

SUNSHINERS WASTED CASH, SAYS REPORT

State Board Vigorously Criticizes Mrs. Alden and Her Organization.

CALLS FINANCING LOOSE

Finds Society Has No Legal Right to Conduct Homes—Ordered to Close.

The International Sunshine Society, with a charter permitting it to "spread sunshine into the greatest number of hearts and homes" and Mrs. Cynthia Westover Alden, its president, are vigorously attacked in a report unanimously adopted by the State Board of Charities on Tuesday and made public yesterday.

The report was made by a special committee appointed to investigate the society after THE EVENING SUN had published irregularities in the society's methods with regularity.

The report was made by William R. Stewart, committee chairman; Herman Fisher, J. Richard Kevin and Horace McGuire. It includes a plea for a further investigation. The committee had no power to look into the Sunshine society's accounts previous to its receipt of public money.

These, it thinks, should be given into and can be by a visitor appointed by the Supreme Court. The facts as yet discovered, it is thought, may lead to the annulment of the society's present charter, for the report is submitted to Attorney-General Carmody.

The findings of the State board are briefly: That the society has no legal right to conduct the "Sunshine Homes" or the "Home for Blind Babies" at Summit, and that all such work should be immediately discontinued.

Large Sums Misused.

Large sums of money given for charitable purposes have been improperly used in maintaining the Bensonhurst place as a losing business venture. Much of this money has been used "without business judgment or discretion and under circumstances which, to say the least, are peculiar."

Five thousand dollars was taken from the treasury of the separately incorporated "International Sunshine Branch" for the "Home for Blind Babies" at Dyker Heights, Brooklyn. This sum was used for the upkeep of the Bensonhurst Hospital. It is charged that at least $2,500 of this was unlawfully and improperly taken and should be restored at once.

The management of the money of the International Sunshine Society and the branch for the blind under the direction of Mrs. Alden has been "loose and careless and in some cases without warrant of law."

The report, testimony and all documents in the case have been referred to the Attorney-General for such action as he may find possible.

The International Sunshine Society has 2,666 branches and 300,000 members throughout the world, Mrs. Alden told the investigators. Her latest estimate of the total money collected and spent is $2,000,000. When she testified she said that she thought the society had received since its organization "close to $1,000,000."

Thinks Million Nearer Truth.

The State board inclines to think Mrs. Alden's first figure is nearer the truth. It is possible, apparently, to find out the exact amount received through title boxes, "empty stocking funds," "free beds for blind babies fund," and other appeals for special objects. Some of the society's books have been examined, and the ones available are so tangled that Saffern & Son, accountants, reached certain conclusions substantially as follows:

The record of contributions cannot be verified as complete. Specific funds have not always been used for the purposes asked.

Trust funds in the nature of endowments were invested in a participation in a mortgage. Steps were taken to transfer this mortgage to Mrs. Alden and others as security for delinquent taxes which have been incurred by the society. With the mortgage gone in this way the endowment fund was removed from the books by being charged to profit and loss.

The International Sunshine Branch for the Blind has acquired assets and paid obligations without keeping a record of either.

The account of Mrs. Alden on the basis of which she received the mortgage participation certificate for $25,000 appears to be incorrect and excessive.

Money has been spent to buy stock and pay deficits at Bensonhurst in a way to invite further investigation.

Got $50,000 From State.

The society got laws at Albany which enabled it to receive public money. The investigators doubt the constitutionality of these laws. One statute, secured in 1908, empowered New York city to pay the society a dollar a day for the care of each child, which was over twice as much as the city paid for the care of other young children. "With an enlarged plant and census there should be considerable profit in the care of children at this rate," the report comments.

A similar "dollar a day" law obtained in 1912 taxed the whole State, but exempted New York city children from any of its possible benefits.

Altogether the State board thinks that the Sunshine society has had at least $50,000 of public money.

The society has represented its Bensonhurst hospital as a charitable enterprise, but the State board finds that it is not one, since it cares for no person except the sons of from $10 to $20 a week. The society appears to have spent $2,427.56 in the last seven years acquiring the hospital and keeping it going.

There is sharp criticism for Mrs. Alden's methods in connection with the financing of the home.

MRS. ALDEN MAKES DENIAL.

In the Motive, She Says, for Charity Board's Charges.

Mrs. Alden, June 17.—Mrs. Cynthia Westover Alden, founder and president of the International Sunshine Society, who is appearing at a local hearing here, emphatically denied to-night every charge made against her by a committee of the New York State Board of Charities.

JUNIOR SUFFRAGE PARTY AIMS AT 100,000 MEMBERS

Young Girls to Be Enrolled to Help Their Elders in Organization Work.

The new Junior Woman Suffrage party had its first meeting at 48 East Thirty-fourth street yesterday. Only a small number was in attendance, as Junior and senior high school girls are busy with Regents' examinations this week, but 107 enrolments were turned in. The girls will help the group leaders of their districts by selling "Votes," buttons and banners at street meetings, securing membership pledges and distributing literature. They reported that their mothers were all suffragists, but most fathers would have to be converted—the first work they would undertake.

An application from one brother for membership was reported, but refused for the present.

Officers were elected as follows: Leaders, Jeanette Lener, Sixth Assembly district; Helen Hiech, Twenty-seventh Assembly district; Rebecca Rodofsky, Eighth Assembly district, and Jessie Kraus, Thirty-fifth Assembly district. All are students at Wadleigh High School.

The league owes its existence to Miss Flora Gopen, business manager of the Woman Voter. Miss Gopen hopes to enroll 100,000 members, young girls who are at work as well as schoolgirls.

DEFENDS CARNEGIE FOUNDATION

Secretary Denies Charge of T. W. Churchill That Religion is Attacked

Clyde Furst, secretary of the Carnegie Foundation for the advancement of Teaching, said yesterday that the attack by Thomas W. Churchill, president of the Board of Education, on the intent and purpose of the foundation was unfounded and incorrect in all its details. Andrew Carnegie was not in the act.

"The provision in the act of incorporation of the foundation to the effect that retiring pensions shall be paid only to teachers in institutions not under the control of a sect is administrative expediency. A foundation like this cannot, for instance, deal with a national organization like the Catholic Church."

Mr. Churchill charged that the foundation deliberately made a mark of the religious colleges and set about seducing them from their faith.

"It is not true," Mr. Furst continued, "that the foundation has ever objected to denominations. It has at present most cordial relations with the University of Chicago, a Baptist institution, and the Catholic University of America at Washington."

TANGO KILLS CAFE BOHEME.

Old Cafe Boulevard Site Can't Compete With Dance Belt.

A voluntary petition in bankruptcy was filed yesterday by the Alexander Restaurant Corporation, which runs the Cafe Boheme in the buildings long occupied by the old Cafe Boulevard, at 156 Second avenue. The Cafe Boulevard moved uptown last fall.

There was a time when almost everybody went to the old Cafe Boulevard once in a while to hear its famous Hungarian orchestra and to eat of well cooked and strange dishes. Since the cabaret and tango craze, which centered about the theatre section, began its successor has not done the business expected.

Berthold Herz, manager of the restaurant and secretary and treasurer of the company, said it was expected that the company would be reorganized and the business continued. The restaurant was open last night.

Among the creditors named in the petition are the St. Mark's Restaurant Company, which operates the Cafe Boulevard in its new home, Broadway, and Forty-first street, with a claim of $2,700, and Clinton M. Hall, president of the Alexander Restaurant Corporation, for $5,458.
