States should be called upon to sacrifice many thousands of lives, many hundreds of millions of dollars, and to incur an additional mortgage on its future in the shape of an additional pension roll for such a purpose.

The Disappearance of George L. Bushnell. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: My husband, George L. Bushnell, mysteriously disappeared from his home Sunday, September 7, 1913. He left his home at 28 Child street, Rochester, N. Y., at 10:15 P. M., with the intention of looking for a job, but he has not been heard from since. This worries me more and more every day, as I am sure he has either met with some terrible accident or been kidnapped.

Tenon and Turk. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: Since your editorial articles gloried over the alleged failure of German military training as demonstrated by recent Turkish defeats, which were nothing less than fore-runners of disaster to the German arms.

The Scots in the North of Ireland. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: Permit me to say through the columns of your much esteemed paper that the word Scotch-Irish has always been used in speaking of the descendants of the Scotch people who came to this country during the early part of the seventeenth century.

The Seven Only Original Birthplaces. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: There's more to the immortality of Homer's birthplace than Francis Lynde Stetson recalls, and it's also more than the one particular, as I recall it from the "Anthologia Latina," the distich runs: Septem urbes certae de stirpe Inaigis.

Care of Canaries. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: Will some of your readers who have had the same canary die these years give a concise method for their daily care, seeds and how to purchase the best quality? NEW YORK, November 23. READER.

Miners' Omen of Ill Luck. From the London Chronicle. Women, like rabbits, are of ill omen to the miner. In many places, particularly in Wales, if a pitman meets or sees a woman walking in the direction of his mine, such an encounter is held to forebode evil not only to the man himself but all his associates.

Names in the Kentucky Mounts. No one practice in this country needs correction more than this one of calling the Marthas Marth, and the Lizettes Liz, and the Elizas Izis, and the Mosses Mose, and the Massons Mac, and the Tobiaszes Tobe.

A Nafe Policy. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: We often hear it said that it would be a long step ahead in practical temperance if people would drink only mild wines and beer.

Her Tax. Of all the varied forms of woe there's one, just one, I do not know: In smiles, broad smiles, I can relax. When asked about my income tax.

Another Nuts Great Heir of Fame. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: Among the glorious names of nomenclature don't overlook the somewhat forgotten name known as the HAZARDVILLE, N. Y.

Walter Who is Not Naughty. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: I am informed by a person who says he has had it successfully that when a man is under the influence of liquor he can sober himself by swallowing a couple of mouthfuls of salt.

THE ANTHRACITE ROADS. And the Price of Coal. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: The Interstate Commerce Commission, the Department of Justice and all sorts of different State commissions and departments seem to be engaged in a century and a half of fruitless and costly litigation, and it looks as though they will continue to do so for an indefinite time to come.

The Disappearance of George L. Bushnell. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: My husband, George L. Bushnell, mysteriously disappeared from his home Sunday, September 7, 1913. He left his home at 28 Child street, Rochester, N. Y., at 10:15 P. M., with the intention of looking for a job, but he has not been heard from since. This worries me more and more every day, as I am sure he has either met with some terrible accident or been kidnapped.

Tenon and Turk. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: Since your editorial articles gloried over the alleged failure of German military training as demonstrated by recent Turkish defeats, which were nothing less than fore-runners of disaster to the German arms.

The Scots in the North of Ireland. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: Permit me to say through the columns of your much esteemed paper that the word Scotch-Irish has always been used in speaking of the descendants of the Scotch people who came to this country during the early part of the seventeenth century.

The Seven Only Original Birthplaces. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: There's more to the immortality of Homer's birthplace than Francis Lynde Stetson recalls, and it's also more than the one particular, as I recall it from the "Anthologia Latina," the distich runs: Septem urbes certae de stirpe Inaigis.

Care of Canaries. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: Will some of your readers who have had the same canary die these years give a concise method for their daily care, seeds and how to purchase the best quality? NEW YORK, November 23. READER.

Miners' Omen of Ill Luck. From the London Chronicle. Women, like rabbits, are of ill omen to the miner. In many places, particularly in Wales, if a pitman meets or sees a woman walking in the direction of his mine, such an encounter is held to forebode evil not only to the man himself but all his associates.

Names in the Kentucky Mounts. No one practice in this country needs correction more than this one of calling the Marthas Marth, and the Lizettes Liz, and the Elizas Izis, and the Mosses Mose, and the Massons Mac, and the Tobiaszes Tobe.

A Nafe Policy. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: We often hear it said that it would be a long step ahead in practical temperance if people would drink only mild wines and beer.

Her Tax. Of all the varied forms of woe there's one, just one, I do not know: In smiles, broad smiles, I can relax. When asked about my income tax.

Another Nuts Great Heir of Fame. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: Among the glorious names of nomenclature don't overlook the somewhat forgotten name known as the HAZARDVILLE, N. Y.

Walter Who is Not Naughty. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: I am informed by a person who says he has had it successfully that when a man is under the influence of liquor he can sober himself by swallowing a couple of mouthfuls of salt.

SEES LOSS TO MANY IN INCOME TAX LAW. Analyst of Act Predicts Trouble in "Manufacturers Record."

POINTS TO "ABSDURITIES" Some Taxpayers, He Says. May Be Forced to Pay Four Times Amount Due.

So tangled are certain paragraphs of the income tax law and certain regulations framed by the Treasury Department officials regarding the administration of the measure, according to a writer in the "Manufacturers Record," that many people, especially those of moderate means, are in a state of confusion and uncertainty.

Says Difficulties Multiply. The writer refers first to the regulations issued by the Treasury Department providing that a withholding agent who pays monthly or periodically during the year rents, salaries, wages, etc., shall not withhold the tax until the year's salaries are made known to the revenue collector.

Illustrates "Absurdities." To show what he considers the "absurdities" of the law and the regulations, the writer then cites the following illustration: A bachelor, having a monthly salary of $400, has a family of four children.

Problem of Exemption. "It is objected to the new regulations with the exemption of the year's salary, one interpretation that the words 'total amount of income paid to any person by a withholding agent after deducting the tax thereon' mean the total amount of a sum in excess of $3,000 must actually pass from his employer to him after October 31 for withholding to be placed, after a year's work, in the hands of his employer for some time before reaching after October 31 an amount in excess of $3,000."

Another Nuts Great Heir of Fame. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: Among the glorious names of nomenclature don't overlook the somewhat forgotten name known as the HAZARDVILLE, N. Y.

Walter Who is Not Naughty. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: I am informed by a person who says he has had it successfully that when a man is under the influence of liquor he can sober himself by swallowing a couple of mouthfuls of salt.

Her Tax. Of all the varied forms of woe there's one, just one, I do not know: In smiles, broad smiles, I can relax. When asked about my income tax.

Another Nuts Great Heir of Fame. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: Among the glorious names of nomenclature don't overlook the somewhat forgotten name known as the HAZARDVILLE, N. Y.