

MANY NEW YORKERS ANSWER CALL OF WINTER RESORTS

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., Dec. 27.—Many of the winter resorts which have extended through the holidays will terminate in the first New Year's celebration and reunion at the New Greenbrier on Wednesday next. Five or six hundred guests are expected to attend the New Year's Eve ball. Numerous dinners will precede the dance and at midnight the new year will be welcomed in the winter conservatory. Tudor and main dining rooms of the hotel by supper parties that will include hotel visitors, members of the cottage colony and summer visitors, who are coming especially for the event.

In the list of those who will entertain are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie, Mr. Robert and Lady Hadfield, Otto T. Barnard, Gov. H. D. Hatfield, former Governor William A. McCallie, Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Steery, Robert Livingston, Mr. and Mrs. John Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Elkins, Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Slocom, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin B. Dyer, B. D. Panoast, Mrs. George Perkins and Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Parrish.

All the new dances will be seen on New Year's Eve, and it will be the first time in the history of the Springs that a big affair has not included a cotillon. For old time's sake, just after midnight the "White Sulphur" Ball will be revived and danced by eight matrons in costume. Parties are being made up in New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, and a special train will leave the Pennsylvania Station in New York on Tuesday afternoon at 5 for the accommodation of those who will come especially for the New Year's Eve celebration. A special train will leave here Sunday evening for New York, arriving there early Monday morning.

Two special trains arrived here this week. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie arrived this morning on a private car accompanied by Miss Margaret Carnegie to take the cure and remain for a month. Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell of New York and St. Louis and Miss Lois Campbell arrived last Sunday on a special train to spend three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert and Lady Hadfield arrived from Washington on Christmas eve and will remain for some time after the holidays. They will start after the new year to take the cure.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Bradley, who came from New York on Wednesday to spend the month of January before going to Palm Beach, gave a big old-fashioned Christmas eve party at the hotel. Mrs. Clarence Gray Dismore and Mrs. Sackett are arriving next week to spend January and February at the New Greenbrier. Mrs. Dismore is coming for her annual course of baths.

Registrations at the New Greenbrier include Mr. and Mrs. Irving G. Benjamin, Charles D. Owen, Leonard K. Smith, Miss Caroline C. Smith, Miss M. D. Smith, Miss Alice M. Ansell, Mrs. J. K. Seward, Mrs. H. D. Bird, Dr. Newton M. Shaffer, C. H. Jenkins, Farman, Yardley, Mrs. and Mrs. Squire, Mrs. Virginia B. Groves, Mrs. Charles Robertson, Mrs. E. C. Woodard, Miss Woodward, John K. Broderick, Joseph M. Hotel, E. G. Buckwell, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Packer, C. M. Seidling, R. K. Swartz, F. D. Mitchell, J. B. Browning, M. W. Mix, G. L. Reeves, Fred H. Payne and John Macomb.

Other arrivals during the week from the metropolitan district include: Laurelin-the-Pines—Mr. and Mrs. J. Tagliapietra, Mme. T. Corona Tagliapietra, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Campbell, H. J. C. Miller, B. R. Rasmus, Harry G. Rhelms, John S. Thacher, Jr., Miss Frances Thacher, Lionel Perera, Miss Alice Good, Willard Eaton, D. Dearborn, Mrs. A. M. Hoyt and Miss Hoyt of New York; Mr. and Mrs. William H. Good, John E. Binzee, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. McCullough, Frank B. Ketcham and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Lester of Brooklyn, and Philip Stevenson of Westbury, L. I.

Laurelin House—Miss Charlotte Peckham, Mr. and Mrs. Jules Stern, Charles F. Rogers, Mrs. J. L. Hutchinson, Miss V. Hutchinson, Miss Llewellyn Hutchinson, Miss Winifred G. White, Arthur Maurer, W. E. Miner, James T. Stanley and Thomas J. Powers of New York; Adrienne Korman, Mrs. A. N. Smith and Dr. W. E. Stratton of Brooklyn.

Battlet Inn—John L. Lewis, James L. Barney, Miss Grace Burns, Charles L. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. H. Gade, Dr. and Mrs. E. Norton, Mrs. H. A. Benedict, Mrs. W. A. Arnold, F. R. Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Bynkton and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. King of New York.

SANTA CLAUS AT PINEHURST.
PINEHURST, N. C., Dec. 27.—Interest in a busy week centered in the Christmas eve observance at the Hotel Carolina. The decorations included the transformation of the room of the music hall into a child's room with the huge dress place hung with stockings, which were later found to contain souvenir favors which Santa Claus assisted by youthful Kris Kringle distributed among the company. Two glittering trees at either side were also laden with gifts. Dancing rounded out the evening.

For the coming week the annual New Year's ball and an evening of vaudeville are planned.

Registered at the Carolina are Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Petro, Mrs. H. C. Wilson and Henry D. Wilson, Franklin Waterman, S. D. ...

ASHEVILLE HOLIDAY DANCES.
ASHEVILLE, N. C., Dec. 27.—Several large dances have marked the holiday season here and others are scheduled for the remainder of the year, the series to conclude with a fancy dress ball on New Year's eve at the Grove Park Inn.

A dance was given at the Country Club this afternoon and an evening dance took place there on Wednesday. A dance for the younger set was given on Christmas eve at the Battery Park Hotel.

After a short stay at the Grove Park Inn as guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Sealey, Mr. and Mrs. William Jennings Bryan have gone on to Miami, Fla., for the remainder of the holiday season.

The guests who arrived this week to spend the holidays at Grove Park Inn include Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Moore, Miss Moore and Kirk Moore of New York, Mr. and Mrs. William Best of Chicago and Miss Sarah Randolph Anderson of Savannah.

Mr. and Mrs. Norval Hawkins of Detroit remain at the inn until after the new year, when they go to Florida. They were members of a party of Grove Park Inn guests recently taken by George F. Baker on a private car to Hot Springs.

Other members of the party were Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Sealey, Mr. William Goody Low and C. D. Backus.

A party of guests from the inn made a trip to Mt. Pisgah on Sunday last on a Christmas giving tour. They carried all sorts of gifts for the mountain people living along the route to Pisgah, and scattered in their wake money, clothes, fruit and toys. The chief promoter of this trip was George Krome, of Santa Barbara, Cal., who with his family has spent a month at Grove Park Inn.

G. S. Eidenheim and Miss Bodenheim of New York have arrived in Asheville and are guests at the Battery Park Hotel. Other guests who recently arrived at the Battery Park are H. B. Lawford of New York, Mrs. Frank Cox and Miss Margaret Cox of Rutherford, N. C., and Mr. E. D. Tomhill of New York.

and balmly and sojourners have spent most of the daylight hours at golf, horseback riding and other outdoor sports.

FLLOWERS ABL00M IN BERMUDA.
HAMILTON, Bermuda, Dec. 23.—Activity is observable in all directions in Bermuda, for the winter tourist season has commenced. The hotels are all open. The roadsides are lined with hedges of green, with here and there the flowers of the gorgeous hibiscus. It is too early yet for the magnificent oleander flowers, but in due course their beautiful trusses of pink, white, crimson and other tints will enliven the landscape and enable the visitor to drive under overhead canopies of bloom.

Evening entertainments have begun. The Bermuda Dramatic Society presented last week Goldsmith's comedy "The Shoops to Conquer." Many persons of note in the social life of Bermuda took part and the governor of the colony was a patron of the production.

The Sunday morning music provided by the band of the Queens Regiment at the military camp, Prospect, near Hamilton, is a source of pleasure to visitors and residents alike, and interest is felt concerning the capabilities of the band of the Lincoln Regiment, which is due to arrive here about January 18. In accordance with British military custom a regiment serves about two years on this station, when another one takes its place. The band of the Queens, whose time here is almost ended, has been a great feature in connection with social life at the Hamilton Hotel one evening.

WINTER RESORTS. FLORIDA.
LAKEWOOD, N. J., Dec. 27.—Spring weather in Lakewood at the Christmas holiday was the novelty enjoyed early in the week by winter visitors, who took advantage of the mild weather to indulge in outdoor pastimes. The resort is gayly bedecked with holly and Christmas greens, but on the golf links golfers were playing in good weather and flagpoles were notched on the tennis courts and at the shooting traps. Canoes were brought out on Lake Carasallo and various gatherings were comfortable.

YULE LOGS AT HOT SPRINGS.
HOT SPRINGS, Va., Dec. 27.—Hot Springs filled up this week with holiday visitors who will be here till after New Year's. Several cottages were opened among them the Laurelin House and the Laurel Inn. Many of the guests who arrived this week to spend the holidays at Grove Park Inn include Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Moore, Miss Moore and Kirk Moore of New York, Mr. and Mrs. William Best of Chicago and Miss Sarah Randolph Anderson of Savannah.
