SEASON OPENS AT HIGHLANDS.

The season of 1914 has begun in earnest at Atlantic Highlands, N. J., and large numbers of cottage owners are opening their country homes for the season.

Work has been completed on the Ocean Boulevard, which begins at Atlantic Highlands and continues down the coast to Cape May, a distance of 120 miles. Preparations have been made for the coming season and the roads throughout the section are as good as constant care and attention can make them.

The golf club, the scene of many a close contest between bears and bulls for the coveted bogey score is in condition for the coming season. The grounds are well maintained. The greens have been reseeded in places and carefully rolled until they are as velvet.

The tennis courts, which have been covered during the rainy weather, are now in shape for the opening contests, and the Atlantic Highlands Yacht Club will hold its inaugural reception of the season on Decoration Day.

The Casino on the bluff will be the center of social endeavor when it opens next month. The membership, which is limited to fifty, even now has few vacancies. The Edgerly orchestra has been engaged for the fifth consecutive season and the ballroom floor will be in excellent condition. The bowling alleys have been re-laid and the season's tournaments will begin as soon as the Casino opens.

Among the hotels opening Decoration Day are the Sea View House, the Lockwood and the Hollywood, the West End and the Bay View.

At the Sea View House reservations are being made daily. Among those registered are Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Carter and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Armstrong of New York, the Misses Caroline and Marguerite Sears of Newark, Mr. and Mrs. A. Geran of Brooklyn and Charles B. Porter of Buffalo.

Among those who have opened their summer cottages are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hauser, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Delmar, Mr. and Mrs. L. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. S. Lavine, Mr. and Mrs. D. Friedlander, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Gayer, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bonwit, Mr. and Mrs. E. Gerber, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Frelton, Mrs. F. Tiltonson, Mr. and Mrs. John Gemmill, Mrs. H. Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Woodruff.

Dancing holds sway at the Hotel Nassau, Long Beach, every week end. To the music of two fine orchestras many are dancing in the grill room and main ballroom.

On Saturday night Russell Merritt Page, who has charge of the dancing at the hotel for the season, pre-

NOTED TRIO MEET AGAIN.

Early Grey, Hammond and Burnham Were Friends in Africa. SAN FRANCISCO, May 16.—There has been a brief reunion here of three men who have become famous throughout the world. They were the British statesman Earl Grey, John Hays Hammond, noted mining engineer, and Major Fred R. Burnham, famous scout and soldier of fortune.

The three parted company last in Rhodesia in 1886. Then Earl Grey was the administrator of Rhodesia, Hammond was consulting engineer for Cecil Rhodes and the Goldfield Consolidated Mines of South Africa, Major Burnham was a scout for Lord Roberts, and he had just killed the noted Metebelle outlaw, M'Limbo, frustrating a projected massacre of the British settlers.

Major Burnham, hearing that Earl Grey was in San Francisco, came to the city from Three Forks to meet him. He brought a little gold nugget that he has carried as a talisman through all his adventures in different parts of the world and the treasured letter Lord Roberts wrote to him when he was invalided home. The report by Burnham to Earl Grey, the administrator, of the killing of M'Limbo is a noteworthy piece in British history.

The three talked affectionately of the stirring South African times for half an hour. Earl Grey left for Los Angeles, Burnham went back to Three Forks and Hammond remains here. They pledged to meet again before long.

Perilous Combination, Says Court. SHARON, Pa., May 16.—"Such a combination of colors will not work out and surely will result in domestic disturbance," said Justice Clingan of Farrell when Joseph Jones was arraigned on a charge of assault and battery preferred by his wife. The couple have red hair. Mrs. Jones alleged her husband struck her. Justice Clingan assessed Jones the cost.
