

CLERGYMAN BLAMES DEBT TO CHARITY EBB

Dr. Wasson Says He Can't Pay Rent Bill Because Philanthropy Halts.

GIFTS GO TO PAY SALARY

Strangers' Welfare Fellowship offerings slower than expected.

The Rev. Dr. James R. Wasson, former pastor of St. Thomas's Protestant Episcopal Church, former pastor of St. Mary's church at Taxedo and now chaplain of the old Guard and of the Rotary club testified in supplementary proceedings in the Supreme Court yesterday...

Dr. Wasson said that he wasn't able to pay the rent because funds have been coming so slowly into the treasury of the Strangers' Welfare Fellowship of 30 East Forty-second street, of which the clergyman is managing director and organizer...

Dr. Wasson said that he was living at 4 West Eighty-second street in an apartment costing $1,000 a year and that he had the rent with money contributed to the Strangers' Welfare Fellowship. He testified that while the late Bishop Potter paid his salary at $2,500 when the society was formed in 1907 he had never received that much because the society's finances have been too low. Last year he got only $2,500. He has received $1,000 for this year.

Dr. Wasson said he couldn't tell how much the society received in contributions, but he submitted the last annual report of the society, showing that of contributions of $2,500 and $411 were used in relief work. The rest went for expenses, including the Rev. Dr. Wasson's salary.

humor always present in his conversation which goes a good way toward convincing you of his integrity. Chipper is what Farrell is and he is a bit of a socialist too, which those who wish may store up to his discredit. But Farrell can speak for himself. Here is his story: "I went to Freeport on the night of the murder to look for work. I walked along the beach road until I reached this house (the Carman house). "I was hungry. I did not go in the front way, but started to go to the rear door. I saw a light there.

Frightened by Violator. "I was half way down the yard when I saw a tall woman in a kimono with a shawl about her shoulders. I was a bit frightened, for the woman was half running and I didn't know but that she was coming after me.

Then there was a crash of glass. That was enough for me. I was a stranger in Freeport, and I didn't know what was happening, but I was sure that I didn't want to get mixed up in it whatever it was. That's why I turned and made for the road.

Grand Jury of Nassau county, now in session: "I, the undersigned, do respectfully petition the Grand Jury now investigating the murder of Mrs. Lulu D. Bailey for permission to go before your body and make a statement in reference to any knowledge I may have in reference to the charge against me. I make this petition voluntarily and hereby waive any immunity which would ordinarily be afforded to me by reason of making any such statement, and I waive any and all rights, constitutional or statutory, which might belong to me relative to my going before the Grand Jury, and I want no protection of any kind or form, and I waive any and all rights, constitutional or statutory, which might belong to me relative to my going before the Grand Jury, and I want no protection of any kind or form, and I waive any and all rights, constitutional or statutory, which might belong to me relative to my going before the Grand Jury.

Doctor Expects Indictment. There was no attempt on the part of Dr. Carman and his attorney to delay or conceal their belief that Mrs. Carman is going to be indicted.

Agreement Was Signed. "Then we signed a stipulation and we understood that Mrs. Carman was to go before the Grand Jury. Now we are informed that Mrs. Carman cannot do this. The District Attorney has tried to get a decision, according to which, he says, Mrs. Carman cannot get her story before the Grand Jury, but we are preparing a petition to the Grand Jury asking that she be heard. We are sure that the Grand Jury cannot do anything else but dismiss the charge against her."

some attention, and this made his lady friend rather angry. It wasn't Mrs. Carman who was angry at all. And Mrs. Bailey wasn't there. It was only some old story—wherever I go I start something.

MRS. INNES, SEEKING SON, PLEADS IN VAIN

Police Tell Her They Can't Help in Search for Ten-Year-Old Boy.

SAY MRS. DENNIS IS FOUND

Woman Boy's Mother Accuses Said to Be Held in Biloxi, Miss.

Mrs. Clarence Viola Adele Sikes Innes, a cousin of the late Gen. Daniel E. Sikes, sought help in vain yesterday at the bureau of missing persons at Police Headquarters in her efforts to recover her ten-year-old son, James Sikes Innes, who she says was taken from her six years ago by her former husband, Lawrence Victor Elmore Innes.

Warrant Never Served. In 1907, after marital difficulties, Mrs. Innes said her husband one morning took their son James, then 4 years old, for an outing. She has seen neither of them since. She then obtained a warrant for him on a charge of abduction and it has never been served.

Mother Gets No Help Here. The report from Biloxi, Miss., is that Mrs. Dennis and her sister, Beatrice Nelms, had been located with two men on Pettit Island. Beatrice Nelms is said to have been positively identified, probably by detectives engaged by her mother. Attorney-General Lee has been telegraphed at Jackson for authority to hold the women.

These are the considerations In leasing space in a building, one must take into consideration the character of the space, its maximum utility and the cost as determined thereby; and after that, the location and accessibility of the building, the prestige of its address, the facilities of its service, and last but not least, the character of its rent roll. And it is just these considerations that are gradually filling up the Equitable Building. Leases now being made from May 1, 1915. The building, however, is due to be completed 2 or 3 months ahead of that date. Equitable Building Temporary Office, 27 Pine Street

Dr. Haven Emerson, Deputy Health Commissioner, said yesterday that the Board of Health at its next meeting would reinforce the Boylan drug law by passing an amendment to the Sanitary Code which would forbid the sale of domestic remedies such as paregoric except on a physician's prescription. Dr. Emerson said that he was convinced that drug victims have been buying paregoric since the Boylan law went into effect, as it does not restrict the dispensing of domestic or proprietary medicines, which contain no more than two grains of opium, or one-quarter of a grain of morphine or heroin.

Said to Be Blow to Theory That Ballou was Attacked in Flat.

STAMFORD, Conn., July 15.—If Mrs. Helen M. Angle is discharged next Monday, when a report is made in the title of "Every woman." "It was Sample, the Chicago lawyer-activist, who was at that time a guest of mine, who was present at the trial of the players, and invited them to the executive mansion after the performance. The party was entertained for an hour or so in the mansion library, refreshments were served. Mrs. Angle and I and several Jackson friends were present. "The first I ever heard of the divorce suit was a few weeks ago, when the Burns detective agency in New Orleans called me and stated that they had either a telegram from W. J. Burns, who was in New York, saying my name and that of Sample were being used in connection with the affair. I told the Burns agency that I knew nothing of anything of the case, that it was all news to me."

Retail Dealers Announce Expected Jump—Even Dolan's Tacks on a Nickel.

That part of the populace which is most advanced in its ideas is more trying to see the meat prices go up. For some the prices are soaring over their heads and the cost of living is becoming as buoyant as a gas balloon. Beef on the hoof is selling for the highest price known in years. Retail prices all over New York advanced from one to three cents yesterday, as forecast by the Sun. Sunday morning the last three weeks retail prices for better grades of beef have gone up from three to seven cents, and, according to some of the prominent dealers, the rise is permanent.

Leif Ericsson—The Discoverer of America

"NATIONAL HERO SERIES" NO. 5

THE FIRST WHITE MEN to tread American soil were Leif Ericsson and his sea-dashed Viking crew. This was nearly a thousand years ago, when the Scandinavian peoples ruled the seas and held the secrets of navigation. The history of the fair-haired, liberty-loving sons and daughters of Sweden, Norway and Denmark is rich in song and story. We have millions of these splendid folk in our own land, and wherever the standard of Liberty and Human Progress has been raised they are found in the front rank, bravely fighting for the Right. Better citizens or greater lovers of Personal Liberty are unknown. For centuries our full-blooded Scandinavian brothers have been moderate users of Barley-Malt brews. Who can truthfully say it has injured them in any way? It is the ancient heritage of these peoples to revolt at Prohibitory Laws, and their vote is registered almost to a man against such legislation. For 57 years Scandinavians have been drinkers of the honestly-brewed beers of Anheuser-Busch. They have helped to make their great brand BUDWEISER exceed the sales of any other beer by millions of bottles. Seven thousand, five hundred men, all in all, are daily required to keep pace with the natural public demand for Budweiser. ANHEUSER-BUSCH - ST. LOUIS, U.S.A.
