

World Tourers Reach Marlin--Hockey Championship Goes to St. Nicks--Mayer's Cue Behaves

McGraw Arrives to Take Hold of Giants

Tour Ends Officially With His Resumption of Regular Work at Marlin.

Donlin's Old Eye Young

First Act Hit Over Fence--Doyle and Thorpe Hammer Ball Hard.

MARLIN, Tex., March 11.—John McGraw and his fellow collectors of foreign hotel labels arrived this morning from New York and the Giants' contribution to the bank of nobles athletes who lately graced the Caves, the Mouski, the Honchodori, the Boulevard des Capucines, the Strand and other transoceanic thoroughfares joined their less travelled confreres and settled down for a stay in Marlin.

In the McGraw party, which came in a special car, besides the manager and the two athletes, were the U. S. A. will resume the normal tenor of their baseball life for a spell.

With the latest batch of Giants came a heavy rain last night and to-day was cold and windy. So McGraw was not able to resume charge with a practice game.

Nevertheless McGraw took hold with a firm grip and another batting practice work of his men before his first day in camp was over. Morning practice was called "mud or no mud, and everybody from globe girder to those who previous to coming to Marlin never had been across the Jersey flats was in the drill and engaged with equal earnestness.

In the afternoon McGraw summoned the youngsters to the field first and put them through another batting practice before the regulars arrived.

Bob Bescher hit with the regulars and Jim Thorpe went to the field to chase the ball. Most of the many pitchers were called on to pitch to the batters.

While the old stars were batting the Dallas infield was in position as well as Pies and Harrison of the outfield, and the work was quickened by two practices merged into one.

Asked if he was going to make any further effort to get Shiner, McGraw replied, "No, I think not. If he has made up his mind to retire we will have to make the best of it."

Thorpe and Donlin brought with them the latest in Parisian canes—malacca sticks with silver knobs and inlaid with silver letters, quite swaggar and strictly big league.

Asked if he was going to make any further effort to get Shiner, McGraw replied, "No, I think not. If he has made up his mind to retire we will have to make the best of it."

CUP RACES UPSET CUSTOM.

Long Island Yacht Body Forced to Rearrange Schedule Plan.

The annual meeting of the Yacht Racing Association of Long Island Sound was held in the Hotel Astor on Tuesday evening.

In addition to electing officers and members of the executive committee the delegates arranged the racing schedule.

Because of the dates already selected for the races for the American's cup and the schedule arranged for the races of the cup defenders a rearrangement of former schedules had to be made and it was late before all interests could be harmonized.

Things in yacht racing are upset generally this year. The cruise of the New York Yacht Club is a week earlier than usual and consequently the Larchmont race week had to be set earlier in the month. It will begin on July 11 and last until July 18.

The officers elected were Victor I. Cumnock, president; Stuyvesant Wainwright, vice-president; James W. Alker, secretary; E. S. Willard, treasurer and Horace E. Boucher, George P. Granbery, Victor I. Cumnock and Frank Bowne Jones, executive committee. The schedule of dates:

June 8, Knickerbocker Y. C. annual; 13, Larchmont Y. C. spring; 15, Manhattan Y. C. annual; 16, Seawanhaka Y. C. special; 17, Seawanhaka Corinthian Y. C. annual.

June 1, New Rochelle Y. C. spring; 2, Riverdale Y. C. annual; 3, American Y. C. annual; 4, Larchmont Y. C. annual; 11, 12, 13, Larchmont Y. C. race week; 18, Indian Harbor Y. C. annual.

June 1, Horse Shoe Harbor Y. C. annual; 8, Huguenot Y. C. annual; 15, Stamford Y. C. annual; 22, Stamford Y. C. annual; 29, Seawanhaka Corinthian Y. C. fall regatta; 5, Indian Harbor Y. C. fall regatta; 12, Fort Washington Y. C. annual.

NICKALIS BARS THE TANGO.

Chewing Gum Another Don't Hand-Out to Penn Oarsmen.

PHILADELPHIA, March 11.—For ten minutes Coach-Vivian Nickalis laid down the law for the University of Pennsylvania oarsmen in the dining room of Weightman Hall.

Eighty candidates listened to a plain, straight from the shoulder talk on what they should and should not do in preparing for the important races of the year.

"Don't dance," said the Red and Blue coach, among other things. "Don't smoke and don't chew gum. Get up at 12 every morning and be in bed by 10:30 every night. Run every morning before breakfast, be regular in all things, eat slowly and don't gulp your food down like a wild animal. Every candidate is to live up to the rules which I announce to-day. If he don't I'll get him," said the coach.

Failure to live up to Nickalis's rules will mean suspension. "I'll fire the best man in the boat if he doesn't obey my orders, and I'll find out too if they are violated," he concluded.

RITCHIE ARRIVES, BUT HIDES.

Wolgang Nurses Hand—Stout Selected as Referee.

MILWAUKEE, March 11.—Willie Ritchie arrived in Milwaukee to-night, but hid away from the fans, wishing to rest on the eve of his battle with Ad Wolgang.

The Cadillac wildcat put in another lively day of work to keep his wind in trim, but again failed to do any boxing, wishing to take no chances of further injury on the eve of the battle.

Wolgang's hand is still far from being in good condition, but Ad says he will be able to work with it Thursday night and is as confident as ever of victory over the champion.

The betting odds shifted about from 10 to 6 to 10 to 8, but most of the money was placed at 10 to 7.

Harry Stout has been agreed upon as the referee for the battle. This comes as a surprise, for it had been thought that Ritchie would insist upon George Duffy, but Stout, at first objected to by Ritchie because he allowed Wolgang to rough Joe Rivers, was selected to-day.
